

BUGGIES

SPRING AND FARM WAGONS, MOWING MACHINES

BUGGIES

The Largest and Best stock of Buggies, Spring Wagons and Mowing Machines ever brought to Ohio county! An Open Buggy for the small sum of $35—A good Top Buggy for $47.50. We have every style and price. If you want a New Buggy or Wagon, call and see our stock before purchasing elsewhere.

W. T. KING

HARTFORD

CLEVELAND AND THURMAN DEMOCRATIC TICKET. Grover Cleveland, OF NEW YORK. Allen G. Thurman, OF OHIO. S. Calvin Taylor. John B. Wilson.

THE PLATFORM. The Democratic party of the United States, in national convention assembled, renounces the pledge of its fidelity to Democratic faith and reaffirms its platform adopted by its representatives in the convention of 1884...

EVERY true Democrat, with the good of his party at heart, should vote early Monday morning for Taylor and Wilson.

EVERY Democrat in the county should go to the election Monday and cast his vote for Taylor and Wilson.

DEMOCRATS, if you stay at home, you will be defeated; if you go to the polls, you will be successful.

DEMOCRATS, if you want Taylor and Wilson for Sheriff and Surveyor, go to the election and vote, and success is ours.

EVERY true Democrat, with the good of his party at heart, should vote early Monday morning for Taylor and Wilson.

BROWN'S record is slightly mixed. It seems he is more of a Democrat than a Republican after all. But he didn't vote for Asbury.

A GREAT Temperance Mass Meeting will be held at Dawson from August 4th to 13th. Noted speakers and orators are billed for the occasion.

ENGINEER JACKMAN will make out the probable cost of building the L. H. & S. W. road from Fordsville to Hartford in a few days; then the Company will make their proposition to the people of Hartford and along the line.

A WORD TO DEMOCRATS. The August election is upon us. The canvass is nearly over, and the result will soon be known.

DEBATED by this immense temptation the money of the Republic is being met and exhausted by extravagant appropriations and expenditures.

DEBATED by this immense temptation the money of the Republic is being met and exhausted by extravagant appropriations and expenditures.

DEBATED by this immense temptation the money of the Republic is being met and exhausted by extravagant appropriations and expenditures.

DEBATED by this immense temptation the money of the Republic is being met and exhausted by extravagant appropriations and expenditures.

DEBATED by this immense temptation the money of the Republic is being met and exhausted by extravagant appropriations and expenditures.

DEBATED by this immense temptation the money of the Republic is being met and exhausted by extravagant appropriations and expenditures.

DEBATED by this immense temptation the money of the Republic is being met and exhausted by extravagant appropriations and expenditures.

DEBATED by this immense temptation the money of the Republic is being met and exhausted by extravagant appropriations and expenditures.

DEBATED by this immense temptation the money of the Republic is being met and exhausted by extravagant appropriations and expenditures.

DEBATED by this immense temptation the money of the Republic is being met and exhausted by extravagant appropriations and expenditures.

DEBATED by this immense temptation the money of the Republic is being met and exhausted by extravagant appropriations and expenditures.

DEBATED by this immense temptation the money of the Republic is being met and exhausted by extravagant appropriations and expenditures.

riding almost day and night, stirring up their men and circulating every report possible to influence votes for their candidates.

The Democrats have every reason to vote for their principles and their candidates. In the great principle now dividing the two parties, the Democrats are arrayed on the side of tariff reform, while the Republicans are sold body and soul to the allied money and monopoly powers.

Personally speaking, there is no reason why the Democrats should not support their nominees. They are both men of intelligence, honesty and ability—men in every way worthy the support they ask at the hands of the people.

A LIE CLINCHED. "We counted forty-one lies in this week's issue of our worthy contemporary the Herald, and we are told they were only practicing for next week."

You did! Well, you will please read the answer to the following, which you claim is our largest false statement. We will say to our contemporary that we do not make any statements that we cannot substantiate.

"The Herald repeats its maliciously false statement about the Leach and Lindley case for Surveyor notwithstanding Leach and Lindley were fairly nominated. Its latest straw is that they can prove it by a member of the Rep. Com. and will do so if challenged. We say in behalf of Lindley, Leach and the Republican Committee that the statement you cite belittles and challenges you for proof."

Read the statement of Messrs. L. R. and A. M. Barnett, who are brothers of Alex. Barnett, one of the Republican Committeemen for Ohio county, Ky.:

"We, the undersigned, heard Mr. Alex. Barnett, a member of the Republican Committee, make the statement that Mr. Leach was counted out of twenty-five votes. He also said that it was done because 'old John Lindley' had the money."

