Gov. Shaw delivered an address down at New Sharon last Saturday evening. The hall at that place is a very large one, notwithstanding this fact the Star, R. A. Nicholson's paper, says the people thronged the streets, and three-fourths of the crowd were unable to gain admission. The meeting adjourned to the amphitheatre in the fair grounds, where the governor spoke from a wagon. There is no more exacting position within the gift of the people than that of member of the board of supervisors. The man seeking this honor should show good judgment, precision and integrity. In Mr. Otto Hink the voters of Crawford county have just such a man, who is himself a successful farmer, fully in sympathy with the agricultural class, one who knows their every need. If every republican and good citizen will give him a vote he will be elected.

"Mr. Anderson can and will be elected to congress in this district."—Bulletin.
To stay at home by 10,000.

John Sievers and wife are now occupying their new residence recently purchased of Tom Mc Carthy, where they will be pleased to have their friends call.

The new residence which is being erected by J. F. Harthun is fast nearing completion. It will be a desirable home, costing in the neighborhood of $3500.

A republican who would not walk ten or twelve miles this fall to cast a vote in favor of the McKinley administration can only be excused on the ground of inability.

The young ladies of the Catholic church have arranged to give a grand hop at the Germania hall Tuesday, Nov. 8, 1898. John Knowles' celebrated orchestra will furnish the music. You are invited to attend.

Fred Seagrave will sell 75 head of high grade hogs at the West Denison Mills on Tuesday Nov. 15. This will be a good opportunity to stock up, any one who desires a good breed of hogs should attend this sale.

A. F. Kadoch would make an ideal county auditor. His business ability is unquestioned, he has a large acquaintance, speaks English and German, and is in every way perfectly capable of filling the office. Vote for him.

H. A. Cook will address the voters of Denison and vicinity in the opera house tonight on the Expansion and Money Questions. Every voter should turn out and hear him, as he is thoroughly posted on the questions.

The entire republican county ticket is deserving of every voter's support. The nominees are all republican war-horses, have always been identified with that party and deserve to be elected. See that each republican vote is cast.

The many friends of Dr. Louis M. Coon will be pleased to learn that he will return to Arion in the near future. He has been spending the summer at Hot Springs, S. D., and while yet quite weak, he has greatly improved in health. Dr. will be in Arion in time to cast his ballot for the republican party.

The Iowa State Eisteddfod has invited Gov. Shaw to be present at Oskaloosa and take charge of the afternoon and evening session of that musical festival to be held in that city on December 24th. The governor has accepted the invitation and will preside at the session.

Mr. Ed. W. Schreiber of Soldier township, and Miss Emilie E. Lenz were married at the home of the bride's parents in Paradise township, Oct. 27. Rev. F. Lothringer officiating. These young people are well known by a wide circle of friends all of whom wish them a happy and prosperous journey through life.

Mr. T. J. Garrison's new house will soon be ready for occupancy. The workmen are putting on the finishing touches. This is one of the finest residences west of Cedar Rapids, and Denison is proud of it, and the enterprise shown by Mr. Garrison. Denison can boast of having the largest number of fine residences along the Northwestern line, and more will be built in the spring.

It would seem from the following that Prof. Spencer is putting plenty of work at Algona in arranging for a lecture course. Here is what the Upper Des Moines says:

Prof. Spencer sold his 500 tickets for the lecture course and had to refuse 18 applicants for more. The 500 fill the opera house, all but the gallery. There are including the boxes 454 chairs in the opera house. The expense of his series of entertainments is about $800, the orchestra last night costing $250.

The republican meeting held at Coon Grove on Wednesday evening was a big success. Addresses were made by Judge J. P. Conner and Hon. H. A. Cook, and were well received. Dan Riddle opened the meeting with a nice little speech. The audience was kept in good humor by the presence of Wm. Marshall who drove down from town. Wm. McLennan, candidate for county attorney was present and made many friends.

T. J. Kelly has a unique and attractive store window this week, and many people have been drawn toward it. In his east window he has the new and old railway lines. The main line of the Northwestern, the new branch of the C. & N. W. and the Ft. Dodge & Omaha. The floor of the window is covered with gravel, the road-beds are elevated, and ties of a uniform size with rails spiked down. There are also four passenger trains all leading into town. Nice little houses represent the two depots, and the telegraph poles are not forgotten. It is a very good representation of what may be realized in the near future. Of course the motto inscribed on the window is "Excursions to Kelly's Shoe Store."

MARRIED.

O'CONNOR-HOULIHAN: On Wednesday, Oct. 28, 1898, at the Catholic church in Denison, Michael O'Conner and Mary Houlihan, Rev. Father Farrelly officiating. These young people are well and favorably known in Denison and surrounding country. They will live on Mr. O'Conner's farm in East Boyer township where the groom has erected a nice new house, and will soon be at home to their numerous friends. After the wedding a reception was given the happy couple to which a large number were present. The REVIEW joins in wishing these young people a long life of happiness and prosperity.

BACHMANN-RUSTERHOLZ.

On Wednesday, Nov. 2, 1898, at the residence of Chris Lorenzen, in Denison, Arnold Bachmann and Salome Rusterholz, Rev. Clausen performing the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Jacob Rusterholz, and is well known in Denison, where she has lived a number of years. She is a young lady of true worth and will make a most loving wife. The groom is one of Crawford county's most prosperous young farmers. He owns a nice farm of 120 acres just east of Buck Grove where he and his bride will live. We join with the many friends of this young couple in wishing them a happy voyage on the sea of matrimony.

The John Watson Entertainment.

There was a large attendance at the Watson entertainment on Wednesday evening and all were quite well pleased. The piano solos rendered by Mr. Patchen were very difficult, and the ease with which he played showed that he had given much time to study and practice. His selections were taken from such composers as Beethoven, Bassio and Liszt. The solo work of Mr. Watson was very good, his perfect tones, being a feature of his playing. Miss Agnes Beld as impersonator captured the audience, her humorous impersonations being well rendered. The company carried their own grand piano which was a very fine one. The Modern Woodmen are very thankful to the public for the liberal patronage given their entertainment.

On Wednesday occurred the death of Mrs. C. R. Wick, at the home of her sister Mrs. Jackson in Manilla. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Allen.

The remodeling of Mr. Cornwell's residence is about finished. Mr. Cornwell now has a very convenient and comfortable home, one that ranks with the best.
