

Of Local Interest

Dr. F. F. Attix. Tel. 132.
Pure maple syrup at the Silver Moon.

Call at the Fad and take a look at those pictures.

A full line of skates at the Fergus County Hardware Company.

Blackford & Blackford, attorneys, First National bank building.

Favorites a specialty at Culver's hall Thursday evening, Dec. 22.

Get a pair of specially made up shoes at A. Dahl's, the shoemaker.

Seats reserved on stage for lady spectators, Dec. 22, at Culver's hall.

You can get the nicest, biggest and tenderest T-Bone at the New Ideal Cafe.

DeKalb & Ayers, lawyers. Offices, rooms 5 and 6, Allen & Robinson building.

All sorts of beautiful and useful Christmas goods at the Fergus County Hardware Company.

TO SELL—600 acres of O. K. scrip now in bank within the next 30 days. Inquire Hilger & Buseburg.

Patronize home industries. Buy home-rendered, pure leaf lard. The best and cheapest. Abel Bros.

Do your Christmas trading at Power's and save money.

Mr. Saunders has decided to favor the person who asked if he would play a cello solo on Dec. 22. He will play "Chasing Violets and Messages of Violets."

Mr. Jack Elliot and Miss Carrie Rehder, both former residents of this city and both well known here, were married in Helena last Wednesday week. They will reside in Big Timber.

Lewistown Lodge No. 37 A. F. and A. M. will elect officers Saturday evening, December 17th. All members of the order are cordially invited to be present.

F. B. Connelly, formerly an influential member of the A. L. Babcock Hardware company, of Billings, was in the city yesterday on business. He is now traveling for a hardware and implement house.

Go to T. W. Warren's and look over his stock of holiday goods and if you don't see what you want you will have to look "Chicago" over. See!

A big drive in diamonds, sapphires and other precious stones. Watches and a general line of jewelry. Cut glass, clocks, etc., at T. W. Warren.

The senior class from the State School of Mines in Butte arrived in this city last week and are spending a week looking over the mines of Fergus county. They went out to Kendall and from there to Gilt Edge. They are accompanied by Prof. King of the school and will visit all of the principal mines of the state before the school term is out.

The bazaar given by the ladies of the Presbyterian church last week was a notable success in every particular and the ladies are receiving many compliments upon the manner in which they conducted the enterprise. After the first evening the daily receipts were considerably over $100 and after all bills have been settled there will be a neat sum to the credit of the ladies.

A "Missouri" social was given at the M. E. church Friday evening and a most enjoyable time was indulged in by those present. Readings and vocal and instrumental music formed the evening's program, two selections by the high school mandolin club being especially enjoyable. At the close of the program refreshments consisting of pumpkin pie and coffee were served.

Mrs. H. C. McEvony, daughter and sister, Miss Etta Davis, arrived in Lewistown Saturday evening on their way to their home in Gilt Edge from an extended visit in Nebraska and Missouri. They went east chiefly for the purpose of attending the golden jubilee of their parents, who live in Atkinson, Neb. From Nebraska they went to the world's fair, after which they visited other places in that state. They report a most enjoyable trip.

Go to Power's for your Christmas presents.

The Reverend Father Van Clarenbeck, whom the bishop has appointed to succeed Father J. M. Vermaat in this parish, arrived in the city last Thursday evening and has been forming the acquaintance of the people of his new home. Father Van Clarenbeck has been located in Billings for several years and under his ministrations that church has progressed in a most satisfactory manner. In addition to his work in Billings he has spent much time and done much good among the Indians on the Crow reservation. He is a broad-minded Christian gentleman and deserving, not only of the best wishes and support of his parishioners, but of all other people in this city. Father Vermaat will leave this week to take charge of the church at Red Lodge.

Dr. Foley, telephone No. 160.

Draft beer at popular prices at the Cottage.

Those pictures given with every $2.50 purchase at the Fad are fine.

Some of the very latest songs at Culver's hall December 22nd.

Hot blast heaters for coal and wood at the Fergus County Hardware Co.

Malleable Faultless steel ranges at the Fergus County Hardware Company.

Anheuser-Bush and Schlitz beer on tap at Charley Wright's place, the Cottage.

William Hughes, of Stanford, was a business visitor to this city the middle of last week.

Call in and examine our line of lap robes and horse blankets. Prices are right. Judith Hardware.

Charley Wright will be glad to see all of his old friends and patrons at his new place, the Cottage.

Lap robes, fur robes, horse blankets, harness and saddles at the Fergus County Hardware Company.

If you are looking for an up-to-date shoe call on A. Dahl, the shoemaker. Good quality at reasonable prices.

You can buy a Clark's carriage heater of the Judith Hardware for $3.50. Fourteen inches long and covered with Brussels carpet.

