

THE DEMOCRAT. News About Home.

SEVERAL of our citizens visited Fort Wayne last Monday. POTATOES are coming in liberally and being about 25c per bushel.

A Parish social will be held next Thursday evening at the residence of Dr. J. V. VINALL. WHEAT still commands five cents per bushel more in Plymouth than in LaPorte, Peru, South Bend, or Warsaw.

OLD corn sold at a higher price than wheat in our town a few days ago. How is that for hi, and lo? G. S. CLEVELAND and bride have returned from their bridal trip and settled down to the enjoyment of domestic felicity.

The new time table of the C. C. & L. Railroad, which went into effect last Monday, is published in another column. THE frosts Friday and Sunday night were unusually heavy for this season of the year, and indicate the approach of Indian Summer.

PRESIDENT GRANT has issued a proclamation appointing the 18th day of November as a day of thanksgiving and prayer.

S. M. BECKER very justly, we think, claim a large share of public patronage, which they have earned by years of fair and liberal dealing with our citizens.

QUERY: Is it an offense, within the jurisdiction of the town marshal, to trot a horse through town on Sunday. This question originated at a recent meeting of the Board of Trustees.

ROSE & ALLEMAN are buying horses weighing over 1200 pounds, at liberal prices. Parties interested will call at ALLEMAN'S furniture store, south of the Parker House.

We have received no report of the proceedings of the railroad meeting of last Friday. We presume everything went off satisfactorily, however, Plymouth needs the road and should try and secure it.

The Secretary's report of the proceedings of the Editorial Convention held last Friday, at LaPorte, arrived yesterday, after our paper was made up, and consequently we were compelled to defer its publication until next week.

OUR regular carrier boy has been sick for several weeks, and those of our town subscribers who do not receive their paper regularly must have patience with us, as we do the best we can, and hope hereafter to avoid cause for complaint.

MARSHALL COUNTY is entitled to 16 delegates in the Democratic State Convention, to be held at Indianapolis Jan. 8, 1870. The Central Committee of the State recommend that County Conventions to select delegates be held December 1st.

As we go to press Wednesday evening we are unable to report matters of interest occurring at that time until our edition of the next week. We always try to give all the news we possess, with certainty, but also try and get our paper out early Thursday morning.

A company of four experienced hunters—two from Marshall county, and two from Indianapolis—made a raid on the ducks of Pulaski county last week, and after spending a few days at the sport and killing one duck, returned to their respective homes, "wiser if not better men."

OUR friend and fellow-townsman, Mr. P. S. ALLEMAN, who has been confined to his room for the past six weeks with painful and dangerous illness, put in his first appearance on our streets last Tuesday, much to the joy of his many friends. We are also pleased to learn that Mr. CAPRON is again convalescent.

FOR our share of the magnificent banquet presided by Mr. AXTELL, of the Teagarden House, at LaPorte, last Friday, on the occasion of the editorial Convention, and for other favors extended to us, we tender our thanks. Everybody knows AXTELL, or should, and his fame is contemporaneous with that of the Teagarden House.

We publish an article this week from the Rochester Spy in answer to some comments made by the Register of South Bend, on the course of the Spy relative to PACKARD, M. C. The article is spicy, and we advise the radical press to touch the Spy very tenderly on this subject. It won't bear stirring up.

THE Republican of last week contained a funny typographical error in the President's proclamation appointing Thanksgiving Day. The proclamation reads "to render praise and thanksgiving for the same, and devoutly to implore a continuance of God's mercy." The Republican has it "and devoutly to deplore a continuance of God's mercy."

We were agreeably surprised on visiting the Myers House, at LaPorte, last week, to find our old friend, BEN. MYERS, himself, presiding over the destinies of that favorite hotel. It is conceded that the supper he set before the voracious quill-drivers last Friday evening was unsurpassable. May his shadow increase—and it will if he eats at his own bountiful table.

THE "Happy Family" comprising the Board of Trustees of our town, Corporation Attorney and Marshal, are in danger of losing their cognomen. At a special meeting, held a few days ago, a committee of two—newly appointed to see that somebody discharges the duties pertaining to the office of Marshal, which that official may neglect. We propose an amendment. Suppose the committee assume the functions of Marshal and Supervisor and continue to act as Trustees, in short, "run the town and township."

THE case of the Corporation vs. JESSELL, tried last week, before Justice LUKER and a jury, was decided against JESSELL. An appeal was taken, and a proposition is under advisement for having all the cases instituted determined by one test case in the Circuit Court. The trial abounded in interesting incidents, which we, as a public journalist, should record, but which we prefer to let rest at present.

A small party of young gentlemen, residing in our place, indulged in that old time recreation, "a cool hunt," one evening last week. The first "coon" they "trod" was more odorous than a thousand bottles of combined cologne sachou, night blooming cerus and musk, and furnished one amateur sportsman with so extensive a supply of his stock on hand that they buried their respective wardrobes and a half-dozen of their dogs, on their return home.

P. S. Old man BYKES, an experienced "coonist," says the animal may have been a skunk. LAST Saturday, our informant states, two "bummers of the male persuasion" undertook to convey a flask of stimulants from Tyrer City to this place, imagining one of their friends to be here entirely destitute of the much needed beverage. It being their intention and desire to make the journey on foot, they joyfully set out on their "winding way," attempting to keep on the railroad, a feat by no means easy to accomplish, considering their "spirits." The depression of Mr. B.'s "spirits" became so forcible as to precipitate him from the top of a high culvert to the bottom of a deep ditch, his head coming in contact with a post, glancing thence into the mire, from which he was with difficulty removed by his companion.

We have only space to state that Mr. B. is several inches shorter than before his fall, and that he is unable to move hand or foot. On a dark night, last week, the residence of Esquire CUSHMAN was approached by two persons, one of whom rapped at the door. Mrs. CUSHMAN, happening to be awake, modestly asked who was there. No answer, but another rap. By this time the lady thought best to awaken her husband, which she succeeded in doing after vigorously exercising his elbows on his ribs. The "Squire," imagining that his services were required in the matrimonial line of business, made bold to ask whether they had their license. This important question gaining no reply, the "Squire" opened the door in time to see one cuss dodge behind a stump, and another one a few feet from the door. They briefly explained that they had left the road and walked through Mr. CUSHMAN'S extensive orchard to ask for two or three apples! The supposition is that had Mr. C. been absent they would have demanded about two hundred dollars of his wife, as they knew the money was in the house.

MARRIED. By the Rev. J. Schlosser on the 10th inst. Mr. JACOB H. ZECHTEL, to Miss REJINA B. STAHL, both of Marshall Co. On the 17th inst. by the same, Mr. BENJAMIN J. CRAMER, to Miss SARAH C. WILSON, both of Marshall County. Oct. 11th, by R. J. Pileher, JOHN G. DAVIS and EMELINE CRAMPON. Oct. 17, by R. J. Pileher, JAMES BAXTER and MARY M. LESLIE.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned will apply at the next session of Commissioners' court, for license to retail spirituous liquors in quantities less than a quart at a time. The location on which we propose to sell is on the south 18 ft. of lot No. 2, in the original plat of Plymouth, Marshall County, Indiana.

Very few people think when they have a sore throat that it is a very great sign of danger. It is a sign that the system is being attacked by a disease which, if not promptly treated, will lead to a fatal issue.
