

MR. ROOSEVELT'S AFRICAN OUTFIT

Comprises Things Necessary For Big Hunt.

MANY SUPPLIES IN WAITING

He Will Hunt in Great Style With Every Luxury at Hand.

When ex-President Roosevelt and his party enter the African jungle they will take with them an outfit which will illustrate the high degree of ingenuity which has been employed in providing for the modern hunter's comfort.

ets for transporting the water from the spring to the cooler.

The folding beds are fitted with rods for the mosquito curtains, for insects will probably be more numerous in Africa than office-seekers at the White House.

The remainder of the tent furniture includes a folding table weighing about four pounds, a canvas hanging wardrobe, a folding mirror, a dressing roll, replacing the conventional hand dressing case, and a green canvas ground sheet.

EXTRADITION

Of Taylor and the Matter of His Return is Up to Gov. Willson.

Governor Willson is hesitating long about pardoning Taylor and Finley before trial. And well he may. The moment he turns this pair loose from prosecution, for a crime every one knows they knew about and prepared for, he will lose the good opinion of many who give him credit for sincerity for advocating law.

Then why does the Commonwealth not call for these men? They have a Democratic Governor of Indiana? The Republican Governor of Kentucky will do his duty in the matter, and there is no further cause for these cases hanging fire, except for the purpose of making political capital.

Why, William Henry, didn't you know it was the Governor's duty to issue extradition papers, and that there is no authority besides that can do it? The United States statute on the subject, which is the law of the case, reads as follows:

"Whenever the executive authority of any State or territory demands any person as a fugitive from justice, of the executive authority of any State or territory to which such person has fled, and produces a copy of an indictment found or an affidavit made before a magistrate of any State or territory, charging the person demanded with having committed treason, felony or other crime, certified as authentic by the Governor or chief magistrate from whence the person so charged has fled, it shall be the duty of the executive authority of the State or territory to which such person has fled, to cause him to be arrested."

Without having consulted anybody on the subject, we will guarantee that the Governor can get a copy of the indictment against Bill Taylor in half an hour after he requests it. It's up to Governor Willson. Will he "do his duty in this matter?"

FINNEGAN AND FLANNIGAN.

Superintendent was Flannigan, Boss of the siction was Finnegan; Whiniver the cars got off'n th' thrack An' muddled up t'ings t' th' divil an' back,

Whin Finnegan first writ t' Flannigan He writted tin pages, did Finnegan, An' he tould jist how th' wrick occurred;

Now Flannigan knowed more thin Finnegan— He'd more idjicashun—had Flannigan, An' it wore um clane an' completely out

T' find what Finnegan writt about In 'is writtin' t' Musther Flannigan; So 'e writted back this 'ere did Flannigan:

"Musther Flannigan: Don't do such a sin agin; Make um brief, Finnegan. Flannigan."

Whin Finnegan got this from Flannigan He blushed rosy red—did Finnegan. An' 'e sez, 'Til gamble a whole month's pay

"T' ll be manny an' manny's th' day Before th' boss gits a whack at this sin agin; Frum Finnegan t' Flannigan Rayports won't be long agin— An' 'e winked at McGorrigan As married a Finnegan.

Wan day on the siction iv Finnegan On th' road suprintended be Flannigan. A rail give way on a bit iv a curve An' some cars wint off as they made th' swerve—

"An' th'ere nobody hurrted," sez Finnegan, "But rayports must be made t' Flannigan."

He wuz shantyn' thin, wuz Finnegan (As manny a railroad's been agin), An' th' smoky lamp wuz burnin' bright

In Finnegan's shanty all thot night— B'illin' down 'is rayport, wuz Finnegan.

An' 'e writted this 'ere: "Musther Flannigan: Off agin; on agin, gone agin. Finnegan."

Lodge Resolutions.

The Mine Foreman's Association of Kentucky.

Central City, Ky., March 20, 1909. Being informed that Brother William Colyer, of the Mine Foreman's Association, has been called to the Celestial climate, from his labors and cares here on earth, we therefore bow in humble submission to the giver of all good, and humbly submit and resolve; that in the death of brother Colyer, the Association loses a good member, his family a good husband and father. Therefore be it Resolved, That the Association spread the above resolution on their minutes and a copy be sent to the family of the deceased, in token of the highest appreciation of his manly worth and faithfulness as a member of our Association and a citizen of this country. W. C. WEBB, R. CROSSMAN, Committee.

In Memoriam.

On the evening of March 12, 1909, the death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Taylor and took from them their little babe, Conrad Downard. He stayed only three days to brighten their home. All was done that loving hands could do for sweet little Conrad. He was a bright flower, budding here on earth to bloom in heaven. We loved him; O, yes, we loved him, but the Saviour loved him more. Then weep not, dear parents, for little Conrad, but be ready when God calls you to meet him in heaven, where there is no sorrow nor sad good-byes. HAZEL.

Flogged for Thinking.

Major Arthur Williams, deputy assessor, says: "I went, at one time in my youth, to a German teacher. I was the babe of his life. He had just finished walloping me good and plenty one day for sticking gum in another little boy's hair. It was the muchly-advertised psychological moment. The master stood, chest heaving like a full-rigged schooner in a gale, breath coming in short pants, switch half raised."

