

Around the County

MOCCASIN.

H. L. Pfeiffer started on Monday the work of excavating a cellar at the rear of his building and will build a 20-foot addition to his present store building in order to allow an enlargement of his stock of groceries.

C. M. Todd and W. D. Surface returned Thursday afternoon from a several days' hunt in the Belt mountains. Mr. Surface was fortunate enough to secure a fine 2-year-old buck and a young doe, while Mr. Todd brought down a fine buck.

N. C. Donaldson, Fred Berland and Leroy Noonan left early Saturday morning on a hunting trip in the mountains in the vicinity of the Trask ranch on South Fork. Although this was their first attempt after the elusive deer, each entertained secret hopes of securing the limit as well as a bit of experience that would prove valuable on some future occasion.

WINDHAM.

The people here are talking community hall stronger than ever, and the chances are an organization will be effected in a short time with the end in view of building a hall that will be a credit to Windham. There is every reason why we should have one here, and as nearly every person who is interested in our town is willing to contribute to a fund for this purpose it is almost certain that Windham will have a hall in a short time.

George H. Kirk spent Sunday in Lewistown with his family. Mr. Kirk is the republican committeeman for the Windham precinct and while a better man could not have been selected for the place, yet owing to the popularity of several democrats who are out for county offices this year, we believe it will be impossible for our popular bank teller to induce all the republicans in and around Windham to vote a straight ticket in November.—Leader.

GRASS RANGE.

Mrs. Alice Wight was taken to Lewistown last Monday morning on the train and Tuesday morning underwent a serious operation. At present writing Mrs. Wight's condition is critical. J. C. Campbell, who has had charge of the depot at Lombard for three years on the Milwaukee, has been transferred to Grass Range, where he takes the place of C. S. Owens, who has been located at Grass Range since the Milwaukee built here.

H. W. Joslyn, who formerly taught school over in the Densal country and recently had charge of the Batriek school, was a passenger on the material train to Lewistown last Saturday night. He is expected to leave last Sunday for Chicago, where he was going to have his leg amputated. His condition was such Sunday that he called

Dr. Bartlett, who was not able to get in until Monday morning, when the operation was performed.—Review.

STANFORD.

Jeff Sherman has sold his house in Lewistown and will act as manager of one of E. W. Mitchell's ranches. Just where he will move to has not been learned.

Mayor W. W. Galt and his three sons, Rollin, Harry and Ollie, and A. H. Strouf returned Monday noon from a week's hunt in the mountains west of town in the vicinity of Bear park. They brought with them seven deer, one or two of which were of good size, but not a horn appeared in the bunch.

John Peterson, of the Carbonet-Zinc and Lead mines company, now operating the Yankee Girl mine, made a trip to Great Falls the latter part of the week. Mr. Peterson took an extra fine sample of a new vein of ore that they are just opening up with him. He states that this vein is nine feet in thickness and that the depth is unknown that is especially rich ore.—World.

ROY.

Olaf Elke, manager of the Fergus County Sheep company's ranch on Box Elder, shipped 18 cars of sheep from this station Monday. They were consigned to Morgan & Guffy and will be unloaded at Cardinal, near Lombard.

The topic for discussion, Luke 12, 22-20. District Superintendent Rev. Skindlov of Spokane and several of the pastors of this district have promised to be present.—Enterprise.

C. Croly sold his ranch three and one-half miles from town to C. A. Bruce, the consideration being $45 per acre. In addition, Mr. Bruce purchased the Croly residence, in Moore. Mr. Croly has purchased the Tom Coffman ranch adjoining his previous holding.—Independent.

WINIFRED.

W. J. Munger sold his restaurant last week to E. C. Norris. Miss Leah Suprenant and Harry Davis were united in marriage in Lewistown last Saturday evening. The telephone central exchange is now being installed in the Times building, the town is being wired, and in about two weeks the system should be in good working order. It has been a long wait but every one seems pleased that local phones have come at last.

The Orrin Brown funeral was held in Winifred Wednesday, the sermon was preached by Rev. Fred Rowden. Mr. Brown, who was an old settler near the Judith river, died Saturday night. His nearest relatives reside in Iowa. The funeral was largely attended.—Times.

VALENTINE.

H. A. Tillett brought us some ears of corn which are hard to heat. We are trying to get a collection to make an exhibition to convince the skeptical that we can raise corn.

Owing to the absence of the county superintendent, nothing definite could be done at the meeting at Long school house in regard to the proposed new district. Much opposition seems to have developed, however.

The threshing machine is expected to be in this locality during the next few days. They are at Upper Blood at present. After completing the work in this neighborhood they will cross into Lovett where considerable grain awaits the machine.—News.

DENTON.

Dr. G. A. Wondock went to Lewistown Saturday to close up a deal for his ranch at Pine Grove, which he sold a few days ago.

On Wednesday of this week William Ellis and Joe Jensen killed a large timber wolf near their ranch. The wolf was of exceptional large size and a fine specimen.

Mrs. P. F. Ward and daughter, Hazel, returned from Rochester, Minn., Saturday. Mrs. Ward is greatly improved in health, which is gratifying to her many friends.—Recorder.

BASEMENT OF JUDITH HARDWARE COMPANY NOW FULLY COMPLETED

After many weeks work the basement under the Judith Hardware company's building on Main street is at last completed and in use. The basement is the full size of the building, 6 by 90 feet, and nine feet deep in the clear. It has heavy concrete floor and walls and will have a handsome metal ceiling. The basement will be used exclusively for the stove and paint departments and the stoves are now on display there. The basement relieves the pressure on the other floors and gives a much better opportunity for making an effective display of stock.

When the building was constructed it was impossible to put in the basement owing to the sewage water. This was eventually taken care of by the drainage sewer and the ground is now pretty dry. In doing the excavating the dirt was hoisted on an elevator, dumped into wagons and carried off. The general contract was carried out by N. J. Littlejohn, while Fowles & Coulter had the contract for the timbering.

Yesterday's Market Quotations

CHICAGO GRAIN. CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—Wheat prices ran up excitedly almost 5c a bushel today on top of 7c advance the day before. All high records were exceeded since as far back as 1898, when for a short time Joseph Leiter seemed to have gained control of the entire existing surplus supply. Broadly active foreign buying of future deliveries appeared to be the chief reason for today's violent upturn, which, however, in the end was not well maintained. The market closed excited at the same as yesterday's finish to 3 1/2c higher, with December at $1.66 to $1.66 1/2 and May at $1.67 1/2 to $1.67 3/4.
