That flag stands for honor, not for advantage. That flag stands for the rights of mankind, no matter where they be, no matter what their antecedents, no matter what the race involved; it stands for the absolute right to political liberty and free self-government and wherever it stands for the contrary, American traditions have begun to be forgotten.—[Woodrow Wilson.

Democracy means the rule of the people, not of any one man or set of men. In county, State or Nation this applies with equal force. He who would be a true Democrat must subvert selfish interests to the good of the party under whose banner he walks. The greatest tragedies that have happened to the Democratic party have been when a small bunch of self-appointed leaders have undertaken to run party affairs to suit themselves. The great bulk of the party does not countenance such acts. Without harmony there can be little success in party affairs.

The Womens Club of Hawesville, by their own efforts, assisted by some of the progressive business men of the town, have provided a rest room for the country women who may come to town and have furnished it with all the necessary accessories. It is a splendid movement and deserves the emulation of other towns. Hartford ought to have just such an institution. A man can loaf almost anywhere when he comes to town, but it is different with a woman. The women folks deserve a special place of their own, where they would feel free to use the comforts provided.

The National Republican Convention assemblies in Chicago to-day. It remains to be seen just what will happen there in nominating a candidate for President. It looks now like Roosevelt has the Republican party by the throat and is going to compel its leaders to nominate him in spite of what he has done to the g. o. p. in recent years. There has been no recanting on the part of Roosevelt since his famous bolt. He does not say he is a Republican. He has taken back nothing he has ever said—and there was a lot of it—against the Republican organization. He will probably succeed in making the Republican party knuckle to his demands.

"Uncle Sam is drinking more whiskey to-day than at any other time since he was born," is the big heading of the "clip sheet" of the Wholesale Liquor Dealers' Association, one of which is mailed to The Herald every week, with the idea that we will use the stuff in our columns. It goes without saying that the object of the wholesale liquor dealers is to sell their product. If more of said product is being consumed in this country now than ever before, why are the big liquor dealers pursuing such a frantic campaign against prohibition? In their "clip sheet" they say "The Nation drinks more whiskey as a result of Prohibition." Then why don't they let Prohibition go on helping their business without a word from them?

All of the eight delegates from Kentucky were given their titles to seats in the Republican National Convention by the National Committee at Chicago. Half a vote will be given each, including the lone negro, Phil Brown, of Hopkinsville. The negroes of the State will perhaps be slow to see just how they are outnumbered by this system of queer political juggling, which was first pulled off in the Republican State Convention. Brown, of course, will get as much of a vote as either of his white companions, but still there will be seven to one in the ration of numbers. Formerly there were three white men and one negro sent, with a whole vote each. Under this new scheme there are seven white men to one colored, and the latter has only half a vote. See?

PRESIDENT URGES THAT ALL OBSERVE FLAG DAY

President Wilson has issued the following proclamation, calling on the people of the United States to celebrate Flag Day, June 14: My Fellow Countrymen: I suggest and request that, throughout the nation, and, if possible, in every community, the 14th day of June be observed as Flag Day, with special patriotic exercises, at which means shall be taken to give sufficient expression to our thoughtful love of the great mission of liberty and justice to which we have devoted ourselves as a people, our pride in the history and our enthusiasm for the political program of the nation, our determination to make it greater and purer with each generation and our resolution to demonstrate to all the world its vital union in sentiment and purpose, accepting only those as true compatriots who feel as we do the compulsion of this supreme allegiance.

"Let us on that day re-dedicate ourselves to the nation, "one and inseparable," from which every thought that is not worthy of our fathers' first vows of independence, liberty and right shall be excluded, and in which we shall stand with united hearts for an America which no man can corrupt, no influence draw away from its ideals, no force divided against itself, a nation signally distinguished among all the nations of mankind for its clear, individual conception alike of its duties and its privileges, its obligations and its rights.

ARKANSAS SWEEP BY SERIES OF TORNADOES

Little Rock, Ark., June 5.—Fifty-nine persons have been reported dead and more than 100 injured in a series of tornadoes which swept Arkansas this afternoon. All means of communication are crippled and it is feared the list of dead and injured will be increased by later reports.

North Arkansas appears to have suffered most severely, although the storm was general throughout the State. At Judsonia a third of the town is said to have been swept away. The tornado swept a clean area, four by twelve blocks. Twenty-five bodies and fifty injured had been taken from the ruins by 10 o'clock to-night.

SMALLHOUS.

June 5.—Joseph Henry Withrow, son of Mrs. S. W. Bilbro, died at his home near here, May 30, and his body was laid to rest the day following in Equality cemetery, after funeral services by Rev. Birch Shields, of Beaver Dam. Henry was 15 years old, was well loved by all who knew him.

