

ANZONLINE

PEACOCK STYLES

ALL ABOARD! . . .

Stop and see the 12 styles of vehicles on our sample floor. Not equalled in the county. We have convinced many. We can convince more. Don't fail to see us. If style, quality, price and fair dealing will reach you we will do business.

Stewart Lumber Co.,
DOW CITY IOWA

FOR PORCH COLUMNS, SPINDLES, BRACKETS,
Gable Ornaments, Window Hoods, Wagon and Carriage Work, Singletrees and Eveners, of all kinds, Clevises and a thousand and one other things that you need call on A. H. BOWEN,
Shop just south of Wilson House

THE MARKETS.

Grain, Provisions, Etc.
Chicago, Sept. 5.
No session of the Board of Trade on Monday.
POTATOES—Market dull and weak. Ohio and Minnesota fair to good, 20¢; Wisconsin Peerless and Hebrons, 20¢; Idaho, 20¢; Quotably dull, feeling easy. Sales, 10,000 off, cases returned, were made at 20¢, and Southern stock, 20¢.
BUTTER—Market firm. Creameries, 12¢; Dairies, 11½¢.
LIVE POULTRY—Market steady. Turkeys, 16¢; Chickens, 4½¢; Ducks, 6¢; Geese, 7¢; per pound; Geese, $3.00 per dozen.
WHISKY—Firm. Basis of $1.25 for finished goods.
New York, Sept. 5.
BUTTER—Steady. Western creamery, 14¢; Eggs, 15¢; factory, 14½¢.
EGGS—Weak. Western, 15¢.
Live Stock.
Chicago, Sept. 5.
HOGS—Quality fair. Market moderately active and weak. Prices 5¢ lower. Sales ranged at $1.50 for pigs, $2.00 for light, $2.50 for rough packing, $3.00 for 400 for mixed and $3.70 for heavy packing and shipping lots.
CATTLE—Quality fair. Market fairly active. Feeling firm. Good grades 5¢ higher, others unchanged. Quotations ranged at $4.00 for choice to extra steers, $4.75 for good to choice do., $4.00 for fair to good, $4.25 for common to medium do., $4.00 for butchers' steers, $4.25 for fed Western steers, $3.00 for Stockers, $3.00 for Feeders, $2.00 for Cows, $2.00 for Hifers, $2.70 for Texas Steers, $2.75 for grass Western Steers, $3.00 for western Cows and Hifers, and $4.50 for Veal Calves.
DENISON MARKET SUMMARY.
Hogs..... $3 25@3 30
Wheat..... 46
Rye..... 30@32
Corn, -70 lb..... 21
Oats..... 17
Hay—Prairie..... 4 00@5 00
Hay—Timothy..... 6 50
Potatoes..... 30@40
Butter..... 11
Eggs..... 9
Cattle—export..... 4 00@4 50
Cattle—tutcher stock..... 2 50@3 75

WASHINGTON DOTS

Mr. J. H. Hayes spent a few days in Omaha last week on business.
Anna Hink went down to Omaha to enjoy the sights at the Exposition last week. She reports a good time.
G. W. Lee and Miss Sarah Temple, of Denison, spent Tuesday at the home of J. H. Hayes.
Miss Cora Hester, who has been spending the summer at Denison, is at home for a few days. She will leave Sunday for her school, which is near Charter Oak.
The Misses Town and Williams drove to DeLair Wednesday to spend the day with Miss Preston, of that place.
The Old Settlers' picnic was well attended by the farmers from Washington township. All report a good time in spite of the dust and wind.
Woodmen of the World and Lumbermen's Day, Omaha Sept. 9.
For the above occasion the North-Western Line will sell round trip tickets to Omaha, September 9, good returning until September 10, at reduced rates. Apply to agents for full particulars.
Commercial Travelers' Day at Omaha Sept. 24.
On account of above, September 23-25, all agents of the North-Western Line will sell tickets to Omaha at reduced rates good until September 26.

