OFFICIAL PAPER OF CRAWFORD COUNTY

DENISON IOWA, Dec 9, 1898.

Court begins Monday.

Prof. Nourses' lecture December 18.

Miss Maggie Pelly returned on Wednesday from a visit in Vail.

Merchant Hauberg, of Deloit, spent Wednesday in Denison.

Messrs. Swan and Albert Mauritz, of Kiron, were Denison visitors Wednesday.

"Who will care for Colonel now" since his party organ refuses to support him.

P. E. C. Lally is to have a new phone in his office as soon as the weather permits the men to do the work.

Mrs. W. M. Cornwall expects to go to Chicago on Saturday to spend some time visiting her sons, Frank and George.

The barn which has stood on the rear of the Prof. Van Ness' residence lot is being moved to Mr. J. M. Bradley's place.

Our efficient night watch, Lon Bter, is making arrests almost every night. Last night he "pinched" two obstreperous fellows.

Mrs. Henry Seeman had the misfortune to catch her finger in a wringer on Wednesday. Part of the flesh was torn from the bone.

Mr. Eli C. Laub is in Denison for a few days visit. Mrs. Laub and children will accompany him on his return to Correctionville.

Mr. C. W. Hess, of Charter Oak, was in Denison yesterday. He passed a pleasant evening with his friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Baker.

Read our correspondence, Dow City, Arion, Charter Oak, Willow, Goodrich, Deloit, Vail, West Side and Bell are all well represented in this issue.

Mr. P. J. Farrelly has moved into the house recently occupied by E. C. Finch. Mr. Prill expects to move into Mr. Farrelly's former residence on Main Street.

Mr. Frank Johnson, of Deloit, returned last night from Manchester, Dakota. He says it is much colder there than here. Heaven pity the Dakotans.

Miss Craft's room secured the banner last week having a perfect record. This is a remarkable record for a room of fifty little folks in the midst of a cold winter season.

Mr. J. W. Campbell, of Manilla, spent Tuesday and Wednesday with Denison relatives. Mr. Campbell is now acting as auctioneer in the southern part of the county.

Nothing adds so much zest to Christmas shopping as handsomely decorated display windows. Some of our merchants have already done this and the others should follow their example.

Mr. Herman Popken has traded his hotel on West Broadway to Mr. John Klinker for his farm in Hanover township. The property was valued at $6,700. Mr. Klinker will take possession December 22nd.

Mr. M. Goldbeck, of West Side, died on Tuesday, December 6th. The funeral services were held this afternoon. Mr. Goldbeck was a former resident of Denison and was a relative of Mr. Adolph Huebman and Mr. P. Oxwang.

Rev. Dr. Stephen Phelps, of "Omaha Theological Seminary," will preach at the Presbyterian church on next Sabbath morning and evening. All are welcomed to the services. Dr. Phelps is well known as an interesting and instructive preacher.

It is reported that Charter Oak is much excited over the prospect of a new town site being laid out by the Northwestern just a mile and a half from their prosperous city. Such a town will not hurt the Oak half so much as if it were located five miles

Married at the home of Christ Christensen, Wednesday, December 7, at 3 p. m. Mr. Peter Jurgensen, of West Side, to Miss Maggie Waetje, of Denison, before the witnesses, Charles Jurgensen and Louise Waetje, Rev. G. C. Clausen, officiating.

There will be no Lyceum this season. The McKim hall cannot be procured and there is no other well suited place to hold meetings. A place must be chosen in which there is a piano, and none has presented itself thus far.

The sale of lands for delinquent taxes was the smallest held in the county since 1858. One hundred and twenty-nine sales were made, thirty-seven of which were farm lands and the remainder of town lots. Only twelve sales were made of Denison property.

Treasurer Lorenzen has paid out $165 for November and $135 for December on account of the Soldiers' Relief fund. This fund is expended by the Soldiers' Relief Committee. It is not intended entirely as a charity, but as a grateful recognition to such old soldiers as may be in need.

Several Iowa dailies made "slug head" news items from the railroad news gleaned from last Tuesday's REVIEW and all the Denison papers copied from the REVIEW's interview with Judge Hubbard. With a singular lapse of editorial courtesy however, they failed to give credit for the borrowed matter.

