

A. H. BROWN,

The Photographer,

DENISON, IOWA.

Did you ever think that a dozen photos cost no more than any small present and makes one of the most appreciated presents you can give to a friend, and that a dozen makes 12 presents to as many different friends?

Then think. There are those pretty and popular little Buttons that everyone wears. Aren't they nice for a Christmas Souvenir?

Then those elegant tinted or colored Photos on Easels. Nothing finer or up-to-date. We also have some very pretty frames for photos of all sizes.

NOW SEE HERE!

You have all seen and admired those

Large Lifelike Photographs

First Photo, $4.00; after the first one, $2.00.

Are you thinking of . . . . . Christmas Presents?

If not, it's time.

We have a variety of other things that will make nice presents and only ask you to call at our Studio where we can show you much better than we can tell you here.

Don't wait, come in at once and give us plenty of time to get your work out.

Yours respectfully,

A. H. Brown.

OUR CHRISTMAS EDITION.

As usual the Great REVIEW will come to the front with a magnificent Christmas edition. This year's edition will eclipse anything we have heretofore done in this line. It will be a twenty-four page paper with handsome colored cover. It will contain a large amount of Christmas reading, including handsome illustrations, short Christmas stories and a complete novel, together with a large amount of home reading for which the REVIEW is already noted above all others. A number of special articles will also be prepared which will be announced later.

A Prize Offer.

One of the features will be a Prize Christmas Story. The REVIEW will give a prize of $5.00 worth of books for the best Christmas Story, of not over 2000 words in length, written by any subscriber to the Great REVIEW, or by any member of the immediate family of a subscriber.

A Second Offer.

The Great REVIEW will give a prize of $2.50 in books for the best essay on "Christmas" written by any member of the graded schools of Crawford county. Each essay must be accompanied by a certificate from the teacher that the pupil is an attendance at the school. Essays and stories must be delivered to the REVIEW office not later than December 5th. Remember the date, for manuscripts received after that time will not be considered.

These will be the features of our Christmas edition and it will be a beauty in every respect. We would invite the merchants of the county to make their Christmas announcements in this edition, as it will be issued in the fore part of December and will be of such value that every reader of the REVIEW will read it carefully and preserve it for the future.

ENGLISH AS SHE IS SPOKE.

The Carroll Sentinel speaking of a young lady who is teaching school, says: "Her school is two miles west of Marie Gnam's which she began a week ago." Will the Sentinel please explain what it was that was begun a week ago?

A TRIUMPH OF LITERATURE.

For the past few days agents have been in Denison placing orders for Dudley Warner's Library of the World's Best Literature. We had read much of this colossal work and were glad of the opportunity to see it. In a literary sense it is the triumph of the Nineteenth century, being the most complete compendium of the world of letters ever published. It is a library in itself, giving one the choice of the best writings of any clime or any age. There are thirty volumes and in one sense it is expensive, but in the wider sense of furnishing a foundation for all reading and any kind of research it is the cheapest thing you can buy.

We must confess that the Bulletin and the Odebolt Clarion are in pretty poor business in trying to be funny at the expense of poor old Dr. Roe. It is mighty easy to kick a man when he is down, but we never heard that the act was an especially commendable one. Whether through his own fault or not the doctor has seen hard times and plenty of them. He is certainly a harmless old man, content to eke out a bare existence, and our newspapers might be in better business than throwing stones at him, even if it does give them opportunity to display their variegated and brilliant wit.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

The senior English class has commenced the study of the "Revolt of the Tartars" having finished "The Princess".

Isabel Marshall and Edna Hogland have been placed in the first division of the Latin class.

The Denison vs Harlan foot ball game occurs tomorrow. Harlan has a good team, and it will be a close fought game. Everybody turn out and see a good game.

SOCIETY SOCIABLE.

An enjoyable social was held at the Atheneum hall at the College last evening. The occasion was for the members to become better acquainted with the new members who have recently joined the society. An interesting program was first carried out and then delightful refreshments were served after which a social hour passed all too quickly. Society life is one of the features of the Normal student's stay in Denison, and in all that is good the Atheneums are never surpassed.

DEATH OF MAJOR ANDERSON.

News comes today of the death of Maj. A. R. Anderson at his home in Hot Springs, South Dakota. Maj. Anderson will be remembered as a former candidate for congress in this district. He was defeated by Mr. Pusey, of Council Bluffs. Two years later, after the state was re-districted he ran on the populist-democratic ticket against Hepburn and was elected. At the expiration of his term he was again a candidate and Col. Hepburn was his opponent and at that time the gallant Colonel was successful. Later, Major Anderson removed to Hot Springs where he has since resided. He was in many ways a brilliant man.

Miss Faulkner, Miss Goodrich and Mr. Lee entertained a small party of friends at the Goodrich home on Wednesday evening. Dominoes and a bounteous supper were the features of the evening.

We very much regret to learn that Mr. W. H. Marshall is quite ill. He is one of the old pioneers of Denison and is dearly beloved by all. We trust that his illness may be but temporary and that he may soon be around again.

Governor L. M. Shaw has been called to Eden, Vermont on account of the death of his sister, Mrs. B. Moore. Mrs. Moore has been failing for some time and death was not unexpected. The governor has the sincere sympathy of all in his bereavement.

Elder Smythers, of Manilla, conducted the services Sunday evening, his subject being co-operation. This was a good and fitting sermon just at this time while the revival meetings are in progress.

We are proud to mention the fact that two of our pupils took prizes at the school exhibit. Myrtle Goff received first prize on a physical geography map, and Faye Scott third on algebra problems.
