ALIAS SUMMONS. In the District Court of the Tenth Judicial District of the State of Montana, in and for the County of Fergus. C. E. McKoin, plaintiff, vs. Sanford G. Rogers, Frances E. Rogers, his wife; J. M. Vrooman, Judith Hardware Company, a corporation; J. C. Johnson and Cora L. Smith as executrix of the estate of James M. Smith, deceased, defendants. The State of Montana sends greetings to the above-named defendants: You are hereby summoned to answer the complaint in this action, which is filed in the office of the Clerk of this Court, a copy of which is herewith served upon you, and to file your answer and serve a copy thereof upon the plaintiff's attorneys within twenty days after the service of this Alias Summons, exclusive of the day of service; and in case of your failure to appear and answer, judgment will be taken against you by default for the relief demanded in the complaint. The said action is brought to obtain a decree of this Court for the foreclosure of a certain mortgage, described in the complaint and executed by the defendants, Sanford G. Rogers and Frances E. Rogers, his wife, to the above-named plaintiff, C. E. McKoin, covering certain real property situated in Fergus County, Montana, particularly described in said mortgage and the complaint on file herein, given to secure the payment of two certain promissory notes, made by the defendants, Sanford G. Rogers and Frances E. Rogers, his wife, aforesaid, to the above-named plaintiff, C. E. McKoin, one of the said notes being dated June 26, 1913, payable one year after date, and the other of the said notes being dated July 3, 1913, and payable one year after date, each of the said notes being in the sum of $1,000 and each bearing interest at the rate of 10 per cent per annum until paid, interest payable semi-annually and providing for attorney fees; that the defendants, Sanford G. Rogers and Frances E. Rogers, are entitled to a credit of $656.81 on the said promissory notes by reason of failure of part of the consideration of said notes, and also for the payment of interest for the first six months on each of the said promissory notes, and that there is now due and unpaid on this date on the said promissory notes the sum of $1,871.85, together with the taxes advanced by said plaintiff amounting to $57.73, and the further sum of $250 as attorney's fees on said notes, and judgment is asked against the defendants, Sanford G. Rogers and Frances E. Rogers and each of them in the sum of $1,871.85, and interest thereon at the rate of 10 per cent per annum from this date, and the further sum of $57.73 advanced for taxes as aforesaid, and the further sum of $250 as attorney's fees; that the said mortgaged premises described in the said mortgage may be sold and the proceeds thereof applied to the payment of the said amounts prayed for in the complaint, and in case the proceeds of said sale are not sufficient to pay the sum claimed in the said complaint, then to obtain a decree of judgment against the said defendants, Sanford G. Rogers and Frances E. Rogers, his wife, for the balance remaining unpaid, and that the said defendants and all persons claiming by, through or under them, or any of them, may be forever barred and foreclosed of all right, title, claim, lien, equity of redemption and interest in and to said premises and each and every part thereof and for general relief, all of which is more fully set forth in the certified complaint on file herein, to which the greater certainty your attention is hereby drawn. Witness my hand and the seal of this Court, this 14th day of September, 1916.
