

AN ARION LETTER, ALL ABOUT DELOIT, CHARTER OAK CHATS

Sheriff Bell was in town on business Friday. Underhill is home for over Sunday.

Bartley Haley, of Kenwood, was in town Sunday.

Mrs. A. P. Bond was in Dunlap on business Saturday.

John Mourer will occupy the residence of the late Mrs. C. Butler.

Milo Kelley has moved into the house recently vacated by S. E. L.

Ed. Green, of Dow City, attended church in this place Sunday.

Clyde Huffman was called to Correctionville on business Saturday.

Mr. H. Witt has moved to town and will occupy the house of V. Talcott.

The Woodmen met in their hall Saturday night and report a pleasant time.

Mr. Jones, Frank Evans and the Misses Ruth and Calla, drove to Denison Sunday evening.

Savage & Rowe, photographers, have moved into the Grandall gallery and are turning out some good work.

W. W. Coon and wife, Dr. J. M. Coon and wife and Miss Helen, took a sleigh ride to Denison Wednesday.

It is reported that two young people formerly of Arion will wed on Christmas. We shall report progress later.

Our town is very free from sickness at present, a little run of them among the children being about all that is complained of.

John Goff's house will soon be ready for the plaster. With the present addition completed, the house will be very comfortable and convenient.

Mrs. R. A. Slocumb and daughter, Lila, came down from Charter Oak Saturday, on their way to Dow City, where they are to reside in the future.

The Tarlton bell ringers were before our town on Friday night. Those who attended report the entertainment at good, but on account of bad weather and revival meetings the attendance was small.

Mr. John Mourer arrived in town Sunday morning with his household goods and will soon be prepared to do a general banking business. He has purchased a corner lot on Main street for his bank building, which he will build next spring. For the present he will have his safe in the store of Max Hyman. The safe is a very large one and he thinks it not worth while to move it now and again in the spring.

JACKSON JOTTINGS.

George Shidoff made Denison a business call last Tuesday.

Mike Lawler has just recovered from an attack of rheumatism.

School commenced in district No. 4 last Monday, Kate Foley teacher.

George Benton is about to erect a large cattle shed 40x60. Mr. Benton is a model stock feeder.

Supervisor John White is just recovering from a severe attack of pneumonia. Mr. White's case was a bad one and was given up by several doctors.

The carpenters are putting the finishing touch on Jim Maloys new residence; there is no doubt that when finished it will be one of the finest in the township.

Delf Branson marketed a carload of fine hogs last Monday. A good share of the hogs of this locality died with cholera this fall and the disease still rages.

Wm. Lestrange and Boyd Sherwood took a pleasure trip to West Side last Wednesday, returning Thursday at two o'clock a. m. They gave Main street a coat of light red, broke the handle out of the town pump and had every thing going south in a short time. They are the boys that go after a good time right.

NEWS OF DOW CITY.

Mrs. Chase is dangerously ill.

Mr. Petefish, of Illinois, is visiting his grandson, E. N. Chamberlin.

Bert Frye came over from Buck Grove last Sunday to see the folks.

Mrs. E. D. Butts, who has been very sick with erysipelis, is almost able to resume her household duties.

J. L. Butterworth, the hustling cornsheller, is doing some work in that line for Mr. John Pett, southeast of town.

Edward Barber was laboring as a carpenter at Galland's Grove last week. He helped Mr. Matthey in building a barn.

Mrs. Nettie Rae Bramhall came up from Omaha last week for a few days' visit with relatives and friends. She returned to her home in Omaha last Friday.

R. A. Slocumb, who purchased the stock of merchandise from H. S. Green, moved his household goods from Charter Oak last week, and his family now live in the Hillias house, just west of Dr. Carr's residence.

Mrs. Enos Lentz was quite sick the past week.

Rev. Wadson is conducting revival services at this place at present.

Miss Jennie Newcom began teaching at the Nixon school house last Monday.

Uncle David McKim is making his home with his daughter, Mrs. J. L. Miller.

Mrs. S. Her and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Myers Sunday.

Lyman Morris is making a large addition to his house, John Lentz doing the carpenter work.

Elder William McKim occupied the L. D. S. pulpit Sunday evening from the text, "What must I do to be saved."

Mr. Bettason was sent to this place to occupy the position vacated by Mr. Southwick and assist Mr. Hazelett engine.

Quarterly meeting was held at the M. E. church Sunday evening, Elder Lohman, the presiding Elder, being present.

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Hunt and Mrs. Camilla Hunt, of Woodbine, visited at Mrs. M. Hunt's Saturday night and Sunday.

