

LOCAL NEWS.

The Collar mill has shut down for the winter.

Considerable freight arrived this week from Junction, for Maiden merchants.

Sixty-seven cases of beer were frozen while en route for Brown & Davis, from Junction.

Capt. W. A. Miller and Lieut. Cabinis, of the 18th infantry, made us a brief call Wednesday.

Two wildcats were captured this week in Ford's gulch, below the Collar. One was caught in a trap, the other shot.

When you have business at White Sulphur Springs, call at "The Saratoga," Dunham & Maloney, proprietors.

Deputy Sheriff Erwin and Constable Fletcher arrived home Tuesday from Deer Lodge, looking a little weary from their long journey.

Another quarrel over cards, and the usual "pop pulling" exercise indulged in. Erwin and Fletcher may have official business to Deer Lodge again soon.

Parties wanting fresh oysters, either in bulk or by the can, will be accommodated by calling at the City Bakery. Dick also sets up elegant stews on short notice.

McDonald, of Trout Creek, known to a great many in Maiden, had his arm crushed in a threshing machine last Saturday, necessitating amputation between the wrist and elbow. The victim has the sympathy of the entire community. Dr. Willard attended the unfortunate man.

In another column will be found the advertisement of the new Bank of Meagher County, the first and only bank in the county. The proprietors are well known as men of means integrity and business ability. We trust this section will realize the importance of this enterprise and give it substantial support.

The A. O. U. W. Party.

The dance given on Thanksgiving evening, by the above order, was in every feature, a grand success. Although the attendance was not quite as large as was anticipated, from the neighboring towns, owing no doubt to the bad condition of the roads, still the hall was well filled and everyone present seemed bent on having a good time. Prof. Ball and orchestra rendered delightful and entrancing music for the giddy waiters, and those who enjoyed only the old reliable "square," danced until weariness and early dawn drove them from the hall. It was unquestionably the finest party ever held in Maiden. Nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of anyone present.

The supper, under the supervision of Mr. & Mrs. Joseph Herring, was a credit to their skill as caterers.

A Sudden Death.

Alexander Campbell, who has been in the employ of the Collar Company during the past summer, but recently engaged at Sample's ranch, on the Judith, met a sudden death Tuesday evening. He was coming to town to secure the services of a physician and when within a few blocks of the doctor's office fell out of the buggy to the ground bleeding profusely at the mouth. He was carried into the nearest house, and a physician summoned, but to no avail, as he expired in few minutes after. Cause of death, hemorrhage of lungs and bowels. He is a single man, about 35 years of age. Among his personal effects was a letter from a sister in Scotland, from which it was learned that his aged parents were in very indigent circumstances and dependent on him for support. Wednesday afternoon the remains of the deceased were interred in the burying ground just below town. About $15 in money was found on his person, which will be sent to his parents in Scotland.

ON THE WING.

[From our Special Correspondent]

W. S. SPRINGS, Nov. 24th 1888.

ERRORS ABOVE:—On the wing but decidedly short on the wing question, or I should have flown to some summer clime to avoid the three days storm which we have faced and struggled through to get here. Leaving Flat Willow to arrive at Chamberlain's and thence by the range cabin to Lewiston, was without incident, except a strong flow of adjectives at the weather. We arrived on same day at Lewiston, late, but the excellent hospitality of Burtons made up for many discomforts of the day. Late arrivals, early departures and the absence of liege lords looking after stock and other interests, made canvassing out of the question, but hope to "catch on" going back. It is now snowing stronger than ever, with about six inches on the ground and evidently more to come. I find the Springs dull in consequence, although there are many changes for the better in hotels, stores and additional buildings, giving strong evidences of prosperity in the past and great hopes for the future. Spencer, Mayn & Heitman's store has been enlarged, covering a new tin and furniture shop, added to their business this fall.

I found also my old friend J. H. Moe, late Register of the Land Office, associated with Jno. Potter and Jonas Higgins, busy in the opening of the Bank of Meagher county, assisted by Judge Eddy of Helena. It, aside from the avoirdupois of Moe, is a solid institution, backed as it is by Potter, Moe &

Higgins. As I finish this, 8 p. m., the mercury marks 20 deg. below zero, which with a stage ride to Helena, tomorrow, is not encouraging.

Junction City Layout.

[From our Correspondent.]

JUNCTION CITY, M. T., Dec. 1, '88.

It is rumored that a member of the Etchetah Social Club is a candidate for matrimony, and to escape the fine imposed by the society for such misdemeanor, intends going on the sly. No use Mr. B., you are watched by J. J. C.

Messrs. Brown, Davis & Hamilton have, during the last two weeks, shipped from this point over 50,000 lbs. of freight for their new enterprise at Maiden and it seems they have invoices for as much more.

A Norwegian, C. Rose, who has been humming around town for some time was arrested on a charge of theft by Messrs. McCormick & Co. He had a preliminary hearing and not being able to prove his innocence, was bound over to the next term of court.

Junction City Cornet Band is now thoroughly organized and are daily expecting their new instruments. The "Trustees," Messrs. Brown, Glabbi, Campbell, Reed and Todie, have completed, through their generosity and love for music, a want which will benefit them and the public in general.

Yours, OLD FARR.

Notice.

The Eastman outfit claims that J. Joe Johnson, have robbed them. Come forward with your proof, and I'll show the Eastman outfit up in good shape, including some of their Mair City transactions. Anxiously yours, JOE JOHNSON.
