

THE HARTFORD HERALD

Subscription $1.50 Per Year, in Advance

"A Course, the Herald of a New World, the News of All Nations Lumbering at Its Best."

All Kinds Job Printing Neatly Executed.

48th YEAR.

HARTFORD, KY., WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1922.

NO. 39

BRITAIN BACKS DOWN; TURKS GET FOOHOLD

France, England and Italy Dis- patch Note to Kemal Agreeing To Turkish Ambition.

Paris, Sept. 23.—The return of Turkey to Europe was assured to-night when Great Britain, France and Italy at the final session of the allied conference unanimously agreed to concede all the national peace terms. The Turkish claims to Eastern Thrace to the Maritza river and including the ancient Turkish capital of Adrianople, were approved as peace terms that can be supported by France, Great Britain and Italy in a joint invitation sent to Mustapha Kemal Pasha, the nationalist leader, to a peace conference to be held at Venice at the earliest possible date.

The Kemalists must agree in return not to enter the present neutral zone along the straits, nor make any crossing elsewhere, and must accept complete freedom of the Dardanelles, the sea of Marmora and the Bosphorus, probably under the League of Nations.

Urges Immediate Armistice
The invitation, which was cabled tonight by M. Poincare to Kemal Pasha personally urges an immediate meeting of the allies and Turkish and Greek generals at Mudania to formulate terms of an armistice pending the conference. It is regarded as virtually certain that Kemal will accept the conditions.

In addition to other concessions, Turkey is promised the support of the three allies for admission to the League of Nations and also withdrawal of the allied troops from Constantinople as soon as peace becomes effective.

England Shifts Stand
The allied decision came as a big surprise, for as late as noon, British officials declared that Great Britain would not approve any of the Turkish claims in advance of the peace conference. The change in this policy came in the afternoon after an exchange of many messages between Lord Curzon and Premier Lloyd George and several long telephone conversations.

While agreeing virtually to all the Turkish claims, Lord Curzon insisted on preservation of the neutral zones on the Asiatic side of the straits. The pledge is exacted from Kemal to observe these zones and not to cross the straits or the sea of Marmora until peace is signed. The previous contention of Great Britain that allied troops should continue to occupy Gallipoli is not mentioned in the note, but it is probable that a small allied force will remain temporarily on the peninsula.

Turks To Enter League
The Greek forces are to retire from Eastern Thrace and Adrianople to a line to be fixed by the allied generals in agreement with the Greek and Turkish military authorities. The meeting to arrange an armistice is expected to be held at Mudania within a few days. Admission of Turkey to the League of Nations, which the allies pledge themselves to support, is not expected until the assembly meeting of next year.

Complete agreement by M. Poincare, Lord Curzon and Count Sforza was reached after a lengthy session. It is considered the more surprising because of the virtual decision last night that separate notes would have to be sent to the Angora government for the reason that Great Britain was not willing to bind herself in advance to any definite terms sufficient to attract Kemal Pasha to a peace conference.

The phraseology of that part of the note regarding Thrace is commented on, as it sets forth that the three governments "view with favor the desire of Turkey to recover Thrace," but support to this end is conditioned on the Angora government's promise not to send troops into the neutral zones pending the peace conference.

SEN. HUBBARD INTRODUCES NEW BOLDER BONUS BILL.

Washington, Sept. 23.—Senator Hubbard, Republican, New Mexico, introduced today into the senate another bonus measure, defined in its title as the "veterans' refund and adjusted compensation act."

The measure would provide for premiums of twenty dollars for each month of service together with the return of all compulsory allotments made by the service men and payments on account of government insurance between April 5, 1917, and July 1, 1919.

No provision is made for financing the bonus.

Where the amount due a veteran did not exceed $50 it would be paid in full October 1, 1923. In all other cases fifty per cent would be paid October 1, 1923, and the remainder October 1, 1926, together with interest at four per cent.

The obligations given by the government on unpaid sums could not be used as security for loans except under regulations prescribed by the secretaries of war and navy.

