The Montana Railroad company has announced that a one-half fare will be made between Lewistown and Lombard during state fair week. This action of the road will enable many to go to the fair who would otherwise be deterred from attending on account of the heavy expenses. The fair is going to be one of the best ever held in the west and far better than it was last year which is saying a great deal. Everyone who can possibly get away should make it a point to go.

H. G. Phillips, the genial Moorite, was a business visitor to this city Saturday. Horace says that the future of his town is assured and this is to be the first of many years of growth and prosperity. Eight thousand dollars worth of wheat has already been sold by ranchers living near that thriving village and there is much more yet to be sold. In addition to wheat, there will be thousands of dollars worth of oats and potatoes placed on the market. Fortunate indeed is the man who owns a quarter section on the now famous Rock creek bench.

Bills are out announcing a 20-round boxing contest to be held in Culver's hall next Friday evening between Kid Fredericks of Buffalo and Dude Lewis of Spokane. This promises to be one of the best matches ever pulled off in this city. Fredericks is well known here, having engaged in a dozen or more bouts here last summer. He was a decisive winner in every contest, and the followers of the game in this city believe he is one of the best in the business. He always puts up a hard, clean math and every one is sure of getting their money's worth when he goes into the ring. Lewis is also a hammer and tongs artist with the padded mitts. He and Fredericks have met three times, drawing twice and the third going to Fredericks on a foul. They are both training hard for the bout and will be in the best of shape.
