

SOME DAY.

You have heard us say before
That we run a Jewelry Store
On Broadway;
When in Denison this fall,
We'll be glad to have you call—
Some Day.

Come and buy a watch and chain,
So that you can catch the train
When away.
For, (to make a little rhyme)
It will pay to be on time—
Some Day.

We have elegance in rings
(And they're very pretty things),
On display.
Come and see 'em. How they shine!
You may want one extra fine—
Some Day.

Have you seen such silver-ware
In our cities anywhere?
Let us say,
If you buy your goods of us
It may save you quite a fuss—
Some Day.

You have seen the Grandpa's clocks,
And you've heard their ticks and tocks
Until they—
(Like the lives they usher in),
Stop to never go again—
Some Day.

Why of course we keep the best
You can surely do the rest.
Don't delay.
Buy one now, or when you like,
But they're going on a strike—
Some Day.

To conclude, we welcome you,
And we're always here to do,
As we say;
If we don't the trouble is,
That we'll have to quit the biz—
Some Day.

So we'll try with all our might,
Making every-thing all right,
While we stay;
For the people all will see,
'Tis a pretty good idee—
Some Day.

When you carefully have read,
Up to date, what he has said,
It will pay;
Not to call it very bad,
Cuz our poet may get mad—
Some Day.

FROM FT. THOMAS.

CHICKAMAUGA PARK, GA.
August 26, 1898.

TO THE REVIEW READERS:

I will write you my last letter from Chickamauga Park, for we can't tell what minute we will get orders to pack or roll our goods and march to the train. We are all packed now, all but just what we have to cook with. We have to march eight miles to the train, but that isn't far. I could march one hundred miles any old way to get back in Iowa.

We are waiting for the cars now; expect them any minute. Our sick left last night, but they keep a coming down. If we don't get out of here pretty quick, there won't be any left to march to Roseville, our starting point. We don't expect to leave any later than Monday night, so our Adjutant Hilles told us, for he said we had to be at Des Moines by the first of September. I think if we stay here until Monday night, we will have another sick train—ten reported sick yesterday morning, and eight this morning, and it looked this morning as if there were just as many in our regimental hospital as we moved out last night.

Mr. Justice was among the sick to go last night, although he has been up and around for a week.

It is reported that the 1st Mississippi has orders to help haul us to the train tomorrow. I hope it is so, but there is so many reports a fellow can't believe any. I don't believe any myself any more. When our captain gives us orders to roll our rolls, to get ready to proceed to the train for Des Moines, then I will believe it and not before. It worries a fellow to death when he knows he is going home, and then to fool along the way we are doing.

The 1st Maine left here Tuesday morning to go to Ringgold to load, and never left for their state until last night. They had a great old bon-fire Monday night out of their floors and cots. We expect to have the same show before we leave. Our teamsters helped move them over to their loading place, about ten miles. The poor boys had to march ten miles in heavy marching order. They said 500 fell out, 50 from sun-stroke.

We lost our first man Monday afternoon at the Steinberg hospital, a quarter of a mile south of Lyle. He had the best of care there. Our Company escorted him to the depot at Chattanooga for his departure for Iowa. His father has been here for two weeks and he took him home to Ellsworth, Iowa. We have lost fifteen men now. We got the report to-night that our band major Mr. Skinner, was back to Sioux City on a furlough and died the other day. Mr. Skinner was a nice man, always making fun for the boys. It was a very sad affair.

Well I just got back from dress parade and will finish this letter. We don't make a very big showing any more on parade. It looks as if we were in a big battle, and we have been in an awful battle since we left Des Moines; we have fought against all kinds of sickness, which is ten times worse than bullets.

I received the REVIEW to-night. It has a letter in from A. D. James. I see by his letter that the Denison boys in San Francisco are living well. I guess probably Charley must have been homesick when he wrote that letter, or there is a break somewhere. I see Dee is sergeant. It might suit him to be a non-commissioned officer, but it would not suit me. I would want to be a commissioned officer, or none. That is the way I feel.

I have met quite a few lads that I have seen since I have been here, or I would be homesick. I have met John Marr, Billy Marr's brother, who is in the 2d Nebraska, and John Tremble, of Dunlap, an old school-mate of mine, who is in the 2d Ohio. John is pretty sick now. I also met Mr. Hollenbeck. The Company John Marr is in, Co. D, 2d Nebraska, has been on provost guard just a quarter of a mile south of where we are camped. I have slipped over to see him quite often since he has been there. His Company went back to camp yesterday. He said they had a snap out there. They also expect to go to Omaha soon to be mustered out.

The report is that the cars are here ready for us. We will know for sure at nine o'clock to-morrow morning whether we get out. There was a great halloing in camp when we heard the cars were here.

I and my mess-mate, Sam Culps, of Sac City, have lain on the ground ever since we have been in camp, and have not been sick yet, only of late my back has been troubling me, because it is so damp.

We have it easy now. Company drill every other morning for one hour, battalion drill every other morning for an hour and a half, and dress parade every night. That is all we have now.

Well I will close, for Justice will have a yarn to tell when I get to Des Moines, our long wished for place.
Yours Truly,
WM. J. SCOTT.

DENISON VERSUS COUNTRY.

Denison Politicians Declare for Wright and Richardson, Counting Votes for Shaw Van

J. T. CAREY HAS A SAFE MAJORITY.

Kruger Has a Hard Proposition in Frank Faul Dan McGrath a Candidate for Supervisor. Partial List of Delegates.

