LOCAL NEWS.
w more hammocks at B. G. & Co.'s were seen last week within iles of Maiden.

George Feido is the father of a ten ound girl, born Thursday, Aug. 9th.
One of our citizens killed a fine deer last week. It was done in self-defense of course.

The editors of the Argus are under obligations to T. B. Johnson for a couple of fine chickens.

For the latest version of Hiawatha call on Jene Erwin. "Life size chromo" goes with the parody.

Secure a hammock before they are all gone, at B. G. & Co's.

When an editor tries to light his cigar with a led pencil it is evident he doesn't manage the prohibition column.

The public meeting held Monday evening was a credit to the town. There was perfect harmony throughout the whole proceedings.

A small "slugging match" took place Sunday evening. The participants were separated by our stalwart sheriff before any serious injury was done either party.

Owing to the great demand for the MINERAL ARGUS, last week, we find ourselves without a copy for filing purposes. The demand was beyond our expectation.

T. B. Johnson and Leo Fleischer, have returned from a hunting trip in the vicinity of Box Alder and Cone Butte.
They secured considerable small game.
They report seeing quite a number of Buffalo and antelope.

Messrs. George Baker and A. J.
T. went out on a fishing expedition to North Fork, last week, and were avored with a rich reward. They captured 47 fative trout in about four hours time, the largest weighing 2 1/2 lbs.
They report fish so thick that two were captured by hand.

Invitations are out for a grand ball, given on Friday, Aug. 17th, '83, by J. Nelson, near Overland. Music will be furnished by Ball's string band, and a most enjoyable time is assured. The names appearing as the committee of arrangements, is a sufficient guarantee of a good party and a fine time.

JUNCTION NEWS.
Six separate bull trains and four mule teams are en route from Junction City to Benton, loaded with freight for that point.

J. E. Brown has erected a new residence in Junction in the best portion of the town, and will occupy it in a few days.

Six divorces were secured in Junction City last week, the females taking the case in their own hands, acting as attorneys and skipping. No alimony.

T. C. Powers has bought a half interest in the Junction ferry, from Brown Davis, paying therefor $5,000, and will be an equal partner on the 20th in st.

P. McCormick has sold a half interest in his entire business at Junction, to T. C. Powers for the sum of $16,000.
They are now erecting a grain warehouse, complete, 100x220.

Paul McCormick has just returned from Helena, where he has been on a business trip. Paul is an old time ruster and with the addition of Powers to the firm, if they don't get to the front nobody will.

Brown & Davis' sample room at Junction is the finest west of Chicago, and is not equaled by any in Montana, barring John Smith's, of Boseman, and in proportion to the two places, is even superior to that. They are doing a fine business and deservedly so.

The man who sees nothing but the newspaper he is reading when a lady wants his seat in a car is a man who would be so busy with his prayer-book bilk the contribution box when it is by in church.

SPORTING ITEMS.

Hanlan thinks Teemer the most promising young sculler he has met.

A Professional regatta is to be rowed at Point of Pines, Mass., Aug. 10th.

The Ryan-Sullivan contest will not take place until Oct. 15.

Hosmer thinks there are ten men in the country who can defeat Courtney.

Yank Adams is anxious to play any finger billiardist in the world for $1,000 a side.

A meeting between Hanlan and Courtney this season is now almost an established fact.

Several bets have already been made that Hosmer will finish ahead of Courtney at the Watkins regatta.

Donald Dinnie is said to have dislocated Whistler's leg in a wrestling match in San Francisco, recently.

Base ball games were played in several eastern cities last week for the benefit of the telegraph strikers.

Buffalo leads in games won during the month of July, it winning eleven to Cleveland ten. Providence won but eight.

Fred Engelhardt, the well-known manager of sporting events, thinks Muldoo the most scientific wrestler of the day.

The fact that the captain of the Louisville base ball club has had the brain fever, settles all doubt heretofore existing as to the possession of brain by that class of the community.—Minneapolis Daily News.

Sullivan knocked Slade out of time in three rounds at Madison Square Garden, Monday night. The Maori proved no match for the Boston slugger.
In the second round Sullivan sent his opponent off from the platform and in the third knocked him senseless. At this point the police interfered, but it was unnecessary, as Slade had "enough."