Mr. John Durham, Sr., died at his home near here May 26 and after funeral services by Rev. R. D. Bennett, his body was interred at Equality. Mr. Durham leaves a wife, one daughter and five sons to mourn for him.

Little Miss Gracie Cook, Livermore, is the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Bennett. Mrs. Cora Casinger, Beaver Dam, Ky., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Flener, near here.

Mrs. Oppie Kittinger and children are guests of relatives in Hartford. Mrs. Wallace, Hartford, is the guest of Mrs. Sara Greer.

Miss Ruth Godsey has returned from a visit to friends and relatives at Centertown.

Mrs. Mag Faught, Centertown, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Faught.

BASE BALL NEWS.

Cromwell, Ky., June 5.—The select league from Beaver Dam visited the Cromwell Apple Knockers on June 3d at Cromwell. The team from Beaver Dam represented the whole county, as there were players from Hartford, McHenry and Beaver Dam, but the Apple Knockers carried off the honors of the day by a score of 7 to 2.

We attribute the success of the Cromwell team to the twirling of the best pitcher in Ohio county, Mr. Glenden Stevens, while a number of good plays were made by the following co-workers: O. M. Borah, Earl Hampton, Chester Shields, William Douglas, Frank Romans, Robert Burgess, Clifton Stevens and William Martin.

During this game Mr. Stevens struck out fourteen of the visiting players, whereas Mr. Pirtle, the pitcher for Beaver Dam from Hartford, struck out the small number of four.

The Cromwell business men as well as the Cromwell team solicit the visitation of any team of Ohio county or adjoining counties, to their magnificent ball park here. R. E. GENTRY, Mgr.

FELIX—KNISKERN.

The marriage of Miss Mary Elizabeth Felix, of Hartford, Ky., and Mr. Charles Beckham Kniskern, of Boston, Mass., was solemnized last evening in the Blue Room of the Puritan Apartments, Louisville. The decorations carried out the wedding colors of pink and white.

The bridal party entering the Blue Room, took their places before an improvised altar of palms and ferns. The ceremony was performed by Dr. J. S. Lyon, of Atlanta, Ga. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Frank Landrum Felix, and was attended by Mrs. Herrick Johnson, of Louisville, as Matron of Honor, and Miss Lella Glenn, of Hartford, as Maid of Honor. The groom was attended by Mr. Spencer S. Beman, of Chicago, as best man, and by Mr. Douglas Felix, of Washington, brother of the bride, and Mr. Robert S. Triplett, of Owensboro, as ushers. The flower girl was Miss Margaret Crepps Wickliffe, niece of the groom, and the ring bearer was Master Hamilton Duncan, of Greenville, Ky., cousin of the bride. The ribbon bearers were Masters John H. Wallace and William Duncan Swallow, of Bessemer, Ala., cousins of the bride.

The bridal costume was of white satin and tulle made with a court train and trimmed with pearls. The veil was held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. The bride's only ornament was a pin of pearls and diamonds, the gift of the groom. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies-of-the-valley. The Matron of Honor wore white embroidered crepe over white satin and carried pink roses. The Maid of Honor wore pink Georgette crepe over pink satin and carried pink roses. The flower girl wore a white lingerie dress over pink and the ring and ribbon bearers wore white suits. Mrs. Felix, mother of the bride, wore black lace over silver cloth. Mrs. Kniskern, mother of the groom, wore a handsome gray gown.

A reception followed the ceremony and Mr. and Mrs. Kniskern left for a trip, after which they will spend the summer at the Wiley House, Swampscott, Mass., and will reside in Brookline, Mass., after September.

The out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bradford Kniskern, parents of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Duncan, Mrs. Jennie D. Hamilton and Mr. Duncan Hamilton, all of Greenville, Ky.; Miss Ruth Brand and Miss Elizabeth Tryon, of Toledo, Ohio; Miss Elizabeth Lott, Wooster, Ohio; Miss Portia Clark, Ashland, Ohio; Mrs. J. E. Williams and Miss Edith Williams, Brookline, Mass.; Mrs. G. V. Triplett and Mr. R. S. Triplett and Miss Marie Ames, of Owensboro, Ky.; Mr. G. V. Triplett, Jr., of Washington, D. C.; Miss Juliet Austin, of Chicago; Mr. Chas. L. Crocker, of Hinsdale, Ill., and Mrs. I. F. Swallow and daughter, of Bessemer, Alabama.

