

As a further conclusive evidence that the fools are not all dead yet, the public is now reading of the fulfillment of many senseless and outlandish election bets.

In the meantime wonder what has become of Messrs. Carlisle, Buckner, et al? When they find their voices sufficiently for utterance we would like to know what they think about it, any way.

If the Republican party is responsible for the prosperity that it still insists is upon us, why didn't it give itself a boost at the polls by way of demonstrating its self-claimed ability? It should be able to help itself.

THERE is very little sunshine coming through the chinks of the old log cabin in Kentucky. The Republicans have gained a few minor offices in several close counties, but the result in the State has been so decidedly against them as to afford no palliation.

The Courier-Journal laid down the gauntlet and loudly proclaimed that the recent inter-candidate Democratic contest was a fight for principle and that it would accept the result. Shackleford's decisive majority proclaims in thunderous tones whether free silver or gold-bugism, as a cardinal principle of Democracy, is predominant in Kentucky. We hope the Courier-Journal is now satisfied.

OVER and above all, and in a manner which leaves no room for cavil, is seen the decisive endorsement of the Chicago platform, as embodied in the shibboleth of the Democratic party. If there had ever been any doubts in the minds of the people as to the righteousness and permanency of that instrument, it is forever set at rest. Let the verdict remain as it is, and let triumphant Democracy go on to assured victory.

THERE is no doubt but that Kentucky and these United States are overwhelmingly Democratic, if the question be fairly and squarely submitted to the people, without the influence of money or boodle. It is only in Presidential years, when the great corporations and money kings come onto the scene with their boodle that Democracy suffers. If left to the sober, unprejudiced and un-bought people, Democracy will win every time.

WHEN the Republicans of Ohio dropped from fifty thousand plurality in 1896 to about zero in 1897, it must mean something; and when a Republican is led to remark, as did one in Hartford a few days ago, in doubt-confessing tones, that "Pennsylvania is all right," it surely indicates a great political transformation of some sort. A few years ago one would as soon have expected the sun to cease giving its heat as to see either of these States fail to give its customary overwhelming Republican majority.

THE very hopelessness of their cause may be seen by the light vote cast by the "National" Democrats throughout Kentucky. In Shelby county, for instance, one of the brag "sound money" counties of the State and where the Sentinel has stood zealous guard over the destinies of the yellow fellows, Hindman received the pitiful number of 225 votes, as compared with 1944 for Shackleford and 1432 for Bailey. Hindman received only about eight thousand votes in the whole State, and this after much spouting by many men in his interest.

In accounting for the recent magnificent Democratic victory in Kentucky, too much credit cannot be given to that splendid paper, the Louisville Dispatch. It fought valiantly and with great power for the cause of Democracy. There is no doubt that without its influence there would have been many thousand votes difference, not favorable to the Democrats. The Dispatch has come to stay, is heart and soul for the cause of the people and may be relied upon during every campaign to powerfully proclaim the prime principles of Democracy.

THERE is something more than the mere incident in the matter of the disappearance of the East Fordville poll-book from its rightful place in the County Clerk's office. Clerk Hoeker's reticence in regard to the matter is without excuse. A public official should remember that he is but a public servant and that his business, his records and his actions—so far as they affect the public—are matters of public concern, and that the common people have a right to inquire into them at pleasure. A man should know no politics, so far as serving the public is concerned, after his election to office. A Democrat has a right to be served as impartially as a Republican, even if the official consulted should be of the latter political belief.

MR. WATKINSON'S editorials since the day before the election have been of the most startling and ambiguous sort. In them you could see submission, defiance, kindness and hate alternately mixed, and the whole denoting the most pitiful state of demoralization. It is hard to guess just what will be the political course of the Courier-Journal in the future, but from the predominant tone of the paper at the present, one would be safe in predicting the usual malevolent and unfair attitude toward Democracy as enunciated in the Chicago platform. At present the paper is very sore and crazy-eyed from being knocked breathless by the Democratic cyclone of last week.

ALTHOUGH the result was not what THE HERALD wished and we regret exceedingly that the county Fusion ticket was not elected in full, yet we have no regrets for the course we pursued. We slandered no candidate; we maligned no man. We had no abuse for those who differed from us in political views or were opposed to us in our advocacy of the excellent ticket which we carried at the head of our columns. This is a free country and no privilege is more sacred or free than the right of franchise. We accept the result as the will of the people, but it does not change one iota our principles or our political views. We are still Democratic to the core and for free silver and the rights of the common people.

