Died at her residence near Owensboro, Ky., on the 1st inst., Mrs. Josie Harl, wife of Mr. H. Harl. Her remains were interred in the Elmwood cemetery, Owensboro, Sunday, in the presence of a large circle of friends and relatives. It can be truly said that a good christian lady has been called to her final rest. Mrs. Harl leaves a husband, two children and a host of friends and relatives to mourn her death.
Marriage license since our last issue, James H. Howard to Caddie Sanders, Eugene Willis to Ina Cummins, E. H. Maddox to Ella B. Maddox, Roland F. Jones to Athlete Allen, G. H. Black to Oma Bean, Charles W. Bruner to Annie L. Duggins, Adam Whitehouse to Linnie E. Ferguson, John S. Taylor to Martha Ford.
Mr. John S. Taylor and Miss Martha Ford, of Adaburg, came to Hartford yesterday to get married. They were accompanied by Mr. P. R. Ford and Miss Temple Mitchell, who acted as attendants. Rev. J. D. Harned performed the ceremony which made the couple one. They were married in THE HERALD office and left at once for their home at Adaburg.
The series of meetings being conducted at the Cumberland Presbyterian church here by Rev. Mrs. L. M. Woos-ley, assisted by Rev. J. D. Harned, pastor in charge, is growing in interest with every service. There have been several conversions and many yet seeking their soul's salvation. We have heard Moody, Sam Jones, and other noted evangelists, and our judgment is, Rev. Mrs. Woosley is the peer of any divine we have ever had the good fortune to hear. The simplicity, depth, and thoroughness with which she expounds the truths of the holy bible is almost miraculous.

Mrs. Annie Petrie, wife of the preacher in charge of the Methodist circuit here, Rev. J. C. Petrie, died at her residence in Hartford last Friday night. She had not been sick long—less than a month—but a carbuncle on the back of her neck, complicated with diabetes, soon brought about the end. Her remains were taken to Elkton, Ky., Saturday for interment. Religious services were held at the parsonage before the start, conducted by Rev. R. D. Bennett and Rev. Mrs. L. M. Woosley. Mrs. Petrie was a good woman in the fullest meaning of the word—a consecrated christian, a kind and obliging neighbor, a loving and faithful friend, an affectionate wife and mother. She leaves a husband and three sons—all grown—to mourn her loss. The family have the sympathy of many friends in their sad hour of bereavement.
Dyspepsia is difficult digestion, due to the absence of natural digestive fluids. Hood's Sarsaparilla restores the digestive powers.
Mr. A. C. Taylor is building a residence in East Hartford and Mr. W. J. Bean is preparing to build on Market street.

Judge Barnes at Hawesville.
Judge W. H. Barnes was in Hawesville last week, acting as Commonwealth's Attorney in Mr. Rowe's place. Judge Barnes filled the place very ably and acceptably. Concerning his services there, the Hawesville Courier says: Judge W. H. Barnes' service here as Commonwealth's Attorney pro tem was entirely satisfactory and we know of no young man who has impressed us more. He is genial and warm-hearted, and leaves the town with a host of friends.

EVERYBODY'S STORE!
The Winter is Coming
And it demands for every man, woman and child heavy Underwear, heavy Suits and Dresses, Overcats, Capes or Jackets, Boots or Shoes, Gloves and a nice Winter Hat or Cap. In order that your slumbers may be pleasant and unbroken, the season also demands a few extra Blankets and Comforts; all of which we can furnish at a very nominal cost. Remember that the price is guaranteed on every article we sell you—quality considered.
Shoes and Boots.
The secret of buying Shoes right, is to remember that price indicates but little, unless associated with quality. It is not our aim to make lower prices than others, but to give better Shoes for the same money. Every Shoe in our stock is priced as low as the same Shoe can be bought in any market in the United States. Send us your mail order and you will get as low prices and good values as if you selected the goods in person.
Dress Goods and Millinery.
These two departments have been crowded with ladies, selecting their choice from our mammoth stock of up-to-date Dress Goods and Ladies' Hats.
Overcoats and Suits.
Our trade in this department has already been sufficient to convince us of the superiority of our line and the attractiveness of our patterns, and we know that any old man, young man, youth or child will do himself a very great injustice if he does not look at our line before purchasing. A look invariably means a sale.
Capes and Jackets.
We have just received our second shipment of Capes, Jackets and Furs, and our stock is now as complete as it was at the opening of the season. We do not exaggerate when we say we can show you three times as much stock in this line as any other house in the Green River Country. Bought direct from first hands and sold at a price that means a saving to the purchaser.
It is impossible for us to advertise all of our Departments, but can truthfully say that you have very few needs that we can't supply, at a price that means money in your pocket. We want your trade. We know we can please you.
