Preaching at St. James church 5th avenue and Hoback street, Sunday at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. by the pastor. Sunday school at 2 p. m., A. Marshall supt., Carrie Dorsey, Chorister, Florence Anderson, sect.

V. Rodgers our genial friend from Alhambra Springs was up from the springs Monday to attend Maharra's Minstrels and while here he visited the PLAINDEALER and left his subscription. Mr. Rodgers has charge of the Turkish Bath and Massage department at the springs.

J. W. McMoore of Lincoln, Nebr., is in the city. He is a nephew of Wm. Mason and will locate in Helena.

Presiding Elder Hubbard of the A. M. E. church, is in the city and he held quarterly conference this week at St. James church.

The PLAINDEALER is the recipient of many compliments for its newsy makeup in the last few weeks.

During the week we have had a good many complaints concerning the incorrectness of the list of officers in our church and society directory. If the secretaries, clerks and keepers of records and seals will furnish this office with a corrected list, we will be only too glad to make the necessary corrections.

Please notify this office when you change your address; or if your paper does not reach you regularly each week.

Maharra's minstrels which played at the Helena Opera house last Monday evening was without question the very best minstrel performance in that house in many years; it was refined and up to date in every way and they have some extraordinary good talent. Tim Owsley as a comedian is a star of the first magnitude. Taylor, Collins and in fact all their comedians showed class and their quartette is a phenomenal one in all parts. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall in their comedy act was the particular hit of the evening. The troupe carries a splendid band and orchestra under the direction of Prof. Billy Malone who is a finished musician and his band and orchestra can truthfully be ranked way up with the best.

The Odd Fellows annual sermon will be preached Sunday evening at St. James A. M. church by Rev. Jordan Allen.

J. W. Bush arrived in the city last week. He spent the winter in the Sunny South and has returned to good old Montana for the summer months.

Supt. Clarke of the Rocky Mountain Division of the N. P. R. R. is taking one of his famous fishing trips this week.

Mrs. Wm. Howard moved out near Fort Harrison last Saturday.

Mr. Cahart night janitor at the Union Depot reports many 'Frisco refugees passing through.

At the eleventh hour the great Maharra minstrel nine wired the Helena giants that they could not get in condition to play. A large delegation of fans were disappointed and the Giants robbed of their first victims.

The PLAINDEALER man will visit Butte and Anaconda next week in the interest of this paper.

Mrs. Lydia Allen left the city Thursday evening for an extended trip to prosecute her work as an evangelist.

Presiding Elder Hubbard left the city Friday for Great Falls where he will hold Quarterly meeting next Sunday.

The ladies sewing circle met last Thursday at the residence of Mrs. Harrison on the Lower Broadwater line.

Maharra minstrels were well patronized by the colored contingent Monday night.

The new Police Magistrate Judge Horn has taken charge of the police court and will dispense justice from that throne for the next two years.

The two most talked of republican candidates for the U. S. senatorship are the Hons. Lee Mantle of Butte and Congressman J. M. Dixon.

BOZEMAN NOTES.

Mrs. Chas. Bruce of Sheridan, Wyoming, spent a few days in the city this week visiting her mother, Mrs. Fanny Tucker.

Mrs. Jessie Stansberry left a few days ago for St. Paul to absent all the summer.

Everybody is plantigg sweet peas and getting ready for the Sweet Pea C. r. nival to held in this city in August.

Mrs. Joseph H. Tucker reports a pleasant time while in the capitol city. While there she was entertained at dinner by Rev. and Mrs. Allen.

SOME ADVICE.—AND A STORY.

There is a somewhat ancient lesson contained in the following from the New York World, but it is so excellent that the story is produced here: "Don't advertise if you believe you are wasting money. Let your competitor waste his money on advertising, and perhaps in this way you'll soon put him out of business. Just stand back and laugh at him when you see him squandering his money for printers' ink. Once there was a boy named,—we think his last name was Wanamaker, or maybe Money-maker; anyhow, his name was John, with some sort of a maker attached yards of calico, three pairs of jeans, and a half dozen pairs of boots. He called this a dry goods store through a Philadelphia newspaper, and offered to sell a pair of socks for 39 cents. The don't-believe-in-advertising just laughed. Young John spent vertise just one time, and not less than $100 worth of goods. He was cautioned by the merchants who 'knew it didn't pay.' It was through sympathy that they offered him advice.