Mrs. Boone and Mrs. Johnson, aunts of the bride, entertained at their home in honor of Miss Felix and Mr. Kniskern with a dinner on Monday evening. The parlors and library were decorated with pink carnations and the lights covered with pink shades. The dining room was decorated with pink roses and ferns. In the center of the table was an oval mirror, the frame covered with pink roses and Southern smilax. On the lake there formed were swans, and a miniature bride and groom surrounded by cupids. From the chandelier, which was directly over the mirror, was suspended by pink and green tulle a cluster of bells covered with green and edged with pink rosebuds, and the clapper of each was a single pink rosebud. The mantle was banked with ferns and pink roses. The place cards for the girls were cupids on Lover's Lane; for the men, brides.

A delicious dinner was served. During the salad course "Advice to the Bride and Groom" was read by Mrs. Herrick Johnson. On each salad plate was a pink rosebud. The ice was a ball with a spray of pink rosebuds across the top and the bride's cake was ornamented with pink roses. Served with the ice was a miniature slipper filled with rice. With the coffee each guest gave a toast to the bride.

Suspended by pink ribbons from the dining room door was a ball twelve inches in diameter, covered with pink. As the bride and groom left the dining room, William Duncan Swallow, John H. Wallace, Margaret Swallow and Hamilton Duncan, cousins of the bride, pulled the ribbons and the ball opened, showering the bride and groom with pink rose leaves.

The bridal party, consisting of Miss Mary Elizabeth Felix, Mrs. Herrick Johnson, Miss Lella Glenn, of Hartford, Ky.; Miss Elizabeth Lott, of Wooster, Ohio; Miss Elizabeth Tryon, of Toledo, Ohio; Miss Ruth Brand, of Toledo, Ohio; Miss Portia Clark, of Ashland, Ohio; Miss Edith Williams, of Brookline, Mass.; Mr. Beckham Kniskern, of Boston, Mass.; Mr. Spencer S. Beman, of Chicago, Ill.; Mr. Douglas Felix, of Washington, D. C.; Mr. Robert Triplett, of Owensboro, Ky.; Mr. Duncan Hamilton, of Greenville, Ky., and Mr. Robert Shackleton, were seated in the dining room. Mr. and Mrs. Felix, father and mother of the bride, and Mrs. Boone and her house guests, were served in the library.

Mrs. Wickliffe, sister of the groom, entertained Sunday in honor of Miss Felix and Mr. Kniskern, with a buffet luncheon. The library and dining room were beautifully decorated in pink roses and pink tulle. A delicious luncheon was served. The guests were: Misses Felix, Glenn, Clark, Lott, Brand, Tryon, Williams, and Ames, and Messrs. Kniskern, Beman, Felix, Triplett and Hamilton, Mrs. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Kniskern.

PREPAREDNESS PARADE BIGGEST PAGEANT EVER

Was Eleven and One-Half Hours in Passing—Witnessed by Million People.

Chicago, June 3.—The greatest parade ever held in Chicago finished to-night after 130,214 persons, one-sixth of whom were women, had filed through the streets in a preparedness demonstration. The parade was eleven and one-half hours in passing. More than 1,000,000 persons it was estimated have witnessed it. The night division was made up largely of military organizations.

So great was the enthusiasm with which Chicago rose to the spirit of the preparedness demonstration that two parades were necessary, one in the day and one at night. More than 150,000 men and women took part in the parade to-day, having pledged themselves to do so, rain or shine. The women said that if it rained they would wear their old clothes and would not let their enthusiasm be quenched by fear of a drenching.

The day parade formed this morning in Michigan avenue, South of Van Buren street and marched north in Michigan avenue, the entire route being as follows: North on Michigan avenue to Randolph street, west on Randolph to Franklin, south on Franklin to Washington, east on Washington to State, south on State to Madison, west on Madison to Franklin, south on Franklin to Monroe, east on Monroe to State, south on State to Jackson Boulevard, west on Jackson to a point west of Chicago river where disbandment took place late yesterday afternoon.

The men and women that took part came from nearly all trades and professions. The middle-aged and the gray-headed walked briskly along with strapping youngsters, all inspired by the general enthusiasm, the crashing sound of drums and horns and the waving of thousands of flags.

Birthday Celebration.

On Sunday, June the 4th, Joe C. Hocker, of Beaver Dam, to his surprise, was reminded of his 53d birthday when he rode up to his home at 10:30 a. m., and found his porch crowded with relatives and friends. Going on to the kitchen he found baskets loaded with good things to eat which the crowd had brought. Dinner was served in the yard on tables which were beautifully decorated with flowers which his neighbors sent in. After dinner the crowd amused themselves by taking pictures and singing until about 4 p. m. when another course of cream and cake was served. There were 38 present and they reported a most delightful day. H. D. H.
