

DENISON AND VICINITY

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

June 7-8.—Soldiers' Reunion.
June 12.—One Week Noble's Theatre Company, Special Car and Brass Band.

W. D. Faus has his house completed and has moved therein.

Mr. W. J. Scriber was a business caller at Omaha Saturday.

Henry Finern and Will Otto spent Sunday in West Side.

Mr. John McNertney of Manilla was a visitor in Denison Monday.

R. Shaw Van spent Memorial Day with his mother at Milwaukee.

Mrs. B. F. Philbrook will spend several days of this week visiting in Dnn-lap.

Mrs. Lehfeldt and Miss Minnie Lehfeldt leave for Chinoock, Montana next week.

Miss Probasco, of Charter Oak, was at the county seat last Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. H. S. Gulick of Marion, Iowa, is visiting at the home of her son, Mr. E. Gulick.

Among those going to Harlan Saturday were Prof. J. H. Holmes and Miss Bittenbender.

Mrs. Eugene Gulick returned on Friday evening from a pleasant visit in Des Moines.

A. J. Randall, the baggageman, has moved into the house recently vacated by W. D. Faus.

Mrs. Chas. Bullock is taking much pleasure in the possession of a fine new horse and carriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Moeller made a pleasant visit in Davenport last week returning on Friday.

C. E. Rickley, Deloit's enterprising merchant, was a business visitor in Denison last Saturday.

Mr. E. F. Wilson and family spent the first three days of the week visiting relatives in Woodbine.

Mrs. L. McCord, of Kenwood, accompanied by Miss Alma, were shoppers in Denison last week.

Mrs. Lou Gulick Martin of Madison, Wisconsin, is a welcome guest at the home of Mrs. Eugene Gulick.

A host of Denison friends were delighted by an over Sunday visit from Mr. H. L. Herrington of Boone.

Mrs. Chas. Galbreath was summoned to the bedside of her daughter, Mrs. Strohmeyer, of Mapleton, last Thursday.

Mr. R. L. Hill returned from a business trip in Nebraska last Saturday. He says his trip was a monumental success.

M. A. Rouillard is laid off with an injured hand. A chisel fell on it and sliced off quite a chunk making a painful wound.

We thought better of D. O. We did not think he would telephone over from Charter Oak that "it" was a boy when it was not.

Sylvia Cochran was the joyous recipient of a birthday party last Saturday it being the seventh anniversary of her natal day.

On account of the severe storm the dance to have been given by the Catholic society at the opera house on the evening of Memorial day was abandoned.

Our old time resident John Welch, celebrated his sixty-first birthday on Monday. He does not look within ten years of that age.

We understand that Dr. J. C. Robinson is about to enter into a partnership arrangement. We prophecy that the new firm will be a success.

Invitations are out for an afternoon reception on May 31st by Mrs. N. L. Hunt, Mrs. Scott Wheeler and Mrs. F. J. McCormick, at the residence of Mrs. Hunt.

Mr. John Way of Willow township was a Denison visitor on Memorial Day. Mr. Way has so many old friends here that a visit from him is always acceptable.

All the trains on the Northwestern were delayed Sunday by a washout near Cedar Rapids. On Monday forenoon a long procession of belated west bound trains passed through.

Mrs. S. Wheeler had a narrow escape last Thursday. While turning around with horse and buggy, the latter upset, throwing Mrs. Wheeler out. She escaped unharmful, but badly frightened.

We have it on the authority of one who stands high in "Northwestern" circles that the new passenger depot will surely be built this year, and that when it is finished it will be a building of which Denison will be proud.

Mr. R. H. Childress was in Denison Memorial Day. He subscribed for the Great and Only, saying that while he was a staunch democrat he wanted the REVIEW, because "IT IS THE BEST NEWSPAPER IN THE COUNTY."

Dr. Gibson was busy last week inspecting herds in Pocahontas and Chickasaw counties. He found many cattle infected with tuberculosis, brought about by unhealthy stabling. Be careful with your cattle, it pays.

Treasurer Lorenzen and family have been visiting friends in Walnut, Iowa the past few days. They made the trip overland, and must have had some bad roads to contend with. Auditor Carey took care of the treasurer's office during Mr. Lorenzen's absence.

J. D. Welliver as the "Janitor" in the Des Moines Leader, has a bit to say about the editor of the REVIEW. Jud is a young man of considerable promise. When he acquires some experience and a little knowledge of state politics we believe him capable of good work.

