The Northwestern Railway Company is pushing the work on its double track quite rapidly. At present they have a large force of men employed between Tama and Marshalltown grading for the double track. The work this side of Ames will be commenced very soon and pushed to completion.

The surveyors for the Illinois Central are now making Denison their headquarters, and are working along the West Boyer. We are in hopes, if the line does come here, that the company will find suitable depot grounds nearer town than the fair grounds and think our business men should take steps immediately to inquire into the company's plans. The distance between the fair grounds and town is too great.

E. O. Thiem, who has been a Vaillite for several years has accepted a position in the grocery department of Orkin Bros. store in Denison, has rented his farm, sold his stock of fine poultry and is now permanently located in Denison, where he will be glad to meet his old friends. Mr. Thiem is an experienced hand in the grocery business, and is a trusty, industrious, sober man. All of his friends wish for his success.—Vail Observer.

The first Christmas package to go from Denison to the Philippines Islands by express was sent by Mrs. Dr. Boiles to her brother, Mr. Ed. Cheadle, who is a member of the First Montana Infantry, now stationed at Cavite, P. I. All Christmas packages sent to the boys over there from here will be carried from San Francisco free by the government and the express company makes a reduction of 25 per cent to San Francisco.

The Gun Club held a little tournament on the fair grounds yesterday. Although the attendance was small, yet those present had a good time and did some good shooting. John Tamm made the best average of the day, he getting 18 birds out of 20. Henry Meeves received 17, Lou Baer 25, W. Saul 15 and C. O. Faus 10. Fred Aebischer in shooting for 10 birds received 9. Next week the boys will go to Vail where they will compete with the boys there for an oyster supper. In the near future there will be another shoot at Denison, further announcement of which will be made later.

A WELL DRESSED FOOT

Is not alone a thing of neatness, but is characteristic of the wearer. Therefore one can not pay too much attention to their foot ware. We aim to dress the foot with good substantial Shoes in the most up-to-date fashions. We especially pride ourselves in fitting the foot and fitting it properly. The only way this can be done is to have the widths from A to EE, all the Styles, all the Toes, and all the different kinds of stocks. We have them, and we are the only firm in Crawford county so prepared. That's the reason people who wear neatly fitting Shoes always come to us.

SHOES--Is our business.
