LOCAL CULLINGS AND COMMENT.

"Eureka," Ford, the druggist. "Eureka" is the pass word. A variety of things at Ford's. Ford for lamps, oils and paints. Ford's drug store for prescriptions. Best cigars and tobacco at Gunther's.

A linen collar for 5 cents at Small's. A splendid slipper for 75 cents at Small's. A 30 cent suspender for 15 cents at Small's. Oriental lace for 8 cents a yard at Small's.

A splendid suit of clothes for $2 at Small's. Pure silk ribbon for 5 cents a yard at Small's. Kirtess cloth, something new, 15 cents a yard at Small's. A new supply of canvas cloth for 10 cents a yard at Small's.

New white goods in plaids and stripes for dresses at Anderson's Bazaar. A world of "GOOD" fertilizer for sale by D. F. Tracy, Hartford, Ky. 14 ct. The Hartford Cornet Band's Free Picnic on July 2nd is all the talk.

The Commercial Hotel has been beautified by a new coat of paint. A lot of "Indiana Sure Growth" for sale by D. F. Tracy, Hartford, Ky. 14 ct. Dr. Alexander is having his house repaired and otherwise ornamented.

Don't forget to call on Martin for anything you want in the jewelry line. Martin sells spectacles 25 per cent. less than they can be bought in Louisville. Visit the cheap department at Anderson's Bazaar before the bargains are all gone.

D. F. Tracy has a lot of GOOD fertilizers on hand, and will close out cheap. Beautiful designs of wall paper just received at Ford's drug store, and more to be had. M. W. Hines, of Bristol, Ky., bought some territory for the Eureka Plaiter a few days ago.

India Linen that would be cheap at 15 cents, is being sold for 10 cents a yard at Anderson's Bazaar. Rumor says that Mr. Wm. Steele is to be married next Sunday to a fair lady of fifty summers. James Sinclair, living near Horse Branch, had a fine mule killed by lightning last Thursday.

The compositor made us say last week that Mr. Geo. Wise, of near Beaver Dam, died of pneumonia on the 5th inst. It should have read, Mrs. Wise, his wife.

Griffin & Bro. have added a gas generator to their large soda fountain, and are better prepared to furnish delightful cooling drinks, as the HERALD force can testify.

A big lot of handsome cashmere fichus and mantles at wholesale cost at Anderson's Bazaar. These goods are cheap and handsome. Prices range from $1 to $7.

The gold watch and gold headed cane to be given away by the Hartford Cornet Band on July 2nd at their big picnic, can be seen by calling at C. R. Martin's jewelry store.

The Free Son's Lodge No. 1873 G. N. O. F. will celebrate its anniversary at the Ohio county Fair Grounds on Saturday July 9th, and give an ice cream supper at night.

N. L. Fitchner & Co., importing tailors, of Louisville, have issued an elegant circular letter to their many customers, showing their many facilities in the line of their work.

Dr. Coleman's sermon Sunday night on the History of Dancing was an epitomized review of this subject treated historically and comprehended in itself many facts of historical importance.

The Hartford Dancing Club will give their second grand ball at the rink in Hartford, on next Friday night. Good music has been engaged, and elegant and select enjoyment in every way, is assured.

Notwithstanding the recent advance in linned oil, I am still selling it for hard cash at 45 cents per gallon. White lead, best brands, at $5.50 to $6.50 per hundred. Mixed paints, all colors, at a close shave. J. W. Ford.

The following named persons have been appointed road surveyors for their respective localities, viz: Elijah Cooper vice C. M. Maddox, Jas. B. Albin vice J. M. Baize, Giles Awtry vice Jerry Ezell, Henry Ashby vice Ab Murray, Allen King Jr., vice N. T. Sharp, Jos. T. Fink vice Jonathan Hoover, Jas. P. Smith vice H. S. Smith, C. P. Brown vice Wm. Crow, W. C. Crow vice Allison Haynes.

