When the recent campaign ended both the old political organizations in this county folded their banners and put them away for two years; debate ceased and politics disappeared from the minds of Republican and Democrat. But these pesky Socialists seem to be at it harder than ever. They are holding meetings each Sunday and have succeeded in lining up the discontented to an extent that makes it necessary for the "local" to secure a hall where these gatherings are to be held hereafter. At the last meeting eight new members were added to the roll. This notwithstanding, the party cast a rather surprising vote at the recent election in this county, especially at Kendall, and the present activity of the Socialist committee, with the announcement that it is to continue right up to election day two years hence may furnish a hint that the Republicans and Democrats would do well to take.

The residents of Forest Grove are going to have a Christmas tree at Millsaps' hall Christmas night, Dec. 25, 1906. The young folks are making great preparations to have a good time and are giving a dance and supper after the free entertainment. Everybody invited.

The biennial report of State Fish and Game Warden W. F. Scott, just submitted to Gov. Toole, shows that during the two years three arrests for violations of the fish and game laws were made in Fergus county out of a total of 25 arrests in the state. The receipts of the department during the two years, 1905-6, amounted to $59,084.63, while the expenses were $34,491.38, leaving a balance of $24,593.25. In advocating increased bounty of $10 on cougars or mountain lion, Game Warden Scott recommends that it be paid from the funds of this department. The work of the department in detail for the two years follows: The records of this office show that 25 arrests have been made between