"I AM a Republican." So announced Mr. Joe Noe, after masquerading for quite awhile under the flimsy disguise of a "sound money" Democrat. And the remark created no great surprise. Everybody expected it. It has become customary for those gold-bug leaders to make a great stir about "principle," run for office and then, when they are defeated, the chrysalis falls away and they appear in their true form. To become a "sound money" Democrat is the first stage of the evolution from a Democrat to a Republican. After that, all things are easy. No, the people are not surprised to hear Mr. Noe say he is a Republican. They are just a little disgusted that he should think he deceived them even for a little while.

It is a shame that a paper should be on the winning side which used the disgraceful method employed by the Republican of this place during the recent campaign. Mr. Anderson may live to be installed as Circuit Court Clerk, but the public will not soon forget the slanderous and unjust language which was used in his paper against his opponent Mr. Gabe Likens. Mr. Likens is a Christian gentleman, as everybody who knows him will testify, and his savage personal attacks made upon him by Mr. Anderson and his paper were shameful and without cause. No more upright, courteous or popular official ever served under our court house roof than Gabe Likens. Mr. Anderson will do well if he makes nearly as good or well liked an official or performs his christian duty as faithfully as has his opponent, Mr. Likens.

If the election of last week demonstrated anything with absolute certainty, it was that there is no cause for the existence in Kentucky of a so-called "National Democratic party." In fact there has never been a sufficient following to really be called a "party," but there is no reason at all that there should be an organization of the above mentioned name. Democracy has always been national in its scope and significance and the title is a misnomer pure and simple. The organization never really materialized in the State and was principally in the hands of a few self-constituted conservators who sought by this means to gain notoriety and a place in the public eye and to aid the Republicans through pure spite and chagrin that they could not themselves order the affairs of the body proper. The cry of "sound money" was more an excuse than a principle. It behooves these "National" Democrats, now that they see the utter futility of their cause, to drop this "sound money" fallacy and come back to the old party, which is in favor of just as sound money as they ever heard of.

KENTUCKY AND DEMOCRACY. Nothing better has been said of the recent Democratic victory in Kentucky than this from the Evansville Courier: "The election in Kentucky has been of national significance. The fate of the gold Democratic party depended on the issue. The miserable showing made by Hindman ought to discourage forever the third party movement. Those who have stood out against the Chicago platform ought to see the absolute hopelessness of their cause. If they have been sincere in their professions of affection for the Democratic party, then they should accept the facts and return unreservedly to the old party. The vote for nothing better has been said of the recent Democratic victory in Kentucky than this from the Evansville Courier: "The election in Kentucky has been of national significance. The fate of the gold Democratic party depended on the issue. The miserable showing made by Hindman ought to discourage forever the third party movement. Those who have stood out against the Chicago platform ought to see the absolute hopelessness of their cause. If they have been sincere in their professions of affection for the Democratic party, then they should accept the facts and return unreservedly to the old party. The vote for Hindman ought to convince them the rank and file of the party uphold the regular organization. There was room in the Democratic party for those who were not thoroughly in accord with the platform in 1896. The Democratic party is broader to-day than any of its issues. The Democratic party will be a power when the issues that now distract are forgotten. The place for those who have wandered from the party is back in its ranks.

We particularly commend to the thoughtful gentlemen among our gold-standard friends the last paragraph of this quotation, "There was room in the Democratic party for those who were not thoroughly in accord with the platform in 1896. The Democratic party is broader to-day than any of its issues. The Democratic party will be a power when the issues that now distract are forgotten. The place for those who have wandered from the party is back in its ranks." These are words of truth and soberness.

OUR NEXT CLERK OF THE COURT OF APPEALS. Kentucky tossed Mr. Sam Shackleford a majority of about twenty-five thousand just as a bridal present. Mr. Shackleford left a few days ago for Duluth, Minn., where he will be married to-day to Miss Mariamner Magoffin, eldest daughter of Mr. Beriah Magoffin, a wealthy real estate owner of that city. The young lady lived in Lexington, Ky., before the removal of her family to Duluth five years ago. The wedding will take place this afternoon in the First Presbyterian church and will be a very large affair, over 1800 invitations having been issued. Senator Goebel, of Kentucky, will be the best man and Miss Virginia Magoffin, sister of the bride, will be maid of honor. Mr. and Mrs. Shackleford will be at home in Owensboro after November 15. Mr. Shackleford was a widower, having married Miss Nora Wright, daughter of Mr. B. F. Wright, now of Owensboro. His wife died many years ago.

