John N. Swain, of Rogers, was in the city yesterday on land business. He states that everything looks fine upon Alaska bench and that not less than 10,000 bushels of oats were threshed out this year. The average per acre being 40 bushels. That is not a half bad showing for the most unprofitable tract of country in Fergus county. There will be not less than 500 acres of oats sown in the spring and with another favorable season, the ranchers of that bench will get themselves in good shape financially.

The dance given Thanksgiving night in Culver's hall by the Lewistown Volunteer Fire company was one of the most successful ever given by the fire company. The fireman dances are events which are always looked forward to with the utmost pleasure by the people of Lewistown and the attendance Thursday evening was indicative of the general interest which is held in the local fire company. Not less than 175 people crowded the hall and all were given a royal time. The orchestra of five pieces occupied the stage and the music was about the finest ever heard at a dance in Lewistown. An elegant supper was served by the ladies of St. James' Guild and this feature added greatly to the general pleasure of the occasion. The fire boys cleared a neat sum which will be used in purchasing a carpet for their room in the city hall.

The new city hall is reaching the last stages of completion and an excellent idea can be gained of the general excellence of the structure by going through it. The first floor will be occupied by the apparatus of the fire company and Chief Bebb up at several days last week moving in the hook and ladder truck and the hose cart. Everything is arranged for convenience and quick work by the firemen in case of a blaze. The room also gives the boys an opportunity of keeping the apparatus in good shape and in a high state of efficiency. On the second floor are the council chamber, the firemen's room, and a vault for keeping the papers of the different city departments. Both the council and the firemen rooms are commodious and when furnished, as they will be, will present a most inviting appearance. The fire boys are making arrangements to fix up their room in fine shape before the meeting of the state firemen, which will be held here next fall. From the exterior the building presents a most imposing view and will be finally completed, the city hall when a source of pride to all who are interested in the welfare of the city.

Worden-Mickey.

Edgar G. Worden, the popular attorney of this city, sprung a surprise on some of his friends when he returned Friday night from a quiet little trip to Bozeman with a bride.

The bride was formerly Miss Laura L. Mickey who is well known in this city having spent several months with her cousin, Mrs. Jacob Holzemer. She has been visiting her brother, ex-Congressman Mickey in Illinois for several weeks and upon her return, was met in Bozeman by Mr. Worden and their marriage took place Wednesday evening in the First Baptist church of that city, the pastor of the church, the Rev. M. L. Riekman, performing the ceremony. They left Bozeman immediately for Lewistown and arrived here on the delayed train Friday evening. The happy couple thought to elude a party of friends who knew of their intended arrival by alighting from the train near the main street crossing but the friends were not to be eluded and the bridal couple had not more than reached their future home, the Imusland place on Janeaux street, before they had a number of callers. There was nothing for them to do but come down town and make themselves agreeable at a swell little supper which was given at the New Ideal. Both contracting parties have a host of friends in Lewistown who take pleasure in felicitating them upon this most joyous event of their lives.

Do not forget the dates of the bazaar, 6th to 9th inclusive, December.
