

SUBSCRIBERS:

Hereafter no Subscriber will be carried on our books whose arrearages are greater than one year.

All subscription accounts are payable in advance.

Town, County and State.

Chris. Swanz of Utica is in the city.
 Pure Paris green at McKechnie & Allan's.
 See Stafford's prices on harness and saddles.
 F. E. Wright made a trip to Kendall last week.
 Geo. M. Anderson, assayer, Lewistown, Montana.
 Judge Nelson and J. L. Beebe left for Kendall this morning.
 Phospho Port, a regulator for the liver, sold at all bars.
 For Pabst's Milwaukee beer go to Louis Landt's place.
 Dr. R. S. Hedges successfully treats diseases of the stomach and bladder.
 Louis Landt has the agency for Pabst's Milwaukee keg and case beer.
 Don't forget to call on Dr. M. M. Hedges when you want your teeth fixed.
 Ed. Jackson, accompanied by Donald Waite, drove down from Utica last week.
 The best beer in town is at Louis Landt's. It is Pabst's Milwaukee draught beer.
 Saddles for ladies, boys and cowboys of the best make at reduced prices at Judith Hardware Co.
 If you have any painting or paper hanging to be done see Joseph Briggs. Postoffice address, Lewistown.
 J. L. Beebe will erect a handsome residence this summer on his property in the west end of the city.
 Buy your builders' materials of every description of the Judith Hardware Co. Best grades, lowest prices.
 A. D. Barney, the Philbrook merchant, accompanied by his wife, was attending to business affairs in Lewistown on Monday.
 For Sale—Complete set of saloon fixtures at a bargain. For further information apply to T. C. Power & Bro., Ltd., Fort Benton, Montana.
 Charles Fisk, who is charged with causing the death of Nate Pierce of Flatwillow, entered a plea of "not guilty" in the district court on Monday. His trial was set for June 23rd.
 William Whitfield, president of the Sweet Grass woolen mills at Big Timber, says that the plant is unable to supply the demand for its products and is a complete success.
 Two coaches, making quick time with comfort to passengers, now employed on the Lewistown-Kendall stage line. Coaches leave terminals at 9 a. m. and 2 p. m. every day except Sunday. Plenty of good stock and safe drivers. Prompt attention given to express matter and every accommodation afforded passengers. Extra facilities for moving excess baggage and large shipments. Stages make better time than can be made by private rigs and rates are low. Lewistown office at McKechnie & Allan's.

For hard water use amoline soap at McKechnie & Allan's.
 A furnished room for rent. Inquire at the Judith Bakery.
 Richard Raw of Philbrook drove to the city on Monday.
 H. F. Dadmun and Ed. Hart of Trout creek were in the city on Monday.
 Mrs. E. G. Worden left on Monday's coach for Great Falls for a short visit.
 Screen doors, refrigerators, gasoline stoves, etc., at Judith Hardware Co.
 Mrs. Dorsett, alias Calamity Jane, arrived in the city on Thursday morning.
 Dr. M. M. Hedges, the up-to-date dentist, is again to be found at his old stand.
 W. N. Abbott and wife of Utica were transacting business at the land office last week.
 H. M. Packard of Stanford was transacting business at the county seat this week.
 Joseph Briggs, Lewistown, paper hanging, painting and all kinds of fancy house decorations.
 Dr. R. S. Hedges makes a specialty of diseases of women. Hospital accommodations for out-of-town patients.
 Best quality of hams and bacon, as well as superior fresh meats, and fish and game in season, at the Lewistown Meat Co.
 Mr. and Mrs. Will Polly of Utica drove to the county seat this week and remained for a couple of days visiting friends.
 Joseph Briggs of Lewistown is the agent for the Potter wall paper mills of Chicago. A full line of samples always on hand.
 Does your baby give you any trouble? If so go to the Montana Hardware Co. and buy a Baby Jumper and your troubles are over.
 H. M. Packard of Stanford states that the feceses in that section are exceptionally clean this year and a good clip is expected.
 The dry goods department of the Power Mercantile Co. has been moved to the new building, where it has been very tastefully arranged.
 If you are in need of a casket or other undertaker's supplies call at the Montana Hardware Co. and your wants will be supplied. Telephone No. 52 or 93.
 George Hall returned from Harlowton on Sunday, where he had gone for the purpose of bringing back his wife, who has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Boulter of that place.
 Tuning, repairing and polishing efficiently done by Orton Bros. man; now here. See him at Power's store, where he is selling elegant new pianos at easily reached prices on terms as easy as rent.
 Rent a piano two years at the usual rental of $10 monthly and we will give it to you. It is yours to use and enjoy. For a little more we can sell you a new scale Kimball, the best piano made in America for the money. See them at Power's store. Orton Bros.
 It will pay you to take your laundry to the Judith Steam Laundry and have it done in a first-class manner. The establishment is fitted with a full and complete outfit of the latest improved machinery and guarantees to accomplish satisfactory work. The management makes a practice of being prompt and obliging and earnestly solicits a trial.

