HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The public schools opened Monday with a larger attendance than that of any previous year, the enrollment being 588, 50 more than last year. The pupils in the high school alone numbered 88 and many more will enter soon. The seating capacity of all the rooms is severely taxed and it will be necessary to provide more next year. The high school room is of sufficient size to accommodate but 80, and a number are compelled to find seats in Miss Gillmor's room.

Four of the old graduates, Faith Pierce, Anna Warbasse, Orpha Marshall and Blaine Hunt, returned to take the course of study added by the board last spring. Latin (Caesar), German, English and Solid Geometry are the new studies taken up. On account of lack of seating capacity, the class recites all four studies in the morning and the members do not return to the building in the afternoon, but prepare their studies at home.

The kindergarten has been enlarged and another assistant hired, there being 65 pupils in that department. Miss Bond has been prevented from teaching this week by a sprained ankle, she being unable to supervise the work only. No children will be allowed to enter this department after the first two weeks of each term.

Harold Romans has accepted an offer from the Bulletin to furnish school notes for that paper.

New adjustable single seats will be placed soon in Mr. Schuler's and Miss Temple's rooms, the old-fashioned double ones being now in use.

Drawing practice will be held twice per week in all grades below the high school. The muscular movement will be taught in writing and the vertical method discarded.

Mrs. Ainsworth's room had the best record in attendance and punctuality for this week.

The new teachers, Mr. Schuler and Miss Bryan, of the Longfellow, and Miss Richards, of the kindergarten, and Miss Terry, music supervisor, are taking hold of the work with a will, and will undoubtedly keep up the records of these departments.

ENGAGEMENT EXTRAORDINARY.

Miss Elsie Lincoln, the Famous Vocalist, Will be Here Wednesday, Sept. 14.

The announcement that Miss Elsie Lincoln, one of Iowa's most noted singers, will give a concert in Denison, is one that will be joyfully received by every lover of good music. The editor of the REVIEW has had the pleasure of hearing Miss Lincoln and knows that she will delight all who attend.

EARNEST STEGEMANN.

THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The republican convention has been called for September 17. And the caucuses are to be held on the evening of the 15th, unless otherwise ordered.

We would urge upon the republicans of the county the necessity of earnest and united action. Only majority parties can afford the luxury of factions. The minority party must be united in order to be in any measure effective.

The republican party throughout the nation is stronger today than ever before. Its policy of protection has become a settled principal of the nation. It has won great victories for the cause of sound money and that policy also will soon become a fixed principle. The republican party has nothing to regret, nothing to be ashamed of, and every republican should be true to his trust this fall. We hope every township will be represented at the next convention and that the delegates will work together more for the sake of principle than for party reward. The minority party has, as a rule, little to hope for in the way of the fulfillment of personal ambition, its members must make a distinct sacrifice to be true to the faith. Let us unite to preach republicanism throughout the county. Let us talk of our party and its principles with the enthusiasm of apostles. The victory may not come this year or the year following, but with such work and right with us, the victory must come and when it comes it will be abiding.

Mr. G. E. Anderson of Deloit was a Review caller yesterday. He says he likes the REVIEW the best of any paper he takes.

NEWS OF WEST SIDE

W. E. Hart went to Omaha on No. 8 Wednesday.

M. Campbell visited the fair and is back to work again.

Mrs. Smith and two children visited friends in Manning Wednesday.

Paul Niessen and family are home again from their visit in Clinton Co.

C. W. Payne went to Sioux City Wednesday to attend to some business matters.

Miss Blanche Grote is home again from her extended summer's vacation in the west.

Frank Wagner, of Boone, was here Wednesday looking after some matter out this way.

Albert Dannatt is out west. We expect to see him back any day with a bunch of feeders.

Sam Blackman and son went to the capital Monday and transacted business between trains.

F. W. Blackman has been down on the farm this week helping to thresh and care for the grain.

Mr. Raymond and the civil engineers who are in charge of the new work along the line, have been down off and on during the week.

Robert Anderson, of Vail, the section hand who was hurt some time ago, was up to have his wound dressed. He is getting along nicely and feels quite encouraged.

Mrs. Mary Boynton and children departed hurriedly homeward Thursday. Captain Boynton has been ordered to camp in Kentucky.

A new clothing store is just opening up in the room north of the meat market, we have not learned who the gentleman in charge is, but understand he will only remain temporarily.

There is a good deal of stock both cattle and hogs coming in, the market has been good lately for some cause or other. Small grain is moving slow again, farmers are evidently holding back for better prices.

John C. Suhr came home Tuesday night on No. 6. The West Side band, of which he is a member, met him at the depot and serenaded him. John was surprised and at the same time pleased with his reception.

Conductor Wheeler has not been able to take his train out the last few days on account of a lame arm. We hope it will not be anything serious. Conductors Rice, McNeil and Watt have each had a turn at the way freight this week.

HAPPENINGS AT BELL

John Harper was at Denison Saturday.

Dr. Evans was a professional caller on Monday.

Thos. Burgess was a visitor to Deloit Saturday.

Wm. Rule was a Denison visitor Friday on business.

Mrs. Chas. Butterworth was a Paradise caller Sunday.

We understand a party will be given at Joe Carson's Friday.

Wm. Jenkins, C. P. Hanson and D. F. Brint were at the hub Wednesday.

J. Merrick and wife are very happy over the arrival of a baby girl Wednesday.

The Bell school commences Monday with Mr. Don Talcott, of Arion, as teacher.

It is with the deepest regret that we note the death of Mr. Tom Rule's bright baby girl on Wednesday. The funeral services were held at the Rule residence on yesterday. The family has the sympathy of all at this trying time.

About forty of Paradise young people gathered at the home of Miss Gertie Arnold in Bell and gave that young lady a genuine surprise. Games were played and a fine supper served. At a late hour the guests returned home feeling happier.

Last Wednesday morning a fellow giving his name as Percy Walter, was working for D. F. Brint and tried to make away with some clothing and money, but was caught and taken before John Harper, who gave him ten days in the county jail.

A Reception.
The social event of the week was a reception given by Mrs. Lottie D. Stocking Thursday afternoon complimentary to Miss Maud Teas and Miss Beyrl Coles of Chariton Iowa.

The parlors were artistically decorated with quantities of golden rod, the warm yellow glow giving a pleasing contrast to the cool air outside.

Between the hours of two and five about fifty guests responded to Mrs. Stocking's invitation.

After a little lively converse with the hostess, her complimented guests, and acquaintances through the parlors, the guests were invited to the dining room. Here, Mrs. C. J. Kemming regaled them with pineapple sherbet, cake and salted pecans.

The affair was in nature of a farewell to Miss Coles, who will return to her home in Chariton on Saturday. Miss Teas will make an extended visit with Mrs. Stocking.
