HAPPILY MARRIED.

Frank Allen and Bride Satisfied That Love Will Find a Way.

Frank Allen, partner of Mr. Sirmo over on the Clarke Fork, returned Monday from St. Paul, accompanied by a blushing bride. Quite a romance might be woven out of the courtship that culminated in the marriage of this couple. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Heitman of White Sulphur Springs. The father is one of the wealthiest men in Meagher county and he has taken a justifiable pride in giving his daughters the benefit of the best educational advantages that could be obtained. Miss Lelia, for that was the name of the one who has linked her life and her fortune in marriage with Mr. Allen, was both bright and vivacious and shone with lustre at all society functions. Mr. Allen had known her since childhood and the attachment that he cherished for her was early reciprocated. But when papa heard that they were engaged he declared that their union should never be consummated, and with this end in view sent his daughter to St. Paul that she might finish her education and at the same time be away from her lover. But as usual the plans miscarried, for when Mr. Allen went back to St. Paul and called upon his promised bride she adroitly gained permission to go out for a walk and when she came back to the college to bid goodbye to her instructors she announced that she had become the bride of the gentleman to whose arm she clung.

BELL PEOPLE ARE COMING.

Company is Building an Office Just Across the Bridge.

A building is now under course of construction which will be used, when completed, as an office for the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company. Supt. Harry Sommers came over here from Helena last Monday and let the contract for the erection of the building, and the company intends to have its service in operation to the city limits some time during the coming week. The building is being erected just outside the city limits, beside the repair shops of the Rocky Fork Coal company. It is just across the wagon bridge that leads to the company tipple and works and will furnish an office for the accommodation of the people of Red Lodge until such time as the city may see fit to grant the Bell people the privilege of erecting their poles and stringing their wires through the city. Connection will be made with the line that runs to Bear creek, the wires of the company being strung up the hill to the east of town to connect with the line that is already built.

GUILTY OF CONTEMPT

L. M. Miles Will Probably Respond to the Summons When Judge Henry Sends for Him Again.

SMITH JOSHES MEYER

Offers to Pay Fine if Meyer Will Serve Out Miles' Sentence—Jury Summoned.

When Judge Frank Henry convened the November term of district court last Tuesday he found that a jury would be required for the trial of several civil actions that were on the docket, in addition to the criminal cases that were to come up during the term, and therefore decided to summon a petit jury for the term. The jury is called to be in attendance next Monday at 2 o'clock.

Among the first business that demanded the attention of the court was the examination by Judge Henry of L. M. Miles for contempt of court. He was the witness that was subpoenaed in the "Cuckoo" murder trial, but failed to obey the summons. Miles gave as his excuse for not being present in court when the trial was held was that he had missed the coach which had brought the other witnesses from Bridger and so had gone to Billings with the intention of coming to Red Lodge on the train. But when he got to Billings he had partaken rather freely of the red liquor and did not wake up in time the next morning to take the Red Lodge train. He said that he was 55 years old and that he would try and not have the offense repeated.

The court told him that this was an offense that did not often happen more than once in a man's lifetime and imposed a fine of $25 upon him and sentenced him to five days' imprisonment in the county jail.

After the passing of the sentence John T. Smith, the wit of the bar of eastern Montana, saw an opportunity to poke a little fun at a fellow member of the profession, and, addressing W. F. Meyer, said that his sympathies were aroused by reason of the age and infirmities of the defendant in the contempt proceedings and he suggested a way by which Miles might escape the punishment which had been pronounced upon him by the court. "If you will serve out the five days' imprisonment," said Mr. Smith to his brother attorney, "I'll pay the $25 fine. I would like to see this thing fixed up right away, as I must return home this afternoon." Needless to say, Mr. Meyer did not consent to the arrangement.

David Saborn, who forged a check on his employers last spring and was not prosecuted upon his promising to return and work out the amount which he had unlawfully obtained, but who only worked out a portion of the amount and then skipped out, was brought before the court on the charge of forgery, waived time in which to plead and entered a plea of not guilty. His trial was set for next Monday. He has retained F. C. Woodward to conduct his defense.

Henry Glasspool was arraigned on the charge of burglary and entered a plea of not guilty. He is the man who walked away with a cash register at Bridger last week. He will have his trial on Monday and will also be defended by F. C. Woodward.

The case of the state against Ed Lovegreen for defacing brands was set for trial next Wednesday.