Mr. Shackleford was in his young days a type in the old Madisonville Times office and was afterward a country school teacher. Afterward he was a prosperous merchant and was subsequently elected and served as sheriff of Hopkins county. He was also doorkeeper of the Kentucky Senate during one session. He has arisen from comparative obscurity to be several times honored by his fellowmen. He is essentially a self-made man and almost every business he has undertaken has been attended with success. He is personally a quiet, modest-mannered gentleman, of exemplary habits, but he has mixed with the world and he knows it well and has profited by the lessons of life. He makes friends easily and retains them quite as readily by his pleasant personality and evident sincerity. He is a splendid business man, understands well the keeping of books and will make a model Clerk of the Court of Appeals.

Mr. Shackleford has been elected to a five-year term as Clerk, but will not be sworn into office until the 1st of September, 1898. Fees constitute the salary of the office, but the law limits it to $4,500 per annum. The Clerk may hire such a number of deputies as he sees fit. Kentucky is proud of Sam Shackleford and glad to honor him with a responsible position, the duties of which will be discharged with promptness, honesty and ability.

How's This! We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O. We have discovered a new and effective remedy for Catarrh of the Bladder, Prostate, Uterus, etc., and believe it perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by their firm. WALKER & TEXAN, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. WALKING, KINMAN & MARVIN, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, Ohio. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Price 75c per bottle, sold by all Druggists. Testimonials free. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

BAZEMAN WANTS A reliable man to sell our Taper Brands Lubricating Oils and Greases, Belt Oil and Roofing Paint. Liberal terms and commission. References required. Address: The Howard Oil & Grease Co., Cleveland, Ohio.

J. C. Berry, one of the best known citizens of Spencer, Mo., testifies that he cured himself of the worst kind of piles by using a few boxes of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. He had been troubled with piles for over thirty years and had used many different kinds of so-called cures; but DeWitt's was the one that did the work and he wishes to write him. For sale by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro., Hartford.

It is well to care for manes in feed during the winter, but there is such a thing as coddling them too much and making them tender. The foal will require just about the same treatment as the mother has received. A sheltered place with privilege to run out and in, is better than close confinement in a warm, close stable. An Estray. I have taken up an estray one bay horse, 3 years old, 15 hands high, which I value at $25. F. M. ALLEN, Smallport, Ky.

SPIRIT OF THE PRESS.

REPUTATION. (Versatile son, silver.) The reputation of the Republican party by the people of this State Tuesday was sweeping and final. That party has been given one trial by the people of Kentucky and found wanting, and it will probably never have another.

BYSTANDER NOT DEAD. (In New York Commercial Advertiser, Rep.) But while the outcome of the recent elections in other States is encouraging for the friends of sound money, they serve to show Bryanism is not dead and that the contest of last year will probably have to be fought over again in 1898 and perhaps in 1899. For this struggle the lines should be formed and preparations made at once.

A DEMOCRATIC DAY. (Atlanta Constitution.) For a year or more the gold organs have been harrying "Bryanism"—meaning by that conceited expression the principles represented in the Democratic platform. Tuesday the people of several States spoke, and the result will be a sudden and violent interruption of the general services. Kentucky, the headquarters of the bolting Democracy, has returned to its Democratic moorings.

A SEAT WAY BACK. (Hartford Journal.) The sweeping Democratic victory in Kentucky, coupled with the pitiless blasts of the Courier-Journal as it attempts to flop back into the party it betrayed, causes a joyful feeling all over the anatomy of the men who have never faltered in their allegiance. We are decidedly in favor of letting the C. J. in again, but we must insist that the old dame take a back seat and sing mightily low for some time.

EDUCATION IN THE NEWSPAPERS. (Kansas City Times.) Perhaps there is no other influence that has done so much in the way of fostering a judicial cast of mind among the American people as the newspapers in presenting opposite views of the same question. When it is done in the spirit of fairness, this creates a very strong desire among the readers themselves to be just in interpreting any occurrence, situation or condition that may arise in a community, state or nation.