LAFAYETTE M. JAMES

Lafayette M. James, died in Ft. Worth, Texas, Sunday evening, Sept. 17, 1922, of heart failure. He was 63 years of age and had been in failing health for some time but was thought to be convalescing. He had just returned from church and was sitting on the front porch. The landlady, noticing the light burning rather late went to turn it out and found him in his chair dead. The news of his death was immediately wired to his brother, Mr. J. S. James and he and Mr. Forest Miller left for Ft. Worth to bring the remains to this county for burial.

The deceased was the eldest son of S. M. and Elizabeth James, deceased and was born and reared in the Select community. He migrated to the West 36 years ago and had been rather successful in business. He had for many years been a member of the Christian Church and was a man of splendid character.

He had remained single throughout life. Surviving relatives are a sister, Mrs. Joe T. Miller, a brother, Mr. J. S. James, both of Select, and several nephews and nieces.

Burial was at the Smith graveyard near Select, Friday afternoon. Rev. William Savage conducted funeral services. A large concourse of people were present.

We extend our sincere sympathy to the bereaved relatives.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

A most pleasant time was spent, Sept. 21, at the home of R. Lee Whitaker, of Barnett's Creek neighborhood in honor of his 41st birthday, when many friends and relatives gathered with well-filled baskets and a splendid Kentucky dinner was served. The day was enjoyed by all.

Following is a list of those who were present: Mrs. Mary Whitaker, Jesse Whitaker, Appalona Riddle and daughter, Christine, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Daniel and son, Alva G., Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith and daughter, Mary, Mrs. E. B. Mason and son, Jesse Stanton, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Patton, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Mosely and son, Urey G., Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Hoover, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Stewart and son, Robt. A., Mr. and Mrs. Mirt Richardson and two children, Mary Christine and Edward, Rev. Birch Shields, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Patton, two children, Everett and Clyde, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Hoover and daughter, Mamie, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hoover, Mrs. Ella Hoover and daughter, Dorothy, Mrs. Sallie Hoover and daughter, Eula, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hoover and children, Alva, Louis D., and Mildred, Alphonzo Hoover, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Whitaker and children, Pearl, Hazel and G. C., Jr., Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Whitaker and two sons, Austin and William, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Chapman and two children, Lois and Lucille, Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Trogden, Mr. O. L. Brooks and son, Arlist, Mrs. Ella Belle Yates, Miss Orina Bartlett, Miss Pearl Bozarth, Mrs. Bertie Wallace and son, Orville, Mrs. Florine Whitaker, Mrs. Lettie Stewart and daughter, Ethline, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Whitaker and children, Beulah, Elmer, Dolphus and Leonard.

NOTICE

We are installing a tippie and hoist on our yards to unload coal from barges and will be in operation by October 15. Can supply you with any kind of coal in any quantity any day in the year. Prices reasonable.

ELLIS ICE CO.

Hartford, Ky.

Last Call To Tobacco Growers.

This is the last week of the drive to obtain the pooling pledges to the Dark Tobacco Growers Co-Operative Association required to make certain the organization in Ohio County. The independence or continued servitude of the tobacco growers of the county will be determined before October 1. Over Two Thousand Acres have already been pledged. The most faithful work is being done by the workers in the field and it is confidently expected that more than Two Thousand acres more will be pledged by Saturday night when all committees and workers are asked to report. Fellow Farmers, let's everybody sign so that we can hold up our heads and go forward with the procession. Every other county in the Green River District has gone "over the top." Never let it be said that Ohio County is the drone. We can and will report our two-thirds quota pledged before it is too late.

Yours for Success,
T. H. BLACK, Chairman.

SECOND WEEK OF CIRCUIT COURT UNDER WAY

Trial of R. B. Brown for Killing J. E. Coleburn Arouses Much Interest.

