

The Republican.

ABOUT HOME. Republican County Ticket.

For Sheriff, T. B. THOMPSON. County Treasurer, HEZEKIAH B. PERSHING. Commissioners, D. J. L. WESTERVELT, 3-GEO. H. THAYER. For Coroner, G. P. CHERRY. For Surveyor, OLIVER W. MORRIS.

POLE RAISING IN NORTH TOWNSHIP.

ONE MORE GRAND RALLY! The Republicans of North township will raise the tallest kind of a Fremont pole at Abraham Baker's, about five miles north of town, on the Michigan road, on SATURDAY NEXT, the 11th of October.

Messrs. Griffith, Sumner and others will be on hand to speak, and also the Plymouth Jessie Glee Club, to sing.

Let there be a grand rally of the friends of the Mustang Colt.

Hon. N. P. Banks, Speaker of the U. S. House of Representatives, is to speak at Laporte on Saturday next. A special train of cars will leave here at a quarter before 12 o'clock on Saturday, for Laporte, and return again some evening, for the accumulation of those who want to hear Mr. Banks. Fare—going and returning—$3.

Vote Early.

Be sure and vote early, lest something occur by which you may be suddenly called away. Run no risk by which your vote will be lost.

QUESTY FAIR.—The Marshall County Fair is to be held in this place on the 17th inst. We hope to see a large attendance of the Farmers and Mechanics of the county, on the occasion, and that the exhibition will be highly creditable to the county.

The communications of "W. V." are unavoidably deferred until next week.

YANKEE ROBINSON'S BIG SHOW.—The advertisement in another column in regard to Yankee Robinson's big show, can not fail to attract the attention of all eyes and conditions of the fair loving, pleasure-seeking portion of community. The Grand Ascension, on a single rope nearly 400 feet long, by Miss Patintero, to the top of the 5 center-pole tent, being free to all, will, doubtless, of itself be sufficient to draw an immense crowd to the exhibition.

SENATOR ACCIDENT.—An Irishman, (his name we could not learn) attempted to jump on the cars, on Monday last, after they started, but fell off, and got badly hurt. Some portion of the car struck him on the jaw breaking it in three places, besides which his collar bone was broken and one rib. He was trying to escape arrest by an officer, who learn, who had a capias for him.

BOURBON RIOT.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN.—The Marshall County Democrat of the 21st inst., contains an editorial comment upon the famous Bourbon Riot. I had hoped from the character of the editor and those connected with him to the management of the paper, that they would at least manifest common courtesy and fairness toward their political opponents, as the paper is patronized by a respectable number of Republicans of North township at least, and I presume, in other portions of the county also. If comments like those are calculated to enlarge their sphere of usefulness, or increase their subscription list, I am mistaken in regard to the intelligence and patriotism of the freemen of this county.

The writer of this was present at Bourbon when Messrs. Colfax and Stuart spoke, was in the wagon containing the banner that so much displeased a portion of the Democracy, particularly Judge Stuart; for no sooner had he mounted the stand at the conclusion of Mr. Colfax's remarks, than he refused to do so, and spoke in most disrespectful terms of the party using such a banner, and that the design in bringing it up so near the speakers stand was to insult the Democrats that might be present. He then indulged in the most inflammatory remarks in regard to Know Nothings and the Louisville riots, and appeared to the writer to be anxious to incite the Irish who were present to violence.

In regard to Judge S. being interrupted while speaking about the Sumner and Brooks affair, a brief statement will set the matter right.—Judge S. asserted that no Democrat justified the act, and called on those present to say whether they had ever heard a Democrat justify it. I myself answered, I had, and could prove it. Some ten or twenty more cried out they had. But I supposed, when thus appealed to by the speaker, it would not be considered an interruption to say yes or no. If he did not want the question answered he should not have asked it. If we had answered, we had not, instead of had, there would have been no complaint from any quarter about an interruption.

The Judge seemed to be considerably excited when he referred to an egg-scrape or something of that kind that occurred at Michigan City. His remarks on this subject appeared to be very undignified and unbecoming one wearing the Judicial ermine. But, perhaps, we ought not to expect any thing better from a man who holds on to one office while running for another. It shows he has no hope of his election.

The Judge's expression, if you want to stand by the Constitution, vote for me, is decidedly rich, as if there were no friends of the constitution or union except those who are willing to show the knee in servility to the south. The great cry raised by the present Bucknaker party reminds me of the devil shearing the hog—great cry and little wool. Who appoints dissensionists to office? Who talks about a dissolution of the Union in a certain contingency? Who is unwilling to abide the decision of the ballot box? Has not Gov. Wise proposed that the legislatures of Virginia and other slave-holding States be called together as soon as it is ascertained Fremont is elected, to concert measures to withdraw from the Union, before he can get possession of the army and navy and purse strings of the nation? Is it not boldly proclaimed in the South that Mr. Pierce can be relied on in the emergency contemplated? It only remains to be seen whether the people of the South will sustain their leaders. Now, who are the traitors? Surely this Southern and Northern slavery extension party, must be the only nation, the only Democratic party! the essence of purity, and the only one able to save the Union! Who can doubt it? Are not those true patriots, Atchison, Stringfellow & Co., including the patriotic Border Ruffians, in Missouri, on the side of Democracy and the Union?