Now, don't you feel just like you had made a challenge that you could have well done without. The fact is, we needed no proof, for those Republicans who were there could see for themselves that Leach was counted out by 25 or 30 votes. They all knew it. Dear Progress, don't you feel like you had let a bird loose.

DR. RAINS STILL A DEMOCRAT. "Dr. V. B. Rains, a life long Democrat in one of the most influential citizens in this part of the state was elected President of a Harrison and Morton club at Cayceville last week."

Read the following letter from Dr. V. B. Rains to H. W. Lewis, of Rosine, Ky., in answer to an inquiry as to the truthfulness of the above statement. The letter speaks for itself:

CASKEYVILLE, Ky., July 29, 1888. H. W. Lewis—Dear Sir: The report that I had joined the Republican party originated from a meeting held at this place for the purpose of arranging things for a reunion of the old soldiers, &c. It is absolutely false, and I would not notice it were it not for the satisfaction of my friends in regard to the matter.

When the stars grow cold, when the sun ceases to give us light, when I forget the name of Washington, of Jefferson, of Jackson and other great lights of Democracy, and the pages of history are effaced from the memory of man, then will I cease to be a Democrat.

We have fought its battles in adversity, and in times that tried men's souls, and we are to now the principles of the promised land and the New Jerusalem to forsake the colors now. Yours really, V. B. RAINS.

To our worthy contemporary we ask, who has lied? The Progress may accuse us of falsehood, but it may rest assured that the HERALD will never make a statement it cannot substantiate.

Put that down on your memorandum book. We are slow to say our contemporary has made a number of maliciously false statements in its recent issues, but we would mildly suggest that it forsake the error of its way and cease lying.

The Progress says the HERALD has changed opinions on the Blair bill. We said nothing about the Blair bill but this, which we repeat: "That when Mr. Bradley said the Democratic party was opposed to education because it was not unconditionally in favor of the Blair bill, he told what was positively untrue, and ought to have known it."

It is a difference as to means, and not a difference as to ends. The Democratic party is in favor of education. If the Progress means to say that the Democratic party is opposed to education because it does not favor the Blair bill, then the Progress is to be pitied for its want of information.

If the Progress man will take the pains to examine, he will find that when the HERALD changed opinions, it changed editors also.

BROWN'S RECORD. A great many Republicans know nothing whatever of Mr. Brown's record. For the information of the public, we give below a few of Mr. Brown's votes as taken from the poll books:

In 1874 he voted for six Democrats and three Republicans.

In 1882 he voted for five Democrats and three Republicans.

In 1883 he voted for Morrow, and supported W. D. Coleman against W. P. Render.

In 1884 he failed to vote with his party altogether in the Presidential election.

In 1886 he voted for three Republicans and five Democrats.

In 1887 he voted for one Republican and one Democrat.

This is a fine record for a man who asks the suffrage of a party. If the Republicans divide their vote next Monday as Mr. Brown has done, Taylor's majority would be over a thousand. Mr. Brown could not stand it to vote for Asbury, but he, of course, wants all the negroes to vote for him.

No doubt Mr. Brown expects all the colored men to vote for him, but he set them a bad example when he failed to vote for Asbury. The Republicans have been silent on Brown's record as a voter, and have kept the matter as silent as possible.

We simply make these statements so that the people may know what they have a right to know.

"I hereby certify to the correctness of the above. Attest: T. J. SMITH, Clerk."

FREE WHISKY. The Chicago Tribune, a staunch Republican paper, says of the free whisky plank in the Republican platform:

"McKinley & Co. have done mischief enough already in forcing into the Republican platform a free whisky plank which does not represent or accord with the Republican sentiment, and it is decidedly impudent in them to be laboring now to prevent the Senate from correcting the blunder in the interest of the party."

McKinley and his associates have done mischief enough already in forcing into the Republican platform a free whisky plank which does not represent or accord with the Republican sentiment, and it is decidedly impudent in them to be laboring now to prevent the Senate from correcting the blunder in the interest of the party.

McKinley and his associates have done mischief enough already in forcing into the Republican platform a free whisky plank which does not represent or accord with the Republican sentiment, and it is decidedly impudent in them to be laboring now to prevent the Senate from correcting the blunder in the interest of the party.

