The Wheeler Orchestra furnished music for the grand Thanksgiving ball at Arcadia. The boys furnish first-class music.

Miss Annie Henry and some of her young friends took Thanksgiving dinner in Denison with Charlie Menagh and family.

The Penlope club had a very pleasant meeting with Mrs. Ley last Tuesday afternoon. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Philbrook.

Be sure and read the Thanksgiving sermon preached by Rev. Bateson yesterday. It was a masterly effort and will do you good, as it did its hearers.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moeller have moved into the Rumsey house. Mrs. George Rumsey and son Jessie expect to spend the winter with Mr. Rumsey at Cripple Creek.

A number of young people enjoyed a taffy pull last night at the home of the Misses Temple. The party was given in honor of Miss Florence Faulkner and all the guests enjoyed a real old-fashioned good time. Miss Rollinson was the hostess.

Mrs. Faulkner and daughter, Florence, and Mrs. Wygant intend going to Council Bluffs Monday. After a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Aylesworth, the Faulkners will go their home in St. Helena, Arkansas.

On Monday last Miss Myrtle McCormick was treated to a genuine birthday surprise party. About thirty of her young friends were in attendance and they enjoyed themselves heartily until the wee sma hours.

The Episcopal social given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Wygant's, on Tuesday evening, was quite well attended, and proved an enjoyable affair. The refreshments were delicious and netted some $15 to the Episcopal society.

The hydrant at the north side of the Bond & Warbasse music house is out of repair, so that it is frozen up. Water is so good for drinking purposes, after one has been through a campaign, that we think it proper to request that it be put into working condition as soon as possible.

On Dec. 7th, the Presbyterian Ladies' Aid Society will hold a Bazaar at the City Hall. The bazaar will be open afternoon and evening and many pretty and useful articles will be on sale. A bounteous supper will be served from five to nine. The citizens of Denison are cordially invited to attend.

County attorney-elect Wright has already begun to show his ability as a county officer. At his request the board of supervisors has raised his salary from $600 to $775. The Colonel seems bound to fulfill the Review's prediction that he would be the most expensive official the county ever had.

Mr. W. H. Laub is the victim of misplaced confidence in a mustard plaster. He had a gathering in his ear and put a plaster on it, he then went to sleep and the plaster slipped around to his face blistering it badly. A man who can sleep while a mustard plaster is getting in its deadly work must have a mighty good conscience.

The Thanksgiving ball at Vail attracted quite a number of Denison young people. Among those who went were Miss Olive Barden and Miss Lizzie McGuire, and Messrs. O. C. McAhren, T. J. Burk, John Flahive, Hugh McGuire, Jas. Loney, Henry Lenzer, Thos. Fitzpatrick and Jas. Griffen Jr., of Buck Grove. Will Seemann assisted Knowles' orchestra in furnishing the music for the occasion.

The junior publisher and family and Mrs. M. Stone were most royally entertained on Thanksgiving Day at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Garber, in East Denison. A bounteous dinner was served, which reflected great credit upon the culinary skill of Mrs. Garber, after which the afternoon was spent in visiting. Mr. and Mrs. Garber have a very happy home, blessed by two lovely daughters, Irene and Helen, and an invitation to spend the day with them was readily accepted.

A SAMPLE LETTER.

A letter from New Mexico which is but a sample of many received by the Great and Only.

Socorro, New Mexico. Meyers and Tucker. Gentlemen:— Please forward the Great and Only to us. We can't do without it. We are making Socorro our postoffice for the present. Yours truly, ROBERT J. BAUMAN.

HIS NAME WAS H—L.

At least he said so, and the way he raised it on Main street to-day proved that he was quite conversant with the subject. The person who gave himself so distinguished a cognomen was a railroad grader who had probably been laid off on account of the bad weather. He was in town yesterday and to-day and had been pouring down liberal libations to Bacchus. To-day he went into Paul Will's billiard hall and enjoyed several games of cards. When asked to pay his score he refused with indignation and thereupon the proprietor forcibly ejected him. He sought to avenge himself, but showed mighty poor judgment in doing it, as he pushed his bare hand through the glass door. His hand was badly cut, so he stuck his foot through the next pane and finished up the job by throwing a whiskey bottle through the window. About this time Mayor Kemming appeared and failing to find the marshal called upon ex-Sheriff Seymour to take the man in charge. This was promptly done and the miscreant was dragged to the county jail.

MARRIED.

SCHULER-DAWSON. Married Thursday evening, Nov. 24, 1898, at six o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. A. D. Schuler and Miss Grace L. Dawson, both of Deloit.

The bride was dressed in cream Henrietta and the groom in conventional black. The pair making a fine appearance. After the ceremony a sumptuous supper was served.

The bride is a lady of the highest esteem, a worker in church and Sabbath school, and one of Crawford County's most successful teachers.

The groom is an industrious and prosperous young man, a graduate of the Denison College, and is at present teaching in the public school at this place.

Miss Dawson is a very fine lady and Mr. Schuler is to be congratulated on securing such an excellent wife. He has prepared a cozy home in East Denison, where they will be at home to their many friends after December 15.

ADVERTISED LETTERS.

The following list of letters remain uncalled for in the postoffice at Denison, Iowa, up to Nov. 22 1898. If not called for same will be sent to the dead letter office. Parties calling for letters please say "advertised letters."

Mrs. Susan Anknay, Miss Minnie Beeman, Mrs. C. S. Curtis, R. M. Fletcher, Mrs. Flora Hedges, John W. Hittle, Joe Rogers, Fred Steckelberg, Jonas Shonastrom, John M. W. Way, Mrs. Julia Westcott. D. L. BAYNTON, Postmaster.

The foot-ball game at Council Bluffs yesterday must have been a hot one in spite of the weather. Iowa University won over its old-time adversary by a score of 6 to 5.

A Business Proposition.

We want to submit to you a proposition, and leave it to your unbiased judgment as to which is the better for you as a wearer of shoes. Suppose you are offered a pair of shoes for 98 cents at one place, and one for $1.50 at another. The 98-cent shoe will, in favorable weather, probably give you 50 cents worth of wear, while the $1.50-shoe WILL give you $1.50 to $2.00 in shoe service. Which is the cheaper in the end? It's easy, but did you ever look at it in this light? We sell you the $1.50-shoe and guarantee you service to the amount of your purchase. We DO NOT and WILL NOT handle "trashy"-paper-made-shoes.

Our Aim is Above Selling Cheap Shoes.

But we DO sell GOOD shoes at REASONABLE PRICES. When you are in need of a pair of shoes again come in and see what we can do for you. Remember when you buy shoes here they MUST fit. We have the shoe to do it with. Don't forget that we sell the celebrated

Goodyear Glove Rubbers--Best on Earth. Only Exclusive Shoe Store in Denison. KELLY'S SHOE STORE.
