OFFICIAL PAPER OF CRAWFORD COUNTY

DENISON IOWA, Sept. 20, 1908.

Dr. W. T. Wright and daughter made a brief visit in Carroll yesterday.

The republican party favors the two term rule. What do you think about it?

Dr. Folsom is happy over the advent of a bright baby boy at their home on the 18th.

Mrs. W. A. McHenry and Miss Abbie McHenry returned from Chicago Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Tucker are expected to return this week from a two weeks' visit in Omaha.

Mrs. J. Fred Meyers and Miss Meyers return this evening from their summer's outing at Clear Lake.

The Coterie Club will not meet this week with Mrs. Boyle, but will meet Tuesday of next week with Mrs. J. N. Bradley.

Misses Gertrude and Edith Ilgen Fritz and their aunt, Miss Olive Seacrist, are spending a few days at the exposition.

F. W. Meyers made brief visits in Missouri Valley and Carroll on Monday, advertising the county fair. In both places they were surprised at the enterprise of Denison's business men and several expressed the wish that their town had as much push to it as has Crawford's county seat.

The College is booming.

G. W. Nicholson, of Grand Junction, visited friends in Denison over Sunday.

Fred Seymour arrived this morning, having severed his connection with Gollmar Bros.

Messrs. Carl Gronau and B. J. Sibbert returned on Monday from a short trip to Worthington, Minn.

Mr. W. A. McHenry will take some of his cattle to the Omaha Exposition the first of next month. We predict that as usual the herd will take first place.

John Richardson sends his REVIEW coupons up from Arkansas to be counted in the contest. Mr. and Mrs. Richardson have evidently not forgotten our splendid Crawford county girls.

Denison township recently purchased a new road grader of the Company represented in this district by S. W. Seymour. It arrived today and Mr. Seymour is having it put together.

Mr. T. D. Faulkner surprised his Denison relatives by dropping in on them for a visit this week. Mr. Faulkner resides in Helena, Ark., and is a brother to Mrs. J. G. Wygant and Miss Florence Faulkner.

Miss Mollie Springer, who is now making her home in Oakland, Cal., is spending the week visiting Mrs. C. F. Cassaday. She has many old time friends in Denison who are very much pleased to see her again.

The editor owes a sincere apology to Rev. Martyn for the loss of some resolutions passed by the Presbytery, which were given him for publication. He very much regrets the loss and has not as yet given up the search for the missing papers.

The annual meeting of the School Board was held last evening. Besides regular business, the treasurer's annual report was received and approved. Two half days, Thursday and Friday afternoons, were given the school pupils in which to attend the fair.

The old time friends of Mr. Frank Wright are glad to greet him and his estimable wife in Denison once more. Frank has been living in Oklahoma for the past few years; he is looking rather thin but we believe a few weeks spent in good old Iowa will bring him up to his usual weight.

About sixty boarded the morning train for Omaha and about twenty-five followed on the noon train. A second section of No. 3 was sent through, as the regular trains were not able to accommodate those who will attend the Iowa Day program, to be held to-morrow.

Messrs Cole and Jenkins, of Arthur, Iowa, visited with relatives and friends in town yesterday.

Born, On Friday, Sept. 16th, to Prof. and Mrs. Rumsisel a fine ten-pound boy. He arrived just in time for the circus.

The work on the Baptist church has commenced. A large addition will be made to both the lecture room and the main room.

Miss Harriette Knight of Cheyenne, Wyoming, stopped off on her way to Brooklyn, Monday and Tuesday to visit the Beard family.

We wish to call attention to the half page advertisement of the Boys' store, they are always reliable and their goods can be depended on.

The Catholic society served dinner and supper on Friday at the Opera house. They were well patronized and showed that they have some mighty good cooks in the congregation.

Dr. and Mrs. Gibson expect to start this week for Canada. The Doctor goes to represent Iowa at the International Sanitary Congress. He will also visit his old home. It will be a very pleasant trip for both of them.

Orkin Bros. are finding their store all too small to hold their stock of fall goods. They have had new counters made and new shelving put in, but they still do not know where they are too put all of their stock. We suggested that the best way to do was to sell a lot of goods right away, so they advertise a whole lot of bargains next week that will make the goods move.

In a recent issue we published an item to the effect that Mrs. Colgrove La Burk had gone to Philadelphia to nurse her son, who returned sick from the Porto Rico campaign. She had intended to go but just before starting received a telegram that she would not be allowed to go to the hospital and that he was doing very nicely. For these reasons Mrs. La Burk did not go.

Chas. Smith, living south-east of town, brought his daughter to the west-bound train this afternoon, she being one of the many to go to Omaha. His team, which was tied a short way from the depot, became frightened and whirling, ran down the street, crossing the track a short time before the train passed. The buggy caught on a hitching post, partly overturned, and the team breaking away from it ran on toward home Mr. Rowland with his team immediately set out after them, and overtaking them brought them back. No damage resulted except to the buggy.