The editor of the Democrat and his assistants are or were my personal friends. I voted for them all when candidates for office. I got up a club for the Democrat. Since then I have become convinced that the present Democratic party has wandered from the old landmarks, and I have therefore concluded to sever old party ties, and vote at the coming election on the side of Freedom and against Slavery extension. FAIRMOUNT.

Fremont's Difficulties With Foote.—The Truth about the Matter. Every Black Line speaker we have heard since the nomination of Col. Fremont, has seen fit to make violent and abusive strictures upon him on account of his difficulty with Senator Foote, of Mississippi. The following, which is a true account of that matter, will show how much they misrepresent the affair:

"But one incident occurred to mar the entire harmony of Col. Fremont's intercourse with his brother Senators, and that only served to increase the respect already entertained for his many sensibilities. On the last night of the session Senator Foote, of Mississippi, who came into the Senate somewhat excited, on the course of some remarks on the Naval Appropriation bill—it afterwards appeared as if he had not known precisely what bill he was speaking of—said in substance, or was understood to say, that the Republic would be dishonored if a portion of the legislation which had been urged upon the Senate for California were consummated. Upon hearing these words, Col. Fremont left the Senate Chamber, and sent a messenger to say to Senator Foote, that he wished to speak with him. As soon as Foote had finished his speech, the message was delivered to him, and he stepped out to Col. Fremont, who then told him that he had sent for him to say that he had just used language in the Senate, in reference to himself, which a gentleman in his position could not use, and which was unworthy of a Senator.

Foote immediately struck at him with his fist, just grazing his face. On the instant, both parties were seized by the door keepers and Senators, who had noticed Foote's exit from the Senate, and suspected its cause, and thus a serious issue to the affair was postponed. On the following day, Colonel Fremont sent Foote a note, by the hand of Gov. Price of New Jersey, demanding retraction of his offensive imputations. Gov. Price brought back a note from Foote, in which he stated that in what he said in the Senate, he had said nothing denunciatory of the bill supposed to have been referred to by him, or those who introduced it.

Mr. Fremont's friends esteemed this equivalent to a retraction of the offensive words, and on Monday following—the note to Foote and his reply were delivered on Saturday—the following card appeared in the National Intelligencer:

A CARD. Washington, Sept. 23, 1850. The undersigned are authorized to state that the difficulty between Hon. H. S. Foote and Hon. John C. Fremont—growing out of certain expressions used by the former in relation to the California land-bill in the Senate, last evening, has been adjusted satisfactorily and honorably to both of these gentlemen. A. C. DODGE, WM. M. GWIN, HENRY H. SIBLEY, RODMAN M. PRICE.

THE DEVIL ACKNOWLEDGES A SUPERIOR. The old lines are flooding Indiana with political hard cases in the shape of speakers. Tuesday night they had Douglas here. A short time since Edson B. Olds, of Ohio, was here.

It is related of Olds that a communication was once made from his Satanic Majesty by one of Olds' friends through the medium of a dream. The scene is in the Infernal regions. Olds had knocked at the gate and entered, and was introduced to Satan. His Majesty started back in horror and asked, 'Is this Edson B. Olds?'

'Yes,' was the answer. 'Edson B. Olds, of Ohio, member of Congress from the Pickaway District, who wears spectacles?'

'The same man.'

'Just unscrew my tail,' says Satan, 'and put it on to Olds, for he will head me and be Captain of this band, and I may as well surrender at once!'

There are in New Orleans twenty-eight hundred drinking houses to a population of eighty thousand.

DIED.—In this county on the 2d inst., Mr. JOHN LISBEEY, aged 35 years. He was one of the most respectable citizens.

PUMPS.

A Good quality, and warranted to perform well.—For sale at Plymouth, by Jas. Elliott. ISAAC BARLOW, 20th.

PROSPECTUS OF THE Marshall County Republican.

The undersigned having purchased the Press and other materials of the "Plymouth Weekly Banner," proposes to publish a weekly paper, in the town of Plymouth, to be entitled the "MARSHALL COUNTY REPUBLICAN." As its name indicates, it will support the Republican cause, with all the zeal and ability its editor can command. It is not deemed necessary here, to make any promises as to the future course of the paper.

The editor having invested a considerable amount in the purchase of materials, and intending to make Plymouth his permanent residence, it will be no less his interest than his duty to make the "Republican," so far as it may be in his power, worthy of the patronage, especially of every true liberal Republican, as well as of every liberal minded Democrat, who wishes to hear both sides discussed.

Having had considerable experience in the publication of a newspaper, the proprietor flatters himself that he will be able to conduct the "Republican" in such a manner as to command the support and approbation of the community. Until after the Presidential election the columns of the paper will be principally filled with political matter, and the most important news items. After that time, attention will be given to every department—Politics, News, Agriculture, Commerce, &c., &c., so as to make it a welcome visitant in every family.
