

Rev. McEwen went to Omaha Monday.

Charlie Stark has been on the sick list the past week.

Mrs. D. O. Johnson started Saturday for a visit at Omaha.

H. Lee went to Ute the first of the week to stay a few days.

Mrs. R. J. Hart and children returned Monday from Omaha.

R. C. Roup and Will Smith were Dow City visitors Sunday.

Mrs. Strikas and children returned to Clinton the last of the week.

Miss Lillie Jones returned Saturday from the exposition at Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Dubois of Ute, Sunday with friends at the Oak.

Berry Goin went to South Dakota the last of the week to buy feeders.

Goldie Thompson returned Friday from a two week's visit at Mapleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick of Ute, visited Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Ernest Freise.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Abbott and daughters, Florence and Adriana, are visiting at Omaha.

Miss Florence Drake, who is teaching in Ute, came down Sunday to spend the day at home.

The Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. church will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Fred Benning.

Caleb Adams had the misfortune to fall from a horse Sunday morning and badly dislocating his elbow.

Miss Maggie Reagan came up from Arion Monday to spend the week with her sister, Katie.

Miss Sarah Satter of Yankton, came down expecting to spend the winter with Mrs. A. Anderson.

Deputy Sheriff Cummings found business at the Oak the last of the week and again on Monday.

Roland Weed returned Monday from Grand Island, Nebraska, where he has been visiting his brother Sam.

Mrs. Bamford returned Saturday morning from Chicago where she had been to purchase her fall stock of millinery.

The girls of the Junior League added four dollars to their treasury Saturday afternoon, selling lunches at the old bank building.

There will be union services at the M. E. church Sunday morning and evening. Rev. McEwen will speak at both meetings.

Rev. W. W. Brown was unable to go to the conference Monday, owing to an attack of malaria, with which he has been ailing for several days.

David Hilton went to Omaha the first of the week on a visit to his father.

Mrs. Garrett was quite sick the last of the week with the asthma, but is better at present.

Rev. Slocum, formerly of the first Church of Christ, but now of Morning Side, delivered two very able and helpful sermons at the M. E. church Sunday. The Presbyterian pastor and congregation united with the Methodists in a union service Sunday evening.

OTTER CREEK LOCAL ITEMS.

N. P. Larson was a County seat visitor last Saturday.

Mr. John Burch made Kiron a visit Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Andrew Larson was shopping in Kiron last week.

John Stone and wife were visiting friends near Kiron last Tuesday.

Mrs. N. P. Larson entertained Mrs. Johnson and daughter, one day last week.

School commenced in District No. 7 last Monday with a good attendance, Miss Benjie Dawson as teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Peterson are the proud parents of a baby girl, which came to their house last Wednesday.

Cassie and May Newcom and Earnie Albright were at A. Larsons Thursday p. m., taking their music lesson.

J. Schroeder is erecting a fine residence on his farm, which will add greatly to the appearance of the place.

Mr. Gleesing's invited a few young folks to their home last Friday evening for a social hop. A general good time was had by all present.

Mrs. Chas. Schmidt and wife, accompanied by Nellie Hopper, teacher in Dist. No. 5, spent a few days at the Exposition last week.

Mr. Ed. Schuler, from Lena, Iowa, spent a few days under the parental roof this week, he was accompanied home by his mother and sister, May.

HIGHLAND PARK COLLEGE OF TELEGRAPHY

The best equipped School of Telegraphy in the U. S. Modern instruments throughout. Endorsed by leading schools of Railway and Telegraph companies. Offers thorough and practical courses, fitting students for positions in either commercial or railway telegraph service. Good operators always in demand. Positions guaranteed. Competent operators. Ladies and gentlemen admitted on equal terms. Faculty are skilled operators of practical experience. Located at a great railway and commercial center affording unequalled opportunities for employment. The telegraph service insures easy work, good salary and certain promotion. Full Course Schoolship, time unlimited, $40. Living expenses very moderate. For free catalogue and descriptive circulars address, C. C. REARICK, Pres., Des Moines, Iowa.

P. W. Weberg spent the past week at Omaha taking in the fair and visiting his relatives.

Dr. Johnson and wife and Mrs. Paul Wheeler, of Odebolt, were in our midst on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Peterson, of Pomeroy, spent the past week in Kiron the guest of N. Wingquest's and Alex Lundberg's.

