

MONTANA NEWS.

Trains now pass through the Mullan tunnel.

Hon. Martin Maginnis is back from the Pacific coast.

The Bozeman Chronicle now publishes a daily edition.

Helena's city assessment for 1883 will foot up $4,750,200.

Col. and Mrs. Sanders, celebrated their quarter century marriage, at Helena, Saturday, Oct. 27th.

A fierce wind storm visited Livingston, recently, blowing down the Tribune building, entailing quite a loss to the owners.

It is reported that a tract of placer ground near Mammoth Hot Spring has been sold to Baltimore capitalists for $100,000.

Specimens of rock from the artesian well at Miles City have been forwarded for assay. They resemble black carbonates of silver.

Wolves are quite numerous on the Marias and stock men are becoming alarmed, as they have lost several head of cattle lately.

John L. Sullivan will visit Butte next month and the boys may then size up the difference between the Boston Boy and the Chicago Trojan.—Miner.

There are now eleven daily papers in Montana and twenty-two weeklies. Montana has the reputation of giving newspapers good support.

The shipment of beef cattle from the Yellowstone valley has averaged seventy-five car loads per day for the past six weeks, and the railroad officials are taxed to their utmost to furnish cars to supply the increasing demand.

Major R. C. Walker returned last evening from a two weeks' hunting expedition in Meagher county. The Major is a veteran hunter and in this line doesn't take a back seat for anybody. He enjoyed royal sport during his absence and has returned laden with the trophies of the chase. He and two companions—the Boyd brothers—killed twenty-four deer and four wildcats. The pelts of the latter were brought in and will be kept as mementoes of the trip.—Helena Herald.

Junction City Layout.

[From our Correspondent.]

JUNCTION CITY, M. T., Nov. 8, '83.

Mr. Capple and wife gave a very enjoyable dance and supper at their residence in Etchetah a few evenings since. It was well attended, and among those who partook of the merry dance, we noticed Messrs. B. M. Guy, J. Hamilton, of Maiden, also, Messrs. Campbell, Haile & Spear, of Junction. After tripping "Old Tucker" about daylight they all returned home, being assured there were many more of this kind to follow.

Mr. Geo. Hughes and lady, of Billings, arrived here last week and will make Junction City their future home.

Mr. Joe Read has lately become a lover of fast horses, and most any pleasant afternoon can be seen exercising his ability, but not without a cause, Josie. Yours, OLD PAID.