"Now vot you tinks?" he gasped transfixing me with his eagle eye. "I tinks nutting," I replied, half mocking. "I know betters," he exclaimed, hoisting the switch; "you tinks damn it, and I vlp you for dot." "And he did."—[Denver News.

Miners' Rally April 1, 1909.

The miners of Ohio county will observe Labor Day in their usual manner by giving a picnic in the beautiful grove at Williams Mines, if the weather is suitable and if not, other quarters have been secured. Among the speeches delivered on this day, one will be made by Hon. Chas. Dobbs, of the American Federation of Labor. He will speak in the morning and Hon. A. O. Stanley, of Henderson, Ky., will speak in the afternoon. Other speeches will be made by our district officials and a good time is assured to those who attend. Two bands will furnish the music. We also offer the following privileges for sale: Cold drink stand, $10; lunch stand, $10; general notion stand, $10; baby rack, $55. Any one desiring any of the above privileges may obtain same by calling on or addressing the Secretary. Come out, everybody, and enjoy a good time. This March 22, 1909. 1212 FRANK GRAHAM, Pres. Near Death in Big Pond.

It was a thrilling experience to Mrs. Ida Soper to face death. "For years a severe lung trouble gave me intense suffering," she writes, "and several times nearly caused my death. All remedies failed and doctors said I was incurable. Then Dr. King's New Discovery brought quick relief and a cure so permanent that I have not been troubled in twelve years." Mrs. Soper lives in Big Pond, Pa. It works wonders in Coughs and Colds, Sore Lungs, Hemorrhages, La Grippe, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough and all Bronchial affections. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by James H. Williams. m

Loaded.

Judge W. L. Walls, of Cody, Wyo., has a sarcastic humor which has made many culprits squirm, and among the number was a defendant in a recent cattle-stealing case, who was trying to explain that it would have been quite impossible for him to bring into town the beef he was accused of having stolen and butchered, owing to the fact that his two pack-horses were heavily loaded with other things.

One horse, he had told the jury, was packed with his fur overcoat, mining implements, etc., etc.

"And what was on the other horse?" inquired the Judge.

"Well, there was a gallon of whiskey—there was a gallon of whiskey—"

The flustered defendant could think of nothing else.

"I kneey a gallon of whiskey as was load for a man," said the Judge dryly, "but I didn't know it was a load for a horse."

He Needs Bread.

This is from a leading North Dakota Newspaper:

It is reported that one of Harvey's (N. D.) fastidious newly married ladies "kneads" bread with her gloves on. This incident may be somewhat peculiar, but there are others. The editor of this paper "needs" bread with his shoes on, he "needs" bread with his shirt on, he "needs" bread with his pants on, and unless some of the delinquent subscribers of this "Bag of Freedom" pay up before long, he will "need" bread without a d— thing on, and North Dakota is no Garden of Eden in winter time.

MR. BRYAN'S PLANS

In response to repeated demands, coming from every section of the United States, Mr. Bryan will conduct a vigorous Campaign of Education through The Commoner, and assist in the organization of "An educational club in every precinct." These clubs will promote the work of education among the voters on all political questions affecting the American people.

FREE BOOKS FOR EVERYONE

The Commoner, to start this campaign of education, and to place this series of articles in the hands of as many voters as possible, will give FREE, and express prepaid anywhere in the United States, the following splendid books: The Life and Works of Abraham Lincoln—Six volumes, 2,000 pages, bound in red cloth, gold back stamp. Introductions and special articles by Theodore Roosevelt, President Taft, Governor Hughes, Henry Watterson and others. Full biography, anecdotes, tributes, early speeches, famous Lincoln-Douglas debates in full, later speeches and important addresses, all presidential speeches and state papers. This fine set neatly packed in box sent FREE and express prepaid to anyone sending 10 yearly subscriptions at the regular yearly subscription rate of $1 each.

The Old World and Its Ways—Mr. Bryan's own book, describing his tour around the world and his journeys through Europe. His impressions are highly instructive and entertaining. Contains 576 Imperial Octavo pages over 200 superb engravings from photographs taken or procured by him. Richly bound in extra English cloth, gold side and back, at $1 each.

Start this week among your friends and secure these books FREE, any or all of them, for a little easy work. It's not hard to secure subscribers for The Commoner. It is taken by people of all parties, and contains departments of interest to every member of the family. Educational clubs will be organized in every county, and many will subscribe in order to secure The Commoner's Course of Study. These articles and other special features will well repay the subscriber, and anyone may be proud to have the books which we offer FREE, in their library.

Secure and send in your subscription lists at once, and state what book or books you desire sent to you. Your own name may be included in any list, and a renewal subscription will count the same as a new one. Any boy or girl can take advantage of this offer. Make remittance by post-office money order and address THE COMMONER, Lincoln, Neb.

Women as Well as Men are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased. Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers who found Swamp-Root to be just the remedy needed. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., or ever, etc.