In the grand larceny case brought against Willis Jones and Peter C. Enzor, for killing a steer not belonging to them out on Clarke Fork and disposing of the meat, Mr. Jones entered a plea of not guilty and the case was set for trial next Friday. Mr. Enzor was out on bonds and did not appear, but his attorney said he would be here when the case was called.

The following are the names of the jurors drawn for the term, to be on hand at the opening of court next Monday:

- J. E. Johnson, A. G. Harkdoff and J. R. Mendenhall of Absarokee; Joseph Douglass of Bowler; C. S. LeNoir, Arthur Bundy, A. L. Celander, A. H. Spencer and John T. May of Bridger; G. W. Livingstone of Chance; Warren Drake of Carbonado; William Wilcox of Fishtail; W. J. Swallow and T. E. Posse of Geba; Ross D. Patten, E. H. Earhart and D. C. Bedford of Nye; James Barry of Roberts; W. S. Hall, Dan Keith, Peter Pryde, Presley Hicox and Elijah Clark of Red Lodge, and H. H. Glenn of Silesia.

Disposition was made of the following civil cases as hereby noted:

- W. F. Meyer vs. W. B. Nutting; injunction. Set for trial Dec. 1.
- Henry Chapman vs. Nels Halvorsen; debt. Default of defendant entered for want of answer.
- John E. Lodrig vs. Jordan N. Bean; water right. Plaintiff dismisses suit as settled.
- Melvin Neary vs. J. S. Decker; claim and delivery. Stipulation filed on appeal.
- William C. Chaffin vs. Samuel A. Burkhardt; attachment. Plaintiff dismisses suit.
- R. L. Banta vs. Charles Helms; recovery. F. C. Sauerwein made party defendant.
- Sarah Elizabeth Owens vs. Samuel Owens; divorce. Case set for trial Nov. 26.
- Fred H. Davis vs. Clarke Fork Coal Mining company; foreclosure. Case set for trial Nov. 29.
- B. F. Pippenger et al vs. Rocky Fork Coal company; injunction. Case set for trial Nov. 29.
- George W. Lyons vs. Peter Westler; appeal from justice court. Case set for trial Dec. 1.
- J. N. Tolman vs. Ed Lovegreen; recovery. Case set for trial Nov. 26.
- Timian C. Graham vs. T. S. Hood; damages. Case set for trial Dec. 2.
- Granite Ditch company et al vs. W. Anderson et al; water rights on Rock creek. Case set for trial Dec. 3.
- James Lesman vs. John L. Burns; appeal from justice court. Continued by agreement.

HARNEY BACK FROM ASYLUM.

Got Sobered Up and Swears He Will Never Taste Another Drop.

After a sojourn of eight months at the asylum at Warm Springs, Tom Harney was pronounced cured last Saturday and released from the institution. He arrived in Red Lodge on Sunday and convinced all his friends that he is once more of sound mind and discernment. He says he has become a total abstainer now and never intends to taste another drop as long as he lives.

Mr. Harney recounts an interesting incident that happened at the asylum the next morning after Hans Miller had been placed in the institution. Hans didn't like it a bit after he found out he had been committed to the asylum and, watching his opportunity, made a sudden and vicious attack upon his keeper, whom he knocked down and was in the act of doing him up, when Hans was as quietly as possible taken in tow by an assistant and put under restraint until he had cooled off. It wasn't but a day or two after this that Hans imagined he was placed in charge of two patients who were inmates of the asylum, but somehow the men wouldn't pay the least bit of attention to his commands. Hans concluded that he would have to show his authority by a display of brute force and started to administer corporal punishment to both of them, but either one of them proved to be fully as good a man as Hans, and the beating that he received at their hands has had a wonderful influence upon him and caused him to be very good and peaceable ever since.

FOXY BOY CAUGHT.

Date on Outlawed Note Held By Mills Tampered With.

A civil action to recover on a note for $100, with interest thereon from date, executed by W. H. Raspberry to O. E. Mills, was tried Saturday in Justice Chaffin's court. Mr. Raspberry, the defendant, set up that the note had been given in 1893 and hence was outlawed and could not be collected. Under the Montana law a note outlaws in eight years' time. The note itself bore date of 1895, but there were evidences of the note having been tampered with and the date raised from 1893 to 1895. The court put the instrument under a magnifying glass and ascertained to his satisfaction that it had been tampered with, whereupon he decided the case against Mr. Mills. George W. Burke was attorney for plaintiff and W. F. Meyer appeared for the defense.
