WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, July 8, 1887.

About 150 members of Gen. Lander

Post, No. 5, Grand Army of the Republic of Lynn, Mass., accompanied by ladies, called on the President at the White House yesterday. The post formed at the National hotel about 5 o'clock and marched up the avenue to the White House, where they were met by the ladies. They formed a hollow square about the East room, and when the President appeared David Walker, the commander of the post, stepped to the front and said: "Comrades of Gen. Lander Post No. 5, I propose three cheers for Grover Cleveland, President of the United States."

The cheers were given heartily. When they had subsided Mr. Cleveland spoke as follows: "I can only say to you, gentlemen, that I am glad to meet you here. I have extended to you this courtesy, as I have lately with much pleasure, to other posts of the Grand Army of the Republic on their way home from visits to their Southern friends. I want you to understand that I have lost no confidence in the Grand Army of the Republic as an organization, notwithstanding recent occurrences, to which it is unnecessary further to allude. It is incomprehensible to me that men who have risked their lives to save the Government should return home to abate one jot or tittle of the respect and support which every good citizen owes to the Government and the constituted authorities. I greet you then as citizens as well as veterans, and I shall be pleased to take you all by the hand."

The President then shook hands with each of them as they marched past in single file. The post formed in line again in front of the White House, just in time to see the President and Mrs. Cleveland enter their carriage and start for Oak View. They then marched back to their hotel.

It is pretty well settled that the President will not go West this year.

Since he will not go to St. Louis, his plans for visiting other Western cities must be changed. I learned at the White House yesterday that the only plans that the President had made for leaving the capital during the summer and autumn are those for his visit to Clinton, N. Y., on the 12th of this month, which will probably not consume more than a week's time, and his visit to Atlanta in October next, during the progress of the Georgia State Fair.

Last week a paper not in Washington contained the simple announcement: "Mrs. W. Fish, died yesterday."

No Washington paper contained even a paragraph on the subject. During the eight years of Grant's administration the papers slipped over with admiration of Mrs. Fish, and the Washington correspondents were never tired —though his readers may have been of description of the receptions and entertainments of the social queen.

Now, the death of Mrs. Fish fails to elicit an item. We may localize that socio-official life in Washington is artificial and vain, and we may infer that the time will probably not consume more than a week's time, and

MONTANA NEWS.

Boulder, Jefferson county, is having a substantial boom.

The Utah Northern will soon change its tracks from the narrow to the broad gauge.

Squid certificates are now discounted at the banks in Bozeman, owing to a lack of funds in the Territorial treasury.

The large bridge at Sun river broke down last week, delaying stages and mails. It was weakened by the passage of a large band of cattle.

Gen. H. S. Williams, agent of the Crow Indians, has appraised lands needed by the Rocky Fork & Cooke City railroad. He fixed the value at $1.25 per acre. The road will require 888 acres.

The bodies of Anthony Weiss and Charles W. Martin, who were buried beneath a snow slide, near Cooke City, during the last winter, were found recently and decently interred by the citizens of the town.

It is believed that the Butte and Bozeman Short Line Railroad, lately incorporated, will be really a Union Pacific branch.

The Union Pacific is very anxious to build branches in Montana, and especially to Bozeman, in whose vicinity it has coal mines.

Ed Hunt, of Park City, while riding on horseback through Main street in Helena last week, was run into by a runaway wagon belonging to a milkman and seriously injured. The horse was riding on the sidewalk. Hunt's escape from death was miraculous.

We are informed that the Warm Springs asylum property has been sold to the Territory for $100,000. There are 1,000 acres of land included in this property, and the Chronicle rises to ask if the Territory couldn't possibly get along with land, say 1,875 acres?—Chronicle.

The wife of Geo. F. Woodson, the Helena water works man, met with an accident last week while enroute to Butte with her husband. The team which Mr. Woodson was driving took fright, and ran away, upsetting the carriage, throwing Mrs. Woodson forcibly to the ground and injuring her quite severely.

The Boulder Valley railroad is now nearly all graded to a distance of 20 miles from Jefferson. The track is being laid and work has been finished to Boulder but for the spring floods. In a short time,