AS TO INDORMENT. (Cincinnati Enquirer.) Marcus A. Hanna, more or less disgraced, points with pride to the result in Ohio as an indorsement of the President he owns. Let us look at it. Ohio gave McKinley 51,000 plurality one year ago. It counts it a good deal more than half. Hamilton county gave him nearly 30,000. It is now wiped out. Cuyahoga county gave him 6,000. It is now less than 400, and on an honest return nothing at all. A few more such indorsements in the first year of a new Administration will ruin it before the year closes. Ohio, in repudiating Hanna, serves notice on McKinley to cut loose from his class or be swamped.

GREATEST MENACE IN HANNAISM. (St. Louis Republic.) It is true Hanna stands for bossism and slash funds in politics, but he is not the first candidate to represent those evil elements in an American campaign. It is also true that he has injected into our political methods what may be called the capitalized syndicate machine system of securing support and combating opposition. But neither in this peculiarly Hannaesque conception is the greatest menace presented by the spectacle of a Hanna in politics. That menace lies in the subjugation of a President of the United States to a dominant mind whose crafty introduction of "business methods into politics" made possible the purchase of a Presidential nomination and the employment of sinister influences insuring victory at the polls for that nominee.

CONTINUOUS POLITICAL PERFORMANCE. (Washington Star.) The principal development of the year is the fact that the country has entered upon what may be called "the continuous performance" in politics. Hitherto there have been "off years" in campaigning. After a vigorously contested Presidential election the people have rested somewhat from such arduous labors. But, under the new order, it has been a year of unusual excitement and, in some quarters, a continuation of last year's Presidential struggle. The Congress elections come next, and they will justly be reckoned of the highest importance. And with the election of the new Congress will begin the maneuvering for position 1900, which, of course, will engage the attention of every man of influence and responsibility in political life in the land.

J. M. Thirswend, of Grosbeck, Tex., says that when he had a spell of indigestion, and feels bad and sluggish, he takes two of DeWitt's Little Early Risers at night, and he is all right the next morning. Many thousands of others do the same thing. Do you? For sale by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro., Hartford.

DEANFIELD, KY. Nov. 6.—We had a great speaking at Aetna, on Saturday before the election, by Capt. Ellis. It was well attended by our citizens. Dinny Howard and Miss Sophia Hertzberg were married Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Pete Hertzberg, Sophia's parents, were betterly opposed to the match. The young lady is about fourteen years of age. They have returned, but Mr. and Mrs. Hertzberg are not willing to forgive them yet. Mr. Guy Dean is improving his end of town by building a large stable and a dwelling for his stable keeper. John D. Burke, who tipples coal for Mr. Dean, got a hot foot mashed last Monday by a very large lump of coal turning over upon it. He was disabled from work a few days. Mrs. Hyde's mother has come and taken Mrs. Hyde home with her to see if she will not improve in health and strength by being changed about a week. On last Wednesday night a week ago Mr. N. P. Kelley's stock barn was burned. He lives upon the dividing ridge about one and one-half miles from Magnan. The barn contained all his farm implements, tobacco, a buggy, two mules and a wagon, all of which were destroyed. The fire was by accident, it is thought. BUDDY. "I Am a Republican." (Owensboro Inquirer.) "This was what Joe Noesaid to the Inquirer this morning. "Why, Joe, what on earth?" was the breathless response to this staggering remark. "I mean just what I say," he replied. "The gold Democrats are not in it any longer, as their failure to poll a respectable vote Tuesday shows. There is no hope for them as a party, and I have got to live somewhere. The free silver party do not want me among them and I want to be among them less than they want me. Therefore I am a Republican out and out, as the best hope for myself and the country. "I am a candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress in 1898, and will begin the canvass as soon as practicable. I am forever done with what is called Democracy, and I don't care how plain you make the statement."

Bryan on the Election. LITTLETON, NEB., Nov. 3.—Mr. Bryan to-day gave out the following statement: "The returns are so incomplete that it is impossible to discuss yesterday's election in detail. The Republicans everywhere endorsed the Republican administration, and, in view of losses sustained by them in almost every State, it would seem that the Republican politics are not being indorsed at the polls. The sentiment in favor of the Chicago platform shows a healthy growth throughout the country. Perhaps our opponents will now limit that silver is not dead. The attempt to secure international bimetalism has proved a failure, and it is now more apparent than ever that the people of the United States must legislate for themselves on the financial question. Free and unlimited coinage at 16 to 1 is nearer now than it was a year ago. High tariff upon a gold basis has disappointed those Republicans who looked to it for relief. Taken as a whole, the returns are very encouraging. I think I realize the sentiments of Democrats, Populists and silver Republicans when I say that the fight will be continued with even more earnestness until the gold monopoly is broken and the money trust is overthrown. The fusion forces increase their percentage in Nebraska and probably their actual majority. "W. J. BRYAN."

