

THE HARTFORD HERALD

WEBER MATTHEWS, FRANK L. FELIX, EDITORS. FRANK L. FELIX, Pub. and Prop'r

Entered at the Hartford post-office as mail matter of the second class.

Who said The Herald was "a trailer?"

The political situation, so far as the Republicans are concerned, has resolved itself into a rather queer mixup.

The Democratic State Convention assemblies in Lexington to-day and indications are that it will be a very enthusiastic and harmonious meeting.

This seems to be a time when all kinds of concerns are wanting free advertising in the country press.

There is no braver nor more persistent fighter against the evils and demoralization of alcoholism than Collier's Weekly.

In the Courier-Journal's straw vote to ascertain the popularity of Col. Roosevelt in Kentucky there appears one incident which probably constitutes the key to the situation.

In a current issue of the Metropolitan magazine Col. Roosevelt takes a crack at President Wilson because of the unreadiness of the United States for war.

"This is not the fault of the officers of the army and navy of the United States—no finer men exist. It is the fault of President Wilson and his supporters in Congress."

The hypocrisy of such an utterance is plain on its face. President Wilson merely inherited a large volume of war unpreparedness from a long line of Republican administrations—including Roosevelt's.

The Methodist General Conference in session at Saratoga Springs, N. Y., last week, went on record in opposition to showing a preference for organized labor (unionism) in matters affecting employment.

of the cause of the Master. Trades unionism embraces the highest class of workmanship. It is a body of men standing together not only for themselves, but for better service and more satisfied employers.

A COUNTY MEETING OF S. S. SUPERINTENDENTS

An Ohio County Sunday School Superintendents meeting is to be held at Beaver Dam on June 9th. This was a very profitable meeting last year and we trust it will be more so this year.

There will be a special story-telling contest in order to interest the class. A teacher can frequently use a good story very effectively. In order to get the teachers to better equip themselves along this line of work, the following will be given on June 9th, at the Superintendents meeting in Beaver Dam:

LESS REVENUE NEEDED FOR NEXT FISCAL YEAR

Washington, May 20.—Secretary McAdoo submitted to Chairman Kitchen, of the House Ways and Means committee, and Chairman Simmons, of the Senate Finance Committee, revised estimates of the Government's receipts, and expenditures for the remainder of the current fiscal year, and the fiscal year ending June 30, 1917, tending to show that much less new revenue will have to be raised to meet the bill for preparedness, and other large contemplated expenditures than was supposed.

Only about $150,000,000 additional revenue will have to be provided during the coming year, Secretary McAdoo said. This is less by $75,000,000 than the most conservative members of Congress calculated at the outset of the session would be needed. All additional revenue will come from taxes on incomes, inheritances, and munitions, in accordance with the plan the President approved last week.

Presidential Pointers.

Washington's first inauguration was in New York, and his second in Philadelphia. Adams was inaugurated in Philadelphia, and Jefferson and the Presidents following elected by the people, in the city of Washington. Arthur took the Presidential oath of office first in New York City. John Adams and Jefferson died on the same day, the Fourth of July, 1826, and Monroe died on the Fourth of July five years later. John Quincy Adams was a Representative and Andrew Johnson a Senator in Congress after the expiration of their Presidential terms, and both died while holding those offices. Tyler was a Representative in the Confederate Congress from Virginia and died in office.

Big Accomplishments.

The greatest thing the Government has ever done for business men in the history of the country was the enactment of the currency law. It was something the Republicans had talked about for twenty years, but it was not until the Democrats came into power that it went on the statute books. Now, under the leadership of Woodrow Wilson, Congress is taking the final steps in establishing a rational system of rural credits. It will do for the farmers what the currency law has done for the business men. Republicans also talked about rural credits. But there was no action until the Democrats took hold.

EMINENCE WOMAN WOUNDED BY HUSBAND'S REVOLVER

Eminence, Ky., May 22.—Mrs. A. M. Napierella shot and seriously wounded herself while handling her husband's revolver.

Mr. Napierella was cleaning his pistol, when his wife asked him to allow her to see it. He handed her the revolver and went out of the room. Hearing a shot he hastened back to find his wife seriously wounded, a bullet having lodged just under the heart. She was conscious and told her husband the pistol had been accidentally discharged. It is feared she cannot recover.

GUNTHER & SONS FILE PETITION IN BANKRUPTCY

The Owensboro Messenger of yesterday says:

The firm of W. A. Guenther & Sons, one of the oldest hardware concerns in Western Kentucky, filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy at 3 o'clock this morning. The petition was filed with Miss Emma Dunn, deputy United States Court Clerk, at her home in Fourth street.