Try Economy Flour. It gives satisfaction.

Oscar Stephens, the cattle king of Fergus, left yesterday morning for Honolulu on a pleasure trip. He expects to be gone several weeks.

Free! Year's subscription to the Ladies Home Journal, Saturday Evening Post, Cosmopolitan and the Housekeeper at the Lewistown Furniture Co.

The Housekeeper and the Ladies Home Journal, the Saturday Evening Post and the Cosmopolitan. We are giving you a year's subscription free. Call and investigate. Lewistown Furniture Co.

Charles Winrod, of Billings, was in this city last week looking for a ranch location. He found about what he desires and will move his family up here in February. He will settle on the Rock creek bench.

November was the biggest license month in the history of Fergus county. Treasurer Croft taking in $2,850 during the thirty days. The sum would probably have reached the $3,000 mark had not the treasurer been busy collecting the regular taxes.

Dr. Frederick F. Attix has about recovered from a very severe attack of la grip, which confined him to the Schroeder hospital for several days.

Arthur Dennis, the popular deputy sheriff from Kendall, is in the city this week as a witness in the Reed case.

Fruits for holiday cooking at Power's.

Harold Tilsey, who has been employed by the Montana railroad company for several months past, left this week for San Francisco, where he will enter the employ of one of the roads running out of that city. Harold has numerous friends among the boys all along the line and in Lewistown and Moore who wish him success in his new field.

A few of the boys were indulging in a little innocent hilarity down at the Grass Range saloon Thursday evening when a revolver was accidentally discharged and the ball struck a man by the name of Cox in the right arm, inflicting a bad wound. No one seems to have been particularly at fault, and all unite in saying that it was an accident pure and simple.

John Clegg returned home Friday evening from Chicago, where he placed some cattle on the market. He received about the average prevailing price and says that there is no use kicking even if he is not entirely satisfied. On his return home he went up into Wisconsin and visited for a few days with relatives living about his old home. It was his first trip back "home" in 23 years.

Groceries bought at Power's are the Best.

H. H. Lang and wife were in the city the last of the week. Mr. Lang says that he hopes to have his new building on Main street completed by the first of the year. One room of the building will be occupied by the Fergus County Hardware company and A. L. d'Autremont will more than likely move his Fad Shoe Store into the other store room on the first floor. On the second floor will be the Masonic lodge room. This room has been made especially for lodge meetings and when completed and furnished, will be one of the finest in the state. It is commodious, well lighted and ventilated and will be heated by steam. The Elks will also hold their meetings in that room. Some fine offices will also be found on this floor. It is a most imposing appearing building and is built in a most substantial manner throughout.

Smoke the Paul Jones. Sold by Young & Weydert.

Henry Girard was in from Gilt Edge the middle of the week.

Buy your Christmas presents at the Fergus County Hardware store.

Wm. Barney, of Moore, was a business visitor to Lewistown last week.

Leave orders for Allen Brew's coal at Woodman & Charters'. Telephone 125.

You can get the nicest, biggest and tenderest T-Bone at the New Ideal Cafe.

Silverware and cutlery. A complete line at the Fergus County Hardware Company.

J. M. Parrent, the Kendall merchant, was a business visitor to this city last week.

D. K. Anderson, of Highfield, was transacting land business in Lewistown the middle of the week.

Don't forget to look at the Lewistown Furniture Co.'s holiday line before buying your Xmas presents.

E. W. King arrived in the city last night and will remain here until tomorrow looking after his mining interests.

The famous St. Clair stoves and ranges and hot blast heaters for both coal and wood at the Lewistown Furniture Co.

J. D. Waite and F. E. Wright were in Helena the latter part of the week attending the annual meeting of the Schriners.

Special prices for Christmas at the Fergus County Hardware Company. Some appropriate gifts: Boys' sleds, skates, silverware.

Send us your watch when it needs repairing. First-class work and satisfaction guaranteed. Wagner & Sutter, jewelers, new Wright block.

Cranberries, Apples, Nuts, Candies and Fruits at Power's.

The official bonds of the county officers who were elected at the recent election have been filed in the office of the county clerk and recorder. Most of the bonds give the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company as sureties. The largest bond is that given by Treasurer Elect E. P. Chandler for $100,000.

Joe Murray and John C. Bebb got back to town yesterday afternoon from a hunting trip up in the Snowies at the head of Cottonwood. The boys were joined Saturday evening by Ed Martin and Frank Ware who drove out from town with some life sustaining "provisions." The boys candidly confess that they didn't bag much large game but say that the trip was a fine one nevertheless.

Call and examine those school shoes at the Fad.

Buy Harmon, coal the best on the market.

Best service in town at the Silver Moon Cafe.

Beautiful pictures with every $2.50 purchase at the Fad.

