

DENISON AND VICINITY.

Jubilee Singers Saturday night.

Lecture tomorrow, Wednesday, evening.

Mrs. M. Mahive, of Kenwood, is still quite poorly.

James Dawes, of Chicago, is visiting friends in the city.

P. E. C. Lally was in Jefferson on business the first of the week.

Miss Lou Crandall, of Dow City, spent Saturday afternoon in the city.

Miss Bradley, of Council Bluffs, is the guest of the Sarachon Sisters this week.

Mrs. Henry Bell visited with friends in Dow City the latter part of the week.

Miss Blanche Wise visited over Sunday with her friend, Miss Bessie Robertson.

Brown Romans was over to his home in Charter Oak over Saturday and Sunday.

The Misses Maggie Howarth and Dell Marshall were visiting at Dunlap yesterday.

Mrs. Hank Cummings and daughter went to Dunlap Saturday to visit a few days.

Mr. New, of the Denison College, spent his vacation at his home in Arcadia.

Dr. Hal C. Simpson spent Sunday in West Side and Carroll, returning in the evening.

Wm. Haley, of Kenwood, began a spring term of school in Paradise center yesterday.

Dr. Robt. McIntyre will be the guest of Mr. J. P. Conner while in the city tomorrow.

Theo. Carter left yesterday for Silver City, New Mexico, where he is interested in mining.

One sign of spring is the taking up of the temporary board walk in front of the postoffice.

Messrs. John Tamm and W. D. Judd are on a hunting trip over near Onawa for a few days.

Tomorrow the city fathers will listen to assessment complaints. Go early and avoid the rush.

Miss Nellie Stevens returned last Friday from a brief trip to Texas over the Port Arthur route.

Speaking about newspapers, is not this issue about as complete a county paper as you ever saw?

Carefully inspect the census list; this is the last publication. Work on the directory will begin at once.

Henry C. Simons and family of Odebolt, accompanied by his father, were visiting at J. J. Eastin's a few days last week.

Miss Abbie McHenry expects to leave for Hebron, Neb., this week, for a visit with her friend, Miss Jessica Morgan.

Mr. Henry Schwartz, Jr., who came from Montana to attend the funeral of Mrs. Alex Aebischer, expects to return next Thursday.

Now is the time for the renovator man to advertise. There is plenty of that kind of work to be done if people knew to whom to go.

"Juddie Bond may have made some mistakes," said Auditor Carey, "but I do not believe Denison ever had a more honest and painstaking assessor."

The board of supervisors will meet in adjourned session May 2, for the purpose of attending to the work of assessment and to let two important bridge contracts.

Geo. H. Boeck returned Tuesday morning from Chicago where he had been with stock. On his return he stopped at Davenport and made his parents a short visit.

Mr. E. O. Thiem will be at Vail during the next two weeks, where he will assist Mr. C. E. Price in the bank. Mrs. Thiem is still at the bedside of Mrs. Leslie Kinyon, who is slowly recovering.

Mr. Jacob Rusterholtz was adjudged insane by the county commissioners and was taken to the hospital at Clarinda last Saturday. He is not violently insane and strong hopes are entertained for his recovery.

Miss Gertie French was called to Dow City yesterday to teach the grammar department of their schools the remainder of the year, the place being vacant on account of illness. Miss French is a most competent teacher.

Mr. Emmanuel Orkin has returned from St. Louis where he has been in St. John's hospital for the past five weeks. He is looking in splendid health and cannot speak too highly of the doctors and nurses of the hospital.

The Review has just received a copy of the annual report of the State Horticultural Society. As we are not particularly interested in this subject we will gladly give it to the first fruit grower among our subscribers who may call for it.

Wm. Butterworth of Charter Oak made an overland trip to Denison Thursday.

Mr. Carey and wife are the happy parents of twin boys who came last week. We congratulate.

The Misses Higley, of the Denison College enjoyed their vacation under the parental roof at Dow City.

