KIRON CHRONICLES

The cold weather keeps all at home and very little is being done which would furnish ye scribe with news.

The sale of John Swanson was not very well attended, owing to the intense cold; likewise the sale of John Palm.

Chas. Nord took his departure for the west on Monday to look up a location for his future activity in Wyoming.

Two contractors spent a couple of days last week looking over the line for the new road, and they may possibly put in a bid for the grading.

New boarders have registered at the following homes the past week, and will remain permanently: E. Sievers, Swan Mauritz and John Henson. It is a little Miss at each place.

HAPPENINGS AT BELL

Eli Kron is on the sick list.

Gary Davial was at Arion Tuesday.

Charlie Henderson called on Paradise people Sunday.

Mrs. Robert Flastor visited at George Jordan's last week.

Several Bell people attended the sale at the poor farm last week.

Wm. Blackman and Eli Kron were at Denison this week on business.

John Burkholder shipped two cars of stock to So. Omaha Sunday. He is getting to be quite a cattle man.

The reason the writer failed to send the usual letter last week was from the fact that he was trying to keep his bees from swarming.

We learn that Mr. Jordan has purchased the grain office of the Kansas City Grain Company at Bell and will move it on his farm on the Willow, Mr. Jackson, of Dunlap doing the moving.

GOODRICH GOSSIP.

E. Fink will have a sale the last of the month.

H. P. Simmon, of Oo., is visiting at Wm. Cruzan's.

M. Ainsworth is having quite a sieze with neuralgia.

John Lewis and wife are having a serious time with bad colds.

J. C. Hitchings is doing carpenter work for Elmer Winans at Deloit City.

P. W. and Mrs. Irwin Christianson made a trip to Dow City last week, visiting at Mr. C's sister.

E. K. Snell, A. Pobanz, Jas. Newton, Earl Winey and M. Ainsworth are busy clearing off the box elders on the Ill. Central right of way.

Bills are out announcing the sale of A. C. Campbell, who on account of poor health has decided to quit farming and move to Denison.

The residents of the western half of this township must remember that we have paid extra taxes and helped them build new school houses and they, remembering the golden rule, should rally to our support. District No. 6 must be divided.

We wish to thank Bro. Caswell, of the Bulletin for calling the attention of his readers to our article in the Goodrich correspondence concerning the "Rigid Economy" practiced by our Honorable Board of Supervisors, otherwise it might have been overlooked.

HAPPENINGS AT VAIL.

Assessor Wood is going his yearly rounds.

John Ainsworth was up from Denison the fore part of the week.

Messrs. W. S. Kelly and Hans Voss are the new saloon keepers in the John Ayers building.

Jas. Brogan and wife of Winterset are visiting relatives and friends and attended the Brogan-Giblin wedding.

Rev. Thos. Maxwell will begin a series of revival meetings Monday night at the Milford center school house.

Vail came near having a coal famine the fore part of the week. The extremely cold weather created a demand that our dealers were not expecting.

The firemen's ball Wednesday night was not very well attended on account of the extremely cold weather. Some sixty numbers had been sold previously which helped the boys out.

Miss Kittie Giblin and Mr. John Brogan were married Wednesday morning at the St. Ann's church by Father Murphy. After the wedding a reception was given at the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Giblin, ten miles south of Vail. These young people have a wide circle of friends who congratulate.

CASTORIA.
The Kind You Have Always Bought is on every drug store.

Pimples, Bolls

or any impurities of the blood will be entirely eradicated by the use of Knaul's Exact Sarsaparilla, which is compounded after one of the most scientific formulas. I have sold a great many bottles of this valuable remedy with the best of satisfaction, but never advertised same until perfectly satisfied of its worth. The greatest medicine to take as an invigorator in spring season. Try a bottle and be convinced of its merit. Respectfully,
R. KNAUL.

CHARTER OAK CHATS

Miss Marie Hulick, who has been staying with Mrs. McGraw, returned to her home in Nebraska Saturday.

Mrs. Wm. Antrim entertained a few young people Thursday evening in honor of T. E. Thurnall of Wyoming.

The attendance at the special meetings at the Presbyterian church has been greatly affected by the cold weather.

On Friday evening Miss Josie Dubois gave a farewell party for Marie Hulick. A number of young people were present and a very pleasant time was spent in playing games, etc. A delightful lunch was served and in all it was a very pleasant gathering.

PRESBYTERIAN.

The services at the Presbyterian church last Sabbath were largely attended and greatly enjoyed.

Revival services began Monday evening conducted by Rev. F. H. Shedd, of Sioux City. Mr. Shedd is an able preacher and should have a large attendance.

M. E. NOTES.

The Ladies' Aid society met on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Bamford.

Subject next Sabbath morning—"What is the Effectual Fervent Prayer of a Righteous Man?" Evening subject—"An Unruly Ox."

The concert given on Sabbath evening by the Junior Epworth League was enjoyed by the large congregation that gathered to hear the little folks. The recitation delivered by Mrs. Garrett was especially fine and very much enjoyed. At the beginning of the conference year this league had a membership of fifteen, today it numbers eighty.

NEWS OF WEST SIDE

Miss Anna Buck has gone to Mapleton.

Frozen noses and ears seem to be the order of the day.

Frank Gary shipped 4 car loads of hogs to Chicago this week.

Mrs. Bramer of Dedham is visiting her daughter, Mrs. B. G. Hess.