On Saturday night the democratic caucuses were held throughout the county except in Nishnabotny and Vail precincts. The Denison caucuses were tame affairs although there was a great deal of feeling under the surface. In the first ward there was a straight out contest between Richardson and Shaw Van and George won out by a vote of 21 to 19. Shaw Van made a big showing considering that the democratic organ cast four votes in this ward against him and that his Honor, the Mayor, Chas. Bullock and all the old time workers were against him. The ward has three votes which will be cast for Richardson, Carey, and Faul, although Schlumberger may get half the vote.

The second ward caucus was held in the brick school. There was but one ticket in the field and the delegates were selected by Col. Wright. It is significant however that while there were 53 democrats present but 31 would vote. The delegation of five is for Wright and Carey and is divided on clerk.

The third ward caucus was a cut and dried affair. Carey selected the delegates with an understanding among the other candidates. Shaw Van will get one and possibly two votes and the rest will be divided between Wright and Richardson. For clerk the larger part is for Faul.

Denison Township.
Kruger had things his way in the township caucus naming the delegates. It will probably be for Carey and divided on attorney. These were the results in Denison but the results in the county seem to be different.

Carey for Auditor.
John Carey seems to have a safe lead for auditor. Collins will make a good showing probably having from 50 to 65 votes. It is doubtful if Odell's name will be brought before the convention and Carey will be nominated unless—and here comes in the important fact that the nomination of attorney comes first and what may be done in desperation by the defeated ones in that contest cannot be foretold. Carey started as a Shaw Van man, but the Denison crowd put the screws on and John became very neutral. Both sides suspect him and he may be beaten on account of his friends votes on attorney. This is Collins' only hope.

The case is different with Kruger. He has had the enmity of the entire Denison outfit, Faul was brought out at the last moment in order to beat him as it was feared that the others could not do it. Kruger and Faul will split even in Denison and Denison township. Kruger is almost a sure winner. Faul will be next in strength but he will not have to exceed 70 votes at any time. The other candidates for clerk although good men will cut no figure in the convention.

For attorney the vote on the first ballot will be something as follows: Shaw Van, 65; Wright, 50; O'Connor, 30; Richardson, 20. Heretofore the fight has been the field against Shaw Van, but as it becomes apparent that Shaw Van will not have enough to nominate on the first ballot the field is beginning to lose some of its brotherly love and to figure as to who is to get the plum which they think Shaw Van has lost. It was all right to pull together to beat Shaw Van but now they have come to the parting of the ways. The Bulletin editors have decided that Wright is to be the winner and it is probable that Richardson will be forced to withdraw in Wright's favor after making a showing of his strength in the convention. In this event O'Connor will hold the balance of power. Maurice cannot be nominated however, under any circumstances. He had too much good common sense on the money question in 1896 and the great apostate does not allow any trifling with the tenets of his new faith.

The supervisor's contest is complicated by the appearance of Dan McGrath as a candidate. But little interest is being taken in this contest and the nominee depends upon which of the factions wins.

In brief, Shaw Van though crippled by the fight made against him in Denison, has a good show for nomination. If he wins Carey and Kruger will surely be nominated. Wright is the only other possibility for attorney and if he wins, Collins and Faul may have a show.

This is the status of the case as the REVIEW sees it, and is not intended to be for or against any candidate. It will undoubtedly be found that the REVIEW's estimates do not suit all the candidates, but if one allowed all their claims it would take at least 500 delegates to go round. At any rate the convention next Saturday will be an exciting one, and as all any one can do at present is to guess, the REVIEW has simply placed its guess before its readers.

The following is a list of delegates who will attend the convention. Some of the townships have not held their caucuses as yet and we are unable to get a complete list.

Labor Day Proclamation.

Governor Shaw today issued a labor day proclamation as follows:

Executive Office, Des Moines, Iy the Governor.—A Proclamation: The statutes of Iowa designate one day in the year to be devoted to observances in honor of labor. In conformity with such enactment, I, Leslie M. Shaw, governor of Iowa, do hereby recommend that on the first Monday in September, the day so designated, being the fifth day of September, A. D., 1898, employers and employed, with others, unite in such observances as may be appropriate to the occasion and thus endeavor in all possible ways to improve and make more harmonious the economic relations of society, in which improvement all are interested. That the observance may be the more general I recommend that on the day named factories, shops, stores and other places where labor is employed be closed as far as may be practicable.

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and cause to be affixed the great seal of the state of Iowa on this 27th day of August, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight; of the independence of the United States, the one hundred and twenty-third, and of the state of Iowa the fifty-second.

(Seal.) L. M. SHAW,
G. L. DOBSON, Secretary of State.

To Teachers, Patrons and Pupils.

I will be at the High School building Friday, Sept. 2nd, to classify all pupils who have moved into the school district recently, and to meet delinquent High School pupils. Parents should supply their children with the necessary books before Monday, Sept. 5th, as pupils and teachers are often seriously handicapped in the work of the first day by an incomplete equipment. I would also urge the importance of a full attendance at the opening session.

All children of school age, (five years) who have never attended school, will enter the kindergarten in the McKim Hall basement.

There will be a teachers' meeting Saturday, Sept. 3d, at 10 o'clock a. m. at the High School building.

H. V. TAILOR, Supt.