The liabilities of the firm are placed at $110,098.91 and the assets at $186,031. Of the larger claims the National Deposit Bank holds one note for $8,000 secured by real estate; another note for $12,500, secured by J. Ed Guenther and Regina Guenther; Central Trust Company, $1,600 secured by collateral; Pittsburgh Steel Co., secured by J. Ed Guenther and the Fidelity Trust Co., $12,500, secured by mortgage.

The storehouse on Frederica street is valued at $15,000 with a $10,000 mortgage on it. A warehouse on Second street is valued at $10,000 with a $8,000 mortgage on it.

In a summary of the liabilities are the following items: Wages $518.24; preferred claims, $40,000; unsecured claims, $69,578.67. The assets are listed as follows: Real estate, $25,000; cash on hand, $16,905; bills, $8,009.42; stock, $88,000; debts, $47,634.68.

The news of the filing of the petition will not come as a surprise. However, it was thought that a settlement agreeable to the creditors had been recently made. The petition is signed by J. Ed Guenther, head of the firm of W. A. Guenther & Sons.

Notice.

Having moved my Grocery and Meat Market into the J. W. Ford building next door to S. L. King & Co., I am now prepared to furnish my customers the best the market affords, in my line. Your patronage is solicited with the guarantee of prompt and polite service. Phone or call and give me your orders. Fair dealing, quick sales and small profits, is my motto.

O. T. O'BANNON.

McGalin Declared Not Guilty.

The Owensboro Messenger of yesterday says:

Sanford McGalin, who has been on trial since Saturday for the murder of his stepfather, William Roby, was acquitted Monday morning by the jury after a deliberation of a little over an hour. McGalin based his defense upon the plea of self defense. The prosecution relied for conviction upon a dying declaration made by Roby to the effect that McGalin deliberately shot him and without provocation.

A TOUCHING SACRIFICE FOR CHILDREN'S SAKE

The Louisville Post of Monday says:

Without revealing her identity, the woman giving the name of Lillian Gardner, formerly employed as a domestic in the home of Walter I. Kohn, 1441 Third avenue, entered a plea of guilty to the charge of grand larceny and was given a sentence of one year in the penitentiary by a jury in the Criminal Court for the theft of jewelry valued at $800 from the home of her employer.

The woman broke down completely after being sentenced by Judge Robinson and was led weeping from the courtroom.

It was learned by officers investigating the case that the woman is a resident of a small town near Louisville and the mother of two children. She refused repeatedly, for the sake of her children, to divulge her name.

For Sale.

Fifty-one acres of farming land. Apply to L. C. Brown, Special Deputy Banking Commissioner, McHenry, Ky. 21t3

Foiled in Attempt.

Petersburg, Ind., May 19.—Acquilla Matteson, a farmer, living eight miles south of here, while in a despondent mood, jumped into a well. The well contained but two feet of water, and Josiah Morton and William Sullivan, neighbors, who saw him jump, with the help of neighbors got him out. He suffered only a few slight bruises. He recently moved to this county from Washington, Ind.

MARRIAGE LICENSE.

J. L. Ralph, Hartford, Route 6, to Verda May Hardin, Hartford, R. 6. Otha Daniel, Olaton, Route 1, to Flora Ashford, Horton, Ky.

Luther Bratcher, Fordsville, Ky., to Iva Beedel, Fordsville, Route 1.

LOOKING BACKWARD.

(The following items are taken from a copy of the Hartford Herald loaned us by Mr. E. T. Williams, dated May 17, 1882—just thirty-four years ago.)

Mr. J. W. Ford has been sick for several days past, but is about well again.

Dr. Jo. T. Miller will begin the erection of a dwelling on Union street in a few days.

Mrs. M. A. Jarboe and daughter, Miss Alice, have been ill for a week past, but are improving.

Mr. J. Edwin Rowe is erecting a nice frame dwelling on Union street, near the residence of Judge R. S. Moseley.

Mr. W. M. Warden, who resigned the office of Deputy Marshal, a week or so ago, has accepted the office again.

The folks at "Gasburg" are taking steps to get a post-office. We trust they will succeed, as it would be a great convenience for them.

Hon. H. D. McHenry, Sam K. Cox, Dr. Sam L. Berry, Dr. J. S. Morton, Z. Wayne Griffin and E. M. Rosenberg, of this place, were among those leaving Monday to attend the Louisville races.

Rev. E. H. Maddox, agent to collect money with which to build a Baptist church in Hartford, is meeting with some encouragement. He secured $16 at West Providence church last Sunday evening from a small audience.

Mr. J. W. Lankford was elected Police Judge of Hamilton and P. M. Brown Marshal of Hamilton, at the recent election. They gave the necessary bonds, and took the proper oaths last Saturday, and are now regularly prepared for business.

Mrs. Hocker, wife of John Hocker, and daughter of Wm. Austin, living near Beaver Dam, died Monday night of consumption. Her funeral will be preached to-day at the residence of her father, by Rev. G. J. Bean, after which she will be interred in the family graveyard.