Robt. Shoshire of Hanover township took some cattle to Neb. last week to graze on the western prairies. We wish Mr. Shoshire success in his new home and occupation.

Special meetings continue at the Baptist church each afternoon and evening. Rev. Duboc preaches, subject for Tuesday evening, "The Attracting Christ;" Wednesday evening, "Excuses." All invited.

We learn that Mr. Henry C. Simons of Odebolt has just received a patent on a new kind of washing machine which is simpler and more durable than any washing machine now on the market, and which will undoubtedly prove a great success to its inventor.

The fine weather of Sunday brought out all the "gentle Annies" and their beaux. There were buggy rides, and long walks, and lingering farewells at door ways and gates. It is the same old story that we hope will never grow old. We have all been there, or should have been, and Heaven help the beau who has no "Gentle Annie," and the "Gentle Annie" who has no sweetheart lad.

There will be quite an exodus to Montana this week. Mr. Carsten Christensen will go to visit his daughter, Mrs. Henry Lohfeldt, Henry and Mary Kuhl, who have been spending the winter here, will return to their home in the western state, and Mr. Asmus Clausen, who recently arrived from the Fatherland, will go to seek his fortune in the "wild and woolly west."

The club dance Friday night was a most enjoyable affair about twenty-five couples being present. The out of town participants were Misses Hunter and Baird, of Dunlap, Mr. B. H. Earborka, of Charter Oak, and Mesdames Keane and Ratchford, and Misses Quirk, Maquire, Fitzsimmons and O'Connell and Messrs. O'Hare, Phillips Curry and Sheridan, of Vail, Miss Malchuk, of Davenport, and Miss Littell, of Independence.

On Saturday afternoon occurred the funeral services of Mrs. Alex Aebischer. Our community was greatly grieved by her death and the very large number in attendance at the obsequies attested the esteem and affection in which she was held by all. The services at the house and cemetery were brief but most sad and impressive. Rev. C. G. Clausen officiated. The floral tributes were many and beautiful.

Within the past week Denison has been called upon to mourn the loss of three good and noble women. Women whose love had brightened three happy homes. Women who were faithful and true to their work in life, and leave behind them few but happy memories. May the good God bring consolation to the grieving hearts left behind and may the separation be only a waiting time before a never ending reunion in the skies.

It is laughable to see democratic papers endeavor to get a grain of comfort out of the result of the Chicago city election. Altgeld, the great apostle of Bryanism, the man who the Iowa democrats imported to Denison at great expense last fall, was snubbed under so badly that we fear there is no resurrection for him in this world. Harrison, the winning candidate, is a Croker democrat and not particularly friendly to St. Bryan.

The Crawford County State Bank has furnished a statement of its assets and liabilities of date April 5th, 1899, which is published in this issue of the Review. The statement is most flattering from every standpoint, and shows the bank to be in an excellent condition. It shows the deposits to be in excess of $375,000, and the total footings of the bank fall but a little short of $500,000. The fact that the business of the bank within the last twelve months has increased $100,000 and that the deposits of the bank have increased $110,000 and the loans and discounts $100,000 is conclusive evidence that the bank is well managed and is in safe hands. The stockholders and directors of the bank are composed of the following named persons: L. Cornwall, George Naeve, Charles Tabor, H. F. Schwartz, J. P. Conner and T. J. Garrison. These names are a sufficient guaranty of the solvency of the institution, and the fact that M. E. Jones and C. J. Kemming are in charge of the bank as cashiers, insures its customers the most courteous attention and accommodation. The bank is at all times prepared to make time loans on farm and city property at the very lowest rate of interest.

DIVORCE AND DAMAGE

Make up Majority of Important Cases Before the Court.

COURT SETS ON MONDAY.

Four Divorce Cases and Numerous Damage Suits Are on the Docket. Will be a Sensational Session.

