THE NOURSE LECTURE.

The opera house was crowded on Sunday evening to hear Dr. Nourse lecture on "Why I am Not an Infidel." The lecture was full of good thoughts and was very highly appreciated. We wish to again express the thanks of the community to Mr. Failor for his efforts in securing the presence of this noted lecturer.

THE SPEDON LECTURE.

The Spedon entertainment last Thursday evening was to many the most pleasing number so far in the lecture course. Mr. Spedon is an artist of superior excellence, as his work bore evidence. His pictures of famous men in the nation and in Denison were sufficient proof of his power to use the crayon. 'Twas a most novel and instructive entertainment.

WAS BADLY SCALDED.

Little Carmen Seemann was badly scalded Saturday noon. A cup of hot coffee which she was trying to take from the table to give to her papa, overturned, scalding her face and arms frightfully. At first it was feared that she would lose her sight, and her parents were greatly relieved when it was found that her eyes were not injured. The little lady is now recovering nicely but we fear it will be a long and painful process.

HOBSON'S CHOICE.

The Council Bluffs Nonpareil fooled the Denison newspaper fraternity into going to the train Monday afternoon to see the great and only Hobson. The handsome foreman of the Bulletin was on hand and his ripe lips were puckered for a sweet seductive kiss. The hero of the Merrimac escaped by going over the Santa Fe route instead of the Northwestern. After his record breaking career of 163 kisses in a single evening at Chicago he evidently preferred some quiet route like the Sante Fe to the busy populous country traversed by the Northwestern.

NO FRIDAY PAPER.

THE REVIEW was unable to issue its regular edition last Friday, and its readers were forced to get along with but a 36 page paper. We regret this very much but owing to the sickness of two of our office force and the immense amount of labor involved in stitching, pasting, trimming and mailing our Christmas paper, we were forced to abandon the Friday issue. This is the first time we have "slipped a cog" for a long time.

We know the joke is on us, we went for Br'er Bulletin for its skippety-hop, semi occasional issues, and now that we have missed an issue we expect our contemporary to take full advantage of the situation. We acknowledge that for once we have had to follow the Bulletin's tactics, but we would respectfully suggest that whenever we do it is a step backward. All we can do is to offer our Christmas edition as an apology and stand any amount of guffing the other fellow is inclined to give us. Had it been any other paper the people would not have missed it, but with the REVIEW it is different.

DISTRICT TEACHERS' MEETING.

The Denison District Teachers' meeting at the High School building last Saturday was well attended, and most inspiring and instructive. County Superintendent's talk on County examinations brought forth an animated discussion. Miss Austin's paper on "The Needs of the Country School" was a well written production. Township high schools was one improvement advocated. Supt. Herson, of Manilla, read a splendid paper on "The Teacher and the Common Schools." His presence at the meeting was greatly appreciated. Miss Raines' paper on "The Relation between Parents and Teachers" was a thoughtful production, worthy the careful consideration of all parents and teachers. The paper will be given in full in Friday's issue. Mrs. Pierce discussed the paper from the parent's standpoint. Her discussion could not fail to help teachers. Mr. Van Ness presented the subject of arithmetic in his usual clear and attractive manner. The address of Mr. S. S. Plimpton, President of the Denison School Board, was an inspiration to every one present. Where the schools are in the hands of such directors, educational interests must always advance. The music by Miss Raines' and Miss Smith's pupils was an attractive feature of the program. In fact the consensus of opinion is that it was the best meeting of the kind Denison has had in a long time.

The Woodmen of the World took in a number of new members Saturday night. The lodge is in a flourishing condition with over one hundred members. A ladies' auxiliary was organized last night and promises to be a great success.

Mrs. Pat. Hederman died at Arion Saturday morning at 9 o'clock and was buried Sunday in the Catholic cemetery at Denison. She was 28 years old, and was married two years ago to Pat. Hederman. She leaves a husband and a little child a year old, and a host of relatives and friends. She came to this country from Ireland when a little girl, and has been a resident of Arion about five years.

