OFFICIAL PAPER OF CRAWFORD COUNTY
DENISON IOWA, Oct. 25, 1898.

Dr. Philbrook and family Sundayed in Omaha.

J. H. Tamm went to Omaha Monday morning.

Mr. Kuehle and Lydia Belle visited the fair on Sunday.

Mrs. Goodrich and Miss Jessie spent Saturday in Omaha.

Mrs. Matthews, of Odebolt, is visiting in Denison this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ley returned from their wedding trip on Saturday.

Postmaster Hoffman, of Vail, transacted business in Denison today.

Mr. and Mrs. Knaul and Miss Alice are spending the week in Omaha.

Haugh & Kemming are having some new chimneys built upon their store.

Mrs. John Tamm was among those who went to the exposition on Tuesday.

Mrs. Paul Alyworth and daughter, Bufah, expect to return to Council Bluffs Friday.

Mrs. J. H. Mahoney expects to go to Omaha Wednesday to remain the rest of the week.

Chas. J. Larson of Charter Oak, attended the Dean speech in Denison on Saturday night.

Mrs. W. A. McHenry and Mrs. Lute Seemann went to Omaha Tuesday to visit the exposition.

Mrs. Shauran and Miss Mary spent a few days in Omaha last week, returning Saturday night.

John Harrison, of Vail, was a Denison visitor on Monday and remembered the REVIEW with a call.

Mrs. Wm. Gilbreath took the Tuesday morning train for Omaha, where she will visit a few days.

Miss Bessie Robertson and sister, Mrs. S. F. Stone, are visiting in Manning, Dedham and Carroll this week.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stoll on October 23, 1898, a son. The REVIEW joins with many friends in congratulations.

Little Hugh Hagen Fritz has been quite ill the past week, but we are glad to state he is on the mend at present writing.

Miss Agnes Reid, humorous impersonator, with John Watson Co., is sure to please the audience, as she is a lady of talent.

Mrs. W. H. Laub and Mrs. H. C. Laub have issued cards for a large at home, to be given at the home of Mrs. H. C. Laub.

Born, on Sunday, Oct. 23, 1898, to Mr. and Mrs. Dr. H. A. Boyle, a son. This happy couple now have a son and two daughters.

Operator Herb Herrington, of Boone, was shaking hands with his Denison friends on Saturday and Sunday last. He is kept pretty busy and does not find much time to run down and see his friends.

The John Watson Combination carry their own grand piano with them. Prof. E. A. Patchen, pianist, is a real artist, and everyone should hear him.—Opera House, Nov. 2.

Geo. Nicholson, accompanied by his father, came up from Jefferson Sunday last and visited with his brothers. Geo. has any number of friends in Denison who are pleased to see him.

The lecture by Mr. Stiles on "The Teachings of the Bible" promises to draw a large crowd to the City Hall Friday night. Tickets are 25 cents. Everybody should turn out and hear him.

Mr. Ed. Lies has some fine kodak views that he took at the fair. They are very artistic and will be of more value as time goes on. Mr. Lies sees things from the artist point of view and his pictures are always well worth seeing.

We wish to impress upon the voters of Crawford county the importance of attending the different meetings announced in another column. Get out a crowded house to each meeting. Take your friends and keep up the enthusiasm.

On last Saturday evening at 7:30 a merry group of young and older people gathered at the Beardsley House, and from there proceeded to the home of M. E. Jones, where the surprised person, Herbert Herrington, was staying. He was to stay in town but a short time, so preparations were hurried forward, and the surprise was planned for Saturday instead of Monday night. About forty persons, including his Sunday school class, gathered under Mr. Jones' hospitable roof and had a royal good time. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served and all did justice to them. Herbert is a young man of whom Denison feels justly proud, and his many friends are not afraid of evincing their friendship and good will toward him. For a man of his stamp we feel sure the future holds a large prospect of success.

There is not to be found a more studious, hard-working young attorney than Wm. MacLennan, candidate for County attorney. In partnership with W. A. Goldsmith, he has an office over Haugh & Kemming's store, where he is always to be found either transacting business with his clients, or devoting spare moments to study. Mac is one of those fellows who believes in doing business in a business way, keeping off dry goods boxes and street corners, and attending strictly to business. He will make one of the best attorneys Crawford county has ever had.

Born, to G. R. Jones and wife on Friday last, a boy.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

—THE—
ANDREWS OPERA COMPANY
AT THE Opera House, OCT. 26
Wednesday

Bonbons for the same can be purchased at the PALACE BAKERY on or before that time.

Nate Plimpton and sister, Lois, went to Omaha Tuesday morning. From there they will go to Schuyler, Nebr., where they will visit Mr. Ed. Plimpton Jr.

Alma Mitchell, of Milford township, started for Durham, Arkansas, on last Monday, where he will make his future home. He is going across the country on horseback.