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Hunt and Mr. and Mrs. Pearson, of Denison, visited the home of Nels Wingquest Sunday.

Rev. Rosen and H. Ackerson will remain in Kiron over Sunday and hold meetings at the Mission church on Wednesday and Friday evening and Sunday morning and evening.

Among those who are at Omaha this week from our vicinity are Nels Johnson and S. Lindstrom and wife. Many others are in attendance but we were unable to get their names.

Miss Amanda Lundberg leaves on Tuesday of this week for Rush, Iowa, where she goes to keep house for her brother, who resides there. Good wishes of friends follow her to her new home.

Rev. Carl Wingren, of Illinois, preached at the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening. Rev. Wingren has many warm friends at Kiron who were very much pleased to hear him again. He was on his way to Oakland, Nebraska.

The Swedish Baptists hold their annual convention this week at Oakland, Nebraska. Those from Kiron in attendance are Rev. A. P. Hanson and wife, C. F. Clauson and the Misses Amalia and Christina Michaelson.

Kiron has worked hard to secure the REVIEW contest for Miss Benson and we cannot but hope that when the final count is made she will be awarded the prize. Miss Benson has very eagerly gathered votes among her friends, and has determined, if possible, to secure the prize.

Miss Amanda Michaelson leaves this week for Omaha to take in the sights of the fair, after which she goes to Centerville, South Dakota, where she will re-enter the millinery store where she formerly worked. Many friends regret her departure.

ALL ABOUT DELOIT.

Harry Childress supports a bran new buggy.

Carl Winey was a Deloit visitor Thursday.

Mr. Taylors, of Denison, visited his son, John, Sunday.

Taylor & Cose were threshing for Mr. Hopper Saturday.

Mr. E. A. McKim is moving and repairing the Darling house.

Alfred Dobson and Mr. Hemer, of Arthur, were in Deloit Sunday.

Mr. John Lewis' father, of Benan, Iowa, is visiting him a few days.

Mrs. T. C. Dobson and daughter, Dollie, were Deloit callers Sunday.

The many friends of Bessie Winans will be glad to learn that she is improving.

The M. E. pastor is attending the annual conference at Emmetsburg, this week.

Miss Mae Lundgren, of Deloit, is visiting with Miss Maggie McIntosh this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Worley were in Deloit Thursday doing some trading with Halberg & Turner.

Mrs. James Newcom arrived home from Mason City Tuesday after a month's absence.

Mr. Allen, of South Dakota, came Wednesday to visit with Mr. J. T. Newcom a few days.

Messdames Rogers and Richardson went down to Woodbine Friday to attend the L. D. S. reunion.

N. H. Brogden and son, Clarence, and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Miller, expect to go to Omaha Tuesday to attend the exposition.

Mrs. John Lewis, Leilah, Annas and Mary went to Woodbine Sunday to attend the general reunion of the L. D. S. held at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Newcom came home from Mason City Wednesday. Mrs. Newcom is much improved in health. They report a good time.

J. T. Newcom, Jennie and Firman, and Mattie Dobson started to Woodbine Sunday to attend the reunion. Some of them will also attend the Omaha reunion during the week.

The following named were placed in nomination: For clerk, W. Gable, trustee, J. Ingram; assessor, E. Johnson; justice of the peace, N. H. Brogden and John Gould; constable, W. T. Huckstep and Arthur King.

Elder C. J. Hunt and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Goff were called home Friday on account of the serious illness of their mother. We are glad to state she is much better and Elder Hunt returned to his field of labor Sunday.

There was a large attendance at the republican caucus Thursday night, between 35 and 40 votes being cast. A long those from Deloit present were Messrs. Alfred Brogden, Eimer Johnson, Landen, N. H. Brogden, Eugene Brogden, S. Horr, John Moor, John Worley, Jay Myers and Milo Patchin and his father.

Mrs. G. Gradert is spending a few days at the fair.

Mr. Raymond was down Friday looking after some business matters.

Dr. L. L. Bond is home again attending to his usual rounds of business.

C. L. Joy, of Grand Junction, passed through on No. 3, Sunday where he goes to work a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hall went west on No. 3 Sunday. They expect to visit the fair while out this way.

Dave Walker came out to spend a day with his parents and returned to his work in Boone on No. 32, Sunday.

