Mr. N. Nicewannar has recently moved here from Vail and expects to make Denison his home for the future.

Mr. C. J. Jensen, of Hohenzollern, made Denison a visit today. He is one of our prosperous young German farmers.

Mr. C. C. Pacht, of Orchard, Neb., has been visiting Crawford county friends this week. He says that he likes his new home very much.

Mrs. J. Fred Meyers and Miss Grace Meyers left this morning for Independence for a brief visit. Their plans for the winter are not fully decided.

Mr. Pat Lane has sold his farm in Goodrich township, and has decided to have a public auction on the nineteenth of December. He is going to have quite a large sale and it will be well for those who are thinking of buying to attend.

The council should vacate the streets in the southern part of town asked by the Northwestern without any unnecessary delay. We are not interested in the disputes arising between rival companies but we do want that new depot and the plans of neither road in west Denison are involved. Do not let us throw a good thing over our shoulder.

Elmer Mills started for Wisconsin this afternoon for a visit.

Miss Michaelson, of Miller & Co's millinery department, spent Sunday at her home in Arion.

The Illinois Central surveyors are giving rise to no end of surmises. Some of them spent Monday surveying a line through Editor Hartun's new house.

Wm. Gebring was in town on Friday. He just finished picking corn on Thursday. He says it was quite a task going after corn in the snow but it had to be done.

Mr. Jas. Cose tells us that he is the only survivor of the Crimean war in this country. He was through many of the fiercest battles of that bloody conflict.

Mrs. Lena Hantz and son, of Wheaton, Ill., are the guests of Mrs. Geo. Naeve. Mrs. Hantz is a sister of Mrs. Naeve. They expect to make quite an extended stay.

There were married, December 4, at Denison, Rev. F. Lothringer officiating, Mr. Gustave Green to Mrs. Fredricka Denker, nee Berndt, both of Denison; witnesses, John and Catherine Berndt.

In remitting to the REVIEW for his next year's subscription Mr. E. Dobson, of St. Joe, says, "Keep us fully posted in regard to railroad matters." It would seem that Denison is being watched from all points.

Camp No 315 Modern Woodmen of America at the regular meeting, on Thursday evening, was visited by fourteen members of M. W. A. from Deloit. The lodge is fast growing in numbers and is now on a substantial footing.

Seven engineers of the Illinois Central are now making Denison their headquarters. Mr. O. W. Sullivan is the head of the corps, and they seem to be mighty busy. Mr. Morris McHenry, the veteran surveyor of Crawford county, is working with them.

Fritz Brandenburg has a bottle of shot hanging in his place on Broadway. The one who guesses the nearest to the number of shot in the bottle is to get a fifteen dollar suit free. The guesses are free also and many have already tested their guessing faculties.

Mr. E. H. Bond has been spending the week in Denison much to the delight of his parents and many friends. Ed is now interested in the Chemical Portrait Co. of Omaha, Neb. He likes the work very much and the work seems to like him at least as far as the profits are concerned.

Johnson & Co's Holiday announcement is one of the most complete things of its kind ever issued in Denison. It will be a great help to you in selecting your Christmas gifts, and you should read it carefully. Their stock is still more complete than their advertisement.

F. M. Wheeler & Co. is the name of a new firm recently located in Denison. Until they can erect a suitable building next spring they can be found in Greek's scale office. This is a branch of a large second hand store business and Mr. F. D. Inman is the manager in charge. There is no reason why such a store should not thrive in Denison.

The Presbyterian Bazaar tomorrow afternoon and evening promises to be one of especial interest. The ladies have prepared many useful articles in the form of aprons, sofa pillows, dollies, etc., which will be placed on sale. A book containing a burlesque history of Crawford county will be offered for sale also. Hot supper served from 5 o'clock on.

Mr. Fallor is planning an oratorical contest to be held some time in the spring. It will consist of three orations, three recitations and three essays. A contest was planned for last year, and some very good work was done toward it, but on account of an insufficient amount of time and interest, it did not materialize. There will be preliminary contests held, and the best of each list will compete in public.

The Friday club had a very pleasant meeting with Mrs. Martyn. Mrs. Holmes read a very good paper on music in America; Mrs. Philbrook gave a remarkably good sketch of Mozart and Mrs. Martyn read a thoughtfully prepared paper on Wagner. Miss Garrison and Mrs. Bradley were visitors and sang very sweetly to the great delight of the club. Mrs. Voss also sang. Mrs. John Sievers playing her accompaniment. The club will hold its next meeting with Mrs. Beard.

Another one of the club dances was given last Friday evening and a goodly number of the young people took advantage of it. A larger crowd was present than at the former dance and a very enjoyable time was spent by all present. The music was furnished by Messrs. Fred Richards and Will Seemann, and it was very good, we can readily say. The floor was in fine shape and taking it altogether the dance was a success. Those present from out of town were: Messrs Joe DeFoy, Joe Casey, Wm. Mitchell and Ed. Sheridan, and Misses Nellie Quirk, Lulu Maguire, Tressa O'Connell, Frankie Duffy, Bessie Brogan and Miss Smith all of Vail, and Mr. Knaul of Guthrie Center. We are glad to have the visitors present and hope they will attend the next dance.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

On pages three and seven of this issue will be found a synopsis of President McKinley's message, delivered to Congress yesterday noon. The original is much longer, but we give a clear outline of the whole. The story of the war as told in the message reads almost like a romance. The President's suggestions are wise and strong, and the message is in itself the strongest refutation of the obstructionists charges brought against his policies. Read the message, it will do you good.

