JOB WORK. SEE!

Locals.

The man with "influence" is now out of a job; the election is over.

Election day passed by uneventfully; we did not hear of a fight or even a serious dispute.

Clove Smith who was arrested in connection with the Mentzel murder case, has been released from custody on bail.

We are under many obligations to Mr. Callahan of the Sheriff's office for his kindness toward the PLAINDEALER.

The Lincoln Day Club report that they are feeling fine, thank you, as to the result of the recent election.

Preaching at St. James A. M. E. Church, cor., 5th ave., and Hoback street, Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7-30 p. m. by the pastor. Sunday School at 2 p. m.

We want at this office an intelligent young lady or man, who would like to learn the printer's trade, and to become proficient in the newspaper business. Inquire at our office, 21 South Main st.

Mr. Nathaniel Diggs of Boonville, Mo., is in the city looking for a location. Mr. Diggs is prominent in Masonic circles and we hope he will decide to locate in our midst.

J. W. Clarke has lost his cow. She strayed, is lost or was stolen, and any information looking to her recovery will be thankfully received by Mr. Clarke.

Mr. Harry Saulsbury desires to meet the young people of Helena and has called a meeting at Lloyd's Shoe Shining Parlors for Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock to arrange for a grand Easter ball.

The excellent essay read by Mrs. J. R. Alexander at St. James A. M. E. Church Sunday, March 25th, which we published in our last issue, we desire to give same a wider circulation, therefore we publish it again in this issue.

Lookout, there will soon be another enterprise started by our people in this city. Watch for the announcement and let the good work go on.

Mr. Geo. L. Alexander came into our office this week and left an order for cards and other job work. We appreciate the same and if all of our people would also do something like this, they would greatly assist in the progress of not only this enterprise, but the progress of the race as well.

The Sunday School scholars are out selling tickets for the grand Easter concert at St. James A. M. E. Church. Be sure and buy one.

Mr. Harry Simmons is in the city. He had the misfortune of being in a wreck on the road of which he is employed and was badly bruised up. His wounds were painful, but not serious, and instead of going to the hospital at Missoula, he came home to be with his family until he has recovered.

Mr. Chas. Johnson, janitor at the Granite Block, who relieves the elevator man at the noon hour in that building, had a sensational as well as a perilous descent on last Tuesday at noon. When on the 5th floor loaded with about a dozen passengers, the cables of the elevator suddenly broke and the entire load at a terrific rate took a decent to the basement. The escape of the passengers from serious injury was miraculous. While the elevator car was a complete wreck, the passengers, aside from a severe jolting and shaking up, escaped serious injury.

The Ladies' Aid Sewing Circle met Thursday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. A. Marshall. A pleasant and profitable session was reported. Next Thursday afternoon the Circle will be entertained by Mrs. Morris at the residence of Mrs. A. Napper.

Be sure and get one of those best shaves, shaves or haircuts at Lloyd's place under National Bank of Montana.

Mr. A. Marshall, Superintendent of St. James Sunday School, is busy training the scholars for their grand Easter Concert for the Monday evening after Easter.

Mrs. Jordan Allen is visiting in Butte.

There will be a general meeting of the citizens of Helena Monday evening at Lloyd's Shoe Shining Parlors. The meeting is called to discuss matters of vital interest to the welfare of the colored citizens of Helena. Everybody is requested to come out and take part in this meeting.

If you are a race man, and have the pride that goes with it, subscribe for THE PLAINDEALER and keep posted on the doings of the race.

We call special attention to the readers of this paper to our ad., columns and advise them to patronize those who patronize us and by so doing you will receive the full value of your money and at the same time show your appreciation of those who are willing to help a race enterprise.

Come in and see us and leave orders for all kinds of job work