Brakeman Otto Peterson was taken very sick on his way out from Boone Thursday. No. 2 stopped and took him back home.

Several West Siders visited Denison Friday to take in the show. Leon Young went down too, just to see the street parade and the animals you know.

A. P. Fellingham, John F. Grote, S. C. Blackman, C. Kracht, A. J. Hope and E. J. Gary were chosen delegates to the county convention at Denison last Saturday.

We are much surprised and pleased at the generous offer which comes from Denison to visit the fair. We hope a good many of our people will avail themselves of this opportunity. Take your family down for a day's outing and recreation it will do you all good.

The supper given by the ladies of the M. E. church Friday evening was a grand social and financial success and all who went had a good supper and a good time. The band boys furnished some excellent music during the evening which was greatly appreciated by all. Receipts for the evening was about forty dollars.

The following stock men received shipments during the latter part of the week: C. W. Payne, three cars feeders from South Omaha; E. J. Dannett, two cars feeders from South St. Paul; Wm. Hope, two cars feeders South Omaha; Chris Buck, two cars feeders South Omaha; Henry Dohse, two cars feeders, Arion; F. J. Gary shipped out four cars of hogs, other parties one car of hogs and four cars of cattle.

Rev. W. A. Richards closed the conference year with his people here last Sunday and goes to the annual conference this week. Everything considered it has been a good year for both pastor and people. While there has been no sweeping revival there has been a marked steady growth all along the line. Should the great council of the church return Mr. Richards another year he will find his people well pleased and ready to support him with hand and heart.

Joseph Gendist was run over by the Colorado Special and killed in the Arcadia yard last Thursday. He was an old German who lived by himself and at the time he was killed he was picking up coal on the railroad track and loading in on his wheelbarrow. When the passenger train came in sight by some ill luck his wheelbarrow had become fastened in a guard rail and he was caught while attempting to extricate himself. The old gentleman had considerable money both gold and silver on his person and was thought to be worth about $1000.

HANOVER MENTIONS

Mr. Otto Doral visited friends in the Oak Saturday.

Mr. Albert Schultz was a Denison visitor Friday, taking in the circus.

Mr. Herman Hubner is building a large barn. The work being done by Mr. VonThull.

Miss Olive Johnson who is teaching in District No. 2, spent Sunday at her home in Deloit.

Mr. John Jensen is having a fine residence built. The work being done by Mr. G. B. Fehmerling, who is a competent workman.

Last Thursday occurred the wedding of Mr. Benjamin Sypher of this township and Miss Matilda Henson of Soldier township, Rev. Wehking, pastor of the Soldier church officiating. We extend our congratulations, and wish for them a happy future.

Commercial Travelers' Day at Omaha Sept. 24.

On account of above, September 22-23, all agents of the North-Western Line will sell tickets to Omaha at reduced rates good until September 25.

Annual Reduction in Rates to Omaha Tourist tickets via the North Western Line, the pioneer line west and north-west of Chicago, will be sold during September at very low rates. Apply to agents for full particulars.

Modern Workmen Day, Sept. 22 1898, Trans-Mississippi Exposition, Omaha.

On account of the above, round trip tickets to Omaha, via the North-Western Line, will be sold September 21, good until September 23, at greatly reduced rates. For particulars apply to agents.

Iowa Day, Sept. 21, 1898, Trans-Mississippi Exposition, Omaha.

On account of the above, round trip tickets to Omaha, via the North Western Line, will be sold September 20, 21, good until September 24, at greatly reduced rates. For particulars apply to agents.

BOND & WARBASSE,

DEALERS IN

Pianos and Organs.

Denison, Iowa.

The Finest Organs.

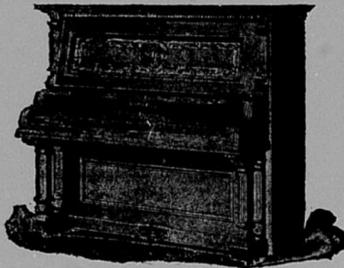

- The Estey.
The Clough & Warren.
The Hamilton.
The Newman Bros.

The Famous Light-Running White Sewing Machine.

PIANOS

- Rich Tone,
Light Touch,
High Finish,
The Best Made.