Mrs. L. M. Shaw came up from Des Moines Monday to see how much havoc had been done by the fire in their residence. Her visit was made brief on account of her social duties in Des Moines. As the "first lady of Iowa" Mrs. Shaw is proving a decided success.

The Des Moines Leader laments that there will be no one to take Curtis' place as editor of the Anamosa Prison Press. If the authorities will write Brother Stillman at Jefferson we believe he will furnish ample recommendations as to the fitness of a certain Flack to fill the position.

It is reported that two men tried to work an old game on one of our saloonkeepers a few days ago. The men engaged in a little fight with the intention that while the bartender was putting one man out the other would tap the till. The plan worked all right except that the bartender put both men out at the same time.

John Rockwitz had the misfortune to cut his finger quite severely with a saw last Monday. He will not be able to work for a week or so and contemplates a vacation trip to see the old folks at home at Council Bluffs. By the way John is the possessor of a very very handsome gold watch which he just received as a birthday present.

Mr. Alex. Christy met with a serious accident Thursday afternoon. While driving south on Seagrave avenue his horse became frightened, throwing him out, and the wagon passed over his body, breaking some ribs. Mr. Galbreath immediately took him to a physician where he received treatment, and is now feeling as well as could be expected.

Mr. N. R. Wilder will soon resign his position as book-keeper for the Stewart Lumber Co., and seek other employment which will give more out-door life. He has been an efficient and thoroughly competent bookkeeper and Denison will regret to lose him and his family from its precincts. We understand he will make a prospecting trip to Idaho after leaving his present position.

On Friday afternoon, May 26 three children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Seagrave of Denison. There were two girls and a boy and all seemed likely to weather the storms of infancy. Unfortunately one of the little girls was called back to her Maker. While there is sorrow and regret for the little life which went so quickly, there is joy and gladness for the son and daughter who still remain.

On Sunday Miss Cora Stewart of Manilla and Mr. A. E. Smith of Denison were married at the former place, Rev. Allen of the Methodist church officiating. The bride is one of Manilla's well known and accomplished young ladies and Eugene is one of Denison's most industrious and capable mechanics. The newly wedded couple came to Denison on Monday evening and will reside for the present with Mr. Smith's sister, Mrs. Lane. We sincerely wish them success and happiness.

Democratic papers are complaining that Congressman Hull announced that he would appoint a republican to West Point. Mr. Hull responds to the clamor by saying that there is not an instance where any democrat ever appointed a republican. Not only that but in the south no examinations are held and the appointment is entirely a matter of favoritism. The only difference between Hull and the democratic congressmen is that Hull had the honesty to declare his intention while they have not.

Weather has been a drug on the market all this year. The rains of the past week have been almost as unprecedented as was the cold wave of February. Crawford with its hills has had decidedly the best of it in the recent deluge the drainage being such that no considerable damage has been done. In the more level part of the state nearly every farmer can boast of a good sized lake in the center of his fields. The conditions are discouraging but we have faith in Iowa which has never had a crop failure.

A full account of the terrible railroad disaster near Waterloo will be found on page two of this issue. These accidents are appalling but it should be remembered that ten times as many people who are trespassers are killed every year by the railroads, than there are among those who are passengers. The people who will persist in walking on the tracks, jumping on moving trains and loitering about depot grounds should understand that they run 10 times the personal risk as do those who ride on the trains. Parents should be sure and keep their boys away from the tracks and switch yards.

FLOWERS FOR DEAD.

Memorial Day Fittingly Observed by Comrades and Friends.

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES

Absence of Holiday Features Enhances the Beauty and Solemnity of the Occasion.

To the old soldiers, yesterday's observance of Memorial Day was one of the most solemn, impressive and altogether appropriate services ever held here. Threatening weather prevented the usual crowd of the curious and careless, and those who went to the cemetery went with hearts fully in sympathy with the occasion and all that it means of sadness and of love.

Mr. W. A. McHenry was the marshal of the day and the procession was formed and marched to the cemetery in the order announced in our last issue. The Denison Cadets in their handsome white uniforms led as an escort of honor. The Sons of Veterans, the G. A. R., the W. R. C., and interested citizens followed in the order named.

Upon arriving at the cemetery a square was formed about the cenotaph and the exercises opened with the inspiring hymn "Nearer My God to Thee." The beautiful prayer for the dead was given by Post Chaplain M. L. Branch and the charge was read by Commander J. L. McClellan. Col. A. C. Weeks responded on behalf of the Sons of Veterans. The Cadets then fired the solemn salute to the dead, and the cenotaph representing the graves of all the soldier dead was tenderly decorated. The triumphant song "America" was sung by all, and the exercises at the cenotaph closed with a benediction by Rev. A. G. Martyn.