The second week of the regular September term of the Ohio Circuit Court is well under way. Judge Wilson has already disposed of a large amount of litigation, mostly of a civil nature. However most of this week has been consumed in the trial of the case of the Commonwealth vs. R. B. Brown, indicted on a charge of murder. The prosecution is the result of shooting of J. E. Coleburn by the defendant the latter part of last May in the railroad pump-house at Smallhous. Both men were bridge tenders and the homicide was precipitated by the visit of a railroad official in response to a letter written to the company by Coleburn in which he made charges or neglect of duty against Brown. Defendant's plea is self-defense. The testimony in chief of the Commonwealth has been completed and the hearing of the defendant's evidence was well under way at press hour. A large crowd of neighbors and friends of the parties filled the courtroom.

Among the matters of litigation disposed of since our last issue were the following: N. P. Dennis vs. W. H. Maddox, verdict for plaintiff, $25.00; Margaret Stevens vs. J. A. James, continued; Brenard Mfg. Co. vs. Ohio County Drug Co., judgment for defendant; G. J. Christian vs. A. S. Monroe & Co., verdict for plaintiff $220.00; R. P. Coleman vs. Geo. Sowders, continued; G. A. Ralph vs. Ames Body Corporation, verdict for plaintiff $564.85; Guenther Hardware Co. vs. J. M. Heaver, continued; Guenther Hardware Co. vs. C. W. Hoover, continued; Mary Belle Lee vs. Monroe Lee, maintenance of $20 per month allowed; Martin Whitehead vs. Gene Whitehead, $12 allowed for maintenance pendente lite; C. E. Crowder vs. C. H. Havens, &c., judgment for plaintiff in sum of $380.50 and sale of land ordered to enforce lien; J. W. Foster vs. R. E. Milligan, &c., hung jury; Louisville Grocery Co. vs. Emsley Raymer, judgment for $10; R. J. Hewlett vs. S. J. Boone, &c., judgment for plaintiff in sum of $50; E. F. Gabbert vs. F. M. Hoover, continued.

The names of the following householders were drawn from the jury wheel Friday to be summoned for service Monday morning: J. T. Morgan, Adam Richmond, C. E. Raley, Hardin Aitchison, B. Monroe, Henry Beatty, Willie Harl, D. E. Rogers, J. W. Gray, Ellis Mitchell, F. L. Sunderlin, O. E. Seppit, Kyle Plummer, Ira B. Ellis, J. H. Duvall, Jake Wilson, Ben W. Taylor, Merle Taylor, O. R. Tinsley, W. H. Brown, Lon Askins, Wm. Hinton, Lafe Embury and R. R. Cundiff.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. GLENN

The Hartford Woman's Club held its initial meeting of the season with Mrs. J. S. Glenn Saturday afternoon, eight ladies responding to the roll call. The new Program Committee, with Mrs. Maggie Griffin as Chairman, outlined an interesting program for the present quarter. The Club will meet next Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Amos R. Carson.

The Hartford and McHenry High School baseball teams staged a session at Riverside Park Saturday afternoon, resulting in a victory for the former, score 11 to 0.

REV. FRAZIER RETURNED TO HARTFORD

Rev. J. C. Rawlings Presiding Elder; Methodists Close Suc- cessful Conference.

Central City, Ky., Sept. 25.—The annual session of the Louisville Conference of the M. E. Church, South, came to a close here about noon today with the reading of the appointments of the ministers and presiding elders for the ensuing conference year.

The meeting was a very successful one and the reports of the church's activities were very encouraging showing seven districts having 179 pastoral charges and 555 churches. More than 5,000 adults have been added to the rolls of the church, a report shows. Money gathered from various sources will exceed $10,000.

The conference indorsed the efforts of the Rev. M. P. Hunt of Louisville to abolish race track gambling in Kentucky. Mr. Hunt in an address pointed out the alleged prevalence and evil of betting on horse races.

Year's Work Successful
Reports from the various boards of the church have been completed and show this year's work to be the most successful in the history of the Louisville conference.

