A couple of our citizens indulged in a little hand to hand combat last week, and of course as usual the party receiving the most grief in the affair had his opponent brought before a justice. We have not as yet learned the decision in the case, but hope it will tend to prevent any more such capers.

A SOLDIER'S STORY.

Serving His Country He Fell a Victim of Rheumatism.

Suffered Unspeasable Torture for Many Years—Every Remedy Failed to Help Him, "Till He Used DODDS Kidney Pills—They Cured Him.

Minneapolis, Jan 20. "I have suffered fifteen years with chronic rheumatism, said Amos H. Watkins of 422 Hennipen Avenue, this city. I have been service in different climates and hardships I bore sowed the seeds of disease in my system and nourished until it had me completely in its toils. My sufferings were past the power of words to describe, every joint was a furnace of fiery, burning pain. Every movement seemed to tear my flesh asunder. I used remedy after remedy, but all with the same result—Failure. Finally, "Thank God," I was advised to use DODDS Kidney Pills, I did so, and the result is told in three words—they cured me. I must say they have worked a miracle in my case as I have not felt a pain since I took them." Mr. Watkins knows whereof he speaks, and his word cannot be doubted. Is not his experience with DODDS Kidney Pills enough to prove beyond dispute that DODDS Kidney Pills are the one, the only one on earth for rheumatism? DODDS Kidney Pills are sold by all druggists.

When returning from one of our neighbors last Wednesday Mr. C. F. Rothe met with a serious accident. One of the pins holding the single-tree broke and at this the horses became unmanageable and ran away. The sleigh was overturned and Mr. Rothe thrown out. He fortunately received only slight injuries. The horses had gone but a short distance when the tongue of the sleigh fell and broke in pieces. It being toy, one of the horses slipped and fell. In falling a piece of the wood ran into its side. It is feared it will die. We are glad however that Mr. Rothe escaped without any serious injuries.

While your correspondent was en route to Denison Wednesday, he witnessed an operation at Arion on a man who fell from between the bumpers of a Northwestern freight train. Drs. Wright of Denison and Evans and Coon of Arion removed the right hand at the wrist and the toes from one foot. Too bad—a big, strong man, made a cripple for life, trying to save a few cents fare. WOMEN SHOULD KNOW IT.

Many women suffer untold agony and misery because the nature of their disease is not properly understood. They have been led to believe that women trouble or female weakness of some sort is responsible for the many ills that beset womankind.
Neuralgia, nervousness, headache, puffy or dark circles under the eyes, rheumatism, a dragging pain or dull ache in the back, weakness or bearing down sensation, profuse or scanty supply of urine with strong odor, frequent desire to pass it, with scalding or burning sensation, sediment in it after standing in a bottle or common glass for twenty-four hours, are signs of kidney and bladder trouble.
The above symptoms are often attributed by the patient herself or by her physician to female weakness or womb trouble. Hence, so many fail to obtain relief, because they are treating, not the disease itself, but a reflection of the primary cause, which is kidney trouble.
In fact, women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same remedy.
Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root is the great discovery of the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is easy to get at any drug store for fifty cents or one dollar.
To prove its wonderful merits you may have a sample bottle and a book telling all about it, both sent absolutely free by mail. Kindly mention Denison Review and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

MORMONS AND POLYGAMY.

Elder Butterworth Roundly Denounces the Utah Mormons for their Polygamous Practices. He Shows What Joseph Smith Taught.
(Carroll Herald.)

Editor Carroll Herald: The enclosed clipping from your paper of January 4, 1899, was sent to me by Elder Bennam Salisbury, who is one of your subscribers, with the request that I write up an answer and send it to you for publication.
[The article referred to is given here in full.—Ed.]

New York, Dec. 31.—A Salt Lake special to the Evening World says Congressman-Elect B. H. Roberts has made the following statement to the Evening World correspondent:
"If a time comes when it is necessary to defend myself I shall be there, right on the spot, and I appreciate that the members of congress and the American people are more liberal, broad minded and generous than a few bigoted and contracted preachers of the Presbyterian church, whose training, mode of life and trend of thought tend to unfit them for practical life."
"Joseph Smith received a commandment from the Lord to introduce our order of marriage into the church and on the strength of that revelation and not by means of anything that is written in the Jewish scriptures. If a time comes when it is necessary to defend myself I shall be there, right on the spot, and I appreciate that the members of congress and the American people are more liberal, broad minded and generous than a few bigoted and contracted preachers of the Presbyterian church, whose training, mode of life and trend of thought tend to unfit them for practical life."
"Joseph Smith received a commandment from the Lord to introduce our order of marriage into the church and on the strength of that revelation and not by means of anything that is written in the Jewish scriptures. If a time comes when it is necessary to defend myself I shall be there, right on the spot, and I appreciate that the members of congress and the American people are more liberal, broad minded and generous than a few bigoted and contracted preachers of the Presbyterian church, whose training, mode of life and trend of thought tend to unfit them for practical life."

"Notwithstanding this, and in the hand of the Gentiles was laid so heavy upon the people of the Lord that in his mercy, God permitted them to cease therefrom from expediency and true to the pledges which no polygamous marriages have since been celebrated by the church. But not even the church can take away from man the word which has already given him. They are his for time and eternity, and I think the great, broad minded and just American people will not require a man to cast off the wives he has, with whom he has lived, nor abandon his children."
"At the most Mr. Roberts says his offense is unlawful collaboration, and he remarked: "I am here and the courts are open. If I want to test the case the way is clear."

As ministers of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of L. D. S., we wish to state that as the reading public is aware of the fact that there is no affiliation between the Utah Mormon church and the reorganization with its headquarters at Lamoni, Iowa, it is not necessary to make a lengthy reply. Polygamy is no where taught in any of Joseph Smith's writings or revelations which were received or endorsed by the church up to the time of his death, June 27, 1854. The revelation referred to by Mr. B. H. Roberts was not made known or presented to the church until eight years after Smith's death, which was August, 1852. Said revelation never was presented to the church and examined and endorsed as the law of the church requires. Brigham Young only claimed to have had a copy of said revelation. In the book of Mormon we read as follows: "Wherefore, my brethren, hear me and hearken to the word of the Lord; for there shall not any man among you have save it be one wife; and concubines he shall have none; for I, the Lord God, delighteth in the chastity of women."—Jacob, chap. 2, L. O. In the book of Doctrine and Covenants, sec. 427, we read: "Thou shalt love thy wife unto her and none else." The law of the church requires parties contracting marriages to agree to the following: "You both mutually agree to be each others companion husband and wife, observing the legal rights belonging to this condition; that is, keeping yourselves wholly for each other, and from all others, during your lives." Gen. Dioneaphan in speaking of the history of the Saints as late as 1852, said: "Polygamy, at that time had not been heard of."—Kansas City Journal-Herald, June 15, 1881.

Joseph Smith's widow, who afterwards married Major Bidaman said to her son Joseph during her last illness: "No such thing as polygamy, or spiritual wifery, was taught, publicly, privately, before my husband's death, that I have now, or ever had any knowledge of."
Q. "Did he not have other wives than yourself?"
A. "He had no other wife but me, nor did he to my knowledge ever have."
Q. "Did he not hold marital relations with women other than than your self?"
A. "He did not have improper relations with any woman that ever came to my knowledge."
There is much more that I would like to say but not wishing to trespass on your valuable space I will close.
Respectfully,
C. C. BUTTERWORTH, P. D.
