Youth and Age.

I often think each tottering form
That flings along in life's decline,
Once bore a heart as young, as warm,
As full of idle thoughts as mine!

A Dance with an Injun.

[From Vicksburg Herald.]
On account, perhaps of the manifold duties always pressing upon us, we have never learned to wait—

THE HARTFORD HERALD.

VOL. 2. HARTFORD, OHIO COUNTY, KY., AUGUST 2, 1876. NO. 30.

"I COME, THE HERALD OF A NOISY WORLD, THE NEWS OF ALL NATIONS LUMBERING AT MY BACK"

From Spring Lick.

Spring Lick, July 24, 1876.
The continued dry weather has produced in the minds of many rather gloomy forebodings in respect to the crops.

What the County Papers do.

An exchange combats with considerable vigor the argument that city papers are cheaper and better than the county because they give more columns of reading for the money.

An Incident that Should be Read by Married People.

Not very long ago I was riding in the cars and an incident occurred that seemed to me so beautiful that I want to tell it for the encouragement of womankind.

Some Sensible Talk.

[Madisonville Times.]
There is no good reason why a liberal, conservative, intelligent Southern Republican should not support the nominees of the St. Louis Convention.

A Warning to Bachelors.

Bottlebury will never dive into a creek to save another woman from drowning. He saw a red-haired girl named Sparks tumble in the other day off a boat,

A Remark on Grangerism.

POINT PLEASANT July 29, 1876.
When I say grangerism, I do not have reference to the true principles of the order, but to that portion of the principles that are practiced by a portion of its members.

A New Departure.

A lady correspondent thus discourages: "The great want of women at present is money—money for their personal wants and money to carry out their plans.

Going to the Dentist.

I like to come across a man with the tooth-ache. There is something so pleasant about advising him to stuff cotton in it, to use camphor, creosote, peppermint and "relief," that I always feel better after giving it.

Still They Come.

Gov. Sam Bard has quit the Republican party and come out flatfooted for Tilden and Hendricks. Gov. Bard has been a faithful Republican since 1868, and has held various important offices under General Grant during that time,

As Much Opposed to two Terms as Grant was.

The second pledge of Mr. Hayes is amusing. He states his "inflexible purpose, if selected, not to be a candidate for election to a second term."

Extremely Silly.

There is a silly attempt made by some Republican journals to spread a report that Gov. Tilden will promise in his letter of acceptance not to remove any office-holders in case he is elected.

A Well-Known Memphian who attended the Cincinnati Convention, says that when he heard the delegates denounce Southern people in unmeasured terms all over Cin., he came home a confirmed Southern Democrat, and he wished that every Southern man had been there to hear the New England and Western Republicans express their hatred of everything and everybody South.

STATE NEWS.

Flemingburg Democrat.—A very distressing accident happened to Mr. John H. Crain, of Hillsboro, on last Monday morning, which will probably result in his death. It seems that Mr. Crain and his family had been troubled for several nights previous with the barking and howling of strange dogs in their yard.

New Postal Law.

The following sections of law have been passed by Congress and approved by the President:
"Sec. 15. That transient newspapers and magazines, regular publications designed primarily for advertising purposes, or for free circulation at nominal rates, and all printed matter of the third class except unsealed circulars, shall be admitted to, and be transmitted in, the mails at the rate of one cent for every two ounces or fractional part thereof, and one cent for each two additional ounces or fractional part thereof; and the sender of any article of the third class of mail matter may write his or her name or address thereon, or on the outside thereof, with the word "from" above or preceding the same, or may write briefly or print on any package the number and names of the articles enclosed. Publishers of newspapers and periodicals may print on the wrappers of newspapers or magazines sent from the office of publication to regular subscribers the time to which subscription therefor has been paid, and address upon postal cards and unsealed circulars may be either written, printed, or affixed thereto, at the option of the sender.