The following compose the new board of magistrates in Ohio county, viz: W. I. Rowe, Jos. McKinley, Jas. H. Patton, W. N. Martin, C. L. Field, Jno. P. Morton, Robt. T. Reuder, A. H. Ross, A. S. Aull, B. F. Muffitt, Allison Haynes, Wm. M. Awtry. The following constables were qualified on the first Monday: L. P. Crowder, Rosine; Jno. W. Payne, Fordsville; A. P. Howard, Rockport; G. W. Martin, Cromwell; and Geo. H. Lanham, Buford.

THE NEW VOTING PRECINCTS. The following is the boundary of the new voting precinct of Beda: Beginning at the mouth of No Creek, thence up No Creek and with Abbyville boundary line to the line between Buford and Hartford precincts, thence with said dividing line to the forks of Barnet's Creek above Dr. Mason's house, thence up Barnet's Creek to the mouth of James Stewart's lane, thence with the road leading to Clear Run, thence with Clear Run to its mouth on Rough Creek, thence down Rough Creek to the line between C. W. Stevens and G. B. Hoeker farms, thence on a straight line to the Hartford and Hawesville road, thence with said road to its intersection with the Hartford and Owensboro road, thence with said road to No Creek bridge, thence down No Creek to the line between J. F. Wallace and J. N. Sanderford, thence with said line to the Methodist Church South, thence on a straight line to run between Isaac Foster's, J. B. Ward's and Jas. Ward's to Rough Creek, thence down Rough Creek to the beginning.

The following is a boundary of the new election precinct at Abbyville: Beginning at No Creek, thence up No Creek to its fork, thence up the west side of fork to Shinkle's Chapel, thence west including the residences of Chas. Hepsley and Wm. Hinton to the McLean county line, thence with said line to Rough Creek, and thence up Rough Creek to the beginning.

Cheap Drugs. Our prescription department is immense, and under careful management. New and fresh medicines received nearly every day. We sell for cash, which enables us to sell cheaper than on credit. A dollar saved, is a dollar made. Give us a call when you want a prescription filled cheaply and accurately. J. W. Ford, Druggist.

Circuit Court Notes. Several Commonwealth cases were continued by limitation. The Grand Jury was in session twelve days, and cost the State $288. The session will not adjourn before the last day of the term. Mackey, Nisbet & Co., vs. Rowe and Karns, dismissed as against Karns, with costs. Other suits against Rowe & Karns were likewise dismissed, as against Karns. Sarah E. Wallace vs. Sarah A. Wallace, deed ordered to be made to J. F. Wallace. James A. Thomas vs. Lee Otto, deed ordered to be made to Thomas. L. T. Cox vs. H. Owens, judgment for plaintiff for twenty acres of land, and writ of possession awarded. Thomas Maseie vs. John Hogeland, action dismissed without prejudice. John W. Ferguson vs. Frank Ferguson, continued. Campbell vs. Shultz, plaintiff recovered $300 as administrator. W. H. Cundiff's sentence was suspended sixty days for purpose of taking an appeal.

Our Colored Brethren. The eighteenth session of the Bowling Green Conference of the M. E. Church met with the church here and friends here the 9th inst., Rev. D. Jones presiding. B. L. Dickerson was elected Secretary. Twenty-four ministers were present. The reports from the different pastors showed a steady increase of the membership, and that several new fields of labor were opened up during the past year, and men of talent were appointed to take charge of them. The Sunday school and missionary causes were important parts of the work before the body, and a large increase in collections for benevolent purposes is expected for this year. The church at Hartford has been much quickened by the District Conference assembling here, and better things are expected in many respects for the future. The collection during conference was $50.45. Rev. W. E. Wilson, of Cynthiana, is the new pastor at this place, who is giving satisfaction to his church, and the members are hopeful of a good year.