Geo. McKim, who has been working with the Northwestern surveyors, has quit for the season and commenced again Monday morning.

The L. D. S. Sabbath school will give an entertainment on Christmas eve and a Christmas tree at the Brick church. A general invitation is extended to all.

Will Southwell, who has been boarding with J. L. Miller the past month, left for Boone on Friday, having been called to work in the office at that place by the Northwestern R'y Co.

Monday morning the sun rose bright and clear and the school children eagerly gathered their books, anxious to be found among the first at the school house. We hope their interest will not grow less but increase as the term of school advances.

KIRON CHRONICLES

J. B. Dawson, of Deloit, was a business transactor early Monday morning.

Kiron school opened for the winter term Monday, with Miss Alma Hanson as teacher.

Hildreth Lundberg, of Rusk, Iowa, spent over Sunday with his parents in Kiron, returning on Monday.

Rev. A. C. Anderson, of Davenport, Iowa, has assisted Rev. Hanson at the Baptist church the past week in holding meetings. Preaching has been conducted each evening except on Saturday, with good attendance.

Theron Beck spent Sunday in our midst. He has recently returned from Beresford, S. D., and expects to remain at his home in Odebolt. His many Kiron friends were most pleased to see him back hale and hearty.

HAPPENINGS AT VAIL.

Will Shove is assisting in the bank.

Mrs. Ben Crampton is on the sick list.

John Knowles was a Denison caller Friday.

Clyde Seymour was up from Denison Sunday.

Dell Sarvoss is a business visitor at Modale.

Dave Mahoney has sold his dray to Simon Lawler.

Attorney Shaw Van was up from Denison Friday.

Geo. Harris, of West Side, was a Vailite Friday.

Ten cars of stock were shipped from Vail Saturday night.

Miss Nora McNamara has returned from her Omaha stay.

C. E. Dobler, of West Side, was a Vailite last Thursday.

M. T. Keane made a business trip to Sioux City Monday night.

Miss Emma Dellinger, of Denison, spent Sunday at home.

Will Butler was a Manning visitor last week a couple of days.

Perry Dampster was here from Nebraska last week a couple of days.

Rev. Carson was a Mapleton visitor Monday.

Fred Pease visited friends at the Oak over Sunday.

Mrs. Nick Fiese is visiting friends at Smithland.

The chime of the sleigh bells made merry music on our streets Sunday.

Mrs. S. M. Stonffer was visiting relatives in the Oak the first of the week.

Mrs. Lee, of Fitzgerald, Ga., is visiting with Mesdames Harris and Armstrong.

Mrs. W. W. Brown, of Mapleton, visited friends in the Oak the last of the week.

Oscar Nelson, who has been working for A. P. Hart, started the last of the week for Sweden.

Miss Ida Neal, of Soldier township, started Friday for an extended visit her aunt at Kearney, Nebraska.

Mrs. J. J. McWilliams gave a very delightful tea party to a large number of her lady friends Friday afternoon.

Will Mains started on the road Monday for a dry goods house of Chicago. He will have Iowa and Nebraska for his territory. He went to Ft. Dodge Monday evening. Will is a hustler and we wish and predict for him abundant success.

Sunday next will be a proud day for Charter Oak and vicinity for it will witness the dedication of the handsome new Presbyterian church. The building is a handsome one, costing upwards of $5,000, and is a monument to the Christianity and generosity of our city. The following is the program of the Dedication services:

Invocation.....
Anthem.....
Scripture Reading..... Rev. Carson Solo..... Miss Florence Abbott Sermon..... Rev. T. S. Bailey, D. D. Anthem.....
Dedicatory Prayer—Rev. A. G. Martyn
Dedicatory hymn.....
Benedictoin.....

M. E. NOTES.

Owing to the dedication services in the Presbyterian church next Sabbath there will be no preaching services in the Methodist church.

Sabbath school will meet at 9:45 next Sabbath. Note the change of hour.

Epworth and Junior Leagues will meet as usual.

Business meeting of the Epworth League Tuesday evening in the lecture room of the church. All members are requested to be present.

The Sabbath school has begun to make preparations for Christmas.

NEWS OF WEST SIDE

Hugh Langau visited friends in Vail Sunday.

The section men are laying steel on the passing track.

Mrs. B. G. Hess and children are visiting the old folks at Dedham.

Six car loads of cattle were loaded and shipped out Sunday morning.

Sleighing is good and it is cold enough to keep people on the move to keep warm.

