W. H. Laub sold his pet deer which he purchased of the Talbert Combination in September to Judge Dimcombe of Ft. Dodge. The animal was sent yesterday by express.

A CHARMING AFTERNOON.

On Friday afternoon the Misses Faulkner and Wygant gave one of the liveliest and most novel parties of the season. About thirty-five young ladies were present, school being out a large number of teachers were able to attend. Progressive dominoes were played and great fun the game proved to be. The counters were tiny bells, a very dainty and clever conceit. Miss Godrich had eight bells when the game closed and received first prize while Miss Romans received the consolation prize. A very elegant three course supper was served. "Fit for a King" one of the guests said in describing the supper. The hostesses are great favorites in our society and the Wygant home has always been noted for its lovely hospitality. This party was one of the most successful of the season.

We regret to learn that Mr. Harry Bramley, of near Dow City, lost some forty head of hogs during the recent blizzard. It is a serious loss to Mr. Bramley.

The Ladies' Whist club expect to begin their meetings again. This club had a very jolly time together last winter and we presume will be as popular this winter.

Frank Leshar has commenced work on his dam preparatory to reaping his harvest of ice. However it will be some time before the ice freezes thick enough for his use.

Gustav Gerard, of Morgan, was in town on Friday. He thinks the recent blizzard the worst storm in many years. Says it kept him and his two boys busy shoveling snow to enable the stock to get around.

T. J. Garrison's new mansion will soon be ready for occupancy. The fresco men are almost through. This is one of the finest residences west of Cedar Rapids.

Mrs. L. C. Rasmisel is enjoying a visit from her mother, Mrs. Little, who resides at Holden, Kansas. Mrs. Little expects to remain in Denison until after the holidays and her visit will no doubt prove enjoyable.

Work is progressing well on the interior of the Baptist church. The work is being pushed more rapidly on account of approaching holidays as the Baptist people wish to hold Christmas services in their church.

Arthur D. Stevers, of the Chicago Board of Trade, was in Denison the first of the week visiting his brother, Burton. We acknowledge a very pleasant call from him. He has been on the Board some twenty-five years.

Mrs. E. C. Laub and daughters are the guests of her mother, Mrs. Gillmor, whom we are glad to know is improving and is able to sit up after her serious hurt. Mrs. Laub's visit will do Mrs. Gillmor a world of good.

Miss King entertained Saturday evening giving a six o'clock dinner for Miss Florence Faulkner. The Misses Raine, Garrison, Wygant, Faulkner and Meyers were present and had a delightful but all too brief visit together.

W. A. McHenry showed us some roots of alfalfa grown on his farm recently. The root of the alfalfa grows down some five or six feet. Of course where there is a large patch, it is almost impossible to plow. He has about four acres.

Miss Lydia Ralston, who was assistant Principal in our schools during '95 and '96, has been elected teacher in the Albion, Ia., schools. Miss Ralston is an instructor of ability and will prove a most valuable addition to the corps of teachers to the Albion schools.

Quite an explosion took place in Chas Smith's barber shop on Monday evening. In some unaccountable way the stove which is used for heating water for the bath tubs blew up. No serious damage was done other than scaring one of the Central's surveyors who was taking a bath.

We acknowledge with thanks a letter from Mrs. Mary E. Riddle, of Svensen, Oregon, in which she pays her subscription for the ensuing year and kindly adds, "I cannot do without the REVIEW." These are the kind of subscribers who make an editor feel that life is worth living.

Hill & Son are doing a large business and have established a reputation all over the county for monument work. In fact their business has grown so that they now order granite by the car load. One of their recent orders is for a $250 family monument to be erected by James Brenner at Vail.

"The King's Daughters" gave a party on Saturday evening at the home of Miss Iseminger complimentary to the Misses Hoffman, Seachrist, King and Faulkner. The circle has met for nearly a year and has had profitable meetings and very good times together, the meeting on Saturday night being a very enjoyable one to the favored guests as well as the home circle.

The seventh annual meeting of the Northwestern Iowa Horticultural Society will be held in the court house at Carroll on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, December 6, 7 and 8, and promises to be largely attended. Anyone from Crawford county who intends going should write to W. F. Stegerwalt the local committeeman at Carroll. An excellent program will be carried out, and your time will be well spent. Aside from this a number of good premiums are offered. Accommodations can be had at the Central house at reduced rates.

Miss Flora Ames received the sad news of the death of her sister, Miss Helen Ames, of Adrian, Michigan, on Thursday morning. The news was not unexpected for Miss Ames had been very ill for some weeks. She was a lovely woman living a life of usefulness and good deeds. During her long illness she was brave and cheerful although knowing that she was hopelessly ill. Her friends and mourners are countless. Of Helen Ames it can be truthfully said "none knew her but to love her, none named her but to praise." Miss Ames had visited her sister and the family of Chas. Tabor in Denison.

A Winter Excursion.

If sick you can find help. If crippled with rheumatism you can be cured. If tired you need rest, and the place to go is Hot Springs, South Dakota. The expense is less than you imagine. "The Northwestern Line" has announced special excursions certain days this month at cheap rates. The Evans Hotel will remain open and this and other hotels and boarding houses are giving good service with low rates during the winter.

Round trip rates: Omaha—$16.40, Mo. Valley—$16.55, Sioux City—$14.80, and corresponding reductions from other points west. Climate, water, scenery and hotels are unexcelled. Thirty days time allowed and any agent F. E. & M. V. R. R., or J. H. Gable, Traveling Passenger Agent, Denison, Iowa, can tell you more about it. The next date will be December 6, 1893.
