TWO DAMAGE SUITS.

City Defendant in Two Suits Cared by Defective Side-Walks.

MAY BE VERY COSTLY

Miss McCarthy Asks $5,000 for Injury Received last November.—Mr. Smith Sues for Injury.

Two cases have recently been brought against the city for damages. The first is one in which Miss McCarthy is plaintiff. It is alleged that on Thanksgiving day she fell through a hole in the crossing east of J. G. Wygant's, and that the fall resulted in a straining of the muscles and cords of the shoulder, and that she has been unable to work since that time and that in all probability she will not be able to do so for some time. Miss McCarthy was cook at the Wilson house and she and her parents were dependent upon her efforts for their support. The suit is for $5000.

The second case was brought by C. R. Smith and J. P. Miller & Co. are co-defendants with the city. Mr. Smith alleges that he fell through an improperly covered coal chute in front of Miller's hardware department and suffered an injury to his leg which has disabled him.

We do not know the merits of these cases and we do not wish to prejudice our readers in advance one way or the other. If there is justice in the claims the city should not allow them to go before the courts, but should settle them to the best possible advantage and with fairness to all.

Unnecessary litigation should always be avoided, and the city will be none the gainer if it were unduly obstinate in allowing just claims. On the other hand there often are impositions practiced, and especially when the city has the reputation of being an easy victim. In short if the claims are unjust they should be fought to the finish, if they are just they should be settled without litigation.

ATTENTION.

John A. Logan Post, No. 58, Dept. of Iowa.

There will be a joint installation of officers of Post No. 58, W. R. C. and Sons of Veterans Friday evening, Jan. 13, 1899. All old soldiers of the county and their friends are respectfully invited to attend said meeting at McHenry hall. The pastors of the several churches of Denison, Iowa are respectfully invited to meet with us Jan. 13th at half past seven p. m. at McHenry hall.

A. J. BOND,
Post Commander.
R. MONTGOMERY,
Adjutant.

THE CONTESTS.

The Grand Guessing Contests are proving such a success that our contemporaries are fairly turning green with envy. They accuse it of being a lottery scheme, and one paper even tries to inject politics into the matter. The REVIEW does not claim that the idea was original, it was most successfully used by the Omaha Bee, and the Iowa City Press, the official democratic organ of Johnson county is now conducting a similar contest. The lottery bluff don't go gentlemen, why not acknowledge that the REVIEW is the paper of Denison, the most read, the best liked, the most reliable, and the most enterprising? Meanwhile the coupon boxes are filling up at all the stores. The old as well as the young are becoming more and more interested, and the guesses are coming thick and fast. Do not fail to clip your coupons and make your guesses. It costs you nothing and your ability as a guesser may earn you a substantial reward. In the meantime our fellow criminals, the merchants, are thriving under the load of crime and smilingly watching the crowds coming into their stores to guess. We would advise our contemporaries as well as our other readers to guess again.

LOST—A MAN.

Harry Stewart who has been working for Chas. Smith of this township, is lost. Saturday he came to town with a check for about $200. He cashed the check and flashed his roll and then disappeared. Mr. Smith became alarmed by his not returning to the farm and Sunday a large number of men were out looking for him fearing foul play. Later it is said that he went to Dow City Saturday night, and left for parts unknown.

BAND CONCERT.

The band concert to be given at Germania hall tomorrow evening promises to be one of the best ever given in this city. The band under the leadership of Mr. A. H. ### THE RAILROAD DECISION.

The railway injunction cases were decided at Jefferson on Saturday morning. The Northwestern gains block 12 as prayed and the Illinois Central is prevented from condemning right of way through blocks 15, etc. To the friends of the Illinois Central this seems a jug handle decision, while the Northwestern advocates think it was just right. The REVIEW as a nonpartisan knows nothing about the matter, but is inclined to give Judge Church credit for honesty in his decision. There is one thing we do know, however, and that is that the Illinois Central must come to Denison. It would seem that the Northwestern line is assured, and while not wishing to give that line the cold shoulder in any way, and while favoring concession to it of all its officials may reasonably ask, it is now the business of Denison to turn its attention to assisting to secure for the Illinois Central good and favorable depot grounds and location. We are thankful for what we have but like Oliver Twist we want "more." It should be the business of the city council to do everything in its power to assist the Central. We are assured that there is grave danger of the Illinois Central passing Denison by, or locating its depot on the far grounds. This must not be. One cannot be sure as to what a railroad company will do. Larger towns than this have been fooled by over confidence. The Milwaukee passed Cedar Rapids and located its shops at Marion, the Rock Island passed Ft. Dodge and located at Para, the B. C. R. & N. gave Mason City the cold shoulder, all because those cities were too confident and exacting. We want both roads and want them badly. We want Denison to be the principal inland city of Western Iowa and we can make it so if we all pull together, and if our council acts with wisdom, consideration and fairness to both. If they do not the people of Denison will never forgive them.