WARNING!—Persons who suffering from coughs and colds should heed the warnings of danger and save themselves suffering and fatal results by using One Minute Cough Cure. It is an infallible remedy for coughs, colds, croup and all throat and lung troubles. For sale by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro., Hartford.

MAGAN. Nov. 5.—The election passed off quietly except a little game of bluff in the forenoon. Several of the Republicans would not vote because Noe and Little were on their ticket. I don't see why, for they're gold-bugs. Little Allen, son of Mr. Henry Wright, died Sunday morning, October 31st of bilious fever after a brief illness of five days. His funeral sermon was preached by Eld. C. B. Colman from Matt. 18, 10. Allen was a bright little boy, but our loss is his gain, because we should not weep as those who have no hope, but who sincerely condole with the family of the deceased in their sad bereavement and commend them for consolation to Him who doeth all things well and whose chastisements are meant in mercy. Dear father and mother, don't weep for your darling boy, but remember, When you gazed on his innocent face, As still and cold he lay, And thought what a lovely child he had been, And how soon he must decay, "O death, thou lovest the beautiful!" In the woe of your spirit you cried, For sparkled the eyes, and the forehead was fair, Of your little Allen that died. You shall see his little sisters again, With their playmates about the door, And you'll match the children at their sports, As you never did before; And if, in the group, you see a child That's dimpled and broken-eyed, You'll look to see if it may not be Your little Allen that died.

LOUISVILLE TOBACCO MARKET. The following are the revised quotations as prepared by the quotation committee of the Leaf Tobacco Exchange for the past week: 1896 CROP.—RED BURLY. Trash (green or mixed).....@84 50 Trash (sound).....@4 50@6 00 Common lugs.....@ 9 00@ 8 00 Medium lugs.....@ 9 00@10 50 Good lugs.....@ 9 00@12 00 Common leaf (short).....12 00@15 00 Common leaf.....15 00@18 00 Medium leaf.....18 00@22 00 Good leaf.....18 00@22 00 Fine and selections.....22 00@29 00

COLORY BURLY. Trash (green or mixed).....@84 50 Trash (sound).....@ 4 50@ 6 50 Common lugs.....@ 6 50@ 8 50 Medium lugs.....@ 8 50@ 9 00 Good lugs.....@ 9 00@10 00 Common leaf (short).....9 00@11 00 Common leaf.....11 00@14 00 Medium leaf.....14 00@17 00 Good leaf.....17 00@22 00 Fine and selections.....22 00@32 00

DARK. Trash (green or mixed).....@ 2 00 Trash (sound).....@ 2 00@ 3 00 Common lugs.....@ 3 00@ 3 50 Medium lugs.....@ 3 50@ 4 00 Good lugs.....@ 4 00@ 5 50 Common leaf (short).....5 00@ 6 00 Common leaf.....5 00@ 7 00 Medium leaf.....7 00@ 8 50 Good leaf.....8 50@10 00

EVERYBODY SAYS SO. Cascarina Cough Cure, the most wonderful medical discovery of the age, pleasant and refreshing to the taste, acts gently and positively on kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the entire system, dispels colds, cures hoarseness, fever and influenza, constipation and indigestion. Please buy and try a box of C. C. C. 15-day, 10, 25, 50 cents. Sold and guaranteed to cure by all druggists.

LOVERS YEARS AGO. EVANSVILLE, KY., Nov. 5.—J. W. Chandler, of Buckville, aged 78 years, took out a license to-day to marry Nancy Belcher, aged 74. The aged couple have known each other and lived neighbors since childhood. They were sweethearts in years gone by and were separated by a lover's quarrel and took other mates, now dead. After more than fifty long years of waiting, the story happily culminates.

OHIO CIRCUIT COURT.

Commonwealth's Docket for November Term, 1897.

First Day, Grand Jury organized and all examining court papers will be turned out to it.

Table with columns for case number, name, and other details. Includes names like Gilbert Taylor, Henry Madison, J. R. Williams, etc.