Sermons in the several churches of Central City were delivered by visiting Methodist ministers Sunday, Bishop U. V. W. Darlington, of Huntington, W. Va., who presided over this session of the conference, preached at the Methodist Church. The Rev. Carl C. Gregory, transferred to the Louisville conference four years ago from Alabama, spoke at the union services in the Central City Theater.

The long standing arbitrary rule that ministers could serve in one pastorate no longer than four years in succession has been modified under certain circumstances. The bishop may, at his discretion, return a minister for a longer term.

Elder Is Elected
In the conference this year there are four pastors who have completed their fifth year of service in one pastorate, and thirteen who have completed their fourth year.

Bishop Darlington has been asked, it is said, to return several of these thirteen ministers to their present churches. The Hopkinsville church has formally petitioned the conference to return its minister, the Rev. A. R. Kasey.

Four presiding elders have served their four-year limit, according to the records.

The Rev. T. L. Hules, of Henderson, was elected editor of the Central Methodist, the church organ published in Louisville.

The appointments for the Owensboro District were as follows:

OWENSBORO DISTRICT
Presiding Elder—J. C. Rawlings, Beaver Dam—W. S. Buckner, Calhoun—L. W. Turner, Centertown—F. A. Sanders, Junior preacher to be supplied, Central City Station—W. A. Grant, Cloverport—J. R. Randolph, Drakesboro—C. C. Jones, Dundee—M. E. Wilcox, supply, Fordsville—S. L. C. Cowherd, Graham—J. D. Hayden, Greenville Station—L. K. May, Greensville Circuit—J. F. Hill, supply.

Hartford—T. T. Frazier, Hawesville—M. R. Hayes, Lewisburg—Virgil Elgin, Lewistown—C. R. Crowe, Livermore—E. S. Moore.

Macco—F. J. Sanders, Owensboro, Brockmridge—C. F. Hartford.

Owensboro Circuit—E. R. Bennett.

Owensboro, Settle Memorial—Carl C. Gregory.

Owensboro, Third Street—M. M. Murrell.

Owensboro, Woodlawn—F. E. Lewis.

Rochester—D. T. Penick.

Stanley—B. F. Wilson.

Sacramento—J. W. Crowe, supply.

South Carrollton—A. M. Cottingham.

Stephensport—John Hamilton.

BEAVER DAM

Sept. 18.—Rev. Wilbert E. Halle was at Rander to attend meeting Sunday and Church of God Sunday School.

The attendance at Ohio County Fair from Beaver Dam was very good and everyone seemed pleased with the management and all the exhibits and races.

Mr. Spurgeon Foster was in the city Thursday from Horse Branch on a business errand.

Miss Juanita Leach and Miss Jennie V. Leach were injured while driving near the city Sunday afternoon. They are daughters of Senator J. A. Leach and were in company with their father at the time of the accident.

Mr. J. Allen and wife and Miss Eva Allen attended the Fair at Hartford on Friday.

A proposition has been on foot in Beaver Dam to erect sign pointers and street name boards for the benefit of the general public and also to number houses. Few towns of the size have shown more marked improvement and progressiveness than this little inland city.

Rev. Jack Allen and family were in town Sunday enroute from an appointment near Cromwell to Echols where Mr. Allen preached over Sunday. He has a meeting scheduled to begin early in the week at the W. O. W. Hall at Oatton, Ky.

Mrs. Ida Peach and daughter, Miss Inez Peach, of Williams Mines, Kentucky, went to Rands to visit Mrs. W. C. Earg, on Sunday.

Mr. Arvin Batze was in Rander and McHenry Sunday visiting friends and to attend Church of God meeting.

Mrs. Hattie McDaniel, Miss Victoria Allen, and Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. J. E. Allen took a hike to the country Monday afternoon.

TO HONOR—BENNETT

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Tchenor, 822 Cedar street, announce the marriage of their daughter, Laura V., to Mr. Charles A. Bennett, which took place at Hopkinsport, Saturday morning. The bride is a very popular and attractive young woman. Mr. Bennett is a young business man of this city. After the ceremony the couple, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Ward and son, A. C., left for a motor trip to the Mammoth Cave and other points. Upon their return they will make their home with the groom's mother, Mrs. Sarah Bennett, 1225 Venable Ave.—Owensboro Messenger, Sept. 17, 1922.