NEWS OF WEST SIDE

H. Dean, of Dunlap, came up to see the boys Sunday.
Tim Quirk, of Vail, came up to flax for the steel gang.
Hans Pehrs and family spent Sunday with friends in Denison.
Fred Herre took a trip down the road Sunday afternoon.
Henry Buck is here spending a few days among the boys.
Miss Mable Dewey is visiting among friends and relatives.
Ten car loads of stock was shipped out Sunday morning.
Miss Blanche Grote arrived home on No. 6, Saturday night.
Miss Ada Fellingham has returned to Carroll to begin school work again.
Roadmaster Flynn is here taking personal charge of the new steel work.
Aug. Winthin is still carrying his arm in a sling but it is getting better.
Engineer Walker was called out Sunday to help a fast stock train to Boone.
The steel gang have moved their headquarters from Arcadia to West Side.
A. Dean, of Rockwell City, came over on his wheel to spend Sunday with his family.
Mrs. E. Evers and children are back from their extended visit in Clinton county.
Mrs. Mary Boynton and Mrs. A. Dean visited in Denison the latter part of last week.
Miss Irene Wagner returned to Boone late in the week to be ready for school Monday morning.
Vincent Kirkendall, of Logan, came up to spend the Sabbath with his brother and family.
Conductor James Phillips and crew remained here over Sunday, on account of getting in late Saturday night.
The heavy freight trains have to be assisted over the Arcadia hill. The boys think there will soon be a regular pusher put on to do the work.
The following people are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gary: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Waterman, Mrs. M. L. Waterman and Mr. Henry Waterman all of Wheaton, Ill.
The intense heat of the last few days was broken by copious showers Sunday afternoon. It rained and hailed very hard for awhile and for the first time in a long while the Boyer was running full of water.
Hon. John F. Grote, on his way home from Dubuque, had the good luck to meet a couple of tars who had served on the Oregon on her famous trip round the Horn and in the naval battle at Santiago. They told in a graphic manner how the Colon was hit by the Oregon and the part they took in the famous battle. The boys had plenty of money and were out looking round a little before going to sea again.
Annual Reduction in Rates to Omaha
Tourist tickets via the North Western Line, the pioneer line west and northwest of Chicago, will be sold during September at very low rates. Apply to agents for full particulars.

GOODRICH GOSSIP.

Mrs. John Cris visited friends in Deloit last week.
Parley Spence has been shelling and hauling off corn.
Mrs. Mike Ainsworth and Mrs. Cary Phillips paid Mrs. W. P. Gillett a visit last week.
H. N. Snell and wife, Misses Cora, Bird and Mr. Wayne Snell took in the fair at Omaha.
Miss Olive Johnson is the candidate from Goodrich in the REVIEW contest. That she is deserving goes without saying.
Mr. Campbell, Sr., was taken very ill Wednesday afternoon. We have not learned how he is but hope for the best.
Bert Campbell has been harvesting his broom corn and reports as good a crop as has been raised in this vicinity for some time.
Mr. A. Jordan opened his doors to the young people of our neighborhood Friday evening and although the weather was threatening, a large crowd was out and tripped the "light fantastic" till the "wee sma" hours of morning. All report a good time.
Miss Olive Johnson is the candidate from Goodrich in the REVIEW contest. That she is deserving goes without saying.
Mr. Campbell, Sr., was taken very ill Wednesday afternoon. We have not learned how he is but hope for the best.
Bert Campbell has been harvesting his broom corn and reports as good a crop as has been raised in this vicinity for some time.
Mr. A. Jordan opened his doors to the young people of our neighborhood Friday evening and although the weather was threatening, a large crowd was out and tripped the "light fantastic" till the "wee sma" hours of morning. All report a good time.
HAPPENINGS AT VAIL.
C. C. Vail was a county seat visitor Saturday.
Mrs. Wm. Farley was a passenger to Omaha Sunday.
Both the public and parochial schools opened Monday morning.
Wm. Devine, of Denison, visited with friends in Vail Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Dan Clark, of Carroll, visited friends here last week.
Norman McCombs is expected home this week from Camp McKinley.
Mrs. Wm. Dobler returned Sunday from her visit in Clinton county.
Frank Petrie, of Salt Lake City, is visiting relatives and friends here.
Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Dempster came up from Denison Sunday for a visit with friends.
The rains Sunday and Monday kept many from attending the Woodman picnic at Manilla.
Wm. Shives, of Stockholm township, shipped cattle from here Tuesday morning in charge himself.
Miss Lulu Hoffman, of Woodbine, visited with her uncle, Postmaster Hoffman, a short time last Friday on her way home from Chicago.
Alfred Wright visited his father at Carroll Sunday. He reports him doing well and will probably be able to be brought home in a week or so.
About twenty of Denison's young people were in Vail for a short time on Friday night and seemed to be enjoying themselves judging from the noise they made.
This section was visited by a heavy rain and hail storm Sunday afternoon, the rain coming down in torrents accompanied by a heavy hail doing some damage to window panes about town.
Some one entered the house occupied by old lady Mahony Sunday night about 9:30 and demanded her money or her life. She did not propose to give up either and gave the would-be burglar a tussle that he did not expect. He finally made his escape and Mrs. Mahony aroused the neighbors with her cries for help. She could not recognize the party owing to the darkness in the house but circumstances pointed very plainly to young Tom Ryan and tracks in the mud led plainly from Mrs. Mahony's toward Ryan's home where Constable Fitzgibbons arrested him and brought him to town. He waived examination and was taken to Denison Monday afternoon.