McKinley and his associates have done mischief enough already in forcing into the Republican platform a free whisky plank which does not represent or accord with the Republican sentiment, and it is decidedly impudent in them to be laboring now to prevent the Senate from correcting the blunder in the interest of the party.

McKinley and his associates have done mischief enough already in forcing into the Republican platform a free whisky plank which does not represent or accord with the Republican sentiment, and it is decidedly impudent in them to be laboring now to prevent the Senate from correcting the blunder in the interest of the party.

McKinley and his associates have done mischief enough already in forcing into the Republican platform a free whisky plank which does not represent or accord with the Republican sentiment, and it is decidedly impudent in them to be laboring now to prevent the Senate from correcting the blunder in the interest of the party.

McKinley and his associates have done mischief enough already in forcing into the Republican platform a free whisky plank which does not represent or accord with the Republican sentiment, and it is decidedly impudent in them to be laboring now to prevent the Senate from correcting the blunder in the interest of the party.

McKinley and his associates have done mischief enough already in forcing into the Republican platform a free whisky plank which does not represent or accord with the Republican sentiment, and it is decidedly impudent in them to be laboring now to prevent the Senate from correcting the blunder in the interest of the party.

McKinley and his associates have done mischief enough already in forcing into the Republican platform a free whisky plank which does not represent or accord with the Republican sentiment, and it is decidedly impudent in them to be laboring now to prevent the Senate from correcting the blunder in the interest of the party.

McKinley and his associates have done mischief enough already in forcing into the Republican platform a free whisky plank which does not represent or accord with the Republican sentiment, and it is decidedly impudent in them to be laboring now to prevent the Senate from correcting the blunder in the interest of the party.

McKinley and his associates have done mischief enough already in forcing into the Republican platform a free whisky plank which does not represent or accord with the Republican sentiment, and it is decidedly impudent in them to be laboring now to prevent the Senate from correcting the blunder in the interest of the party.

McKinley and his associates have done mischief enough already in forcing into the Republican platform a free whisky plank which does not represent or accord with the Republican sentiment, and it is decidedly impudent in them to be laboring now to prevent the Senate from correcting the blunder in the interest of the party.

McKinley and his associates have done mischief enough already in forcing into the Republican platform a free whisky plank which does not represent or accord with the Republican sentiment, and it is decidedly impudent in them to be laboring now to prevent the Senate from correcting the blunder in the interest of the party.

McKinley and his associates have done mischief enough already in forcing into the Republican platform a free whisky plank which does not represent or accord with the Republican sentiment, and it is decidedly impudent in them to be laboring now to prevent the Senate from correcting the blunder in the interest of the party.

McKinley and his associates have done mischief enough already in forcing into the Republican platform a free whisky plank which does not represent or accord with the Republican sentiment, and it is decidedly impudent in them to be laboring now to prevent the Senate from correcting the blunder in the interest of the party.

McKinley and his associates have done mischief enough already in forcing into the Republican platform a free whisky plank which does not represent or accord with the Republican sentiment, and it is decidedly impudent in them to be laboring now to prevent the Senate from correcting the blunder in the interest of the party.

McKinley and his associates have done mischief enough already in forcing into the Republican platform a free whisky plank which does not represent or accord with the Republican sentiment, and it is decidedly impudent in them to be laboring now to prevent the Senate from correcting the blunder in the interest of the party.

McKinley and his associates have done mischief enough already in forcing into the Republican platform a free whisky plank which does not represent or accord with the Republican sentiment, and it is decidedly impudent in them to be laboring now to prevent the Senate from correcting the blunder in the interest of the party.

McKinley and his associates have done mischief enough already in forcing into the Republican platform a free whisky plank which does not represent or accord with the Republican sentiment, and it is decidedly impudent in them to be laboring now to prevent the Senate from correcting the blunder in the interest of the party.

McKinley and his associates have done mischief enough already in forcing into the Republican platform a free whisky plank which does not represent or accord with the Republican sentiment, and it is decidedly impudent in them to be laboring now to prevent the Senate from correcting the blunder in the interest of the party.

McKinley and his associates have done mischief enough already in forcing into the Republican platform a free whisky plank which does not represent or accord with the Republican sentiment, and it is decidedly impudent in them to be laboring now to prevent the Senate from correcting the blunder in the interest of the party.

"I would not advise the repeal of the whiskey tax. There is a moral side to it. To cheapen whiskey is to increase its consumption enormously."

Sherman said six years ago, "by the common sense of civilized nations whiskey, tobacco and beer are regarded as the best subjects of taxation, because they are articles of luxury, and a tax tends to prevent their consumption; and these taxes ought to be left as a part of our permanent system of taxation as long as any other tax, internal or external more oppressive, remain on the statute books."