Clerk Kruger has kindly given us information as to the business to come before the next sitting of the district court. There are 127 cases on the docket, 66 law, 37 equity, 25 probate, and one criminal case. Four of the cases are divorce, the majority of which it is stated, will go by default. Another feature of the docket is the exceeding large number of damage suits. The case of DeMay vs. Crawford county is for damage owing to a defective bridge; the cases of McCarthy vs. city; Smith vs. Miller & Co., and Sachau vs. Manila are all of the same nature. Mary Gibbon sues F. O. Bock for selling liquor to her father, Maggie Barrett sues Henricksen and Birk, of Charter Oak, for damages for selling liquors to her husband, while the case of Segebert vs. Ehlers is one in which damages are asked because Ehlers notified saloon keepers not to sell to Segebert. Bock, of Manila, sues Norgaard of the same place, for damages on account of alleged failure to properly fulfill a contract relative to building a house. Hedderman, of Arion, is defendant in a suit for slander, while the case of Bischoff vs. Meyer is a $3000 slander suit also. It seems that there is a peck of trouble brewing or perhaps already brewed. At any rate the lover of sensational will find plenty of it during court week.

A MERRY GO ROUND.

Mr. S. A. Allen has moved into his new house. Mayor Kemming has moved into the house vacated by Allen, Mr. Shirk has moved into the house vacated by Kemming, Mr. Estabrook has moved into the house vacated by Shirk, and we have not learned who has moved into the house vacated by Estabrook.

ART EXHIBIT FOR SCHOOLS.

Supt. Failor has arranged for an Art Exhibit Saturday, April 29th, at the city hall. Miss Myra La Rue, of Omaha, will exhibit a large and choice selection of pictures, reproductions of the finest paintings. The object of the exhibit is two-fold; first, to obtain good pictures for school-room decorations, and second and more important, a greater knowledge of the famous pictures and their authors, as well as the cultivation of a taste for the best in art. Miss La Rue and the Denison teachers will devote much of their time Saturday to explaining the pictures. It is hoped that all patrons and pupils of the schools will plan to attend. A small admittance fee will be charged to defray expenses, and buy pictures for the school-rooms. Denison teachers have had this exhibit in view ever since last fall, and have been making a special study of many of the pictures to be exhibited.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Anna Leahy, nee Cousins, died at her home in this city on Sunday, April 9th. Mrs. Leahy has been ill for many months, but has been cheerful and hopeful through all. During the winter Miss Flynn, whose death occurred some time ago was also sick at their home and Mrs. Leahy bore her own affliction with all the greater fortitude to spare the feelings of her sick friend.

Mrs. Leahy was born in Clinton Co., Aug. 29, 1871, coming with her parents to Vail when but a child. Little less than three years ago she was married to her faithful and loving husband, Mr. Frank Leahy, and the last year of their married life has been spent in Denison. In this city and especially in Vail, where she was best known and dearly beloved, she leaves a vast number of friends to mourn the loss of a true and noble woman. Beside her husband and little daughter she leaves a father, sister and three brothers resident in Kansas City and a brother resident in Des Moines.

The funeral occurred today. Brief services took place at the home and then the sad-hearted friends and relatives followed the remains to Vail, making the same sorrowful journey but so recently made with the body of Miss Flynn. The funeral services were held at St. Ann's church Vail, Rev. Father Murphy officiating, and a large number of friends attested their love and sympathy by their presence. We sincerely sympathize with the husband who has thus lost his life companion, and with the little girl, too young now to feel the loss, the weight of which will grow as the years go by and she misses more and more the tender ministrations of a mother's hand.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to express our heart felt thanks to the many friends and neighbors who with kind deeds and gentle words helped us to bear our late affliction and bereavement.

A. H. Simmons and Family.
Mrs. Rhodes and Family.

Miss Elsie Butterworth, of Charter Oak, was visiting friends in this city a few days last week. Miss Butterworth will teach in Morgan this spring.