From the cenotaph the bands of loving ones passed from mound to mound decorating the graves of Denison's dead veterans. At each grave flowers were strewn and members of the Relief Corps responded with sentiments of loving remembrance. There are twenty-three union veterans sleeping in Denison's cemetery and two others, equally as brave and loyal, lie beneath the sod in the Catholic burial grounds. They were not forgotten as delegations of comrades had previously decorated their graves. Memorial Day as a sacred solemn day of sorrow for the dead and of joy for the Union which they saved has never been more appropriately observed.

DIED.

Mr. J. L. Nicholson, father of the Nicholson Bros., who are so well known throughout this county, died at the home of his son B. Y. Nicholson, on Sunday morning, May 28th, 1899. Mr. Nicholson was over eighty years of age and was a native of Ohio. He has lived in New Sharon, Iowa, for many years and it is here that his family of sons was raised to splendid manhood. Last fall he came to visit his sons in Denison and his failing health forbade his taking the home journey again in life. Personally we did not know Mr. Nicholson, but we know from the character of his children that he was a grand and noble man. We can imagine no more blessed old age than was his. Surrounded on every hand by love and kindness; seeing his sons successful and prosperous and much esteemed. Undeprived even in his old age of his wife's loving presence. We repeat that we can imagine no existence crowned with richer blessings. His loving wife and devoted sons will miss him sadly but will have the consciousness that they contributed continually to his joy in life and robbed death of its sting. The remains were taken to New Sharon for burial on Monday morning and we regret that the absence of the members of his family prevents us from giving more of the data of his well-spent and successful life.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Johanna Heiden died at the home of her son in Denison on Friday morning, May 26th, 1899. The funeral services took place on Sunday afternoon, Rev. Ilgen Fritz officiating.

Mrs. Heiden was well known to many of our people who feel that her long and well spent life cannot fail of its reward. She was born in the province of Halland, Sweden, November 3, 1826. She came to the United States June 18th, 1882, and settled in Denison, Iowa. She leaves five children to mourn her death, two daughters and three sons. Two sons and one daughter are living in Sweden, and one son and one daughter living here in Crawford county, the son in Denison and the daughter in Kiron. Mrs. Heiden's husband died in Sweden in 1865. She was a good Christian, ready to meet her Savior when the call came.

A brief official record of the doings of the peace conference at The Hague during the past week says: "Provisional proposals for mediation and arbitration have been submitted by the representatives of Russia, Great Britain, Italy and the United States." Destruction was dealt out to the gypsy people camped in the outskirts of Chicago by the terrific storm Sunday night. Ada A. Seed, a gypsy girl of 14, was fatally injured and in all the villages of the wanderers tents were overthrown, hats wrecked and camps flooded.

WHO ARE MISSING?

Postmaster Boynton Receives Notice of Probable Death of Two Denison Boys.

On yesterday postmaster Boynton received the following notice:

BLAIRSTOWN, IA., May 30.
At this place yesterday morning two boys claiming to be from Denison boarded the freight train, that went through the bridge near Cedar Rapids. As near as I can find out the boys were lost in the wreck in deep water, unless they left the train this side of there.

Respectfully,
I. B. FRAZEE.

The communication was turned over to Marshall Seemann and a diligent search revealed that the following boys were absent from the city and their whereabouts unknown: Joe Bowman, Joe Beselhan, Wells and Mahler. Their friends are anxious to hear from them and it is sincerely hoped that if any of them were on the train that they escaped the wreck.

STOOD 87 TO 1.

Additional School House Bonds Carried Last Friday by the Above Vote.

The election on the proposition to issue $7,000 additional bonds for the new high school building was carried by a vote of 87 to 1. It will be seen that but little interest was taken. Although the ladies had the privilege of voting as in the former election they failed to take advantage of the opportunity. The entire sum voted for the school house is $92,500 and with this sum a handsome and commodious structure should be erected. We trust that some provision will be made for a gymnasium in the new building.

DENISON LOSES AGAIN.

High School Meet Results 38 to 61 in favor of Harlan.—Denison Delegation Royally Entertained.

The result of the Denison Harlan High School field meeting was unfavorable to Denison. Our boys did well but went down before the superior prowess of the Harlan athletes. Supt. Failor is confident that the boys will do much better next year as they learned many things from the contest. The final score stood 38 to 61 in favor of Harlan. In our next issue we will publish the official record of the meet. The Denison boys were loud in their praise of Harlan's hospitality.