A. L. Morton, former Circuit Court Clerk, sold his dwelling and lot to Mr. Clarence Hardwick, the present clerk, for $3,175. This is very desirable property, and while we regret to lose Mr. Morton and family, we congratulate Mr. Hardwick upon his good taste in this purchase.

Wm. T. Bratcher, living near Rileys Station, was riding along the road in broad daylight, when two masked men rushed from the woods, knocked him off of his horse and robbed him of $150, which was all the money he had. Mr. Bratcher is recovering. No clue is had of the robbers, as they were masked, and Mr. Bratcher was knocked senseless.

Mr. W. T. King, of the Hartford House, has bought the brick house known as the Jerome Wells property on Market street, and is converting the same into a family residence. Mr. Alfred Hurt is superintending the work. Mr. King will vacate the Hartford House July 1st and move into the new residence and will be succeeded by R. R. Paxton as proprietor of the hotel.

Next Monday will be a big day in town. It is the first day of Circuit Court. Col. Jacob and Col. McHenry have appointments to speak here that day. We also understand that Capt. T. J. Henry has been invited, and hope he will be on hand, as we always like to hear both sides of a question. No doubt the voters of the county will be out en masse and hear the contending candidates, and can then judge for themselves.

Died, at her home near Liberty church, May 5, 1882, Mrs. Susan Hocker. Deceased was a daughter of Ignatius Barrett and widow of Asberry Hocker, deceased, and mother of Hon. R. P. Hocker, who is her eldest child. She was a devout christian, a kind mother, a good neighbor and a woman almost universally loved by all her acquaintances. Her funeral was preached by Rev's. R. C. Alexander and G. J. Bean on the 6th inst., after which the remains were interred in the cemetery at Liberty church.

The Owensboro Messenger's Whitesville correspondent gives an account of a reunion of the survivors of a family, some of whom live in this county, as follows: "A most happy event occurred at the residence of Mr. Wallace Haynes, on the 5th inst. It was the happy reunion of six brothers and sisters and brothers-in-law who took supper together. Their ages aggregate over four hundred years. The names of the party are as follows: Spotswood Ellis, age 77 years; Rev. J. P. Ellis, age 70 years; Mrs. J. P. Ellis, age 70 years; W. K. Ellis, of Logan county, Illinois, age 67; Hiram Chapman, age 65 years; Mrs. Hiram Chapman, age 48. We think it doubtful whether any of our neighboring counties can produce such statistics as these.

Coats and Suits

We want to clean up every Ladies' and Misses' Spring Coat Suit and Coat in our stock, and have made the prices so low that this sale is practically assured.

NOW

is an opportune time to buy at

Cut Prices

Only a few left, but every one of the season's best styles, and any quality and material can be had.

Prices of Coats, $2.95 up
Prices of Suits, $7.95 up

E. P. Barnes & Bro.
Beaver Dam, Ky.

Produce Pork At Less Than 3c

Mr. W. S. Dean, of Waitman, Ky., does it and so can you

Read his letter right there to the right. Then write us for full particulars about this wonderful Concentrated Liquid Stock Feed and what it will mean to you to feed it in the place of corn.

Waitman, Ky., May 4, 1916.
Glenmore Distilleries Co., Owensboro, Ky.

Gentlemen:—I enclose check for car of your Concentrated Liquid Stock Feed shipped me May.

Accept my thanks. I find my hogs have made a gain of 1,980 pounds after eating 122 barrels of the feed, 35 bushels of corn, $2.25 worth of Salvat, $1.50 worth of coal slack and 100 lbs ship stuff. Cost me less than 3c per pound to produce.

Respectfully,
W. S. DEAN.

More than 25,000 head of hogs in Daviess and adjoining counties are being fattened on this Concentrated Liquid Stock feed because the feeders find it so much better and cheaper than corn—Write us, asking any questions you like.

Glenmore Distilleries Co., Inc.
OWENSBORO, KY.

LOOK ON THE FIRST PAGE

Or the wrapper around your Herald. You will find a little yellow slip. It has printed on it your name and a date after it. The date shows when your subscription expires or when it did expire. This is all the book we keep of your subscription account, and there is no excuse for you not knowing just how you stand with THE HERALD. We are trying to get our subscription list on a strictly cash-in-advance basis, so as to avoid trouble and misunderstanding. We do not want to force the paper upon anybody against their will, but we want all that is due us. Please give this matter your very prompt attention. Look at that little yellow slip containing your name. It will tell you just what you need to know, without any explanation from us. If it is wrong in any way, let us know. Anyhow, please pay us what is due. It takes much money to run a good newspaper nowadays, hence we must keep our subscription accounts collected up. Either come to The Herald office and pay the arrears and a year in advance, or, if you are not coming to town soon, send us a check or post-office money-order for the amount due. We will appreciate it and it will make us think you really want the paper.