PIANOS

- The Kingsbury.
The Estey.
The J. & C. Fisher.
The Smith & Barnes.

A fine line of Violins, Flutes, Harps, Accordeons, Ranjos, Guitars, Instruction Books, Sheet Music and Musical Supplies.

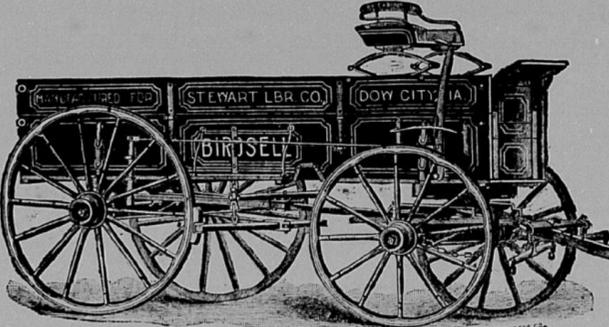

Pianos and Organs Tuned and Repaired.

Call and and examine our stock.

One Door West of Fargo Hotel.

The Birdsell Steel-Skein Wagon.

There are others, but not so good.

COSTS A LITTLE MORE.

WORTH MUCH MORE.

TWENTY-SEVEN SOLD LAST SEASON.

Ask ANY ONE of the purchasers what they think of them. We stand on their decision. It is the only strictly high-grade wagon sold in this territory. Sold only by

Stewart Lumber Co., DOW CITY IOWA.

HAPPENINGS AT VAIL.

Frank Barton was a Carroll visitor over Sunday.

Mrs. Chas. Johnson, of Honey Creek, is visiting relatives and friends in Vail and vicinity.

Miss Abbie Bailey is a visitor at the exposition.

O. Rowley was a passenger to Chicago Sunday with three cars of stock.

A good many from Vail attended the show at Denison last Friday.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Al Chamberlin, a boy, on Saturday last.

John Kachuba was up from West Side Sunday between trains.

Mrs. Thos. Sheridan, of Omaha, is visiting her parents near town.

Jim Long was up from Grand Junction the first part of the week.

Miss Bessie Brogar, of Hartford, Kansas, is visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Wm. Beck is visiting at Columbus, Nebraska, for a couple of weeks.

Mr. Theodore Walker, wife and son Ralph, of Denison, and the Misses Nish and Bommer, of Chicago, are visitors at the home of Clinton Paine.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Deiter left for the east Monday morning to visit old friends.

The Misses Maud and Glennie Paine spent Sunday at West Side with their friend, Miss Edith Bennett.

Mrs. T. J. Kenney returned Sunday from a visit to Omaha where she has been visiting friends and the exposition.

Evangelist Benedict, of Sioux City, will commence a series of revival meetings in the M. E. church about the 9th of October.

Will Cousins and his newly made wife, of Des Moines, came Saturday night for a few days' visit with relatives and friends.

C. C. Vail, wife and Miss Watland drove to Harlan last Thursday. Mr. Vail returned in the evening but Mrs. Vail and Miss Watland will visit relatives a few days.

Miss Myrtle Evison and Mr. Joe Rundlett were married last Wednesday at the home of the bride's father, Robt. Evison, in East Boyer township, the Rev. Pinkerton of the Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony after which the couple drove to Denison and took the afternoon train for Omaha.

The bride is one of Crawford county's finest young ladies while Joe is a prosperous farmer of Milford township. The happy couple have a large circle of friends who extend congratulations.

Excursion Tickets to Conroy Fair at Missouri Valley.

Via the North-Western Line will be sold at reduced rates, September 24 to 29, inclusive, limited to September 30. Apply to agents Chicago & North-Western R'y.

Waiting for Sleeping Cars.

Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 19.—Although the fourteenth Minnesota received orders Sunday to proceed home, the regiment is still here and perhaps will not get away until Tuesday night. The command is waiting for sleeping car equipment.

Mrs. Lucy A. Browne Dead. Oakland, Cal., Sept. 19.—Mrs. Lucy A. Browne, the widow of J. Ross Browne, the famous author and traveler, has died in this city. She was 72 years of age and had shared in many of the experiences of her husband.

Fifty Persons Injured.

Bradford, England, Sept. 19.—An electric street car was derailed while descending a hill here Monday. Fifty persons were seriously injured. Several of them are dying.