Constitutional Amendments Explained. Here's why "Old Gang" howl Anarchists. People of North Dakota Now Run Own Business.

THE AMENDMENTS:

That no law or legislative enactment of the Legislature shall be declared unconstitutional unless four of the five judges of the supreme court shall so decide.

For the Initiative and Referendum.

For the Campaign Pamphlet issued by the state which will fairly and fully discuss both sides of all questions to be voted upon;

For the Emergency provisions which make it possible for the Legislature to pass emergency laws which may go into effect before submitting same to the people;

That no measures initiated by or referred to the people may be vetoed by the governor or repealed by the Legislature unless two-thirds of the legislators so vote on roll call;

That proposed amendments of the Constitution, if agreed to by a majority of the Legislature, must be submitted to the people; and that 20,000 voters may by petition also place proposed Constitutional Amendments on the ballot;

That the Legislature may exempt city homes and farm improvements from taxation;

That the Legislature may provide an acreage tax to be used in creating a state Hail Insurance Fund;

That the state may issue or guarantee the payment of bonds for public utilities, provided that all bonds in excess of $2,000,000 be secured by first mortgages and that no public utility shall be bonded in excess of $10,000,000:

That the state, any county or city, may make internal improvements and engage in any industry, enterprise or business, not prohibited by Article 20 of the Constitution, but neither the state nor any political subdivision thereof shall otherwise loan or grant its credit or make donations to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation, except for the reasonable support of the poor, nor subscribe to or become the owner of capital stock in any association or corporation.