SECOND DAY, TUESDAY, NOV. 16, 1897.

Table with columns for case number, name, and other details. Includes names like Wm. Dehart, Pete Huchler, Wm. Hayden, etc.

THIRD DAY, WEDNESDAY, NOV. 17, 1897.

Table with columns for case number, name, and other details. Includes names like R. T. Taylor, Tom Berry, Wm. Dehart, etc.

FOURTH DAY, THURSDAY, NOV. 18, 1897.

Table with columns for case number, name, and other details. Includes names like Perry Crowder, C. E. & Co., Elvis Blankenship, etc.

CASTORIA. The best remedy for all ailments of the stomach and bowels.

DEANFIELD, KY. Nov. 6.—We had a great speaking at Aetna, on Saturday before the election, by Capt. Ellis. It was well attended by our citizens. Dinny Howard and Miss Sophia Hertzberg were married Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Pete Hertzberg, Sophia's parents, were betterly opposed to the match. The young lady is about fourteen years of age. They have returned, but Mr. and Mrs. Hertzberg are not willing to forgive them yet. Mr. Guy Dean is improving his end of town by building a large stable and a dwelling for his stable keeper. John D. Burke, who tipples coal for Mr. Dean, got a hot foot mashed last Monday by a very large lump of coal turning over upon it. He was disabled from work a few days. Mrs. Hyde's mother has come and taken Mrs. Hyde home with her to see if she will not improve in health and strength by being changed about a week. On last Wednesday night a week ago Mr. N. P. Kelley's stock barn was burned. He lives upon the dividing ridge about one and one-half miles from Magnan. The barn contained all his

YOUR PHOTOGRAPH. Can now be had in first-class style at a very LOW PRICE at Schroeter's Floating Studio, NOW ANCHORED AT THE HARTFORD WHARF.

IF YOU WANT GOOD, TRUE PHOTOS of superior finish, you cannot do better than call at our Art. Palace. We have the latest new instruments, which, together with first-class workmanship, enables us to turn out work superior to that obtained in many of the larger cities. It matters not what kind you want, whether residence, buildings, outdoor views or interiors made by flash-light, it is easily and accurately made. Our sizes range from a stamp photo to 14x17 inches. Remember you can get any size, style or grade of work, to suit the size of your pocketbook, but if you want shoddy work, please go elsewhere—we do nothing but first-class. For the best Photos of all kinds, also fine Platinum work, see my samples. Solliciting your work, I am, yours truly, H. O. SCHROETER.

Lumber and Building Material, John S. McCorkle, EVANSVILLE, IND. Frames, Glazed Sash, Doors, Blinds, Moulding and odd sizes of factory work, Shingles, Lath, Weatherboarding, Yellow Pine Flooring and Ceiling. Write for prices and estimates on Houses, Store Fixtures, &c., &c.

C. E. SCHUTZ, MANUFACTURER OF FINE CIGARS. No. 400 Main Street, Evansville, Ind.

Teeth! Teeth! Teeth! Until July 1st we will make a full set of Teeth for $5.00. FIT GUARANTEED. A Protective Guarantee for 10 years with all work. TEETH EXTRACTED. GOLD CROWNS, 25k. $5.00. SILVER CROWNS, per tooth. $1.00. GOLD FILLINGS. $1.00. SILVER FILLINGS. $1.00. BUILDING TEETH. $5.00 per tooth and crown.

Save money by buying your CLOTHING OF HARRY JOSEPH The People's Clothier. NO. 325 MAIN STREET, Evansville, Ind.

WANDY CATHARTIC Cascarets CURE CONSTIPATION. REGULATE THE LIVER. ALL DRUGGISTS. ABSOLUTELY GUARANTEED to cure any case of constipation. Cascarets are the Ideal Laxative. They are pleasant to take and do not cause any harmful results. Buy and booklet free. Ad. STEVENS HENRIOT CO., Chicago, Montreal, Cal., or New York. 514

CHAS. F. ARTES, Jeweler & Optician, Watches, Diamonds, Jewelry, Silverware, Clocks, Bric-a-Brac, Spectacles and Eye-Glasses. Eyes tested free of charge by our graduate optician. Repairing Fine Watches and Clocks a Specialty. NO. 126 MAIN ST., EVANSVILLE, IND.

All Kinds of Printing DONE AT THE HERALD OFFICE.