Base Ball. Hartford's vs. Beaver Dam's, at Beaver Dam Saturday June 15th. Game called at 2:30. Wool and Ginseng is still in demand at Anderson's Bazaar.

Notice! Money saved by buying all kinds of Cemetery work of the Old Reliable firm of MISCHEL BROS., proprietors of OWENSBORO MARBLE, GRANITE AND STONE WORKS. The reason we can sell cheaper, and do our work better than others, we employ no agents, and attend to the business ourselves, and therefore parties buying of us can save that big commission usually paid them. Write for our prices, and see for yourselves that we mean what we say. Address all letters to MISCHEL BROS., 17 1/2 Owensboro, Ky.

ATTENTION! Owing to our immense trade this Spring, we are now restocking in almost every line, and if you come to see us now, we can supply you with New, Fresh Goods at low down prices. We have also a large line of Drummer's Samples that we can sell you at cut-rates. Call on us. HOCKER & Co., Beaver Dam.

Beda Budget. Farmers are favored with fine weather for their work just now. Wheat cutting was commenced Monday morning and no doubt a great deal will be cut and stored in the coming week. Oats and grass continue to look well. A few persons have set out tobacco. Henry Simmons, on Barnett's Creek, has had a fine crop planted, and part of it worked out. Last Saturday was a beautiful day for our Sunday School picnic, notwithstanding the day's proceedings, but rain nearly all the week, it cleared up and turned cool just in time to give us one of the most delightful days for the occasion. There was an immense crowd, and the people were the most orderly and well behaved it has been our good fortune to witness. There was not a single disorderly act in the whole proceedings, and everybody seemed happy and well pleased. It would require to much space and time to give a full detail of the day's proceedings, but will say that all acted their part in a creditable manner. Mr. Milligan deserves great praise for conducting and carrying out the programme. The speeches were well delivered and to the point. The singing was superb, and all feel grateful towards Judge Baird for his masterly speech, setting forth the grand things resulting from the Sunday School. The Judge is one of the best workers in this part of the State. There was an abundance of provisions on the grounds, and it was a day long to be remembered. RELIGIOUS.—Rev. L. E. Campbell filled his regular appointment at No Creek Sunday morning and at Clear Run in the evening, after which he baptized several persons. There will be quarterly meeting at Washington next Sunday. Among the number who attended the picnic Saturday from Hartford, we noticed Mrs. J. E. Rowe and sister, Mrs. Rose Hudson and sister, Mr. Edi Orkies, Misses Lizzie Moore and Maggie Duke, and others. While I would be glad of the success of any of the worthy applicants for the school at this place, I congratulate our very worthy and clever young friend, Tommy Bennett, who was elected by the patrons of the school to teach the next session. Frank Tichenor, an excellent young man, I understand, has secured the patronage of Rockport, at Clear Run in the evening, after which he baptized several persons. There will be quarterly meeting at Washington next Sunday.