IS NOT A TRILBY.

One of the high school boys has refused to sing. He said it hurt his throat, that the others laughed at him as hard as at Mary's lamb, that he had no more idea of a tune than Trilby had before Svengali got her into his clutches, and finally, that he would not sing. He has been suspended, the board claiming that he was disobedient, and that singing is on the course of study and must be sung. We would advise the young man to sing. He cannot afford to lose his chance of an education because his voice doesn't track.

THE GOVERNOR ROBBED.

It is reported that Gov. Shaw's residence in Des Moines was broken into last week and the Governor's diamond stud stolen and some $75 in cash abstracted from his trousers pocket during the night.

DIED.

On Sunday December 4th occurred the death of Mr. Hans J. Kuehner at his home in Denison township. The deceased was fifty-four years of age. He was born in Westeronfelt, Schleswig Holstein, and came to this country in 1854. He first settled in Davenport but came to this county twenty-one years ago and has lived here continuously since that time. The cause of his death was heart failure and he was found dead in his bed on Sunday morning. He leaves one brother, four sisters, numerous other relatives and a large circle of friends to mourn his loss. He was a man of the kindest heart, industrious and a good citizen in every respect. He was a brother of Mrs. J. G. Foderberg and was beloved by all who knew him. The funeral services will be held on Thursday next at his home. Mrs. W. M. Cornwall will officiate in the services of the Christian Scientists.

Miss Gusta Voss has returned from a visit in Omaha.

The Penelope club meets with Mrs. B. F. Philbrook this afternoon.

Mr. James B. Barrett, of Los Angeles, intends to return to Denison in the near future to establish himself in the practice of law. He is well known here as the son of J. C. Barrett and a kindly welcome awaits him. He is a bright, intelligent young man and has been practicing law for several years. We believe there is room for him in Denison and that he will succeed.

Dropped Dead in the Street.

Last Saturday no little excitement was caused on Main street by a sudden death. The horse was being driven up the street and suddenly stumbled, fell and was soon stiffened in death.

Attention.

John A. Logan Post No. 58, Denison, Iowa, regular meeting Dec. 9, 1898, at 7:30 o'clock p. m. sharp. Business of importance. Come.

Church Notes.
PRESBYTERIAN.

Rev. Dr. Stephen Phelps, of the Theological Seminary at Omaha, will preach at the Presbyterian church in Denison, on next Sabbath morning and evening, in the absence of the pastor. He is a popular pulpit orator and is well known in Denison. A cordial welcome to all.

The Ladies Bazaar and Supper will be held tomorrow (Wednesday) afternoon and evening at the City Hall. Many useful and fancy articles suitable for Christmas gifts will be on sale. Supper will be served from five to nine o'clock.

The Sabbath school is arranging for Christmas tree exercises on Christmas Eve.

Next Sabbath the fine new Presbyterian church at Charter Oak will be dedicated. It has been erected at a cost of some $5,000, and is not only a handsome edifice but equipped with all modern improvements. Rev. Martyn will assist in the dedicatory services.

Evangelists Smith and Hassell, of Chicago, expect to assist Rev. Martyn in special evangelistic services, beginning January 1st.

METHODIST.

There were two accessions to the church last Sunday.

Sunday school numbered 347.

The attendance at all the services last Sunday was exceptionally large.

Howard Wygant led the Epworth League Sunday evening.

Dr. Franklin preached last night after which the quarterly conference convened.

The W. F. M. S. meets tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. Howard Cole.

Cottage Prayer meetings will be held tonight at the homes of C. L. Voss and M. N. Smith. Mrs. Gable and Mrs. Gulick lead the meeting at the former, and Mr. Hill and Mr. Branch at the latter place.

The annual election of officers for the Sunday school will take place Thursday evening after prayer meeting.

Chicago has been agreed upon as the place for holding the next session of the general conference which meets in May of 1900. Hereafter the conference will be made up of equal representation, Lay and Ministerial. The vote in the spring and fall conferences have just decided that question.

BAPTIST.

The Ladies' Missionary Circle will meet with Mrs. M. A. Jones on Wednesday at 2:30.

On Sunday evening Bro. Bateson took as his text the words of Pilate, "What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ." In his closing remarks were given the thoughts that now we may say, "What shall I do with Jesus?" but in this great day it will be, "What will Jesus do with me."

Bro. Ed. Bergman has recently left us for his future home in Boone.

Now is the time for the quarterly collection of the Home Missionary Society. Let all remember this.

A Winter Excursion.
If sick you can find help. If crippled with rheumatism you can be cured. If tired you need rest, and the place to go is Hot Springs, South Dakota. The expense is less than you imagine. "The Northwestern Line" has announced special excursions certain days this month at cheap rates. The Evans Hotel will remain open and this and other hotels and boarding houses are giving good service with low rates during the winter.

Round trip rates: Omaha—$16.40, Mo. Valley—$16.55, Sioux City—$14.80, and corresponding reductions from other points west.

Climate, water, scenery and hotels are unexcelled. Thirty days time allowed and any agent F. E. & M. V. R. R., or J. H. Gable, Traveling Passenger Agent, Denison, Iowa, can tell you more about it. The next date will be December 6, 1898.