Tanglefoot, tanglefoot, tanglefoot, at McKechnie & Allan's.
 For ice cold Milwaukee keg beer go to Louis Landt's place.
 James Meter of Philbrook paid a visit to the county seat last week.
 For Liberal Liver's Liver try Phospho Port sold at all leading bars.
 E. H. Messenger and wife of Flatwillow were patronizing the Lewistown stores this week.
 Don't forget to observe the display of dry goods in the show window of the Lewistown Commercial Co.
 A welcome little stranger arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moore of Upper Cottonwood on Sunday.
 Dr. R. S. Hedges treats diseases of the stomach and bladder; gynecology a specialty. Office in Judith Hardware building.
 Some snow fell early on Tuesday morning and there was a noticeable absence of summer attire during the remainder of the day.
 Peter Jackson and wife from Upper Sage creek, were in the city on Friday. While here Mr. Jackson made yearly proof on his desert entry.
 A large number of Lewistown people went to Gilt Edge on June 13th to participate in the Miner's celebration and returned soaked—on the outside.
 Mr. F. Fink, a mining expert of national repute, arrived in Lewistown last week and yesterday went to Kendall to look over the district.
 Miss Main left Lewistown on Friday for Missoula, where she will visit with friends before joining the vacation party at the Biological Station at Flathead lake.
 Mrs. Alice White and her daughter Lena arrived in Lewistown on Saturday. They are the mother and sister of Mrs. J. L. Beebe and will spend the summer months visiting her.
 An auction sale will take place at the Crowley barn on June 18th, on which occasion Thomas Pratt will dispose of Divergeant, a standard registered trotting stallion and a number of other well bred equines.
 For Sale—A comfortable residence, two lots, barn and carriage house. Situated in a desirable locality on Fifth avenue; for particulars enquire of Harry Brown, Power Mercantile Co. city.
 Mr. and Mrs. William Hawson left the city Monday on a visit to their daughter, Mrs. Sam Houston, who resides at Chinook. They will be absent from their home on Cottonwood creek for a month.
 Children's day will be observed at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Special services for the occasion will take the place of the regular services. Usual services will be held in the evening.
 Shearing will be conducted at Living Springs this year as heretofore. Mr. Shiell will have experienced hands to tie wool so as to insure against loss, and will make every effort to please patrons. Read the advertisement elsewhere.
 J. M. Parent of Kendall passed through the city on Saturday en route to William Nell's place, where he will meet his wife, who has just returned from a nine months' visit with friends and relatives in Kentucky. Mr. and Mrs. Parent returned to Lewistown yesterday and this morning Mr. Parent went to Kendall in order to furnish a home to which Mrs. Parent will go in a few days.

