God give us men. A time like this D minds strong minds, great heads.
True faith, and ready hands.
Men whom the lust of office cannot kill;
Men whom the spoils of office cannot buy;
Men who possess opinions and a will;
Men who have honor; men who will not lie.

J. G. Holland.

Arthur Palmer, accompanied by his family and Jas. Howard biked to the tall timber up on the Mussleshell last Monday, where he will spend his vacation of two weeks hunting and fishing.

Wm. Irvin went out on a hunting expedition last Saturday. He reports that his usual luck was against him, and that he was not successful in bringing down his usual quota of the leathery tribe.

The Edison Theatre has an exceptionally strong line of attractions this week.

Editor J. B. Bass is in Butte this week looking after the interests of THE PLAINDEALER.

W. E. Scott has returned to the city.

Labor Day was generally observed in Helena. A great crowd was out at the exercises at Central Park.

What will James Crump do for recreation when the baseball season closes.

Rev. Jordan Allen is working hard closing up his Conference year, and wants all his friends to remember him.

W. C. Rose bought a new suit to attend the Harrison At Home, and then could not attend.
What's the matter Tex?

For one of those best smiles go to the Luzon.

There are so many Andersons in Helena that the Smiths, Jones and Browns are getting jealous.

The report that Nora Mentzel was brought back and incarcerated in the County Bastile is erroneous. As the Sheriff says, she is not boarding with him.

Mrs. Harrison Entertains.

On Thursday, Aug. 23d, Mrs.
Jefferson Harrison threw open the doors of her cosy home, 518 Hollins St. to the enjoyment and delectation of her Helena acquaintances, and it was one of the most enjoyable At Homes that has ever been given in the city.
There were over eighty who responded to their invitations. The lawn was spread with rugs, and Japanese lanterns were profusely hung from the over-hanging branches of the trees, making, withal, a beautiful scene. The ladies vied with each other in looking their best, and many handsome gowns were worn; diamonds and rare jewels were a common commodity. The interior was beautifully arranged; the beautiful punch bowl service was supurb. The evening was spent in a social way,—conversation, music, etc. Mrs. Harrison as a hostess proved to be one of the very best, and all left with a kindly feeling for her welcome and hospitality.

Miles York had to pay a visit to the city Pound Master this week to reclaim his cow which strayed away.

The police have declared a warfare against the idlers and gentry without visible means of support.
This means that that class must go to work or skidoo.

Quite a bunch of money changed hands among the Helena sporting clan on the Gans & Nelson fight.

The Grand United Order of Odd Fellows are holding their Grand Lodge in Salt Lake this week. The local Helena Lodge is represented by proxy.

J. C. Brown has returned to Helena to take charge of Lloyd's Tailoring Department.

The Dog and Pony Show which held forth in this city Monday was an exceptionally good one.

Lost, strayed or stolen? Our city circulator, Pleasant Draper, we have completely lost track of him.

Jos. Mays returned to the city Monday from a long stay in the mountains where he had been engaged as chef.

One of the artists at the Edison Theatre sang on Sunday night a parody in which it was "Goodbye Joe Gans, Goodbye." We did not attend Monday night to hear what he sang, but it would be interesting to know.

Mrs. Ada Booth is reported on the sick list this week.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hooper celebrated Labor Day driving a party of friends, consisting of Mrs. H.
J. Baker, Mrs. Carrie Lucas and Miss Ruth, up the gulch to Union-ville. They report a delightful day.

There will be a Grand Musicale and Supper given by the Ladies' Sewing Circle at St. James next Friday evening for the benefit of the church; everybody is especially asked to turn out.

The Ladies' Sewing Circle met at the parsonage Thursday.

Walter E. Scott, who returned to the city last week has gone to Butte, which place he will make his future home.

The public schools open next Monday.

Do not fail to attend the various ward primaries Tuesday evening.

carried rapidly in the hand of the American negro. We have done more in the last thirty-five years in civilizing and Christianizing native Africa than any other people in the length of time. I believe that God intends for us to complete Christian civilization as we have commenced it, therefore we should be closely communicated with each other in order that we may carry out our work successfully.

I am your humble servant,
Rev. J. R. Bass.

NOTICE
The Western Negro Press Association will hold its next Annual Meeting in the city of Colorado Springs, Colorado, on September 21 and 22, 1906. All newspapers west of the Mississippi are requested to send representatives.
All business men are requested to participate in the meeting. This session will be one of the most important meetings ever held, and will be of very great importance to the race. Matters of importance to the race in the great West will be under consideration, and as we are nearing another presidential contest, it is important that we exchange views now.
We urge that a large attendance be present at this meeting.