JUNE WEDDINGS.

Four notable weddings will take place in Denison during the month of roses. Des Moines may boast of its royal alliances but Denison may be prouder still of these royal young couples. Kings and queens, not by the right of birth, but by the divine right of brains and beauty, of splendid manhood and womanhood, regal representatives of all that is best in American citizenship. Long may they reign with happy homes for palaces, and with their empire build-ed strong in loving hearts.

BOYER VALLEY RAILWAY NOTES.

Baines has finished his contract with the Boyer Valley Ry. and moved his grading outfit from his camp three miles above Deloit to near Arion where he has taken a mile of work on the Ft. Dodge & Omaha Ry. under Mr. Lynch.

Morrissey Bros. have taken the contract to grade the heavy piece of work four miles north of Deloit.

Wagner will finish his grading some time this week and move to Missouri Valley where he has some city grading to do.

The heavy rain Saturday night carried away all of the bridge timber which was not well above high water mark and bent the false work on the big truss river bridge out of line.

F. Easley of the Boyer Valley Ry. and his party of engineers spent Sunday in Denison.

Two men were fighting in McCarthy's saloon on Saturday and officer Lou Baer went in to separate them. He grabbed one and took him outside, but the other man followed up and struck his companion a blow in the face. Baer would not allow his prisoner to be assaulted and he struck the assailant such a blow on the head with his club that the fellow seemed about to fall. Baer released his first prisoner to assist the falling man and when he had him steadied on his feet he found that prisoner No. 1 had escaped. The remaining pugilist was fined $10.00 and costs by the Mayor and is now doing time in jail.

16 to 8 was the score of the Denison-Dow City ball game played at the latter place on Memorial Day. Denison made 7 scores in the first inning, after which Dow City rallied and put up a pretty stiff game. The REVIEW is opposed to Memorial Day base ball.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Shopshire, Mr. and Mrs. Marks, and Haley brothers were among those who attended Memorial exercises yesterday.

Miss Lucy Haley of Kenwood is the guest of her friend, Miss Schafer, this week.

A. J. Bond is improving his commodious residence on Jefferson street.

Mr. Wildfang has been enjoying a visit from his father the past week.

R. B. Montgomery is raising his house preparatory to filling in his yard.

Church Notes:

BAPTIST.

We were pleased to have the opportunity of shaking hands with our brother, Herbert Harrington, from Boone who came out to spend Sunday with his friends and attend the Memorial service.

A union memorial service was held at the Baptist church yesterday morning by the Methodist, Presbyterian, German Methodist and Baptist churches of this city. Notwithstanding the disagreeable weather a large number were in attendance and a most enjoyable meeting was had.

In place of the regular evening service the Junior League gave a program in the interest of the home for missionary's children at Morgan Park, Illinois. The numbers on the program were well rendered showing that the Juniors had had careful and painstaking drill from their teacher, Mrs. Bateson. Owing to the storm several of the Juniors were absent thereby interfering slightly with the program. Those who listened to the program were well pleased and showed their appreciation by contributing $5.46 for the Home.

PRESBYTERIAN.

The Christian Endeavor Social at Mr. E. T. Cochran's last Friday evening was largely attended and a very enjoyable time had. A musical program was carried out and refreshments were served.

On Sunday evening a Memorial Praise Service was held, the congregation joining with the choir in rendering some very appropriate, sacred and patriotic hymns. The attendance was hindered by the inclement weather.

We republish in this issue some very pertinent advice from the Jefferson Bee in regard to the senatorial situation. While it may be policy for Polk and Des Moines counties to instruct for their respective favorites, the sanity of the situation is all against instructions in other localities. Too many changes may take place between now and January to warrant any convention in giving instructions at this time. Dolliver, Shaw, Larrabee, Cousins, Lacey, Hepburn, are all good senatorial timber, and time may present a much larger field than the present from which the legislature may select. Then, too, in close counties particularly there can be no advantage in making the friends of either candidate luke-warm in the coming campaign. Nominate good, trustworthy men who are in touch with the sentiment of their constituency and then leave them free to act as their judgment indicates at the time when action is required.

A deed was filed Monday by which the independent school district of Denison becomes possessed of W. R. Kirkup's residence in East Denison. The consideration is $1800. This is the first step toward the new school house.

The Great and Only is the only twice-a-week paper in Crawford county. Every issue of the REVIEW is better than any issue of our competitors.