Francis J. Gable has excelled himself in the Christmas poem written for the REVIEW's big holiday edition. It is worthy of any writer and we predict that Francis has a bright literary future before him. He is a young man of whom Denison may well be proud. Look out for his poem in next Tuesday's great paper.

The Germania Society voted in ten new members this week. The society is in a flourishing condition. The basement of the opera house will soon have a new cement floor. Billiard and card tables are already in and Mr. P. Krauth is always on hand to take care of the members' wants. This is destined to be the most popular club in the city.

Bond and Warbasse have just fitted up a neat music room for the benefit of the musicians of the city. The room will be kept warm and is dedicated to the free use of the public for rehearsals of all kinds. Both a piano and organ will be found there. This firm has also fitted up an extensive repair shop and is ready for business in the line of musical repairing. See their advertisement.

Tickets for the Spedon lecture will be reserved next Monday, December 12, at U. G. Johnson's store. Any one desiring single fifty cent seats may reserve them any time the following Thursday, as it is necessary to give season ticket holders the first opportunity on account of limited seating capacity. All holders should be careful to reserve before Thursday as seats will be sold indiscriminately then.

Mr. A. H. Sebern visited Denison Wednesday, and on Thursday he departed for Lake View, Wyoming, where he will make his future home. Mr. and Mrs. Sebern are among our oldest settlers and have a host of friends both in Denison and Dow City who greatly regret their departure. The REVIEW which has been a member of that family for so many years will follow them to their western home to tell them all about the folks in Crawford.

The Penelope club held a very pleasant meeting with Mrs. Philbrook Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Philbrook's guests, Mrs. Van Slyke and Miss Helen Baird, of Dunlap, joined the circle of busy workers, and during the afternoon Miss Baird favored the club with several selections of her exquisite music. A vocal solo by Mrs. Bradley was also heartily enjoyed. Although the meeting was very well attended, it was decided to postpone the next meeting till the first Tuesday in January. On January third the club will meet with Mrs. W. J. Scriver.

"How Crawford County was Settled" is the title of a little booklet issued by the Presbyterian ladies and sold at their bazaar on Wednesday evening. Mrs. R. L. LaBurke was the authoress, and the book shows much skill and ingenuity. The first part is a burlesque account of the first settlement in which are interwoven the names of some of our old residents. The last half of the book is devoted to advertisements gotten up in attractive verse. A large number of the books were sold and those who have not secured a copy should do so. They are interesting and unique souvenirs.

The Bulletin thinks we are persecuting Colonel Economy. The fact is we are simply telling the truth about his latest effort to save money. We understand the Colonel has been to the Bulletin editor and stated his side of the case asking him to publish it. Up to this time the Bulletin has refused to do so. Does it not seem from this that the Colonel's position is indefensible and that the Bulletin knows it? Let the tax-payers know the truth. If the REVIEW has misstated the facts it is a matter easy of proof, but the REVIEW has told the truth and the Bulletin cannot deny this $250 salary grab.

Geo. Washington made a reputation shopping wood. I. L. Pease has the reputation of selling the best candies in this part of the state. In addition to a special line for the holidays, there is a large assortment of candies and goods at the Palace Bakery.

Having been in Denison many years the people know that my guarantee is good and that I will not offer them inferior goods for sale. They also know that my prices are reasonable. I wish to call your attention to the Famous German Heater.

The illustration shows the superior qualities of this stove. It is cheap, economical and the best heater on the market.

The Peoria-Lexington Steel Range,

The best, handsomest and most durable. In making these ranges the best and heaviest steel is used, and cast plates are placed wherever the action of the fire is the most intense. Large feed door. Duplex grate, that can be removed without disturbing the linings. Large ash pan door and deep ash pan. Back flue is made of Cast Iron, as the soot will in time destroy sheet steel, which is generally used for back flues. The casing of the reservoir is made of cast iron, as the dampness of the reservoir soon rusts out a sheet steel casing. Every range guaranteed.

Shelf Hardware, Tinware, Plumbing, and Repairing. All work guaranteed.