ALL ABOUT DELOIT. CHARTER OAK CHATS

Mr. Fink drove up to Deloit Friday.
N. V. Johnson was a Denison visitor Saturday.
Ike Newton went to Denison with a load of grain Saturday.
Lynan Morris and daughter, Jennie, were Denison visitors Saturday.
Mr. Hopper and wife and daughter, Nellie, went to Denison Saturday.
Milt Childress and daughter, Mattie, went to the county seat Saturday.
The Schuler machine threshed for Mr. Lewis and Jim Newton Saturday.
Fred Landen and family drove over to Deloit Saturday for a visit with parents.
Several loads of hogs passed through Deloit early Saturday morning for Denison.
Mr. and Mrs. Steve Newton and daughter, Ethel, was down to his mother's Saturday.
Hugh Menagh, from Denison, was in Deloit Friday taking orders for different kinds of extracts.
A splendid rain fell Sunday afternoon which was very refreshing after the excessive heat and dry weather.
The M. E. Sabbath school will hold a picnic in Esau McKim's grove on Saturday, Sept. 10th. All are invited.
John McIntosh and his sisters, Jennie and Maggie, attended service at the Brick church Sunday morning.
Mr. and Mrs. C. Wiley and daughter, Florence, were guests of Mrs. Wiley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Dobson, Sunday.
Willis Lentz drove over to Charter Oak Saturday, taking Elmer Laughery with him, who begins his fall term of school Monday.
The regular monthly meeting of the W. F. M. S. will be held in the home of Mrs. Sarah McKim on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.
Deloit is still improving. You may now hear the sound of a steam engine whistle awakening people to the energetic interests of our little burg.
Clay Miller returned home Saturday after a two weeks' absence visiting his sister, Mrs. Kennedy at Whiting and attending the Exposition at Omaha.
Mrs. Butler, of Arion, and her sister, Mrs. Johnson, of Missouri, visited at Noah Johnson's Thursday night and took dinner with Mrs. M. Hunt Friday.
Mrs. McMillan's grand children, Bruce and Burdette Roark and Loyal Hamilton came down to visit her Saturday. The latter intends to stay awhile with her, and the others will return Sunday.
A missionary mite box opening service will be held in the M. E. church next Sabbath morning, and in the evening the Womens' Foreign Missionary Society will render a program. All are welcome to these meetings.
Among those who attended the democratic convention were: E. A. McKim, James McKim, George Jordan, Stanley Brown, John Newcom, N. H. Brogden, S. Dunbar, L. Riggleman, Mr. Dillivan and son, Clark, Mr. Wescott, A. J. Mason, Bert and John Taylor, David Winey, Scott McKim and Mr. Landen.

KIRON CHRONICLES

Born, on Friday, September 2, to Mr. and Mrs. Gust Anderson, a nice little boy.
Mrs. Fred Gronau is visiting relatives and in Clinton for a couple of weeks.
Miss Annie Winquest and Miss Tilda Nordholm drove up from Denison Wednesday.
We will give a full account of the Engberg-Smith wedding in our next letter. Time now prevents.
Mrs. Christina Anderson arrived home last week from an extended stay at Merville, Ia., with relatives.
Our friend, Emil N. Sandstrom left us on Monday for Denison where he will take a course at the college.
Mr. P. A. Winstrom and wife were the recipients of a surprise party from a large number of their friends on Wednesday evening.
F. L. Johnson left last week for a trip to South Dakota, where he went to hold religious meetings at Komstad and several other points.
Chas. Olson, who has been the guest of Willie Nelson for several weeks past was treated to a surprise by the young folks on Saturday evening.
Kiron school commenced on Monday with Miss Grace Dawson, of Deloit, as teacher. The school two miles east is being taught by Miss Clara Johnson.
Miss Amanda Lundberg arrived home from Kansas City, Missouri, last week and will remain a few days after which she will go to Pomeroy, Iowa, to keep house for her brother.
On Monday quite a number of Kironites left for the fair at Omaha among whom we mention Messrs. and Mesdames A. G. and F., and Mr. A. Norelius and Mrs. P. A. Peterson.
Mr. and Mrs. John Erickson arrived home last week from their trip to Minnesota having had a fine trip and a very enjoyable time. They visited Rev. E. O. Olson and family and found them doing nicely in their new home.