Even kid glove Ben Harrison himself, who is disgusting as with the grand-sword racket, caught the inspiration and boldly declared that "the common sense of all the people demanded the retention of the taxes on whiskey, beer and tobacco." Yet in their late platform they declare that rather than so reduce the taxes that they will fall lightest on articles of necessity as they promised the people four years ago, they will absolutely abolish the internal tax system altogether, thus keeping their pledge of four years.

A remarkable coincidence was observed in the Rockport turn-out. There were originally 13 states, 13 stripes in the national flag we carried; the Mills bill passed by 13 majority, and there were 13 Cleveland hats in our crowd, besides other 13's that could be mentioned.

Montgomery's comparison of the list of Democrat defaulters with that of Republican defaulters was the hit of the day.

The old bandana of Ohio county (Walker) was a power at the rally, and his speech will not be forgotten soon.

Stevens.

To the Voters of Ohio County. On Monday next, you will cast your ballots for Sheriff. I have made a short canvass for your suffrage for that office, but it has been impossible for me to see all.

In this canvass, I have sought no advantage, I have resorted to no misrepresentations. My canvass has been made upon my own merit. If this I possess, I shall be grateful for your support, and if elected, promise honesty and faithfulness. Without further promises or appeals, I now finally submit my cause to your hands, feeling that you will appreciate honest and fair dealings. Resp'y,

S. CALVIN TAYLOR.

Contributed. I heard the speech of Mr. McHenry and the most of that of Hon. Rhea. I was highly pleased with both and edited withal.

In regard to the escapade of Dick Tate, I think their just indignation was held by every thinking true man in Kentucky, and God knows that whether there was a Republican upon the investigating committee or not, he was as thoroughly ventilated, blown, exposed, denounced as old Nick himself could have asked or demanded. Nor have I heard that the committee was bribed or that Dick's Democracy saved him, either to his office, or the privilege of defiling the soil of Kentucky by his presence.

Well, sir, there was one scene that I wish to note that I want your readers to stamp 'nota bene.' I allude to the editor of the Pilgrim's Progress taking notes. If he prints them as long as he wrote them, look out for a smasher—to progress of the Progress.

May the Democracy of the day prevail. Respectfully,

A PRESSOR.

To the People. I take this method of saying to you in Ohio county that it is impossible for me to see every voter in the county, and that while I could not do this, yet I have reached as many as it was in my power.

Friends, I appeal to you to go to the polls next Monday and assist me in becoming Surveyor of Ohio county, and in so doing I assure you that you will confer a favor on one who will endeavor to do his duty to the best of his ability.

Very truly yours, JOHN B. WILSON.

Speaking. The following speakers will address the people at the following times and places:

Dr. W. B. Hayward, Sulphur Springs Friday, Aug. 3d; Olton Friday night, Hon. E. D. Walker, Rosine, Thursday night, Aug. 3d.

Judge Gregory and Gen. S. E. Hill, Centertown, Friday, Aug. 3d, at 3 P. M. Judges C. W. Massie and J. S. Glenn, Buford, Friday night, Aug. 3d; Adaburgh, Saturday the 4th, 2 P. M.; Bells Run Saturday night.

J. P. Sandefur, Beba, Thursday night.

We Are. (Courier-Journal.) The Democrats of Ohio county are alive to their duty, and at Hartford last Friday had a rousing old-fashioned barbecue that was largely attended.

Messrs. Henry D. McHenry, John S. Rhea, Alex. Montgomery and E. Dudley Walker made speeches which excited the highest enthusiasm. By the way, there are 118 other counties in the State where the good example of Ohio county might be followed with profit to the party.

Examination. I will hold an examination for white teachers in the court house, Hartford, Ky., on Friday and Saturday, Aug. 3rd and 4th, and for colored teachers on Friday and Saturday, Aug. 10, and 11.

L. P. LONEY, Co. Supt.

A FEW REASONS Why Democrats Should Vote for Their Party Nominees Next Monday, And Induce Others to do Likewise.

The August election is rapidly approaching, and already the rumble of the coming conflict may be heard. The warring of an oppressed people weighted with the heavy yoke of war tariff taxes, are directly audible in the tariff atmosphere. The Republicans have not been idle in disseminating their ingenious arguments in support of the fallacies of taxed necessities and free whisky and by every conceivable means they have undertaken to mislead the people and dodge the issue.