Rev. Schori held divine services in the German Lutheran church Sunday.

Prof. Harthun of the Denison Zeitung spent an hour among his friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Dornan and the little folks of Boone were out to visit M. C. Couels.

Sam Easterly of Carroll was down looking after things in the carpenter line of work.

The church people are making preparations to feelingly celebrate Washington's birthday.

The Iowa railroad officials passed over the road west Wednesday on a special passenger train.

C. B. Smith of the general claim department was out this way and stopped off to visit Mr. Gary and family.

Editor Herre of the West Side Journal was down the road the other day looking after some business matters.

Sam Blackman has laid in a supply of current reading such as the Century and other standard magazines. This will no doubt be appreciated by the reading public.

PERSONAL AND IMPERSONAL.

John D. Rockefeller, despite his millions, carries a plain, cheap silver watch given him when he was a boy.

Of all New York's millionaires Cornelius Vanderbilt is said to be the most sensitive to criticism, particularly criticism in print.

A railroad accident 20 years ago deprived Henry Wendhoff, a millionaire of Mauch Chunk, Pa., of arms and legs. He wears four artificial limbs.

Gen. H. W. Lawton, of Santiago fame, is a collector of army autographs and has the signature of several hundred of the most famous soldiers of our army.

The London Optician says that great men are usually blue-eyed, and instances Shakespeare, Socrates, Locke, Bacon, Milton, Goethe, Franklin, Napoleon, Bismarck, Gladstone, Huxley, Virchow and Renan.

NEWS OF DOW CITY.

J. L. Butterworth shelled corn for John Ahart Tuesday.

Postmaster Wiggins is confined to his home on account of sickness. We hope for immediate recovery.

Our drayman, C. C. Booth, is hauling hard coal for the public school whose shed was emptied of its store of fuel last week.

Elder Baker drove over to Manteno last Wednesday to preach a funeral sermon. It was one of the most disagreeable days of the season, the mercury registering 26 degrees below zero.

Mr. Kepford, who lived about a mile east of town, died at his home last Wednesday afternoon after many weeks of sickness. Mr. Kepford was one of the early settlers in this part of the country. He was about 79 years old and well and favorably known.

A family living in the Sanitarium over Jos. McColl's office were discovered in very destitute circumstances one day this week, having insufficient fuel, clothing or food. Some of our citizens exercised great charity by relieving them from starvation and exposure.

The W. C. T. U. had an announcement for a meeting at Mrs. D. M. Road's Wednesday afternoon, but no one was present. There is plenty of opportunity for an organization of this kind to do good and it should not be ignored by those who are in sympathy with it.

Marshal Butler was around this week giving each family in town some meal tickets to give to tramps who may chance to inquire at our back door for "a bite to eat." The tramp is to present this ticket to the city marshal who will direct him to a place where refreshments may be had under certain conditions. We think this a very wise provision and hope the ordinance will not be imposed upon.

JACKSON JOTTINGS.

The dance at Joe Rozark's last Saturday evening was a complete success and was attended by a large crowd.

Considerable damage has been done during the past two weeks by the zero weather. Jack Frost visited every point in town.

Charlie Cahoe, of Omaha, stopped off while returning from a trip to Chicago for a couple of weeks' visit with old friends in Jackson.

The Ill. Central Ry. is having considerable trouble purchasing right of way near Vail as farmers are asking entirely too much for their land.

The new town site on the Hering farm in Sec. 6 unit is now marked by a large ice house constructed by Neis Wright to be used in his reamery business.

We understand that Will Ohnoy has purchased a lot in the new town site on the Hering farm, where he intends building a fine residence as soon as the weather permits.

It is reported that two cars of cattle last Wednesday were under the train with a collision near Chicago, but no serious damage was done except his cattle were delayed for the drop in Friday's market.

All our articles in this week in Chicago having an operation performed on his cancer which made the fourth operation. We learn that Mr. Currice has this time changed doctors.

A few of George Lawler's friends gathered at his home last Saturday evening and spent a few hours in social enjoyment, and not until the golden sun rays illuminated the eastern skies did the merry guests depart for their homes, a satisfaction that it was an evening well spent.

ALL ABOUT DELOIT.

Sam Anderson attended Woodmen lodge last Saturday evening.

Sol. Laughery and Tom Hopper made a visit to Charter Oak last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Halberg visited at the home of Mit Childress recently.

Mrs. George Winans, who has been seriously ill is slowly recovering.

George Jordan, Doc Brogden and D. Albright were putting up ice last week.

Johnson and Keith are making good use of their engine by way of grinding feed and sawing wood.

Clay Miller and Miss Edna Bagge, of Denison, and Frank Barton, of Vail, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Miller.

C. Franks has completed his job of J. D. Johnson is hauling over his grain, preparatory to moving on his place in Leota the first of March.

J. B. Dawson was unusually happy last Thursday morning as he set up the treats to his many friends. All on account of the arrival of a new son that came to make his home with him and estimable wife Feb. 1.

BLACKSMITHING

I wish to announce that I am prepared to do all kinds of blacksmith work in first-class shape and at prices as low as is consistent with good labor and material.
Horse-Shoeing a Specialty. TOM BATEMAN.

Stop

that cough. Take Knaul's White Pine Cough Balsam sold at 25c and 50c per bottle. If it does not cure you bring back the bottle. We will cheerfully return your money, what more do you ask.