Teachers' Association Meets at Dow City January 14th.

A teachers' association will be held in the high school room, Dow City, Saturday, January 14, commencing at 2 o'clock. The following program has been prepared:

- Music.....Miss Scott's pupils
  - "Whispering".....Paper by Miss Dora Young
  - Discussion.....Paul Poitevin and Miss Kate Goodrich.
  - "Busy Work".....Paper by Miss Susie Craft
  - Discussion.....Don Talcott and Miss Emma Downs.
  - Music.....Miss Scott's pupils
  - "Our Schools from the Standpoint of the Patrons".....Mr. Geo. Rae, of the Dow City School Board.
  - "An Illustrated Talk".....Prof. R. Masters, of the Denison Normal College.
- Everybody is invited to attend these meetings. Come and be prepared to say something.

AN UNMITIGATED ASS.

We are in receipt of a copy of the Arlingtonee Brush Creek, News. On the paper is a pink tag as follows: "To the Editor: If you make a mention of Curtis or this article will you kindly send a marked copy to the News and we will send you further exposures of this rascal?" The subject matter is an inane, senseless attack on one Curtis who now occupies an enviable (?) position in the state penitentiary. There are two times when a man should be left alone, when he is dead and when he is the penitentiary. What the editor of the News expects to gain by giving his readers the disgusting details of Curtis' record is more than we can see. We will send him a marked copy as he requests.

CUPID'S VICTORY.

This is the caption under which the University Quill tells of the marriage of Mr. J. H. Fellingham and Miss Winnie Marsh of Charles City. Mr. Fellingham is the son of A. P. Fellingham of West Side, and is a young man who is a credit to his town and county. We congratulate the young couple and wish them much happiness. The Quill says: "We are glad to announce that Mr. Fellingham, who has been suffering for four years from a wound inflicted by the arrow of Eros, is now on the high road to recovery. On January 5, at high noon, in Charles City, Iowa, Miss Winnie Marsh and Mr. J. H. Fellingham were united in marriage. Mr. Fellingham and Miss Marsh are both graduates of the State Normal, '94, and during their last year there, held the positions of chief executive in the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. Mr. and Mrs. Fellingham are at home at 207 Fairchild. The Quill extends congratulations, and the customary good wishes.

SHAW VAN AFTER ALL.

On account of illness Col. Geo. L. Wright has failed to qualify as county attorney and the board of supervisors has passed a resolution asking R. Shaw Van to give bond and qualify as county attorney until the next general election. Mr. Shaw Van is to get the benefit of the raise of salary recently made, but as he prefers not to move his office into the court house he will pay his own office rent out of the $775 now given as salary. The room vacated by Supt. Myers will be used about three or four times a year as a jury room and the county will pay in all $151.00 a year extra on account of the board's order. It is all wrong, but the board evidently prefers to be wrong rather than go back on its previous order. It may be gratifying to their pride but the people pay the bill. The county attorney fight will thus be up for hearing again this fall. The opponents of Mr. Shaw Van are sadly put out at their failure to put him out.

SOME FINE POULTRY.

Mr. E. O. Thiem's Stock Wins Prizes in England. Mr. E. O. Thiem has long been noted in this county as a breeder of fine fancy poultry, the following letter received from John Wharton, of Yorkshire, England, shows how Mr. Thiem's Crawford county chickens are appreciated abroad. "You will perhaps have expected a letter from me ere this to say how the Partridge cock Grover has done in the show pen under our English judges. I have shown him ten times and he has won two medals, four gold and other specials, nine firsts and one second prize, including first at the Crystal Palace Show. He is greatly admired and he now looks at his best. If you have a real good rooster of Grover's stamp and size that you can spare me at any time just let me know and I am the buyer." Mr. Thiem has shipped many chickens abroad and is constantly receiving inquiries for them from over the world. Thus Crawford has not only the best herd of Aberdeen Angus cattle in America but the finest of fine chickens also.

A GOOD ADVERTISER.

There is advertising and advertising. The good advertiser, the one the newspaper likes if it be a live newspaper, is the man who takes a personal interest in his advertising, who makes it a department of his business and who advertises in a straightforward manly way.

Fake advertisements hurt a newspaper and lessen the value of every other advertisement in the paper. Dead ads are of little benefit to live business. Denison has many good advertisers, many who know how to get more than their money's worth out of every inch of space. Mr. T. J. Kelly is one of these. He keeps copies of all his advertisements in a book, ready for reference and comparison, he also writes his "ads" in a straightforward way which cannot fail to interest the reader. Some of our readers will doubtless remember his advertisement in the REVIEW during December, headed "A Business Proposition." Concerning this advertisement, the specialist in the "Shoe and Leather Gazette" says, "It is a well prepared ad and is just what it implies. It presents a plain business proposition, which is well calculated to have effect." The writer then copies the ad in full. Mr. Kelly advertises a clearance sale in this issue in order to prepare for the extensive changes he is about to make in his store.