PERSONALS.—A. Godshaw and Sam Tuxton went to Owensboro Sunday. Misses Mollie Maple and Mollie Crockett are visiting in Rockport. Miss Crabtree is visiting in Calhoun. Uncle Billy Calloway, of Rockport, spent several days with his grand-daughters recently. RAMBLER. Beaver Dam Notes. June 13th, 1887.—After a silence of some months, during which time our newsmonger was somewhat dilapidated, we again appear to the interest of our people and happenings of Beaver Dam. The health of our people is good. Trade has been very good. Farmers are working vigorously. Crops look well, with a very small acreage. Wheat cutting has begun, which is earlier than usual. The crop is fine on good land, but thin on poor land. The raising of an answer made to the writer by Uncle Eliza Coleman, several years ago, to a question in reference to the quantity to be sown on rich or poor land, we had heard the question of whether more wheat should be sown on poor land than rich land discussed, and concluded to get Uncle Eliza's judgment on the subject. Accordingly we propounded the question, "Upon which we should sow the most seed when poor or rich land?" His answer was, "You had better not sow any on poor land." Our annual observation convinces us of the wisdom of his answer. Sow less wheat and fertilizer if we will have no failures. Misses Fannie and Emma Barnes, and Prof. McHenry Rhoads were in town yesterday. Mrs. Eliza Midkiff and Mrs. Laura Kuykendall, of Woodbury, are visiting the family of Mr. S. P. Taylor. Mr. Warren Taylor was in town yesterday. Mr. I. P. Barnard, of Louisville, is in town. Miss Rosa Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam P. Taylor, returned home yesterday after an absence of several months. She has been attending school in Louisville. Mrs. Atha Cornelius has moved into her new residence in West Beaver Dam, and Mr. Wm. O. Davis has bought and moved into the house at Stringtown formerly owned by Mrs. Cornelius. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gray have returned from a visit to friends in Davless county. Our colored friends have built them a new church house in town. Mrs. Sophia Parrott, living near Pinechico, departed this life a few days ago and was buried in the cemetery at Providence. Mrs. Parrott had witnessed the demise of several of her children, and for several years she had been an invalid. The little daughter of W. P. Paxton recently very ill, is convalescing. The school taught by Miss Eliza Walker will close next Friday. Mrs. Nora Gray, of Louisville, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Sarah Taylor, RURAL.

Speaking. Mr. Jas. T. Barber, Prohibition candidate for Register of Land Office, will speak in Hartford on Wednesday, June 22nd. Don't Delay! Parties who have grinding to do will please bring it on immediately, as we will soon shut down the Hartford Water Mills to put in our new machinery. The carding machine and corn mill will still continue to run, however. All wool that was brought in before Tuesday is now carded. Respectfully, JOHN R. PHIPPS & Co.

MARRIED. BAIRD-TILFORD.—Mr. T. L. Baird, a prosperous and popular young merchant, of Stephensport, Ky., formerly of Hartford, was married Tuesday, June 7th to Miss Lida Tiford, the accomplished daughter of N. C. Tiford, of Caneyville. They were married in the Baptist church of that place. BORN. WEDDING.—To the wife of Richard Wedding, the 2nd inst., a boy, Dr. G. G. Neighbors attending physician. Notice. To all whom it may concern. I have this day set my son, C. W. Crow, free and hold no further claim upon his time or services, and will not longer be responsible for his acts, deeds or debts. WESLEY CHOW. June 8, 1887. 24-4 Hartford People Who visit Evansville will find a full assortment of Jewelry of all kinds at C. F. Artes, No. 126 Main Street. REAL ESTATE DEPARTMENT. (This column shall be permanently devoted to the buying and selling of real estate. Persons having farms or houses and lots for sale, may write to us for terms, which we will make as liberal as the interest of the seller. We shall also insert farms for rent, or town houses and lots for rent. FARM FOR SALE. I will sell my farm containing 592 acres, situated near the town of Horton, Ohio county, Ky., entire, or in lots to suit purchasers. The farm is susceptible of being divided into five lots. Four of the lots are provided with dwelling houses, stables and other necessary out buildings, all in good repair. A choice orchard is on each of the five lots, and the whole is well watered and timbered. This property will be disposed of on very easy terms. Also a store house and lot in the town of Horton, very eligibly located, being about 100 feet from the depot platform. I will sell or rent this property to responsible parties on very reasonable terms. Call on or address W. B. LEACH, Horton, Ky. 13 9 6 mos. FOR SALE. A very desirable small farm of 65 acres, situated about three and a-half miles from Hartford. There are twenty-five acres under fence, with plenty of timber to fence the whole of it. There is also a $150 barn on the premises; the barn is six tiers high, enclosed on three sides. Also a corn crib, 20 feet long by 6 feet wide, and a good two-story dwelling house. The buildings are all new. Stock water in abundance from fine spring near the house. This offers a splendid opportunity to man of moderate means to secure a comfortable home.