Prospective Husbands

can hasten the fatal day by purchasing a box of fine bon-bons of I. L. Pease and presenting to the proper person about Christmas time.

Daniel Robertson, of Manilla, was in Denison Sunday.

Mrs. T. C. McCarty went to Kenwood to visit with friends today.

Mr. Claus Strathman, of Hays township, was in Denison Monday.

Andrew Harrington, of Vail, was a Denison visitor on Saturday.

Mr. J. G. Shumaker, of Charter Oak, was in Denison on court matters yesterday.

Mr. M. W. Meade, of Hartington, Nebraska, is visiting his brother, Patrick Meade.

Miss Glennie Paine and Mrs. Alfred Tempest, of Vail, were visitors in Denison last week.

Messrs. Albert Bagge and Peter Egen, of Charter Oak, drove over from Charter Oak Monday.

Miss Maud Hunter returned to Denison Friday after spending several busy weeks in Charter Oak.

Mr. F. C. Liscomb, of Boyer township, is spending the week in the county seat, serving on the petit jury.

The Lake View Resort contains a newsy correspondence from Wall Lake, written in rhyme. This is something new.

Miss Maggie Pelley, who has been visiting Denison friends, expects to return to her home in Albion, Nebraska, next Friday.

Mr. Sam O'Hara, a promising young attorney who has just recently located in Vail, was in Denison on legal business last week.

E. O. Thiem, the popular grocery clerk of Orkin Bros., has made some valuable improvements on his property east of McKim hall. He now occupies a cozy home.

An advertiser in the Independence Bulletin-Journal heads his announcement "Stuffing for Stockings." We did not think Independence folks needed to pad.

Among our new exchanges is the Washington News Letter, a paper devoted to Christian Science. It seems to be much in earnest and is withal a very readable paper.

Mr. James Barrett is now in Denison greeting his many old time friends. He intends locating in Denison as an attorney but will not hang out his shingle until after New Years.

Mr. F. A. Biglow will after January 1, occupy the cottage on Main street now occupied by Mr. A. B. Thompson. Mr. Thompson will move into his cottage recently purchased in east Denison.

The Gulick household enjoyed a visit from Mrs. Shaw and Enid over Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Shaw came from Des Moines to join Enid who had stopped here on her way from Mt. Vernon.

Miss Addie Wright left on Monday afternoon for Denver. She will make a brief visit in Missouri Valley before journeying farther west. Colonel and Mrs. Wright left on Monday evening for Denver.

Messrs. P. D. McMahon and Martin Neal were brief Denison visitors Monday. Mr. McMahon states that the REVIEW's Christmas edition was well received at Charter Oak and that the postoffice was fairly ablaze with gold.

The Coterie club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Hugo Gebert. Mrs. Charles Voss was awarded first prize in the guessing contest. A delightful afternoon was brought to a close by the serving of a delicious lunch by the hostess.

Speaking of Bryan the Bulletin-Journal of Independence says: "W. J. Bryan has resigned his job in the army. Bryan was solely a political Cononel, who went in for buncombe, made a dead failure, and comes out without credit."

Miss Cecil Matthews, of Omaha, was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. J. H. Mahoney last week. Miss Matthews has been attending college at Cornell and her many Denison friends were greatly pleased to have the opportunity of visiting with her.

Francis Gibson, of Paradise township, has purchased a number of lots in east Denison and it is quite probable that he will build in the spring and come to Denison to live. He is a good citizen and we sincerely hope that he will decide to make the move.

Mr. Franz Heppner, our industrious shoemaker, has purchased several lots in the Holmes' addition and will build as soon as weather permits. Frantz is quite a fruit grower and we predict that it will not be many years before his garden blossoms like the rose.

Mr. Freedman, of Carroll, is spending several days in Denison in the interest of the Catholic Mutual Protection Society of Iowa. This society is an insurance company established over twenty years ago and it now has a good standing throughout the state.

The college literary societies have prepared a fine program for Wednesday night at the college chapel. The program includes pantomimes, a Grecian play, a farce and numerous other attractions. The admission is but 15 cents, and they should have a large crowd.
