

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Congress—Hon. A. B. MONTGOMERY. For County Judge—E. T. WILLIAMS.

For Magistrates: Hartford—NOBLE BEAN. Cromwell—H. T. POETTER.

There are any more Browns in this county who have watermelons they will probably be permitted to keep them.

THE numerous instances of young men getting shot while swiping somebody's watermelons are suggestive and instructive.

It is asserted with a strong probability of truth that the L. & N. has abandoned its effort to secure the C. O. & S. W., having been knocked out by the injunction suit prosecuted so effectively by Governor Brown.

A SPLIT race for the Democratic nomination for County Clerk was terminated in Logan county Saturday by the choice of M. B. Morton over John G. Orndorf.

THE people of Kentucky may some day become sufficiently familiar with the intricacies of the new Constitution to enable them to meet its many and exacting demands.

THE Tariff bill became a law at midnight Monday without the signature of the President. This was as had been expected by those familiar with the bill and the opinion of the President.

THE "encampment" which in plain terms means the drunken carousal of a lot of youngsters known as the State Guard, broke up with a killing at Paducah last week.

Any one desiring to rent or lease a first-class farm for a term of one to five years in a good neighborhood, call on or address J. W. Fife, Beaver Dam, Ky.

AMONG OUR EXCHANGES.

HE'S A GOOD BAPTIST. (Hartford Herald.) It is said of Dr. Clardy, who is running for the nomination for Congress in the second district, that throughout his whole canvass, he never offered a drink of whiskey to any one, or spent one dollar to influence a vote.

FOR BRICK WALKS. In view of recent events here, the following from the Hopkinsville Kentuckian is of interest:

Mr. T. M. Cash, of North Christian, has filed suit against the town of Crofton for $1,000 damages for alleged injuries sustained by a fall about three weeks ago. Mr. Cash has also filed another suit for $1,000 against the same town for injuries to his infant child, Clarence, who was carried to his grave when the accident occurred.

Mr. Cash will no doubt recover, as he ought to do if the walks of Crofton are as bad as some in Hartford.

It was to avoid such a catastrophe, and perhaps the loss of a life, that the trustees of Hartford, after the most careful consideration of the subject decided that brick paving was necessary to take the place of the present dangerous planks in some parts of town.

THE coming performance. (Louisville Times.) Senator Lindsay can bring back with him for home consumption that unspoken speech. By the way, now that Congress is about to adjourn, may we not expect an early opening of what summer season of senatorial oratory has been promised us, with Gov. Brown, Senators Blackburn and Lindsay, Congressman McCreary and possibly, ex-Gov. Beckner, on the racing stump and rambunctious stage?

THE DUTY OF CITIZENS. (Ballou Pioneer.) The greatest mistake a man makes is to say he takes no interest in politics. It is the feeling of apathy among the best class of citizens that is responsible for all the vicious legislation our country has been afflicted with.

THE people of Kentucky may some day become sufficiently familiar with the intricacies of the new Constitution to enable them to meet its many and exacting demands, but that time is yet a long way off.