Mesdames C. Jones and C. W. Payne visited Carroll Friday on a stopping tour.

The railroad company's masons were here last week to do some work on the round house.

Marvine Peters and Ernest Spotswood came home Friday and spent Sunday with their parents.

Small grain and stock are moving in good shape and the station men are kept busy on account of it.

Cars are getting scarce again. A good sign of increasing business, the calamity howler will have to change his occupation.

The Sunday school of the M. E. church is preparing a Christmas entertainment and the little folks are full of expectations.

Conductor L. Mies was ordered west Sunday morning with both way freight engines and returned in the evening with a train of dead freight.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Clement are anxiously waiting for news from Omaha. We are sorry to learn that Mr. Clement is seriously sick.

We are informed that John C. Suhr is getting on in good shape at the State University. His examinations show that he is working hard and he reports that his health is very good.

Frank Gary bought two car loads of hogs of John Dieter Saturday and shipped them to U. S. yards on No. 36 same evening. They were a nice even lot and ought to bring a good price.

Fritz P. Timm,

Denison, Iowa,

Wholesale and Retail Dealer in

GIPPS BREWING CO'S. BEER

PEORIA, ILLINOIS.

---

Best Whiskies, Gin,
Rum, Wines and
Pure Alcohols.

---

Special Low Rates for the Holiday Trade:

Keg Beer (8 gallon).....$2 00	Best brands of fine old Whiskies from
Keg Beer (4 gallon).....1 25	$1.75 to $4.00 per gallon.
Case Beer (24 quarts).....2 25	Rum from $2.25 to $3.00 per gallon.
Case Beer (36 pints).....2 00	Alcohol (188 proof) $3.00 per gallon.

---

Orders will be filled promptly whenever received, and satisfaction guaranteed.

Fritz P. Timm.

F. O. Ivens,

Hardware, Stoves, Plumbing, AND TINWARE.

Having been in Denison many years the people know that my guarantee is good and that I will not offer them inferior goods for sale. They also know that my prices are reasonable. I wish to call your attention to the ### Famous German Heater.

The illustration shows the superior qualities of this stove. It is cheap, economical and the best heater on the market.

NO SMOKE NO GAS, WHEN IN OPERATION.

DOWN DRAFT

The Peoria-Lexington Steel Range,

The best, handsomest and most durable. In making these BASE ranges the best and heaviest steel is used, and cast plates are placed wherever the action of the fire is the most intense. Large feed door. Duplex grate, that can be removed without disturbing the linings. Large ash pan door and deep ash pan. Back flue is made of Cast Iron, as the soot will in time destroy sheet steel, which is generally used for back flues. The casing of the reservoir is made of cast iron, as the dampness of the reservoir soon rusts out a sheet steel casing. Every range guaranteed.

Shell Hardware, Tinware, Plumbing, and Repairing. All work guaranteed.

F. O. Ivens.

GERMAN HEATER.

ATTRACTIONS.

Germania Opera House.
B. J. SIMBERT, Manager.

Dec. 16, Muldoon's Last Picnic.

Jan. 2, FRANK S. DAVIDSON in "Old Farmer Hopkins."

Jan. 24 Side Tracked.

The Denison Rug Factory is now prepared to weave all kinds of rugs and carpets, both plain and fancy. Opposite the High school. 85-11.

Flour, Graham or feed delivered to any part of the city. MENAGH'S Mill. Telephone 451.

FOR RENT.
Dwelling House, furnished or partly furnished, corner Main and Walnut streets, to some suitable, careful tenant. Inquire after Nov 1st of Mrs. J. F. Meyers, Denison, Iowa.

HOUSE MOVING

First-Class Outfit. Experienced Men. Satisfaction Guaranteed.

JAMES McCLELLAN -- DENISON, IOWA

---

F. J. McCORMICK,

DEALER IN

Stock : Cattle : and : Hogs.

HIGHEST MARKET PRICE FOR STOCK HOGS

A Card.
The undersigned does hereby agree to refund the money on a 50 cent bottle of Greene's warranted Syrup of Tar if it fails to cure your cough or cold. He also guarantees a 25 cent bottle to prove satisfactory or money refunded. R. KNAUL. 92 Gmo.

Give Me Number 451.
Hello Menagh's mill. Send me a sack of your Wizard Patent flour. You deliver it to any part of the city, don't you? Certainly we do, and you will find it the best flour on the market. That is what every-one says.

FOR SALE.
Nine Thoroughbred Chester White Boars—Fine stock. Inquire Jas. McKim 1/2 mile west of Deloit. 35-11