DeKalb & Ayers, lawyers. Offices, rooms 5 and 6, Allen & Robinson building.

Don't forget that Surprenant, the sign writer, is doing business at the old stand.

Fred C. Bungarder, of Moore, sold 160 acres of land near Moore last week, receiving $2,000 for it.

Musical instruments of all kinds at the Art Music store, opposite Commercial company's store.

You can save money by trading at Power's.

If you can't meet me at the Fair, meet me at Culver's hall Dec. 22. Fare $1. Is that not fair enough?

Odin Rominstadt and wife came in from Armells the latter part of the week to visit the family of David Hilger.

T. W. Warren, the old reliable diamond dealer, has a fine selection of diamonds. Any size to suit. Prices right.

The "Big Indian Chief" will be played and sung twice for a two-step at Culver's hall Dec. 22. By special request.

Wagner & Sutter, jewelers, are headquarters for beautiful Christmas gifts in gold and silver, fine china, cut glass, etc.

"Dick" Young, who is now conducting the Mint buffet, which he recently purchased in Gilt Edge, was in the city on a business trip yesterday.

The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church will serve a chicken pie supper Friday evening, Dec. 16th at the church. Price 50 cents. Everybody come.

We are watch inspectors for the Montana Railroad. Have your watch set and regulated by us, as we get the time every morning at 10 o'clock from Western Union office. Wagner & Sutter.

Don't forget about Economy Flour. It's good.

The Elks of Lewistown have a busy season before them. In addition to putting antlers on a number of new candidates, they will give a minstrel performance and will also have a 'blowout' when the new hall is dedicated. A number of stag socials will fill in and help to make the winter season a lively one with this popular fraternity.

WARM SHOES

We sell the Alfred Dolge line of Felt Shoes for

MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN

None equal for wear, style, fit and comfort.

Men's felt shoes, pure wool lining, at	$2.50
Men's all felt shoes at	2.50
Women's Romeos, colors red, black and brown	$1.50 and 1.75
Women's felt slippers, colors red and black	75c to 1.25
Children's Romeos, color red	90c to 1.25
Children's felt slippers, color red	75c and 1.00
Infants' Romeos, colors red and fawn, at	65

Why not buy the best?

"Get in Line," go to

THE FAD SHOE STORE,

A. L. d'AUTREMONT, Prop.

Main Street
Lewistown, Montana

Groceries bought at Power's are Pure.

David Foreman and Henry Eschleman, of Grass Range, were transacting land business here last week.

At Culver's opera house, Dec. 22. Big dance given by the colored quartet. Tickets on sale at Wagner & Sutter's.

Beginning next Monday and lasting through the week, the Power Mercantile Company will keep their store open until 9 o'clock in the evening.

Billie Kimball was receiving the glad hand from all of his friends yesterday, the festivities being in honor of a bouncing boy who made his appearance Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Joseph Briggs and son, Freddie, returned Tuesday evening from a trip to Glendive. Mrs. Briggs was at the bedside of her father when he died in Glendive week before last.

George Stone returned last night from an extended visit in the east. He saw the world's fair and then went to Belfast, Maine where he visited his sister for several days. He reports a most pleasant trip.

The following officers for the coming year were elected by the Eagles at their regular meeting held last Wednesday evening: Ed Skinner, past president; George Gordon, president; Mark Kimball, vice president; J. W. Kearney, treasurer; George Wilson, secretary; Al Hoopes, chaplain; Russell Hortop, condictor; Ed Skinner, Sam Weaver and L. N. DuClos, trustees; George Taylor, inside guard, and Mike Early, outside guard. The Eagles' lodge is now in a most flourishing condition and has the largest membership of any of the Lewistown secret orders. The new officers are all zealous members and will work hard for the upbuilding of the order.

...CULVER'S... OPERA HOUSE Tonight Tuesday, Dec. 13

Benefit of St. Leo's Ladies' Aid Society.

The Famous Actor Manager
MR. JOHN MAGUIRE

IN
A Gentleman From Ireland

As played by him more than 1,000 times in the principal theaters of the country, in which he will be supported by the best dramatic and lyric talent of this city.

Admission, Gallery, - 50c
Reserved Seats, - $1.00

Seats on sale at Delzell's Drug Store.

Notice.
Notice is hereby given that the name of the McDonald Creek Coal company has been changed to the Lewistown Coal company.

WATCHES

Clocks

Cut Glass

Fine China

SILVERWARE

Diamonds

Sapphires

Emeralds

Pearls

Rubies

Wagner & Sutter

Opposite Lewistown Commercial Co.

LEADING JEWELERS

BEAUTIFUL CHRISTMAS GIFTS!

500 Rings to Select From

See Our Stock before you buy. Every article purchased Beautifully Engraved

FREE! FREE! FREE!