Local Notes.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Wescott are visiting friends in the City this week for the first time in four years. They are enroute from the Phillipine Islands to New York and will go east Thursday evening.

A jolly fishing party went out on Beaver creek last Sunday. Mrs. A. B. Clark served an elegant luncheon and dinner and all report a most enjoyable time. Those composing the party were: Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. John Dunigan, Jas. Holland, Tom Rutherford, F. N. Utter and Judge Pyper and the Misses Sanderson, Holland, Cosgrove, Leper.

Monday of last week J. J. Amlett, who has published the North Montana Review at Glasgow for some years, sold his interest in the paper to the Glasgow Publishing Co., a corporation composed of E. D. Coleman, J. L. Truscott, C. S. Hurd, Geo. E. Hurd, Thos. Dignan, Lyman Barnes, R. H. Copeland, A. W. Mahon and Wm. Barke, all of Glasgow. The paper will be democratic in politics and will be in charge of R. H. Copeland.

Jack Murphy an expert pressman employed by the McKee Printing Co. of Butte was in Havre this week and moved the Herald's large 2 revolution Potter newspaper press from the first floor into the basement. This piece of machinery weighs six tons and Jack's ingenuity was taxed to the limit with some of the larger pieces, but the press is now running better than ever and we would be pleased to show visitors any Wednesday afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock.

COLDS THAT HANG ON.
Cold that hang on in the spring deplete the system, exhaust the nerves, and open the way for serious illness. Take Foley's Honey and Tar. It quickly stops the cough and expels the cold. It is safe and certain in results. Beckstead drug store.

Mrs. Marie Michelson, a former employee of the Great Northern restaurant in this city, died at her apartments in the Buffalo block last Friday morning at five o'clock from erysipelas and blood poison. Her mother and a sister reside in North Dakota and her husband is somewhere in Canada. The body was taken in charge and prepared for burial by Undertaker Holland and the funeral was held from the undertaking parlors Monday of this week.

IT REACHED THE SPOT.

Mr. E. Humphrey who owns a large general store at Omega, O., and is Refuse substitutes. Beckstead Drug president of the Adams County Telephone Co., as well as the Home Telephone Co., of Pike County, O., says of Dr. King's New Discovery: "It saved my life once. At least I think it did. It seemed to reach the spot—the seat of my cough—when everything else failed." Dr. King's New Discovery not only reaches the cough spot; heals the sore spots and the weak spots in throat, lungs, and chest. Sold under guarantee at Boone's drug store, 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

20 TO 30 PER CENT. SAVED.

Lumber cut full size at my mill saves you 20 to 30 per cent. Measure up and compare with lumber from other mills. I only dress off about 1-16 and 1-8 or any amount you wish taken off of a stick the full size. You therefore get from 20 to 30 per cent. more lumber than is customary. Aint this worth saving? Jos. Guss-nhovez.

BAD ATTACK OF DYSENTERY CURED.

"An honored citizen of this town was suffering from a severe attack of dysentery. He told a friend that if he could obtain a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, he felt confident of being cured, he having used this remedy in the west. He was told that I kept it in stock and lost no time in obtaining it, and was promptly cured," says M. J. Leach, druggist, of Wescott, Vt. For sale by all druggists.

A CALIFORNIAN'S LUCK.

"The luckiest day of my life was when I bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve," writes Chas. F. Budhan, of Tracy, California. "Two 25c boxes cured me of an annoying case of itching piles, which had troubled me for years, that yielded to no other treatment." Sold under guarantee at Boone's drug store.

GOOD LINIMENT.

You will hunt a good long while before you find a liniment that is equal to Chamberlain's Pain Balm as a cure for muscular and rheumatic pains, for the cure of sprains and soreness of muscles. In the case of rheumatism and sciatica it relieves the intense pain and makes sleep possible. In case of sprains it relieves the soreness and restores the parts to a healthy condition in one-third the time required by the usual treatment. It is equally valuable for lame back and all deep seated and muscular pains. 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by all druggists.