NEW DRAINAGE COMMISSIONER

On Monday morning County Judge H. R. Wending appointed Mr. S. L. King as County Drainage Commissioner. Heretofore the drainage projects of the county have been administered under the old law by a board consisting of three members, but it has been decided by Judge Wending that management by one Commissioner, as provided for under a more recent statute, would be preferable. The old Board gave excellent services and it is hoped and believed by his many friends that Mr. King's regime will be equally successful. The new Commissioner has given bond and will assume his duties at once.

YOUNG MAN SERIOUSLY BURNED

Nolan Clark, 18, son of the late Finis Clark, who resided in upper East Hartford, was seriously burned at Taylor Mines last Wednesday night when a can of carbide from which he was filling his lamp, exploded. The young man dropped a lighted match in the can, causing the explosion. At last reports it was uncertain as to his chances for recovery.

PLOT AGAINST TRADE IS CITED IN COURT RULE

Shop Workers Cannot Deny Responsibility for Lawless- ness, Judge Says.

Chicago, Sept. 25.—Holding the railway shopmen's strike a conspiracy in restraint of trade in interference of interstate commerce and earnings of the mails because "where minds meet together on such a purpose, a conspiracy exists without even a word being spoken," Judge James H. Wilkerson, in United States District Court, today sustained the Government's plea for a country-wide temporary injunction against striking railroad crafts.

The decision was hailed as one of the most significant for law and order ever read into the records of the judiciary by Attorney General Duggan and Assistant Attorney General McLaughlin, who presented the Government's case. Donald R. Reiberg, of counsel for the shopmen, said he would take an appeal at once from the ruling.

To Be Interpreted

While the decision was interpreted as holding in effect that the strikers were accountable for acts of violence, whether these acts were committed by the strikers or not, its exact form will be argued before Judge Wilkerson next Monday, pending which he continued in effect the present restraining order.

The restraining order prohibited the shopmen, and the injunction is expected to prohibit them from:

Interfering with operation, repairs and employment on the roads,
Conspiring to interfere,
Loitering or trespassing on railway property,

Attempt to induce plant employees to quit or to prevent persons from seeking employment with the roads,

Planning,
Persuading employees or would-be employees or visiting their homes,
Hindering transportation,

Encouraging or directing employees (union members or others) to stop work, or others to refrain from seeking work,

Issuing instructions or public statements which might have the above effect.

Using union funds for purposes to be defined as above.

400,000 Men Engaged
The order will affect about 270,000 officers and 400,000 members of the 382 crafts belonging to the railway employees' department of the American Federation of Labor.

In a statement tonight Mr. Reiberg said he interpreted the decision as a death blow to all big unions because it will render them powerless substantially if it is upheld by the higher courts.

"The decision, as I interpret it, means that the unions will be liable for any unlawful act committed in connection with a union strike regardless of who commits it," he said.

"That means that there can be no national strikes. When there is a national strike with thousands of men involved there are bound to be some acts which technically would be in violation of the injunction. Since the unions would be held responsible for these acts they could not call a strike without eventually having all their leaders in jail."

Appeal Is Certain
Mr. Reiberg said that an appeal would be taken regardless of the technical form of the temporary injunction to be issued Monday, and asserted his intention of calling B. M. Jewell, shop crafts leader, and other strike officials in an effort to prove the shop crafts organization had no connection with any unlawful acts.

S. M. Bolton, head of the Western division of the Association of Railway Executives, said that while he had not carefully read the decision as yet, he believed it to be "quite right and just." Other railroad executives refused to comment on the decision, declaring it to be a matter between the Government and the shop crafts union in which the railroads were not directly concerned.

Mr. T. A. Randall was in Hartford on business Tuesday and made us a pleasant call.