Their speakers have told you that by reason of higher tariff duties, manufactured articles can be bought cheaper to-day than in 1880 and claimed that the reduction of price is due to the increased tariff, well knowing when they assert that such reduction is to such a degree, that they do violence to the facts. Manufactured articles are cheaper now than in those days, because the facilities for making them have greatly improved. Instead of the work having to be done by hand or with hand-laboring machinery, the genius of the age has given us improved machinery and reduced the amount of labor to produce the average manufactured articles. It has been estimated by skilled statisticians, to one tenth of what it was in 1880, that is, one man with the present improved machinery can manufacture as much as ten could then. Has the tariff improved machinery? Certainly not. These improvements have been the result of accident in some instances, but mainly by the system of patents, which is held out a stimulus to ingenuity. As well say that the tariff stretched the Atlantic cable or invented our system of telegraphy or lighted our beautiful cities with gas or electricity as to make such an assertion. As well assert that our perfected musical instruments have been evolved from the tom-tom by the tariff, or that the same Republican God of advance, invented steam and applied it to machinery. You can buy cheaper axes to-day, not by reason of the tariff, but because of the improved method of reducing iron to steel and of the improved methods of manufacturing the axe and the same can truthfully be said of all manufactured articles. They say that the tariff protects labor when they know that the price of American labor is fixed, not by the supply and demand for it and know too, that their candidate for President voted against the restriction of Chinese contract labor and favored the nationalization of the same John Chinaman, or in other words favored a policy that would open our doors and flood our country with Chinamen who live on rats, rice and birds nest, come in direct competition with our dignified, manly American laborer.

These assertions are only made to mislead the people from the main issue, which is the great American people against the great American monopolies, protected barons and moneyed aristocracy. The Republican party is dictated and controlled by the manufacturers, railroad monopolies and millionaires of our country. This is aptly shown by the action of the Chicago Convention in the selection of the Republican candidates. Their candidate for President, having nothing more to recommend him to the people, than that he is a grand son of a former President of the United States, and was the attorney for many railroad corporations, and lives in a doubtful state. Their candidate for Vice-President having nothing to recommend him to the people, save that he is a millionaire, Wall Street banker and the Republicans wanted him for his "bar" of money. And even the Ohio county Republicans in the selection of their candidate for the little office of County Surveyor, summarily sat down upon Herbert Leach, a bright intelligent, sober young Republican, notwithstanding he is poor, and proceeded to nominate Nat Lindley, the son of the wealthiest man, but two or three in the county, showing that from the least to the greatest, the "bar" controls the actions of the Republicans.

Now the question is, Democrats will you sit idle and suffer the party thus controlled to win? They are active and will be on the ground early and stay late. Won't you be there too? It will only take one day from your crops and you owe it to yourselves and to your families, to society and your country, to go and vote your honest sentiments. Vote for cheaper necessities and taxed whisky and vote against free whisky and taxed necessities. This is a great contest and you are enlisted in a noble cause. Go out next Monday and vote for Calvin Taylor and John B. Wilson, and if you know of your Democratic neighbors who have not been aroused to a sense of their duty and will likely stay at home, take this as a commission and go to them and urge them out. Let every Democrat on next Monday be at his post and at work. DEMOCRAT.

"Request for Publication." OWENSBORO, KY., July 29th, 1888. MESSRS. L. R. BARNETT, R. A. WARD, J. N. SANDEFUR, R. H. BENNETT, AND OTHERS:—DEAR BROTHERS, Your card addressed to me through the Hartford Herald of last week has been received, and its contents duly noted. After a most flattering representation of the articles recently contributed by me to the Hartford papers, in regard to the division of the M. E. Church in 1844, for which I return you many thanks, you earnestly request that I prepare those facts for publication in pamphlet form. Appreciating the motives which have prompted the request, and having learned that many others share in the same desire, who also believe that such a work would meet a long-felt want among the masses of the people, it is my pleasure to reply that, so soon as I can do so consistently with other pressing engagements of a similar nature, I will most cheerfully comply with the request.

Yours in the best of bonds, H. M. FORD.

In Memoriam. Mrs. Julia Stewart wife of Rev. Jas. C. Stewart and daughter of Thomas and Margaret (Brown) Rowe, was born November 19, 1817, professed faith in Christ and joined the United Baptist Church at Walton's Creek, Ohio county, Ky., at the age of 20 years in which she lived a true and faithful christian, a few years when she was married to Rev. Jas. C. Stewart, and moved her membership to Barnett's Creek, where she remained until called to her reward, and where she manifested that spirit which so characterizes the genuine christian.