Paris green that stands the test at McKechnie & Allan's.
 Strawberries, cherries, grape fruit and tomatoes at Geo. W. Hall's.
 Frank Sink, the Big Coulee wool-grower, was in Lewistown this week.
 Two girls desiring to learn laundry work are needed at the Judith laundry.
 Regular services will be held at the Catholic church next Sunday at 8 and 10:30 a. m.
 The goods at the New York Store are as high as others in quality—but not in prices.
 Owing to the heavy rains of last night the Great Falls stage was several hours late this morning.
 When needing a casket or coffin go to the Judith Hardware Co. Leaders in undertakers' supplies. Telephone 63 or 138.
 Parties contemplating a trip to the Yellowstone Park can arrange for transportation of themselves and baggage by inquiring at this office. Easy and ample accommodations and low terms.
 At Powers store can be seen as fine an assortment of pianos as ever came to Lewistown. They comprise the Kimball and Hallett & Davis makes. Low prices and easy payments. Orton Bros.
 See them today! The elegant new pianos at Power's store. To be offered for sale for a very short time at a very short figure. Tomorrow may lose you a bargain. Better see them today. Orton Bros.
 A. C. Stoutenburg and wife of Philbrook are in the city. Mr. Stoutenburg states that his crops are in excellent condition and the agricultural outlook throughout that section of the county is good.
 It doesn't take much to educate your children in music. Orton Bros. can and will save you enough money on the purchase of a piano this week to educate your children in this refining study. See them at Power's store. Sold on payments.
 B. C. White of Uter while in the city this week informed us that the agricultural outlook in his district was exceptionally good this season and that some first-class results have been obtained from winter wheat on Fock creek.
 D. W. Minton of Edgewater, who was in Lewistown Monday, reports that the cattle grazing in that vicinity are now quite as fat as when sent to market and he thinks the shipments will be heavy and of fine quality. All stock and ranch interests are prospering.
 J. L. Stuart made a trip to Ruby Gulch last week and brought back a sack of rich sample ore from the property of the Ruby Gulch Mining, Milling & Development Co. Mr. Stuart states that there is still a considerable amount of water in the gulch and work is accomplished under difficulties.
 People cannot understand how it is possible for the Utica Mercantile Co. to sell goods as cheaply as they do. They are selling the best flour in 500 pound lots for cash at $2.50 per cwt., sugar at $6.50, wire at $4.75 and everything else on a like scale. They do now, as they always did, pay the highest price for farm produce and the goods they give in exchange are always clean, fresh and of the best quality. No wonder the farmers within the reach of Utica wear a broad smile these days. Patronize the Utica Mercantile Co.—they are entitled to it.

Milwaukee keg beer is the beer of all beers. At Louis Landt's place.
 Blackford & Blackford, attorneys, office in Judith Basin bank building.
 J. C. Hauck and wife of Philbrook have been spending a few days in Lewistown.
 Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Kane are spending a few days in the Cascade county metropolis.
 P. J. Hannah, the Trout Creek rancher, was transacting business at the county seat this week.
 The White sewing machine is the best ever made and price is right at the Judith Hardware Co.
 Buy the Garland, a charter oak range, the best on earth, of Judith Hardware Co.
 Specialties in soda water, Saturdays and Sundays; also, ice cream and cake. Our syrups are made at home by a man who has had seven years experience. Geo. W. Hall.
 Attachment proceedings have been willow by Edward Spears & Co. of Billings for debt. Sheriff Shaw left for Flatwillow on Monday in order to attach several head of horses.
 A party consisting of S. S. Beebe, Albert Clausen and Gordon Shafer left town last Thursday morning by the overland route for Havre in order to be present at the Sun dance, which will take place at that point on the 23rd of June.
 David Hilger has received a communication from the secretary of the North Montana Woolgrowers Association, asking him to deliver an address on the "History of the Montana Wool Markets" at the meeting of the association, which will take place at Great Falls July 20th to 23rd.
 At Garnett July 4th a very enjoyable celebration of the national birthday is promised. Among the attractions will be hoorsracing, footracing, base ball, rope walking and other athletic sports. The arrangement committee promises a good time all day and special attractions at the ball in the evening.
 The organ is alright for a beginner. If the piano cannot be procured, you have little excuse for not owning a piano after once seeing and pricing the Kimball's at Power's store. Organs exchanged on pianos. Orton Bros.
 Murray Deaton returned from Hunter's Hot Springs on Friday evening, where he had been taking care of his father, W. D. Deaton, who was taken seriously sick at that place some two weeks ago. Mr. Deaton is now on the high road to recovery and will remain at the Springs for two weeks yet in order to thoroughly recuperate.
 Miss Cora Ward says that she was exceedingly surprised to see by the Democrat last week that she was likely to be a candidate for county superintendent of schools this fall and requests us to state that she is not now a candidate, but that if she ever should have aspirations to hold that office her candidacy would be in the hands of Republican friends, to which party she owes allegiance.
 Something New and Yet Old.
 J. L. Nielsen, the old-time merchant tailor, has taken a partner, A. Coaske, formerly of St. Louis, Mo., and a graduate of John J. Mitchell's cutting school of New York City, who is a first class tailor also a good furrier. The firm, Nielsen & Coaske, will therefore be prepared to do all kinds of fur work in connection with their tailoring establishment. Temporarily located next door south of McKechnie & Allan's drug store, up stairs.

