St. James A. M. E. church is out in a new dress, having been treated to the paint process. B. F. Hooper who had charge of the work deserves great credit for his efforts to beautify the property; he donated his services and employed assistance for which he paid out of his own pocket and Puchen Bros., Drug Company kindly donated the material.

The Plaindealer is printing the tickets for the Bishop Grant lecture which takes place at the Auditorium, Aug. 13. They will be on sale by the committee next week; be sure and get one.

We have received many complaints as to the Plaindealer not being delivered in last week's mail at Butte, there is something wrong at either the Helena or Butte Post Office; the papers were certainly put in the mail and the publishers will investigate the cause and try and see that the same does not occur again.

Mrs. Geo. Willis is our Butte correspondent and parties living in Butte may report all news for publication to her. She is also authorized to receipt for subscriptions.

SERIOUS LOST.

Mrs. Agnes Bush of Boise City met with a very disastrous loss through the carelessness or negligence of the K. R. Co., in checking her trunk from Boise to Helena. She has lost her trunk containing goods to the amount of twelve hundred dollars. A seal skin coat alone, worth six hundred dollars besides other valuables. She offers $50 reward for the trunk.

Butte and Anaconda.

Mr. J. C. Allen is one of Butte's enterprising citizens and has demonstrated his ability to conduct the same. He runs the Acme Shining Parlors on E. Broadway and enjoys a lucrative business. Mr. Allen is progressive and believes in the race accomplishing results, he believes in industrial education and will send his son this year to Prof. B. T. Washington's school.

Mrs. D. W. Walton of 522 South Idaho st is one of the leading caterers of the city and very enterprising; her husband is valet for F. Augustus Heinze.

Mrs. Geo. Willis our correspondent at Butte is arranging for an extended visit to Seattle and we will be without a correspondent at this point until she returns.

We spent one day in Anaconda, the county seat of Deer Lodge county last week, and while we did not have the time to call on all the people, we had the pleasure of meeting some of the citizens and on our return we shall make strenuous efforts in behalf of the PLAINDEALER so that each week the message of Peace, Prosperity and Union shall resound throughout the city in which is located the largest smelter in the world; as it was we were successful in getting quite a number of subscribers and the PLAINDEALER will from now on be watched for with interest by the citizens of Anaconda.

Mr. A. Leatherberry who resided at Helena for quite a while, is the head waiter at the Montana hotel and works a crew of from 6 to 11. He has been at this place for a number of years, having come out from the east at the opening of the same in '89 and has worked for the house the greater part of the time since and has served in the capacity of head waiter since 1903.

Mr. Frank Yamer is one of the enterprising young men of the city of whom every one we met had a good word to say. We met him personally and found him to be interested as to the welfare and progress of his race. He is employed at the Washoe smelter.

POETICAL SNAPSHOTS.

As time passes merrily on, it is a consolation to know that LaCroix is nearing the end of his official career.

We are not nosing around but we have been often told that the poker games are running full blast again.

If a certain sheriff in this state is as good at apprehending criminals as he is in eluding the editor of the PLAINDEALER he should be re-elected forever.

Clerk of the District Court Gnose of Deer Lodge county is a genial and obliging official who does not hesitate to encourage enterprise and thrift and we always are glad to meet such broad-gauged public officials, so that we can say to our people at any time and place that they are alright.

Hon. Geo. B. Winston, judge of the District Court at Anaconda is conceded to be one of the ablest jurists ever presided over the court in this district. He is fair and impartial and believes in justice, and our people receive at his hands a fair and just consideration; the color of the skin counts for nothing. With him it is law and justice and that is all we ask. For such men we at all times urge united support.

We have learned, unofficially however, that the call will soon be issued for the Republican state convention to meet in this city in the month of August.

Republican Mayor Lindsay is evidently a tenderfoot in the game of politics; the thimble riggers seem to have him in charge. Elected by Republicans and his appointments are nearly all Democrats; he is proceeding to strengthen the party, they will of course fall over each other to re-elect him.

Our own Senator Thos. H. Carter has returned to his home in Helena after a strenuous session of hard work in the U. Senate.

SOME ADVICE.—AND A STORY.

There is a somewhat ancient legend contained in the following from the New York World, but it is so excellent that the story is produced here. "Don't advertise if you believe you are wasting money. Let your competitor waste his money on advertising, and perhaps in this way you will soon put him out of business. Just stand back and laugh at him as you see him squandering his money for printers' ink. Once there was a boy named, —we think his last name was Wanamaker, or maybe Moore, —a yehow, his name was John, with some sort of a maker's trade, and a half dozen pairs of boots. He called this a dry goods store through a Philadelphia newspaper, and offered to sell a pair of socks for