She was in many respects, the leader in her community, always ready to lend a helping hand in sickness or in distress, indeed her whole life was so much devoted to deeds of kindness and goodness, that everyone who knew her loved her. She was so devoted to her church and its interests, that many times when her husband, feeble in health, and burdened with cares of a family, she would tell him to go and preach, and she would take care of the family. Though her afflictions were protracted, (nearly 4 weeks) she was never hindered to complain, but always tried to be cheerful and to appear hopeful until within a few days of her departure, she gave up all hope of getting well, and died in great peace on the night of the 27th of June.

Few people ever enjoyed the love and esteem of a larger circle of friends than did Aunt Julia, as was attested during her long illness, for there was not a day during that time, that there was not as many as half a dozen, and some day as many as a dozen people to see her and to administer to her comfort. Funeral services were held by Rev. L. E. Campbell of the M. E. Church, South, of Hartford, who preached a warm and very able sermon to a very large congregation of sorrowing friends, after which she was laid to rest in the Barnett's Creek cemetery.

She was the mother of twelve children, six of whom precede her in the glory land. Her aged husband and family have the sympathy of the entire community. G. R. S.

Cincinnati Centennial. The N. N. & M. V. R. R. will sell round trip tickets to Cincinnati on Tuesdays and Thursdays, to be limited 5 days going and continuous passage returning extreme limit 15 days from date of sale at $9.75. W. P. LISO, Agt.

For Sale. Three yoke of oxen, log wagon and chains. Terms reasonable. Apply to J. P. MILLER, Beaver Dam.

H. A. MILLER THE Owensboro Tailor, MULBERRY STREET, NEAR POST-OFFICE. TROUSERINGS AND SUITINGS! AT PRICES LOWER THAN THE LOWEST!

CINCINNATI JULY 4th to OCT. 27th. CENTENNIAL EXPOSITION OF THE OHIO VALLEY GRAND JUBILEE celebrating the Settlement of the Northwestern Territory. UNSURPASSED DISPLAY. NEW BUILDINGS. FRESH EXHIBITS. NOVEL ENTERTAINMENTS. DAZZLING EFFECTS. EXCURSION RATES FROM ALL POINTS.

WATCHES. We send our Catalogue to any address. It shows illustrations and prices of a large variety of Gold, Silver, and Nickel Watches, Gold Pens, Spectacles, Gold and Silver Rings, Pocket Knives, Solid Silver Forks, Spoons, etc., Sleeve Buttons, Ladies' Jewelry, Silver-plated Ware, Diamonds, Emblematic Pins, Badges, Medals, with complete directions for ordering. We refer, by permission, to the publishers of this paper, which please mention when writing to us. C. P. BARNES & BRO., Jewelers, 622 Main St., Louisville, Ky.

WATCHES. Statement of the Condition of the BANK OF HARTFORD At the Close of Business, JUNE 30 1888. ASSETS. Real Estate, $41,172.42; Furniture, 1,000.00; Bonds, 30,000.00; Cash on hand, 24,287.19; Cash in other banks, 9,562.92; Total, $106,062.53. LIABILITIES. Capital stock, 50,000.00; Surplus, 2,000.00; Dividend, 1,000.00; Reserves, 44,287.53; Undivided Profits, 292.04; Total, $106,062.53. S. K. COX, Cashier.

S. D. CHILDS ROSINE, KENTUCKY. COFFINS, CASKETS, Etc. Prices Low, and SATISFACTION GUARANTEED! TUITION FREE. OGDEN COLLEGE. OGDEN COLLEGE. THE RUMSEY Woolen Mills. Also Now Running and Have on Hand A Large Stock of Goods!

OUR INCREASED FACILITIES. We enable us to fill all orders promptly and maintain high standard for our goods. A large quantity of Wool wanted, for which the market price will be paid in cash or goods. Roll cutting done promptly. JAMES C. RAY, Rosine, Ky.

COMPLEXION. This preparation, without injury, removes freckles, Black-Heads, Sunburn and Tan. A few applications will render the most stubborn red skin soft, smooth and white. Viola Cream is not a paint or powder to cover defects, but a remedy to cure. It is superior to all other preparations, and is guaranteed to give satisfaction. At druggists or mailed for 50 cents. Prepared by G. C. BRYNEDER & CO., TOLEDO, OHIO. Sold by Thomas & Kimbley, Hartford.