Monday brought a goodly number of farmers into town notwithstanding the rough condition of the roads. The weather being quite raw, fur coats were a predominating feature.

J. R. Brocklesby, of Hays township, was a pleasant caller at this office, Monday. He is an enthusiastic Republican and says we are going to get some of our candidates elected this fall.

J. F. Burk has been confined to his home for some time owing to illness. We trust he will soon be able to be out again. His store is being looked after by his competent clerk, Mr. Eigler.

Wm. Hermann, of Goodrich township, fell through the hay mow on Sunday forenoon and dislocated his right shoulder. Medical assistance was summoned and he is now getting along nicely.

Hugo Harthun went to Sioux City Sunday, where he expects to take a position on the Sioux City Courier. Hugo is an accurate and rapid compositor and will give his employer satisfaction.

Crawford county and Denison generally get anything worth going after. The Boone Republican now gives Crawford county credit for being the birth place of that cow that swallowed the watch.

The republican meeting at Arion on last Thursday evening was pronounced a success. Hon. C. E. Stalcap spoke to a crowded hall and the audience proved very enthusiastic as shown by the frequent applause given the speaker.

Clerk Kruger issued marriage licenses to the following named persons this month. Edward W. Schreiber and Emilie Lenz, Thomas Costello and Julia Flanagan, Anton Topf and Annie Copps, B.G. Lyman and Margaret Rudd, Clinton Dyson and Maud Brakaw.

We received a pleasant call on Monday from Mr. C. A. Lichty, who resides at Madison, Wis. Mr. C. A. Lichty was a school-mate of Mr. Meyers at Iowa City and dropped in to see him. He has charge of the C. & N. W. R'y surveying gang, and is finishing up a survey from Mondamin to Hohenzollern.

Mr. N. P. Larson, of Stockholm brought into Denison on Friday 180 head of hogs which he sold to local buyers. N. P. is one of our most extensive feeders and he generally strikes a good market too. Taylor Nixon is another one of the substantial feeders in that neighborhood, and always has plenty of money-making stock on his place.

Mr. H. A. Cook addressed the voters of Deloit and vicinity on last Friday evening. Dr. W. T. Wright also spoke some thirty minutes, conducting his argument along the line of the rise and fall of prices. The hall was filled to overflowing, many had to stand up. Mr. Cook presented a very strong talk, setting forth his arguments in a plain and convincing manner, and his meeting will be the means of doing much good for the republican ticket in that locality.

Mr. W. A. Biggs, of Goodrich township, leaves today for Prairie City Ill., the home of his boyhood days, where he will spend the week visiting relatives and old-time friends, and also to attend the reunion of the 55th Illinois Infantry of which he was a member. It has been about thirty years since Mr. Biggs has had the pleasure of seeing his old regiment and this opportunity to again renew the acquaintance of his old comrades will indeed be a great pleasure to him. It is our hope that he may have a pleasant and enjoyable visit at his old home.

Mr. Phillips for coroner, is a student in all the name implies. He has by strict attention to business built up a nice practice, and has many friends who are talking in his favor. In our opinion the coroner's office is an important one and should be filled by a man who has had medical and surgical experience; in many instances he may be called upon to decide delicate cases, where his profession is much needed. Mr. Phillips meets this requirement in full, and the voters of Crawford county should elect him.

Mesdames Burch and Young are at the Exposition a few days.

A TRIBUTE.

In memory of Perry Arnold James, who departed this life Oct. 19th 1898, aged 5 years.

Brief was the life of our darling son,
Called to that Beautiful Home above;
Taken away by the Glorious One,
Unto the place where "All is Love."
Tenderly, sadly we lay to rest
One that was loved, but could not stay,
Realizing that God knows best,
Though He hath taken our boy away.

Ne'er can our memory efface,
Him who was always near and dear;
But he has found a resting place,
Sweeter, far better than any here.

Sad are we, but the One who gave,
Doeth all in a way that's best.
Calleth the soul beyond the grave,
Into a joy and peace and rest.

W. E. Fishel is a man who is in every way fit to fill the office of County clerk. He has a good education, is a splendid penman and an expert bookkeeper. Aside from these facts Mr. Fishel is a man enjoying the confidence and esteem of all who know him. He is a self-made man, commencing at the bottom of the ladder and climbing up; he has made for himself an enviable record. He is a vote-getter, and is forging ahead in a manner most pleasing to his friends.

We call attention to the announcement of the different Republican meetings which take place throughout the county the coming week. These meetings should be well attended; let every republican voter be present and bring his democratic friend with him. The committeemen should see to it that the place of meeting is well heated and lighted. Canvass the township and get every voter to attend. Each speaker billed is a man of ability, and you will hear good addresses.