RELIABLY DIFFERENT

Suit made of brown all-wool chevrot serge, the blouse jacket nicely trimmed in satin, with bishop sleeves, coat collar, cuffs and belt of black silk. The gored skirt has fancy-shaped flounce, lined with good quality buckskin.

PRICE, $20.00

There are plenty of ready-made garments for women in the market; some of them are very good, and some are very bad. Some of the worst often look very good until you wear 'em, and then—

The "Palmer Garment" is good style—fabric and tailoring. It differs from all others in this, that you know beforehand it's good. The name is a guarantee, and

WE GUARANTEE IT.

Bertrand & Laux

BLACKLEG BLACKLEG

Save Your Cattle
 by using
BLACKLEGOIDS.
 No Wash and No Trouble in Using Them

Work Just the Same as the Vaccine but Just Half the Work in Giving it.

You Always Give the Full Dose

FOR SALE BY
...M'KECHNIE & ALLAN...
 DRUGGISTS

BOUND

For one of those Good Dinners
"The Lewistown" Hotel
 C. E. WRIGHT, Prop.
 TELEPHONE NO. 55.

Artistic Job Printing 5% Argus for Fine Work, Low Prices

Clean Sweep Sale.
 Ladies Tailor Made Suits
 Ladies Dress Skirts
 Ladies Jackets

LEWISTOWN COMMERCIAL CO.

Clean Sweep Sale
 In Our Millinery Department.

A CLEAN SWEEP SALE---GET OUT OF THE HOUSE

That's what we are saying to our Ladies' Tailor Made Suits, Jackets, Skirts and every Hat in our Millinery Department. Yes, that's what we are saying to them, and we're going to make it our business to see that they go. On Saturday, June 21st, we will inaugurate a Clean Sweep Sale, and the goods have simply got to go.

Clean Sweep Prices, which you must admit are unusual, and admitting that much, how can you see such an opportunity pass unheeded. We have never betrayed your confidence, and we won't start now when we have more of your trade than any other store in town.

Clean Sweep Skirt Sale
 Ladies' Spring and Summer Jackets in Mode Venetian, and Grey and Oxford Chevrot Serge, English Scintilla lined. Regular value, $5.00.
Clean Sweep Sale Price, - - $2.50
 Ladies Tailor-Made Suits in Oxford and Mode Venetian and Tan Chevrot-Serge, all handsomely tailored and trimmed. Values up to $13.50.
Clean Sweep Sale Price, - - $4.75
Clean Sweep sale prices on Walking and Dress skirts will range from $1.75 to $12.50.

Clean Sweep Millinery Sale
 Our Half-Price Millinery Sale cleaned up all the ready-trimmed hats in the house, but left a great many untrimmed. Our milliner and assistant have been working like beavers night and day trimming the remaining shapes for this sale, so there'll be hats for everybody and at the price you want to pay.
 The variety is so great we shall not attempt a description, but simply state that Clean Sweep Millinery Sale Prices will range from 75c up to $5.00 for Trimmed Hats.

Make a note that this sale commences Saturday, June 21st, and continues one week