Church Notes

METHODIST.
Miss Merle Smith led the League Sunday evening.
For September in the League meetings Mr. Failor will be general leader, Mrs. Voss chorister, Florence Kirkup organist, and Harold Romans usher.
Mr. Lawson, of Wisconsin, addressed the Sunday school last Sunday.
The W. F. M. S. will meet Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Scriver. This will be the last regular meeting of the Conference year, and a good attendance is desired.
Prayer meeting Thursday evening at 7:30 instead of 8:00 o'clock as heretofore.
Next Sunday will close the work of the Conference year. The pastor requests the attendance of the entire membership of the church at the service next Sunday morning.
The annual Conference convenes at Creston next week, Bishop Vincent presiding.
Rally day for the Sunday school the first Sunday in October.
The rain interfered with the Union service Sunday evening.
BAPTIST.
The ladies of the Missionary Society will gather at the home of Sister Pettis this week.
Aug. 28, our Young People held their "Echo" meeting of the Buffalo Convention. Reports were given by five of our members. The songs and scripture readings were the same as used at the convention. Our Sunday evening meetings have been greatly enjoyed and largely attended—the average attendance for the summer being about 85.
It is nearing the time for the State Convention Collection so the ladies of the church please be ready to respond to the call for money.
On Thursday evening last we fully decided to enlarge our church building according to plans before presented Bro. Halver Norman is to do the work.
We wish to announce through these items that the collectors of church funds are Sister Cassidy and Bro. Geo. Lee. The contributors to these funds will please meet the collectors as soon as possible.
We are sorry to lose from among our young people, Roy Lee, Susie Craft and Birdie Haskin. We wish them success in their work.
Our pulpit was filled by Rev. Nash on Sabbath morning. He gave an interesting discourse on "Christ the only sure foundation." We have greatly enjoyed having our former pastor with us at our prayer meetings and other church services.
PRESBYTERIAN.
The Presbytery of Sioux City will meet in the Presbyterian church in Denison next Tuesday evening, Sept. 18th, and continue in session Wednesday and Thursday. A number of elders and ministers from adjacent counties will be present as delegates and an interesting program and docket of business has been prepared. The opening sermon will be on Tuesday evening at 7:30 by President Hostettler, of Buena Vista college. The Ladies' Missionary societies will hold their sessions at the same time in the Baptist church beginning on Wednesday morning. On Wednesday evening, Miss Holmes, of Chicago—a prominent missionary worker and attractive speaker—will give an address at the Presbyterian church in a joint meeting. The public is cordially invited to all the meetings.
PASS RESOLUTIONS.
Woodmen of the World Express Their Sympathy With Afflicted Sovereigns.
The following resolutions have been passed by the Woodmen of the World:
WHEREAS, The Supreme Sovereign of the world has removed from earthly labor, Mr. A. Aebischer, father of our well beloved Sovereign, Alex. Aebischer, therefore Resolved, That Hawkeye Camp, No. 76, W. O. W. to Sovereign Aebischer, and his family its sincere sympathy and condolence with him in his bereavement.
Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Camp, that a copy be furnished Sov. Aebischer, and that they be offered to the newspapers of the city for publication.
W. Marshall, } Com.
Scott Wheeler, }
J. T. Carey, }
WHEREAS, Our Sovereign Sperry has been greatly bereaved by the recent death of his little daughter, therefore Resolved, By Hawkeye Camp, No. 76, Woodmen of the World, that we tender to Sovereign Sperry and his family our tender sympathy and solicitude, and kindly point to the Sovereign Ruler of the World for condolence and helpful sympathy and support.
Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be furnished Sovereign Sperry, that they be entered on the records of this camp, and that the city newspapers be asked to publish the same.
W. Marshall, } Com.
Scott Wheeler, }
J. T. Carey, }
State Conventions, Democratic Party, Free Silver Republican Party and People's Party, Marshalltown, Sept. 7, 1888.
On account of the above the North-Western Line will sell tickets to Marshalltown from all stations in Iowa, September 6 and 7, good until September 9, at one fare for the round trip.